Church Notes.

Rev. B. R. Hall, P. E. of the Methodist church, held quarterly conference Saturday night. He preached a magnificent sermon Sunday morning, but was too unwell to hold services Sunday night. He left this morning for his home at Goldsboro.

Rev. J. B. Morton preached two excellent sermons in the Presbyterian church Sunday. He returned to his home in Tarboro this morning.

The doors of the Presbyterian, Methodist and Baptist churches were opened Sunday morning for the reception of members. There were two received at the Presbyterian church, nine at the Methodist church and thirteen at the Baptist church. The ordinance of baptism was administered at the Methodist church by Rev. N. M. Watson Sunday morning, and Rev. A. W. Setzer of the Baptist church baptized twelve in the river at six o'clock Sunday afternoon.

OUR TELEGRAPH SERVICE.

For nearly three months THE REFLECTOR has been giving its readers a daily telegraphic service, furnishing the news every day just as it occurred. This has been done at great expense to the paper and much extra labor to the editor and force. We doubt if another editor in the State, or elsewhere, has done the same amount of work that we have had to do to furnish such news. The editor of THE REFLECTOR has served as his own telegraph operator, receiving all the press despatches himself and editing them in readiness for the printers, besides looking after his local reporting and office duties. No one unacquainted with it can realize what taxing, almost killing work this has been.

Of course giving this telegraphic news has to some extent increased the patronage of the paper, but not near enough to justify the extra expense incurred, to say nothing of the increased labor. Every week the service has been given we have lost money by it. Besides this, for sometime now the news has been of such a nature as to be not worth paying for. Such as came could not be vouched for, the news associations in order to fill out their contract to the required number of words having taken to the habit of sending out rumors one day and correcting them the next. This has been both annoying and unsatisfactory, in that readers of such news could not know at the time of reading it if it was true.

Another trouble has been the delay on the part of the telegraph people in getting the service to us, making it very late in the afternoon before we could get THE REFLECTOR out.

For all these reasons taken together we have decided to stop the telegraphic service for awhile, both to save the expense while the news is not worth paying for, and to take some rest that we sorely need. Our readers can rest assured that we will closely watch what is going on and THE REFLECTOR will keep them informed of all important occurrences connected with the war. And just as soon as the news becomes of sufficient interest we will begin the regular telegraphic service again. We are not stopping it permanently, but only temporarily.

With this explanation we hope no one who has subscribed to THE REFLECTOR because of the telegraph service will withdraw his name. By continuing your patronage you will help us to some extent regain what we have lost in giving the service so far, and it will show that you appreciate what we have already done. Bear in mind that THE REFLECTOR is going to keep you up with the news.

Plucked from Earth to Bloom in Heaven

When the grim monster death enters the home and lays his remorseless hand upon father or mother, a cold, cheerless feeling steals over the soul of those left behind, and they wonder at the mystery of God's providence. But when mother and father both are taken into the cold and hollow tomb, and not content with thus ravaging the home and harrowing the hearts of the innocent children of tender years, death comes again and claims for his victim the young, tender, beautiful flower of maidenhood, the heart and soul looks up into the dim vista of mystery and exclaims, "Oh that I might understand the wonderful mysteries of God's providence." The pulse almost ceases to beat, the heart almost stands still with awe, and exclaims, "When will we understand."

On Saturday morning, the 19th inst. at the early dawn of day, 4 a. m. when the merry songsters came forth to chirp their native song of praise. When the heralds of the day God were sounding the blasts of morn the spirit of beautiful and lovely Miss Reeka Fleming, daughter of the late Thomas Fleming, winged its flight from earth up to the Paradise of God, and on the wings of morning, soared aloft to catch the spirits of father and mother who were waiting the coming of the beautiful angel daughter, and convey her through the ether blue to the great white throne of Him who has said, "come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you in the skies." Only fifteen summers had she gladdened the hearts of loved ones and friends, beautiful in form, face and character. She was loved by all who knew her. Only a short month had she left the scenes of school life under the training of that matchless hand and influence of Miss Nannie Cox, of Winterville, N. C., full of hope, unconsciously beautiful in all the graces of pure, young, innocent maidenhood. She was seized at once upon arrival at her aunt's, Miss Addie Fleming, with typhoid fever from which she never recovered.

Father, mother, daughter at rest side by side, awaiting the great day of Him who is the resurrection and the life. Weep not loved ones and friends. Another link has been forged in the chain that binds us to heaven and to God. Another harp has been tuned in the great Mistletoe of glory.

"Earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal." Thy beauty is plucked from earth to beautify and adorn the great white throne of Him, "who doeth all things well." A FRIEND.

President Ragsdale

At the annual meeting of the North Carolina teacher's assembly held last week at Asheville Prof. W. H. Ragsdale, of our city, was elected president of the association for the ensuing year. This is a compliment worthy bestowed for there is no man in North Carolina who will take more pleasure in discharging his duty as president of the teachers' association than Prof. Ragsdale. There is no organization in the state that has for its purpose the upbuilding and establishment of nobler and higher principles than that of the teachers' association and as the head of this organization Prof. Ragsdale will see to it, because he knows how, that its influence for good, will if possible be placed upon a higher plane.

