Lettuce Eat.

This morning THE REFLECTOR received a basket of very fine lettuce that was sent up by editor Busler, from Winterville. A note that came along with the basket said that the lettuce was raised from "Skinner's free seed." Friend Busler showed himself a pretty good hand at growing them.

Can't Hold Out Long

By Cable to Reflector.

Kingston, Jamaica, June, 11—Reports of the famine in Havana continue and the situation every day grows more serious. It is believed that Blanco cannot stand a long siege.

Found in the River

By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, June 11—The body of a man about twenty eight years old, five feet ten inches high, dark hair and complexion, was found floating in East river at six o'clock this morning. His arms and legs were tightly pinioned by a rope wrapped around his body in many folds and knotted between the shoulder blades. The face was badly cut and bruised. It is believed to be the body of Joseph Britz, of Brooklyn, who disappeared June 1st with six hundred dollars belonging to his father.

Cervera Isolated.

By Cable to Reflector.

Aboard Dispatch Boat off Santiago 6th, via Kingston, Jamaica June 11—The American steamer Adria cut the Santiago—Kingston cable Sunday evening completely isolating Cervera.

Sampson Seems Irritated

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, June 11—Sampson this morning sent a long cipher despatch to Navigation Bureau from Fort Antonio said it contained news of the utmost importance. It is known that delay in sending troops to assist him in holding ground, means daily bombardment of Santiago and adjacent points and greatly irritated the Admiral. The message is supposed to deal with this phase of the situation, and urges upon the department the expediency of haste. He also communicated to the department the number and names of the ships he has sent to meet the reinforcement-convoys. Newest plan of the administration which contemplates holding the troop ships near Key West until Monday doesn't meet the approval of Sampson. He wants transports to sail so he won't have to relieve the fortifications one day only to have the work to do over again because of the lack of troops.

England for America

By Telegraph to Reflector.

New York, June 11—Sir Thomas Lipton the great English tea merchant arrived on Lucania this morning. He said all England is intensely interested in the war. Englishmen will not allow interference. England will attend to the European ring, leaving America to deal with Spain exactly as she pleases. England, if necessary, will send one hundred thousand soldiers to the assistance of America, we believe, if she will call on us. The whole world knows nothing can win against America.

Sampson's Approval of Hobson By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, June 11—In his report on the Merrimac Sampson says "I cannot too earnestly express my appreciation of the conduct of Mr. Hobson and his gallant crew. I venture to say a more brave or daring thing has not been done since the Cushing blew up the Albemarle. Referring to the inspiring letter which you addressed of your beginning war I am sure you will offer suitable professional reward to Mr. Hobson and his companion. I must add Commander Miller relinquished his command with the very greatest reluctance, believing he would return to his command under all circumstances. He was, however, finally convinced that the attempt of another person to carry out the multitude of details which had been in preparation by Mr. Hobson, might endanger their proper execution. There were hundreds of volunteers all anxious to participate; one hundred and fifty on the Iowa, nearly as many on this ship, and numbers on all other ships, of good men alike.

By Cable to Reflector.

Madrid, June 11—The Porto Rican deputies desire the immediate assembling of the chambers, and threaten to appeal to Spanish chambers if Macias opposes. If the demand is refused by Spain they will resign.

Found Forts in Ruins

By Cable to Reflector.

Campanera, Cuba, June, 10, via Kingston, Jamaica 11—Six hundred American troops landed here today and established a naval station. They found the forts in ruins.

Stop Chasing Ghosts

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Washington, June 11—Operations against Cuba are still suspended while convoys chase Spanish ships around the gulf. The war department is indignant at the navy departments timidity. Long says the convoys will return in time for the expedition to start tomorrow. The first part of the second Manila expedition is expected to sail today.

Health of Fleet Good

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Key West, June 11—The wet season has begun. Last night's showers refreshed everybody and everything. This morning's advices from Cuba report that health of the fleet remains satisfactory. Only forty-eight cases, one serious, and four in hospital.

Temerario Must Leave.

By Cable to Reflector.

Asuncion, Paraguay, June 11—Authorities have ordered the Spanish gunboat Temerario to leave.

Ship off Virginia Capes

By Telegraph to Reflector.

Newport News June 11—A despatch received from Washington this morning served to create quite an excitement at Fortres Monroe, caused by the report that Spanish warships have been seen off Capes. The despatch said there was one vessel, probably a German freighter. Officers continue to be vigilant.

SYRURDAY, JUNE 11, 1898.

Negro Organs and Negro Leaders.

The following editorial article is taken from the Washington Post, (Independent Republican) of June 7th:

We have very little time to waste on the negro newspaper and so-called leaders who do not approve of the Post. It is absolutely of no consequence to us whether they approve or disapprove. Their ridiculous claims to "recognition" are only tiresome. Their criticisms and denunciations of this paper affect us or intelligent public opinion about as much as the idle summer zephyr sways the Washington Monument.

