MORE SPANISH SHIPS RUN THE BLOCKAGE.

Carranza and DuBosc Expelled from Canada—Madrid Despondent and Revolution Threatened—Captain Philips Shows up.

Application for Exchange By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, June 9.—Application for the exchange of Lieut. Hobson and his men for Spanish prisoners will be made to Blanco today.

Maltreating Englishmen By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, June 9.—Still, the Journal correspondent at St. Thomas, cables this morning that Walter Bett, Secretary of the British consulate at San Juan, after fifty-six hours of imprisonment and gross maltreatment has been banished from Porto Rico by Governor General Macias on suspicion of having informed Americans of the mining of San Juan harbor after Sampson bombarded it. Thirty other Englishmen were arrested with Bett.

Passing the Blockade By Telegraph to Reflector. Key West, June 9.—Naval officers of high rank give credit to the persistent rumors that three Spanish warships have forced their way into the harbor at Havana. One report says that a Spanish battleship and two cruisers have entered the harbor.

Communication Broken By Cable to Reflector. Cape Haytien, June 9.—Up to 9 o'clock this morning there had been no cable connection with Santiago today. No further news from any source has been received from the American fleet.

Cables Not Working By Cable to Reflector. Port au Prince, June 9.—Nothing has been received from Santiago this morning. It is reported that cable communication is interrupted.

One Cable Clear. By Cable to Reflector. Kingston, Jamaica, June 9.—The West Indian company is still using the cable from here to Santiago.

Madrid Despondent. By Cable to Reflector. Madrid, June 9.—Bad news has been received here from the Philippines. It has made a deep impression upon the public. There is a calm but latent intensity of dissatisfaction which is only repressed by patriotic grounds.

At His Wits End. By Cable to Reflector. Madrid, June 9.—Corsea, Minister of War, refuses to send further instructions to Augusti, Captain General of the Philippines, saying that he has already cabled him to protect the honor of Spain and to resist to death. Salmerson is agitating for a national government. Declares that the ulterior views of the ministry has hindered patriotic action.

Go Ahead By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, June 9.—Lieut. Whitney told Secretary Alger this morning that Porto Rico is easy to invade and advised landing at Plaza.

Manila Fallen By Cable to Reflector. London, June 9.—The West Minister Gazette extra this afternoon says that Manila has fallen, whether into the hands of the insurgents or the Americans is unknown.

Despatches to the exchange telegraph company from Paris to Madrid say it is rumored that the Spanish garrison at Manila, fearing a massacre by the insurgents, has surrendered to the Americans. Foreign securities are greatly depressed today. Spanish fours are one and one half lower. It is known that public feeling in Spain is worse than at any time since the war began. Sagasta is searching for an opening in the direction of peace. The opposition is resisting and threatening to form a coalition. Objection to this is causing a revolution.

Philip All Right By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington June 9.—Captain Philip of the Texas, cabled Secretary Long this morning that he is alive and well, and is ignorant of how the report of his death originated. The department has never credited the rumor.

Troops Leave Mobile. By Telegraph to Reflector. Mobile, June 9.—Adjutant General Ceral has notified Secretary Alger that the effects of the fourth army corps have been packed and that the corps leave for Tampa today.

Afraid They'll Catch Him. By Telegraph to Reflector. San Francisco, June 9.—The American yacht Tola which is now in Asiatic waters has obtained the Austrian registry, the owner, Count Fostich, fearing capture by Spanish boats.

Army Appointments By Telegraph to Reflector. Washington, June 9.—The President promised today to appoint Gen. J. P. S. Cobin, of Lebanon, Pa., a Brigadier General of volunteers. The nomination will be among the next sent to the Senate for confirmation. Cobin is the Commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of Pennsylvania. A delegation has been making a strong fight for his appointment. Senators Quay and Penrose left President McKinley this morning satisfied with his assurance.

Senator Pritchard, of North Carolina, urged the nomination of Judge Whitaker, of Raleigh, for Colonel of one of the immune regiments. President McKinley was non-committal. Senator Faulkner, of West Virginia, asked to have a battery of artillery included in his State's quota of the second call.

The President had a conference with Senator Lodge and Representative Newland, of Nevada, on Hawaiian annexation question.

Spanish Ships Sighted. By Telegraph to Reflector. Key West, June 9.—It is reported that three Spanish ships have been sighted off Havana, one being a battleship.

New Yorkers in Camp. By Telegraph to Reflector. New York, June 9.—The Astor mountain battery went into camp today at Pelham Park.

UP-TO-DATE DICTIONARY

The following definitions are submitted for the purpose of teaching the young idea how to shoot the Spaniards, AMERICA—From the Italian words "Christopher Columbus," meaning "I saw it first, but the other chap beat me to the telegraph office." The Spanish pronunciation of this word is usually preceded and followed by large exclamations points.

