TODAY'S WAR NEWS

Will Raise the Colon—Bombardment of Santiago Soon to Begin

Washington, July 8.—A wrecking tug with full equipment leaves Norfolk today for Santiago to try to raise the Christobol Colon, and to save valuable paraphernalia of the other Spanish warships destroyed by the American fleet.

Admiral Sampson has been ordered to force the Santiago channel and cooperate with Gen. Shafter in a general assault upon the city not later than tomorrow.

A Spanish privateer with five guns was reported off the coast of British Columbia today.

Gen. Miles has sailed for Santiago to join the other army leaders there.

Sampson and Shafter will begin their combined attack on Santiago tomorrow.

The Hawaii annexation resolution passed the Senate by a two-thirds majority. It now only needs the President's signature to become a law.

PRESIDENT'S PROCLAMATION

Wants the People to Give Thanks.

Washington, July 6.—President McKinley, at 11:40 o'clock tonight, issued the following proclamation to the American people.

To the People of the United States of America:

At this time when to the yet fresh remembrance of the unprecedented success which attended the operations of the United States fleet in the bay of Manila on the first day of May, last, are added the tidings of the no less glorious achievements of the naval and military arms of our beloved country at Santiago de Cuba, it is fitting that we should pause, and stay the feeling of exultation that so naturally attends great deeds wrought by our countrymen in our country's cause, should reverently bow before the throne of divine grace and give devout praise to God, who holdeth the nation in the hollow of His hand, and worketh upon them the marvels of His high will, and who has thus far vouchsafed to us the light of His face and led our brave soldiers and seamen to victory.

I, therefore, ask the people of the United States upon next assembling for divine worship in their respective places of meeting to offer thanksgiving to Almighty God, who, in his inscrutable ways, now leading our hosts upon the waters to unscathed triumph, now guiding them in a strange land through the cloud shadows of death to success, even though at a fearful cost, now bearing them without accident or loss to far distant climes, has watched over our cause and brought nearer the success of the right and the attainment of just and honorable peace.

With the nation's thanks let there be mingled the nation's prayer's that our gallant sons may be shielded from harm alike on the battlefield and in the clash of fleets, and be spared the scourge of suffering and disease while they are striving to uphold their country's honor; and withal let the nation's heart be stilled with holy awe at the thought of the noble men who have perished as heroes die, and be filled with compassionate sympathy for all those who suffer bereavement, or undue sickness, wounds and bonds, by reason of the awful struggle. And above all, let us pray with earnest fervor, that He, the dispenser of all good, may speedily remove from us the untold afflictions of war and bring to our dear land the blessings of restored peace and to all the domain now ravaged by the cruel strife, the priceless boon of security and tranquility.

WILLIAM McKINLEY.

Executive Mansion, Washington, July 5, 1898.

A BEAUTIFUL LETTER.

Col. Cowles Sends a Reply to the Young Ladies.

State of North Carolina, }
Adj't Gen's Office, }

RALEIGH, N. C., July 7th 1898.

MISS ATLMER SUGG AND OTHER YOUNG LADIES,

Greenville, N. C.

DEAR YOUNG LADIES:

Your letter and the handsome flag for the Greenville company were duly received. Every one thinks it the prettiest flag ever seen here and it is hard to decide which is the prettiest, your beautifully expressed letter or the banner. Your intense patriotism and love of country would make weak strong, faltering brave and inspire every one to noble deeds of valor. The women in all wars have been great forces of encouragement or discouragement to men. Their influence is always of a most positive kind. They are never neutral or negative. If men would be towards them they fear the scorn of brave women. So you see in the order of things, though you are not expected to bear arms or to go through conflicts, you are contributing to the American cause in no less degree by your moral sympathy at home.

Not being physically able to respond to the honor you conferred upon me, I delegated Col. Burgwyn to present this token of love and affection of the soldier boys of your city but in special recognition of your compliment, I drove out to Camp Dan Russell to witness the ceremony. Capt. Smith responded in appropriate words. There was great enthusiasm on the part of soldiers and spectators and when the company went to its quarters with the band playing, it seemed to me from their manifestations that they were wild with delight.

Your letter, Col. Burgwyn's remarks and Capt. Smith's remarks will be enrolled on the company record and will constitute an honorable page of history for posterity to gaze upon.

I thank you sincerely for all you have done and for the sympathy expressed for me in my accident. I am happy to say that I will soon be myself again and my ambition will be gratified upon the fact that I will be able to go with my regiment.

