Tetter on the Hands.

For several years I was a sufferer from Tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples, and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from the scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one-half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well.

GREENVILLE NEGROIZED

Gov. Jarvis Tells How it was Done

RALEIGH, August 6, 1898.

W. H. BERNARD, Esq., Editor the Morning Star.

DEAR SIR: In response to your request for an account of how the town of Greenville was turned over to the negroes by the Republican-Populist-Fusion Legislature I submit the following statement of facts:

The county of Pitt has a population of about thirty thousand people and is one of the finest agricultural counties in the State.

Greenville, its capital town, has a population of about three thousand people and is a growing, prosperous town. A majority of its voters are white men, and if the people were left to select their officers by any fair or usual method they would be certain to choose competent white men.

The town, however, is the home of one of the leading Republicans of the State, and being under obligations to the negroes he planned to have the town turned over to them. And here is the way it was done. The fusion Legislature of 1895, adopting his plan, divided the town into four wards. The boundaries of these wards were so turned and zigzagged as to put a majority of negro voters in the first and third wards, and a majority of white voters in the second and fourth wards. The first ward is shaped very much like a large broad-axe, with a very long handle, and the third ward is like the letter V. The next step in this devilish plan was to confer upon each of the wards having a majority of negro voters the right to elect two councilmen each, and to restrict the white wards to one councilman each.

At the town election in May, 1897, the negroes availed themselves of the power given them by the Republican-Fusion Legislature and took charge of the town. They elected four negroes councilmen while the white people could elect but two. Thus we had a board composed of four negroes and two white men. This board elected a white Republican mayor, a white chief of police, a negro assistant policeman for the day, a negro policeman for the night, and a negro clerk to the board.

The taxable property of the town is near three-quarters of a million of dollars. The board of councilmen levy the taxes and order expenditures. It may be interesting to know how those who levied and spent the taxes ranked as tax payers. One of the negro councilmen paid 84 cents taxes on property, another 63 cents and the other two nothing. So the four negro councilmen who controlled the board paid $1.47 taxes on property for the support of the town. The white Republican mayor paid 43 cents on property and the white Republican chief of police did not do quite so well, he paid only 30 cents. The negro clerk paid nothing and the night watchman nothing. The negro assistant policeman paid $5.75. The nine men who control the town, levy its taxes and spend the money paid all together $7.75 and leaving out the assistant negro day policeman, the other eight paid $2.20. The revenues of the town for the year from May, 1897, to May 1898, was about $3,500, of which about $2,800 went to pay salaries and fees of office or place holders. The white Republican mayor and the white Republican chief of police were both indicted at September term, 1897, of Pitt Superior court for gambling. They confessed their guilt in open court at January term, 1898, and were re-elected to the same offices by the negro board of councilmen in May, 1898. The mayor has since resigned to enter Internal Revenue Service and a better man, a Populist, has been elected in his place, but the town is still in the control of the negroes, as they again elected four negro councilmen at the town election this year and these negro councilmen have in turn elected the same number of negro officials with one exception.

There are numerous instances in which towns have been divided up into wards to keep the towns out of the hands of the negroes, but this is the first instance, of which I have any knowledge, where white men deliberately divided up a town into wards for the purpose of turning it over to the negroes.

For one to properly appreciate the real condition of things in Greenville it is necessary for him to go there and see for himself. But for the forbearance of the white people trouble might have come long ago. They have fully determined to be patient and forbearing and to appeal, as they are doing, to their white brethren throughout the State to send men to the next Legislature who will undo this great wrong and wipe out that infamous act of 1895.

THOS. J. JARVIS.

A Splendid Book.

"Eastern North Carolina as a Tobacco Producing Section" is the title of a 34 page book prepared by Mr. O. L. Joyner and recently published for distribution among the farmers in the eastern counties. It is the best book on tobacco culture that we have yet read. Besides the excellent article written by Mr. Joyner himself, it contains a number of valuable letters on the culture and management of a tobacco crop from prominent farmers of this section. This book will prove of vast benefit not only to Greenville but to other eastern markets. It is written with that spirit characteristic of Mr. Joyner, always eager to accomplish the greatest possible good for his section of the State. While the book would have given him an excellent opportunity to enlarge upon his own business, this is never once referred to in its pages, his sole purpose being to show what Eastern North Carolina has done and is doing, and the advantages it offers. Such a book is well worth preserving and reading over and over again. The thanks of the entire tobacco trade and all other business interests are due Mr. Joyner for this splendid work.

Buying Enthusiasm

Enthusiasm is good capital to invest in your business. It is worth paying money for. Yes, since you can buy enthusiasm for money. Try it and see how certainly you can do it. Some time when you feel only a languid interest in your business, yank something out of stock and cut a great chunk off the selling price—a chunk worth white; a chunk that will compel people to want the goods at the revised price. Then advertise in your newspaper and tell the people what you have done. Tell them the truth, and your selection of a leader has been wise you will soon find things stirring not only in your store, but in your breast as well. What if you do lose a few dollars on the goods so advertised? If you have aroused your own interest in your business by arousing the interest of others you have bought enthusiasm at a very low price. Try it. It is better than spring medicine for that tired business feeling.—Brains.

Big Breaks

The tobacco warehousemen had the largest breaks today of any since the season opened and it looked like old times to see the tobacco rolling in. Every house had a fine sale and it was well on in the afternoon before the sales were completed. The farmers were jubilant over the high prices obtained. They know that the Greenville market is the place for high prices.

"SUB ROSA" FORGES AHEAD.

Makes a Record and Sets a Fast Pace for all Coming Events.

Last Tuesday night should be underscored on the "Sub Rosa" calendar as the one in which it surpassed all former endeavors to entertain its members and their friends, and to prove its object, the promotion of the social welfare of Greenville. Miss Sallie Lipscomb acted as hostess, and well deserves the thanks of her guests for the charming manner in which they were entertained. The house was tastefully decorated with burnt orange and blue, while the grounds were made brilliant by numerous Chinese lanterns. Directly under these were rustic benches and tete-a-tete chairs, hammocks and cozy nooks in abundance. The candles in some of the lanterns, however, were too short, since several went out in a most sudden and mysterious manner. Assisting Miss Lipscomb to receive were Misses Lillian Cherry, Fosalind Rountree and Bettie Tyson. Miss Margaret Skinner and Will Lipscomb, Jr. stood at the door, the latter holding a large waiter of dainty bouquets, and the former pinning one on the lapel of each gentleman's coat. The compliments received by this pair were well calculated to turn the heads of a more worldly couple than they.

At twelve o'clock refreshments were served. Mrs. Lipscomb proved an admirable chaperon and did the honors of her home in a most hospitable manner.

All wish long life and health and prosperity to "Sub Rosa" and with the Governor of South Carolina, hope "it will not be long between drinks."

The members and their guests were as follows:

- Miss Sallie Lipscomb with Henry Strause.
- Miss Lillian Cherry with J. B. Lightfoot.