BLANCO.—The patron saint of typewriting machines; also, an authority on mules.

BOMBARDMENT—To knock a certain portion of Cuba into the sea waves, and have that certain portion rise up next morning and say to the Spanish Minister of Marine: "They never touch me!"

BUTCHER—A term of endearment applied to Spanish gentlemen who build trochas and make life one glad, sweet song for the undertakers.

CERVERA—A juggler with ships; also a man who holds the long-distance record for keeping his ships out of harm's way. See Tennyson, Page 214.

"Swift keels are more than coronets,

So haste thee; disappear! Speedy, indeed, the man who gets Cervera, Vere de Vere."

COAL—A hard substance used by newspapers for the purpose of defeating the Spanish navy.

CUBA—A place that costs a lot of money to give away. Pronounced "Koobah" by some Spaniards, and pronounced a nuisance by young King Alphonso.

DEFEAT—A Spanish synonym for victory. See Cervantes, Page 93.

"Brave Don Quixote fell, and cried:

'O! Sancho Panza, see! The windmill runs the faster since It took the bread from me!"

FLEET—A flock of Spanish ships which runs around the ocean and declines to let its pursuers put salt on its tail feathers.

MULE—A sad-eyed animal of commerce; used principally by the Spaniard for triumphing purposes. See Bianco's poems of Passion, Page 73.

"O mule, in life thou served'st me well

A victory to denote; In death thy sirlion goes to swell My daily table d'hote." —Baltimore News.

He Climbed Into the Buggy and Saved a Child.

A thrilling scene was enacted on Main and church streets, Saturday afternoon, and by the heroic act of John Ramsey, an employe of Holman & Fuqua, a little daughter of J. S. Murray was saved from probably instant death.

The nurse was down town in the buggy with little Elizabeth shopping. They were in front of J. L. Cole & Co's store, and as they started to leave the lines dropped under the feet of the pony. While the nurse was engaged in getting them up, the pony made a dash and went off down Main street, with only the child in the buggy. He turned into Church street at a rapid rate, Mr. Ramsey seeing the condition of the child, rushed for the buggy and climbed in from the rear. He then crawled out on the horse, and succeeded in getting the lines, which were dragging, and brought the horse to a standstill before any damage was done.

The deed was a daring and heroic one. The father was a grateful man to his benefactor, and the whole town is singing the praises of Ramsey's brave act. He is worthy of a gold medal — Durham Sun.

The Pacific Swell

The Pacific, as everybody knows who ever sailed over its indigo bosom, is handicapped by its name, says The Washington Star. "Pacific is taken by too many people to be synonymous with millpond. This is a dismal error.

The Pacific is no mere often at rest than the Atlantic, and in any league of the voyage from San Francisco to Manila the soldiers are likely to find out the exact meaning of the old skippers' and Swiss Family Robinsons' allusions to "mountainous seas," that they have pondered over curiously, with the solid earth beneath their feet. Even on days when the Pacific skies are unblemished turquoise there is a Pacific swell a couple of blocks in length that makes old tars, at the outset of a voyage gasp for all the air they can crowd into their lungs. America naval officers departing from San Francisco for the China station, or for coast cruises, commonly become too sick for any use during the first couple of days out, and the writer knows of a Pacific mail skipper, who has made nearly three hundred voyages to and fro between Frisco and Panama, who never fails to put in the first day of his regular voyage between those ports in his bunk.

ANOTHER GOOD SUGGESTION.

CAROLINA TOWNSHIP, June 8th '98.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:—Feeling, as I do, the deepest interest in the success of the Democratic party, I write to endorse the sentiment of "A Subscriber" published in THE REFLECTOR of the 6th. Yes, let us get the very best material of our county to put before the convention for county officers and the legislative ticket. And let me urge my Democratic friends not to have too much material before the convention. Sometimes too many aspirants for the same office gets up a little hard feeling and weakens the successful candidate. Now let me suggest, that as "Subscriber" has named a good man for Register of Deeds, that we all say "hurrah for Dick Williams" and have no other candidate before the convention. This will add strength to him.

And now, I will name a man for Clerk of the Superior Court, who is known to everybody in Pitt county, and one that will make a most excellent officer. That man is D. C. Moore, of Bethel. Give us D. C. Moore for Clerk, Dick Williams for Register of Deeds, and their equals for the other county officers and the legislature and we may expect a return to good government in the county and State, and freedom from Republican mismanagement and misrule. DEMOCRAT.

Must Have Only the Best Men

A correspondent of the Greenville REFLECTOR truly says that "our success depends largely upon the good judgment used in getting out our very best men.

