ASKING FOR PEACE.

Promotions Among Army Officials

Late Friday afternoon THE REFLECTOR received the following news by wire from Washington:

Spain has asked for peace through regular diplomatic channels.

Roosevelt, of the Rough Riders, has been promoted to the position of Colonel. Wood has been raised to a Brigadier General, and the others who were Brigadier Generals before the Santiago fight have been raised to Major Generals.

The President has ordered Gen. Shafter not to attack Santiago unless success with his present force is certain.

The session of the House closed with the members singing "Dixie" amid wild cheering from the galleries.

Fleet Foundered.

Washington, July 9.—Information has been received here that the entire fleet of eleven lighters that were sent to Santiago by the War department, foundered in a storm off the Cuban coast. No lives were lost.

Santiago will be vigorously attacked at noon today unless the city is sooner surrendered.

Camara's fleet starts home today from Suez.

Vengeance of Alphonso's Loss

While not a great or powerful ship the Alphonso XII was a serviceable cruiser. The naval officers are happier over her destruction than of any vessel remaining in the Spanish navy. She occupied the berth of the Maine, and when the latter entered Havana harbor it was to the Alphonso's buoy that the Maine was moored, while the cruiser moved her berth to the next station above. While it has never been established who planted the infernal mine which destroyed the Maine, the officers of the Alphonso XII never have been cleared of suspicion, for it is said that the only practicable means of planting the mine in the position where it must have lain would have been through some agencies on the Alphonso XII.

Cubans Will Not Work.

General Young on Monday refused to issue further rations to the Cubans until advice is received from Washington in answer to his expose of the situation here. The Cubans refuse to assist in the hospital and commissary departments, claiming they are soldiers and not laborers. The same answer was given by them to General Baker when he asked the Cubans to help open the roads for the transportation of supplies to the front. This, together with General Garcia's not preventing the entrance of General Parado's reinforcements into Santiago de Cuba, has caused discontent among the officers and troops. He placed the Cubans in a separate camp, under police regulations, and turned them over to Clara Barton for rations.

STATE NEWS

OUR BOYS IN CAMP.

Camp Dan Russell, Co. E., Raleigh, N. C., July 8, 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR.

We have had so much to do that I have not felt like writing lately. In fact, don't now, but as I promised to do so, I will try.

Heretofore we had nothing to do after supper but to answer to roll call at 8:30 P. M. But now we have school for an hour beginning at 8. Last night at school we were informed that instead of squad drill at 8 A. M. we would have battalion drill. The battalion was on the march by 8:15. About 9 o'clock Maj. Dixon's horse got tired and was sweating pretty freely and the Major commanded the battalion to halt and rest in the sun for about eight or ten minutes. When he called us to attention we thought of course that he was going to carry us back to camp. But he thought not, for we got to camp at 11, after a three hours' drill. I don't know when we will have a squad drill or whether it will be omitted from the programme. They may give us the usual 5 o'clock battalion drill or substitute some other for it, certainly we don't expect to get rest along about here.

One company is having target practice now. We haven't had any, but will have it by and by.

The flag was presented as you probably saw in the Raleigh papers. It is certainly beautiful and the men all appreciate and love it. The men from Pitt will always remember the noble ladies who gave it. It was presented by Col. Burgwyn in a very pretty speech, accepted by Capt. Smith, who gave it to Sergeant Bowden from Oxford. The statement made in the papers that we are the regimental color company is a mistake, that honor belongs to company H.

We paraded the streets of Raleigh the 4th, and were allowed to go to the A. and M. College to see the fireworks that night.

Yours truly,

A. D. JOHNSTON.

Leather as a Smallpox Disinfectant.

Mr. W. W. Harris, of Rock, Rowan county, sends us the following taken from the Richmond Examiner of January 17, 1863:

The shavings or scraps of leather burned in localities infected with smallpox is said to be a sure disinfectant against the disease. The recipe comes from an old physician whose practice has largely been a long smallpox patients for the past thirty years, and who, in all that time, was never called upon to treat for smallpox a workman in leather, either as a shoemaker or tanner. The theory has been put in practice in Castle Thunder with very good success, no cases having occurred since the burning commenced. The remedy is simple and within the reach of every one and is certainly worth a trial.—Concord Times.

Isn't it Funny

England has perpetrated a pun on our war, and let it not be lost. "What are United States' reasons for going to war? Maine and hu-mane." And this is paralyzing dear old London.—New York Tribune.

Congress thought the insurance companies would pay the tax of 8 cents on every $100 of insurance, but most of the big companies have decided to shift it off on the insurers. Of course! The consumer and the bottom man always pay the freight.—Raleigh News and Observer.

SATURDAY, JULY 9, 1898.

