CRUSADE ON LOAFERS.

These Suggestions fit Almost Every Town

The Charlotte Observer today announces its victory in its march of invasion against the professional loafer.

From its editorial columns comes the news that it has routed them, foot, horse and empty boxes, barrels and whittling tools. It has forced the cities of Charlotte, Fort Mill, Rockingham, Rock Hill, and is moving on the enemy's camp at other points.

The Telegram suggests an unconditional surrender at Greensboro and will act as an intermediate in exchange of prisoners, if they will take our captives away.

To be plain and in earnest, we are afflicted in the same way. Everybody can get some work here if they want it. They can't get it by sitting around in other peoples way. Go around to the grocery stores, you will see a few men at each place who don't want anything, killing time—cutting off a piece of cheese, taking a cracker, eating a handful of cherries or something he don't expect to be charged for. Twenty such men are a charge on the mercantile portion of the town, and they can eat up a good bunch of stuff in a day. The amount each one takes is too small to make charge for, yet in a week it amounts to dollars.

Only this morning the writer noticed several places—at Clegg's wholesale house it was a handful of peanuts from an open sack, a banana off of a ripe bunch, a tomato out of an open crate, only a few peaches from a basket that had been opened to show a customer, but let twenty descend on them in the same way, and if any objection or remarks are made the cry is made "stingy."

Loafers have no place in an "up-to-date" business—they are in the way, and if any business man wants to entertain a friend he has the right to invite him. The Telegram wants to see every business house too busy to entertain or encourage loafers, and hopes to see the barlow knives forged into pruning hooks, and the empty boxes and barrels moved off the sidewalks and transformed into chicken coops, and the loafers enlisted in the company of Hustlers, Regiment No. 1, Brigade A No. 1 to do duty for the city.

If you can't be a cashier in a bank get a job as mortar mixer—get a move on and account to your God for every hour of daylight that he vouchsafes to grant you. Greensboro Telegram.

MORE SUGGESTIONS.

GREENVILLE, N. C., June 15, '98. MR. EDITOR: Having seen the article in your last week's paper signed "A Subscriber," I must say that I as a native of our good and grand old county of Pitt and feeling as all good citizens must feel, the need of having our county and State restored to good and honest government, I agree with him in being careful and trying to select the very best material to fill our State and county offices. I also agree with him in regards to our friend R. Williams. I know he is a good man, and thoroughly competent to fill the office of Register of Deeds and if nominated you will find me at the polls using every effort in my power to secure his election.

But in casting my eye over the county in search of material it strikes me that we have more than one good man among us, and I now propose to suggest the name of a man who is no stranger to a majority of the good people of Pitt county, as an honest, hard working farmer and a Christian gentleman and one that deserves promotion, if any true, honest Democrat in our county does. You will find him always in the front ranks fighting for the success of the Democratic party, ever ready and willing to discharge any duty imposed upon him. He is thoroughly competent to fill the office and if nominated will poll as many votes and come as near (if not nearer) leading the Democrats to victory as any man we can trot out. Nominate J. W. Smith, of Beaver Dam, and I think on and after the first Monday in December next you will see his gray head and smiling face in the Register's office, ever ready and willing to serve the good people to the best of his ability.

HENRY F. KEEL.

A Postmaster in Trouble.

W. C. Meadows, a merchant and Republican postmaster at Moravian Falls, Wilkes county, is in trouble. He owed a northern firm and refused to pay. Finally they wrote to the postmaster, not knowing that Meadows held that office and asked for the name of a lawyer. Meadows sent the name of his brother-in-law. The firm wrote the lawyer, but Meadows got the letter and later wrote the firm that the claim was no good. The lawyer later got a letter through the Wilkesboro post-office, and an investigation was asked for to find out who had been forging the lawyer's name. Postoffice Inspector Dexter had Meadows arrested and tried last week at Wilkesboro. He pleaded guilty to the charges and was placed under a $200 bond for his appearance at the Federal court. His wife is now acting as postmaster.

The following is a highly honorable record for the I. O. O. F. An exchange says that of the 100,000 volunteers already mustered in to free Cuba and to sustain the honor of the United States on account of the dastardly part the Spaniards played in blowing up the Maine, 21,645 are Odd Fellows.

'STRANGE, 'TIS PASSING STRANGE.

That All Who Suffer Do Not Use

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY.

HOPEWELL, MECKLENBURG CO N C. December 1st, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's Wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in thirty six hours the inflammation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If anyone is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what a medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for her Remedy as it deserves.

MRS. ABNER ALEXANDER.

FOR SALE BY JOHN L. WOOTEN, Greenville, N. C.