We congratulate the teachers' assembly upon its wise selection and Prof. Ragsdale for his eminent fitness to fill the position with credit both to himself and the association.

UNITED STATES BONDS

United States bonds are recognized as the most secure and stable form of obligation that investors can hold. They are attractive, not only because of the absolute security offered, but because there is at all times a public market for them on which holders can quickly sell; and they also offer the most desirable form of collateral if the holder wishes to secure a temporary loan. The fact that United States bonds are not subject to taxes of any character—Federal, State, or municipal—is a valuable feature of that form of investment. United States bonds are issued in both coupon and registered form.

COUPON BONDS.

A coupon bond is payable to the bearer. It may be bought and sold without formality as freely as any kind of property and without indorsements of any kind. Owing to the freedom of transfer coupon bonds are usually preferred by persons who expect to hold them but a short time. Their disadvantage for the person who wishes to make a permanent investment lies in the danger that they might be lost or stolen, in which case the loss to the owner would be as complete as would be the loss of a bank note. The coupon bonds take their name from the method by which interest is collected by the holder.

Printed on the same sheet with the bond is a series of coupons or small certificates of interest due, which are so designed that one is cut off at each interest period. Each coupon bears the number of the bond and shows the date of the coupon's maturity. The holder of a coupon bond at each interest period, detaches the coupon due that day and collects it. The coupons are payable at any Sub-Treasury, and may be collected through any bank, and will usually be accepted by any merchant having a bank account, with whom the holder of the bond has dealings. The holder of a coupon bond may at any time have it converted into a registered bond free of charge.

REGISTERED BONDS.

A registered bond is payable to the order of the owner, and can only be transferred by being properly indorsed and assigned by the owner. Such assignment is made by the owner filling in the blank form on the back of the bond, and must be witnessed by some officer authorized by the regulations of the Treasury Department to witness assignments. The owner of the registered bond who wishes to part with it writes his name on the back of the bond in the presence of the officer; then the witnessing officer writes his name in its proper place and affixes an impression of his official seal.

The officers who are authorized to witness assignments are a United States judge, United States district attorney, clerk of a United States court, collector of customs, collector or assessor of internal revenue, United States Treasurer or Assistant Treasurer or the president or cashier of a national bank, or if in a foreign country, a United States minister or consul. In cases where there is no officer within a reasonable distance, or when, through sickness or for some other good reason, the owner of registered bonds can not go before one of these officers, the Treasury Department will designate some person near the owner to act as witness.

When the owner of a registered bond disposes of it and has properly assigned it, he delivers it to the new owner, who should at once forward it to the Register of the Treasury for transfer on the books of the Department. The Register cancels the bond so forwarded and issues a new bond in the name of the new owner, and ends it to him by registered mail. The Department makes no charge for transferring bonds.

If the owner of a registered bond loses it, or if it is stolen from him, he should at once notify the Secretary of the Treasury. A stoppage will be entered against the bond, and, if it should be presented for transfer, the Department will hold possession of the bond until the ownership is clearly established. If a lost or stolen bond is not recovered within six months, the Department will issue a duplicate bond upon proof of loss and a bond of indemnity being furnished.

The interest on registered bonds is paid by the Government by means of checks. In order that no mistake may be made in the payment of interest, the books of the Department are "closed" for a period, varying according to the importance of the loan. The books of the four per cent loan of 1907 are closed for the whole month preceding the payment of a quarter's interest. On other loans the books are closed for fifteen days preceding the interest payment. During this period no transfers are made, and the time is devoted to preparing "schedules" which contain the names of the owners, the amount of bonds each one holds, and the amount of interest due each one. When these schedules have been prepared and proved, they are sent to the Treasurer of the United States, who immediately has checks and envelopes addressed, and in due time each check is mailed to the address of its owner. The checks for the more distant points are first mailed. Interest checks are obligations of the United States, and, of course, are good everywhere.

Coupon bonds are issued in denominations of $20, $100, $500, and $1,000. Registered bonds are issued in denominations of $20, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000, $10,000.

HOW TO SUBSCRIBE FOR THE NEW BONDS.

The war loan which is now being offered will be sold to subscribers at par during the period of subscription, which ends July 14, 1898. The method of subscription has been made as simple as possible. Blank forms may be obtained at every money-order post office, and at most of the banks and express offices, and on these forms is clearly indicated all that it is necessary for the subscriber to fill out. The subscriber may himself mail to the Treasury Department at Washington the blank form filled out, together with his remittance covering the par value of the amount of bond for which he wishes to subscribe. That remittance may be in whatever form best suits the subscriber's convenience—in currency, bank draft, check, post-office money order, or express money orders. The day the currency is received, or the day the proceeds are received from the checks, drafts, or money orders, the subscription will be entered and will immediately begin drawing interest. When the bonds are delivered, a check will accompany each delivery covering the interest at 3 per cent from the day the subscription is entered to the 1st of August, the date of the bonds, and from which date the bonds will carry their own interest.