WASHINGTON LETTER

From our regular Correspondent, Washington, D. C., July 8, 1898

Good news and lots of it has been the most striking feature of the present week. But the rejoicing over the destruction of Cervera's fleet was somewhat lessened by news that was not so satisfactory from Santiago.

Mr. McKinley is constantly called upon to decide disputes between the two fighting branches of the government. Gen. Shafter telegraphed to Washington that Admiral Sampson had positively refused his suggestion, that his fleet should be taken into Santiago harbor so as to co-operate with the army in bombarding and attacking the city.

Admiral Sampson has been much criticised in Congress because of his failure to even mention Commodore Schley's name in his dispatch announcing the destruction of Cervera's fleet, when it was well known that Schley was in command and directed the fight that resulted in the destruction of the Spanish fleet.

dore Schley and the officers and men under him for destroying the Spanish fleet. Mr. Berry said of this resolution: "I propose that the officer to whom the glory is due shall be recognized. Schley is the real hero of the incident. He and the brave band of officers and men under his immediate direction are the ones who achieved the victory, and all honor should be given them."

Everybody was delighted when the news came that Gen. Shafter's offer to exchange some of the Spanish prisoners for Lieut. Hobson and his men had, after once refused, been accepted by the Spanish commandant at Santiago. It was especially desired that Hobson and his men should be out of the town before we started to bombard it.

The opposition grew tired of the one-sided contest in the Senate and the annexation resolution was voted upon and adopted, as everybody knew it would be whenever a vote was reached.

Senator Hoar's protest against the adoption of an imperial colonial policy by this government, made in a speech favoring the annexation of Hawaii—it seems a little paradoxical to favor the annexation of some particular island and oppose the taking of any others, but that is Mr. Hoar's position—caused a sensation in the Senate, especially on the Republican side.

Wheat in North Carolina.

The Wilmington Star has lately been discussing at length the subject of wheat growing in this State. It commented on the large yield made by Mr. Frank Olier of Charlotte, and on several other large yields reported. The latest is from Sampson county, where a Mr. Newman averaged twenty-five bushels to the acre.

If it were not for the cheap western grain North Carolina would be one of the greatest wheat and corn-growing States in the Union. The principal drawback to wheat culture is the cost of commercial fertilizers, which are almost absolutely necessary on our soil.

There is usually more danger in an elopement than any other kind of runaway.

Love makes the young man on the rear seat of the tandem make the wheels go round.

Some men overwork themselves trying to live without work.

Elderly gentlemen seem to have a penchant for younger ladies

On the Pacific coast the shoddy army contractor has already begun his nefarious operations. Many of the uniforms supplied to Kansas, Nebraska and Tennessee regiments were worthless, and the troops are delayed while they are being replaced. The material of the blue uniform shirts which have been furnished had little or no commercial value, and would dissolve into rags after a single wetting.

Pointed Paragraphs.

The microscope of love usually steers clear of an old bachelor's heart.

When a girl thinks a man doesn't care for her she begins to try to make him.

A successful physician is one who is able to relieve his patients of good fees.

It's bad form to drink too much wine at dinner and it's bad taste in the morning.

Some men exert themselves more in trying to borrow a dollar than in trying to earn one.

A woman's idea of wrong is something a man does that would be a mistake if she did it herself.

Don'ts for Hot Weather.

Don't do to the sailboat what Hobson did to the Merrimac.

Don't try to pronounce the names of those coast towns of Southern Cuba.

Don't bother yourself concerning the whereabouts of that Cadiz fleet.

Don't let your patriotism cool too rapidly.

Don't tell the graduates that you thought so too when you were just out of school.

Don't let your interest and taxes eat too much.

Democratic Nominees or Superior Court Judges

The Democratic nominees for Superior Court judges whose nominations were ratified by the Democratic State Convention are the following:

- First district—Geo. H. Brown, Jr., of Beaufort.
Second district—Henry R. Bryan, of Crayven.
Fifth district—Thos. J. Shaw, of Guilford.
Sixth district—Oliver H. Allan, of Lenoir.
Seventh district—Thos. A. McNeil, of Robeson.
Eleventh district—William A. Hoke, of Lincoln.

These men were nominated in their respective districts by district conventions but they are to be voted for in the State at large. Judges Brown, Bryan, Allen and Hoke are now on the bench and are named to succeed themselves. Shaw is named to succeed Adams, fusionist, and McNeil to succeed Melver, Democrat.

HE WAS A BRIGHT BOY.

Got the Best of His Father in a Matter of Pronunciation.