What it cost the newspapers to report the news of Admiral Dewey's great victory at Manila may be judged from one illustration. On May 7 and 8 the Chicago Record received two special dispatches from Hong Kong, aggregating 2,886 words, for the transmission of which the telegraph company was paid $1,173.02.

We all naturally anxious for war to start, but when war comes we raise the preacher wages rather than the soldier's.

Cost of Dewey's Victory

Chicago Chronicle: War is an expensive luxury at best, but under modern conditions it is possibly the most costly thing known. Sea fights exceed in cost those on land, largely because of the cost of serving the enormous guns in the main batteries of warships.

The cost estimated in the foregoing paragraph is merely the cost of the projectiles hurled and the powder used to hurl them. It does not include the damage to the ships, if any were received, nor the fuel expended in maneuvering the fleet.

got a bottle of your Remedy. In a few days they were free of fever, and were well by the time the bottle was empty. I gave it after meals in sweetened water, and they begged for
it. Afterwards my litt girl became rest less at night, would scream as if in nightmare every little while until after 12 or 1 o'clock. I commenced giving her the Remedy on Thursday night and by Saturday night she was resting quietly. I shall continue to use it for my children.

Yours very truly,
Mrs. M. T. Witherington.

The father of Richmond Pearson

Boys Doing Well

Mr. J. G. Moye tells us that he went out to see the soldier boys while in Raleigh. He gives a good account of the boys and says they are getting along finely and are pleased with soldier life.

The Box Sent

This morning the ladies sent off a big box to our soldiers in camp at Raleigh. We can imagine seeing the pleased expression on the faces of the boys as they gather around the good things that box contains.

Take Notice

It is understood that a recruiting officer will visit us next week and in consequence a party of men are about to abscond. Destination supposed to be Chicod Creek. Hope they will be arrested before they depart, and sent to the front.

It Tells What is Going

Hardly a day goes by but what some one is kind enough to speak about the telegraphic services of THE REFLECTOR. The service is not as large as the big papers, of course, but THE REFLECTOR tells you every day just what has happened, while the big papers that come along 24 hours later can only tell how it happened. This bears out the claim that all of our people ought to take THE REFLECTOR. It is the only paper that gives you the news the day it occurs. The patronage is not yet large enough to fully justify the heavy expense of furnishing a telegraph service, but we go on giving it in the hope that our friends will all talk for the paper and turn all the patronage possible into the office. Subscriptions, advertising and job work all help us, and this office tries to merit your giving us these.

Those who desire to join the Baptist church are requested to meet the pastor, Rev. A. W. Setzer, in the basement of the Baptist church Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock.

Keep Up The Reform

One thing that the Pearson meeting accomplished here was getting the people out at church on time so that the service could always begin promptly at a stated hour. We know the home preachers hope this reform can be carried into the every Sunday services and that people will be there ready to begin at the appointed hour. A little practice in this will make it a habit and be helpful.

Laid at Rest.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:-

As I sit beneath the branches of noble trees on the beach near the deep blue, cruel waters that fold beneath their heaving bosoms the sleeping loved ones of the "good ship Maine," each ripple seems to come from some far distant shore and bring back to me fond, though sad, recollections of a happy past spent in dear old Pitt county.

So many changes have been made in so many different ways since I left Greenville in October of last year!

In a few days I expect to go to Cuba or Porto Rico with the first D. C. Volunteers to help retain American honor, even though I have to shed my blood in the effort. I am only a private, and am proud of even that.

After spending so many happy youthful days in Pitt county, where lies my heart and soul, where my truest friends reside, I feel it my duty to write one word to you in which I am to say good-bye, perhaps forever.

It seems so long since I have read the welcome pages of THE REFLECTOR. I have not seen a copy of it since I left Washington three weeks ago. THE REFLECTOR is always welcomed by me because it comes from my old home, from a place that is so dear to me.

I find camp life much easier than expected. I have learned to sleep on the bare ground with as much ease as a feather bed or a cold night. They feed us very liberally. For breakfast it is hard tack, bacon and coffee. At dinner we have bacon, coffee and hard tack. For supper coffee, hard tack and bacon.

The scenery here is beautiful. We camp about two hundred yards east of Tampa directly on the bay (Tampa bay). We cannot drink water in camp unless it has been thoroughly boiled.

On our way from Chickamauga park last Saturday several of the boys enjoyed for the time being reducing the number of melons in a patch. But after the officers found it out they were very sorry they had borrowed the patch.

I hear that Walter Pender was captured with the crew of the Merrimac. If so we will release him when we arrive in Cuba, which will be very soon.

I may never have another opportunity of reading THE REFLECTOR, and if you never hear from me after this kindly remember me as a private help-to-avenge the Maine.