I trust that the path way of life for you young ladies will be strewn with flowers and that you may fully realize all your hopes and aspirations.

With profound admiration, I am

Yours very truly,

A. D. COWLES,
Adjutant General.

Given an Ovation

Off Juragua, July 7.—Hobson and his crew were exchanged yesterday by the Spanish on even terms. They were escorted through the lines by Captain Chadwick amid wild demonstrations on the part of our troops. They were taken on board the New York where they received an ovation. Hobson says they were well treated while imprisoned and he and his men are in excellent health.

Died.

Death has cast another dark shadow of sorrow over one of our homes. Little Maggie Conleton, aged 5 years and 6 months, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Conleton, died at 2 o'clock this afternoon, after an illness of several days with typhoid fever.

We extend sympathy to the sorrowing parents in their bereavement. May the Great Comforter give them His presence and sustain them through their severe affliction.

Smokeless Powder.

In the engagements on land near Santiago as well as in naval operations the Federal forces have been hampered...

It is quite probable that we should have had nothing but smokeless powder in the army and navy long ago...

Before many months shall have elapsed, however, the advantage of the enemy due to our non-use of smokeless powder will have disappeared...

In addition to the New Orleans the Marblehead and the Newark have been provided with full supplies of smokeless powder...

plies of smokeless powder, and a number of our auxiliary cruisers have also been furnished with it. Large orders for the new explosive have been placed by the Navy Department...

The Tax on Telegrams.

Perhaps no one of the new war taxes creates more annoyance than the one-cent tax on telegrams.

Nobody ought to object to the tax itself. To the ordinary citizen it is much too trifling for that whatever it may be to great establishments that send multitudes of telegrams...

Yet he is in a hurry. Otherwise he would not send a dispatch at all.

The whole difficulty may easily be overcome if the Treasury Department will authorize telegraph companies to keep blanks with engraved stamps on them, charging the extra cent on each message...

Nowhere else in the world is it truer that "time is money" than in the sending of telegraphic dispatches. The new tax is trifling in itself to all but a few. It ought also to be made as trifling as possible in its demands upon the time of busy and hurried men.

The arguments in favor of an income tax are so simple and so just that it is difficult for the opposition to come out in the open ground. All the articles of comfort and the necessaries of life in common use by the poorer people are taxed to pay for this war...

First Bale of War Cotton.

The first bale of cotton of this season's growth has been ginned at Pearsall, Erie county. It was sold at auction to-day at San Antonio, and will be shipped to President McKinley to be made into gun-cotton for the battleship Texas.

North Carolina is the only State in the United States whose elections are controlled by the vote of the colored people, and consequently this State has more colored officers than any other State in the American Union.

Had you thought of this? The Republican party is now the dominant party in this State, and three-fourths of that party in this State are colored men.

As a consequence you will find that:

- 1. North Carolina is the only State that has a colored Congressman.
2. North Carolina is the only State that has a colored U. S. District Attorney.
3. North Carolina is the only State that has a colored State Inspector of fertilizers.
4. North Carolina has more colored members of the Legislature than any other State.
5. North Carolina has more colored postmasters than any other State, there being seven in one county.
6. North Carolina has more colored magistrates than any other State, there being seventeen in one county alone.
7. North Carolina has more colored registers of deeds than any other State.
8. North Carolina has more colored school committeemen than any other State.
9. North Carolina has more colored county commissioners than any other State.

White men of North Carolina, what think you of these things?—Pittsboro Record.

A Brave Commander Thanks God.

Just after the great victory last Sunday, Capt. Philip, of the Texas, called all hands to the quarter and with bared head, thanked God for an almost bloodless victory. "I want to make public acknowledgement here," he said, "that I believe in God the Father Almighty. I want all you officers and men to lift your hats and from your hearts offer silent thanks to the Almighty."

Sententious Sayings.

- The biggest fish stories come in bottles.
A single spade in the hand is worth more than a tray of diamonds in the pack.
A girl's features may be stamped on a young man's heart, but it's always her complexion that looms up on his coat collar.
A woman may know just what to say but she invariably adds more to it.
The man who has never loved but once may have experimented a good deal.
A young man, with a slender salary should marry a girl with a small waste.—Chicago News.