There is a certain man who by the sweat of his brow—in summer time—earns his bread as a government official with an office in the big State, War and Navy building, relates the Washington Star. He also earns bread for a wife and three likely children and a servant, who manages to carry a slice of pie along home with her bread about three evenings in the week. But that is the cook's privilege always.

This official has a son aged thirteen, who is very nearly as sharp as the father thinks himself to be, especially in those things that everybody ought to know and not one person in a dozen does know. About three times a week the father comes to the office loaded with some new information, which he seeks to impart to his fellow-clerks by the inductive method. That is, he induces them to show how little they know, then he springs it on them. His strong point is words and their pronunciation, and he thinks he is an authority.

The other evening while he was entertaining three or four of his office friends at a small supper the eldest boy spoke up from the far end of the table: "Say, pop," he inquired, "how do you pronounce Ne-w-o-n-e?" and the youth spelled it out slowly.

"I presume," replied the father with the courage of his convictions, "that it is an Indian name, and by the rule I would pronounce it Ne-wo-ny."

"But that isn't the way," dissented the boy. The father was never more surprised in his life. "I don't quite see how it would be euphonious any other way," he said, with a mild air of offended intelligence. "What's the matter with pronouncing it new one?" inquired the boy, with a loud irreverent ha ha, and the blow almost killed father.

The Manufacture of Alibis.

"In all my experience at the bar," said a Chicago lawyer. "I never had so close a shave as Judge Blank gave me. I was defending a man charged with larceny and had worked up a beautiful alibi for him. I brought in two fellows who swore positively that at the very hour when the crime was committed the prisoner was working as a bricklayer, with his hands upon a building in the vicinity of one of the western railroads."

"Everything was working smoothly and my client's case looked like a foregone conclusion. The judge asked him: 'How did you get that building located?' 'I instantly told him, giving the exact location by streets and the lot number.'"

"Well, that's queer," the court continued. "I've owned that lot for the past six years and I never knew before that there was any kind of a building on it."

"But the jury evidently preferred to believe my witnesses instead of believing the judge, for they acquitted my man just the same. I don't think any confidence now, however," he added, "in assuming that Judge Blank probably will not have to pay them on the building which my witness claimed on the lot."

"A Grand Country."

A travelling American made a visit to Greyfriars churchyard at Edinburgh. The sexton was a man of Aberdeen-shire, and his heart was in the Highlands, plainly. The visitor had been at Greyfriars before, and said to the sexton, as the old man pocketed his fee: "I have seen your Highlands since I was here last." "Oh!" said he, with inimitable Highland intonation, "and had ye never bene there before?" "No, I have never been in Scotland before. I live in America." "Oh! 'Tis a grand country that." "America? It is, indeed!" The old man looked up in utter surprise. "Nay, nay," he said, impatiently, "the Highlands! A grand country!"

A Highly Respected Colored Man Dead

On July 5th Ellis Tucker, colored died from some trouble of the heart. He suffered greatly for several weeks. Many of the citizens of Greenville knew him favorably, and especially the Masons and Odd Fellows of the county, as he was a splendid and trusted nurse, always at his post of duty. He was an upright, honest, good citizen and lived as he died, without an enemy. He was a member of the Baptist church for fifteen years and belonged to the colored Masonic Lodge and was buried by the order with very impressive Masonic honors. X.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS

Made by the Orange Va Observer.

Our girls are all in favor of annexation, but not to Hawaii.

If that Spanish fleet goes to Manila, Dewey will smash the Camara.

It is reported that the island of Cuba is not large enough to hold General Miles' porcelain bath tub. This accounts for his remaining in Washington.

Every successful business man hears the growling and snapping of jealous but inferior competitors, who seek to injure him by innuendo and falsehood. Martial law should be declared against such cowardly curs.

Advertising Study for Clerks.

There are many clerks employed in stores who are earning small salaries, and who could easily be of more service to their employers and infinitely benefit themselves by being able to write advertisements.

The average business man dislikes to write his advertisements. He leaves it to the last moment, and the work is in many cases done imperfectly. Should one of his clerks be able to relieve him of the responsibility undoubtedly that employee would become more and more of value.

Supposing a man applied for the position of clerk in a store. Would he not be more apt to get the place if he could say to the storekeeper, "I will not only clerk for you, but I will attend to your advertising?"

A young man has an advantage, because he has a knowledge of the goods, and has only to learn how to put his knowledge in readable form. He has but to tell in type what he tells the customer every day. A little careful observation as to what arguments he uses to convince a buyer that this or that is better than what some one else sells will enable him to form the ground work for an advertisement about that article.

A Shut Out.

The Tarboro base ball club is meeting with great success on the diamond this season, and have won nearly every game played. In a game at Wilson Friday afternoon the latter town was completely shut out, the score being 5 to 0 in favor of Tarboro.