JUDICIAL CONVENTION.

A Democratic convention to nominate a candidate for Solicitor of the 3rd Judicial District of North Carolina, to be voted for at the ensuing November election, is hereby called to meet at 1 o'clock P. M., on July 6th, 1898, in the public hall at Rocky Mount.

The counties in the District that have not held conventions to select delegates to this convention will take notice hereof and govern themselves accordingly. By order of the Committee:

F. S. SPRUILL,

Chm. Dem. Ex. Com. Third Judicial District.

Penalty is Severe.

After the first of July be sure to put a two-cent stamp on every check or draft. Parties failing to apply these stamps will be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction fined not less than $50 and imprisoned not less than six months.

The stamps will be on sale at the Internal Revenue offices throughout the country. It is better to be ready than to go to jail. A tax on the earnings of the trusts would have raised the necessary money and saved this inquisitorial burden. But the trusts elected McKinley and must not be touched!—Raleigh News and Observer.

STRANGE, 'TIS PASSING STRANGE.

That All Who Suffer Do Not Use

MRS. JOE PERSON'S REMEDY.

HOPEWELL, MECKLENBURG CO N. C. December 1st, 1896.

Last June I was suffering terribly from some bladder trouble which was so severe and extreme that the physicians said an operation would have to be performed and the stone crushed. I dreaded it so much and had so much faith in Mrs. Joe Person's Wash that I determined to try it first and see what it would do. I applied it three times a day and in thirty six hours the inflammation subsided, the swelling and enlargement was reduced and the stone passed without any trouble. The stone was large and no one can know except those who have so suffered what it was. I do not believe I could have stood an operation and believe I would died had it not been for Mrs. Joe Person's Wash. If anyone is suffering from this bladder trouble let them try it. My pain would be so great I would have to be put in a tub of hot water to relieve those terrible paroxysms of pain. It made a perfect cure of me. Oh, that everyone could realize what a medicine is within reach and try it, how much suffering would be relieved. Mrs. Person herself does not say as much for her Remedy as it deserves.

Democratic Nominees or Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.

Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Craven.

Fifth district—Thos. J. Shaw, of Guilford.

Sixth district—Oliver H. Allen, of Lenoir.

Seventh district—Thos. A. Mc-Neil, of Robeson.

Eleventh district—William A.
 Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by districts conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large.
 Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves.
 Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed
 McIver, Democrat.

A Tune For Grant.

While Meade's army was marching out of the Wilderness, a drum corps in passing Grant's headquarters caught sight of the chief and at once struck up a then popular negro camp meeting air. Every one began to laugh. "What's the fun?" inquired the general. "Why," was the reply, "they are playing, 'Ain't I glad to get out of de wilderness!'"
 The general smiled at the ready wit of the musicians, and said: "Well, with me a musical joke always requires explanation. I know only two tunes—one is 'Yankee Doodle,' and the other isn't."—San Francisco

Ancient Posters.

It is probably the general impression that posters and handbills are modern inventions, but it has been discovered that the ancient Romans practiced this method of advertising.
 In digging at Herculaneum there was brought to light a pillar covered with bills, one on top of another.
 The paste used to stick them was made of gum arabic. The bills, when separated and examined, were found to be programmes and announcements of public meetings and even election proclamations.—New

There are people living in every neighborhood who will travel twenty-five miles every week in the year to see a circus, who would not spend one penny to put a newspaper in the hands of their children. To such men the antics of a buffoon in a circus convey more knowledge than all the books and newspapers ever published. It is well for their children that we have a system of common school.—Orange Va.

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

Pitt Rifles Flag.

Below we publish the letter to Col. Cowles which accompanied the flag sent to Co. E. Second regiment U. S. V. It has the true ring, and the young ladies are to be commended for having the boys remembered.

GREENVILLE, N. C., June 16.

Adj. Gen. A. D. Cowles, Raleigh, N. C. In accordance with your recent approval, in behalf of the ladies of Greenville and other friends, we forward to you today by express a beautiful silk flag to be presented to Company E. Second regiment N. C. V. Pitt Rifles, in token of the love, confidence and best wishes of those left behind for the brave boys, who have enlisted in the defense of their country's honor.

May the silken folds be to them an ever-attending reminder of the heart-beats, pulsating in the breasts of every one at home, as if 'twere one continuous prayer, for their safety, while nobly discharging the duty laid upon them.

Present the flag at such a time and in such a manner as may seem to you most fitting.

The delay in sending it is due to an error in the wording made by the manufacturers.

Wishing for you a speedy recovery from your recent accident, and with great respect for you and the boys. We are most sincerely,

MISS SALLIE LIPSCOMB,
MISS AYLMER SUGG,
MISS BETTIE TYSON,
MISS ROSALIND ROUNTREE,
MISS HELEN PERKIN,
MISS ANNIE PERKINS.