Men are like hogs, however distasteful this may sound to hogs. When a hog gets an ear of corn, every other hog will trot along behind and squeal and whine and beg, but just let the front hog get his head fast in a crack and every son of a sow will jump on and tear him to pieces. Just so with men. As long as a man is prospering and has money he can't keep friends off with a base ball bat. The moment he is not only snubbed by former alleged friends but they begin to do him all the harm possible. When a man starts up grade the world falls behind and pushes, but he starts down grade the world steps to one side and greases the track.—Durham Sun.

Democratic Nominees of Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

- First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.
Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Crayen.
Fifth district—Thos. Shaw, of Guilford.
Sixth district—Oliyer H. Allen, of Lenoir.
Seventh district—Thos. A. McNeil, of Robeson.
Eleventh district—William A. Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by district conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large. Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves. Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed McIver, Democrat.

A Sad Picture.

In their cold room the man and his wife are asleep, she on the broken armchair, he on the floor. The candle, crumbling into cascades of tallow, hardly illumines with its red light their faces blue and black. They have fought, as they always do before whisky makes them fall, stunned. Seated on the cot, without blankets or even a sheet, the little three-year-old boy cries of hunger and cold. But his elder sister, six years old, takes him from his bed, wraps him up in a shawl wherein there are more holes than wool, and having nothing else to give to him soothes his pain, warms him and puts him to sleep in her thin arms by dint of kisses. Heightened by celestial love, the little girl, with her large blue eyes and transparent skin, is already as beautiful and serious as a young mother.

Prof. von Bunge, in a recent lecture delivered in Germany, desired to "warn people against German beer, which is the most dangerous, because it is the most seductive of drinks."

The Undertaker's Welcome.

At the recent reunion at Leavenworth, Kan., a local undertaker thought he was showing the proper spirit when he displayed a banner in the window with these words on it, "Welcome, comrades."

An Oberlin President certifies that "During all my experiences as a professor—27 years in all—I have never observed any difference in the sexes as to performance in recitation." The boys may now pluck up courage.

Breeze in the Senate.

Washington, July 6.—In the Senate this morning quite a breeze sprung up in connection with a joint resolution offered by Mr. Pettigrew tendering the thanks of Congress and the American people to Commodore Schley and to the officers and men of the squadron under his command for highly distinguished conduct in conflict with the enemy, resulting in the destruction of the Spanish fleet, July 3d. There were some pretty severe reflections made by Pettigrew and others upon Sampson, and some defence of him was made by Senator Hale and others.

Mr. Stewart said Sampson's dispatch was very unfortunate in not mentioning the fact that Schley had taken any conspicuous part in the engagement. That had misled the American people and had created a very unpleasant impression. No one needed an expose of the exact facts more than Sampson, because his reputation was very much damaged by the facts now before the public.

Mr. Hale said Sampson's detailed report had not been received, and he had no doubt that with that calmness and deliberation which characterized him, he would give full credit to all the officers and men entitled to it.

Failed to Show Up.

It seems that the Greenville colored men were not alone in backing out from going into the army. The Raleigh Post says that four or five of the colored companies "flunked" when the time came to move to the camp. The fighting talk had become too warm for them.

Will Have Hose

At the meeting of the Town Council Thursday night a committee was appointed to look after purchasing a supply of good hose for the steam fire engine. This is a step in the right direction.

More Harmful Than Spaniards.

The United States Government has been getting $114,000,000 a year in licenses from the liquor traffic. The present war tax will add to this amount 30 million dollars more—in round numbers 140 million dollars from this traffic which does more to destroy the republic than anything else in it. To get this sum the United States gives permission for this traffic to get from the people one billion dollars a year and give in return nothing save ruined character, wrecked homes and wasted property. The property of this State, real and personal, is less than 300 million dollars, according to tax valuation which would make about one half billion dollars in actual value. The liquor traffic costs this country one billion dollars a year. The value of two states like North Carolina is wasted in this traffic every year and the government permits this waste of life and resources that she may get 140 million dollars a year as license fees. The liquor traffic is doing our people far more harm every year than an invading army of Spaniards could do. Shall this state of affairs continue? It rests with the citizens of this country to say, for they are the government.—N. C. Baptist.

Landmarks

The landmarks of New York City are being rapidly removed. Every old building was well known to citizens while it occupied its position, but as fast as they are being pulled down they are forgotten. So with the advertisers who, in the past, have been "landmarks," so to speak, in the newspapers. Once out of the papers and they are forgotten.—Fame.