* * * I mean men whose career has been spotless."

Before the nominating conventions are held these words ought to be impressed upon every delegate. According to the figures of the last election the Democratic party is a minority party in North Carolina. There are many evidences that members of the other two parties are dissatisfied with the result of the present misgovernment that disgraces the State. Party ties rest loosely. There are thousands of voters who are this year going to vote for the best man. This of course means that the Democrats will make large gains, for by comparison its candidates are the fittest men to make laws. It is not going to be enough to present men who are merely better qualified than their opponents. We must name men for all places, from constable up, of such lofty character and integrity that people who want good men in office will be constrained to vote for them.

Put this out, paste it in your hat, and read it before you promise your vote to any man for nomination for any office.—Raleigh News and Observer.

Why Allow Your Child to Suffer.

Goldsboro, N. C. March 30—'98.

Mrs. Joe Person,

Dear Madame, My two small children were completely covered in running sores from impure blood, for which I could find no remedy, until I got a bottle of your Remedy. In a few days they were free of fever, and were well by the time the bottle was empty. I gave it after meals in sweetened water, and they begged for
it. Afterwards my little girl became restless at night, would scream as if in nightmare every little while until after 12 or 1 o'clock. I commenced giving her the Remedy on Thursday night and by Saturday night she was resting quietly. I shall continue to use it for my children.

Yours very truly,

Mrs. M. T. Witherington.

Washington June 9.—According to a Senator who was in Consultation with the President today, McKinley is contemplating the submission of a special message to Congress calling for the immediate annexation of Hawaii as a military necessity. The message will be delayed a few days to await the action that may be taken by the Reed Committee on rules, but probably will be issued early next week.

Sampson can establish communication with Washington at any moment. The Marblehead drove a Spanish gunboat into Guantanamo harbor and destroyed the fortifications. Insurgents and Spaniards are fighting daily.

Pearson Meeting.

Evangelist R. G. Pearson closed his ten days' meeting here on Wednesday night. The last day was the best of the meeting.

Mr. Pearson's subject for the morning service was "Baptism of the Holy Ghost." He made this much misunderstood subject clearer than any man who has ever preached here, explaining what the baptism of the Holy Ghost is, how it can be obtained, how retained, and the church's need of it. No sermon that he preached here was more helpful to Christians than this.

At the night service the subject was "Confession." Under this subject he spoke at length on the need of confessing sin, confessing Jesus as our Savior, Christ's final confession of His people, and the sinner's final confession of Christ. He appealed earnestly and tenderly to his audience not to let this last service close without confessing their sins and confessing Jesus as their Savior. The invitation extended at the close of the sermon embraced sinners who had never made a public confession and members of the church who were backsliders and there were a large number of both classes who went forward. Later when Mr. Pearson asked that all stand up who wanted to testify that they had been benefitted by his plain preaching of the Bible during the meeting, a great majority of the large audience rose to their feet.

Mr. Pearson could not remain in Greenville longer, and the interest at this closing service was so great that the home ministers decided that they would not let the meeting close then but would carry it on a few nights longer. So there will be services tonight in the Presbyterian church, when Rev. J. B. Morton will preach on the subject "How to Understand God." Tomorrow night Rev. N. M. Watson will preach, and at that time announcement of further services will be made. Let all of our people attend these services and pray for God's blessing upon them.

A Great Preacher

Evangelist R. G. Pearson left this morning for his home in Asheville. Just a few words in reference to him. His reputation as an Evangelist had preceded him here and our people had been led to expect a great preacher. Now he has come and gone we but voice the sentiment of the entire town and community when we say that a greater one has never been here and the only regret is that he could not remain longer. His greatness as a preacher consists chiefly in the following things: First, his own life, as near as possible, is pure. He impresses every body as a man who has been with God, who lives with God, serves God supremely, and thereby illustrates Christ-like traits in his every word and act. This gives him power with men. Again he believes, loves, and preaches the Bible, enforces every thought advanced with a thus saith the Lord, and who so trustfully believes that the Truth, or the Word, will make you free.

Coupled with this is his implicit trust in the Spirit to apply the truth, regenerate the soul and give force to the life. He uses no high pressure methods, no catch trap situations, and no human ingenuities to count converts. He preaches the Word and relies upon the Spirit. He preaches that there is sin and a Savior, that there is a Heaven and a Hell, that there is a reward and a punishment, and that the only way to receive the first is to accept the Savior and the without this the second follows inevitably. In other words he preaches what the Bible teaches, nothing more nothing less.

The results of the meeting have been such, we believe, as will last through time, and be known in eternity. What a blessed privilege to have such a man preach such truth in any community.

R. G. Pearson will long live in the hearts of the people of Greenville.