According to the London Daily Telegraph, which has exceptional facilities for obtaining official foreign news, the leading Continental Powers of Europe are considering the question of intervention between Spain and the United States on the basis of independence for Cuba and Puerto Rico and the retention by the United States of the Philippines as security for an indemnity not likely to be paid for many years. But if consideration in this matter should ever be transformed into conclusion the judgment of the Powers would be of no force or validity unless approved by Great Britain, and thereafter by the United States. If the Governments at Vienna, Paris, Berlin and St. Petersburg be really talking of intervention in other than stock diplomatic phrases they can be compared only to children playing with fire. They do not know how dangerous is the element with which they are tampering.—Philadelphia Record.

What Will We See ?

The captain of a fruit steamer recently arrived in New York from West Indian ports says that the peaceable Cubans have been practically exterminated since the declaration of war between the United State and Spain. This suggests that when our troops take Cuba and we are again put in communication with that island interesting revelations may be expected. Cuba has been practically a blank to us, since the day that Gen. Lee sailed out of Havana harbor. It will be interesting to hear what has happened on the island since then and to learn of the present condition of affairs.
Undoubtedly it has been bad for the Cubans, and however horrible the tale, the people of the United States will be prepared to believe it, holding always in mind the fate of the men on the Maine. And as to the wreck of our ship, what are we to hear? It would not be surprising to learn that the Spaniards have looted the wreck, robbing it of everything which they could turn to service, and that some of the guns of the Maine were made to do duty against our own invading army. The drawing of the curtain from Cuba may reveal things that will make the flesh creep.—Charlotte Observer.

Was it Providential?

On Monday a physician was called to see a lady who was sick and had three children depending on her for support and had no means of ministering to their needs, nor to buy medicine. Soon after the doctor left the house and was in a deep study of her sad case, he met a gentleman who asked him if he knew of any one in distress, as he had promised his dying mother that he would never work on Sunday, and if he should have to do so he would donate it to some poor person, and that he had made $15 by working on Sunday and wanted to carry out his promise. The doctor told him of the case he had just left and the gentlemen immediately bought provisions and nourishments and sent them to the lady, but refused to allow his name to be used when they were delivered.
It can truly be said in this case that the ways of Providence are mysterious.—Norfolk Virginian and Pilot.

There is no discounting the smartness of the Chinamen. They have a custom in that country of putting money in the graves of the departed to help pay ferriage and other expenses while traveling on to paradise. If they put good money the graveyards would in time become the banks; so they get around that by making an imitation money, taking it for granted that the ferrymen, gatekeepers, etc., that the dead per-son comes in contact with can't tell the counterfeit. The trick works all right, at least there has been no complaint.—Kinston Free Press.

It is a little remarkable how some people cheekily ask any and everything of a newspaper, and then when an agent calls to collect a year or two subscription already due, they get pouty and say they don't believe the paper is worth much anyway. Let such an individual build a hen coop with a notched roof and he will blaze like fury if the paper does not mention it, especially if said hen coop is whitewashed—whether in the Tom Sawyer style or not.—

AN ARMY OF INVASION

On last Monday at 2 o'clock an expedition under command of "Admiral" Hyman left fort Greenville for the purpose of invading the territory contiguous to Chicod creek. The squadron consisted of four protected cruisers commanded by Capt. Ed Harris, Geo. Woodward, Jim Cherry and Bob Moye. Feeling a little uneasiness concerning them "we" two of us left here in a buggy yesterday to pay them a visit. We found them "comfortably" quartered on the banks of placid Chicod, well armed with fishing rods and artillery with which they were waging a war of extermination upon the squirrels and fishes. The boys say they have not deserted, but on the contrary are waging war. We arrived just in time for breakfast. We were hungry and did over full duty to the meal. If you want a good meal, pay them a visit and "Admiral" Hyman will see to it that you get plenty of squirrel and fish to eat thoroughly prepared and cooked by Ed Foley, Geo. Woodard and Pig Forbes.

Ed Harris says tell the boys if they want to be treated white to pay them a visit. We left yesterday just in time to be in all the rain that fell from 4 to 8 o'clock, and arrived home safe after helping to devour 8 squirrels and half a bushel perch.

Stay there boys and we will pay you another visit. VISITORS.

STATE NEWS

The county has bought a car load of 8 inch tiling to be used to drain ditches across the public roads in some places instead of bridges. This is a good plan, we think.—Kinston Free Press.

A special to the News & Observer from Plymouth, dated June 14th, says that the night before the post office at that place was robbed. The safe was blown and contents taken. The amount of money stolen was about $600. No clue as to who were the robbers.
