GENERAL LEE'S PRIDE.

Is His Command the Seventh Army Corps

General Fitzhugh Lee was at Richmond yesterday on a flying visit.

He came down from Washington and left for Jacksonville this afternoon.

He is looking well, and says he never felt better in his life. He has lost fifteen pounds since he has been in Jacksonville, and says he hopes to lose more in the next few months.

The General talked freely with a Dispatch reporter. He says he was offered the commissionership in Cuba by the President, but declined it, and asked to be allowed to continue at the head of the Seventh Army Corps. His request was readily granted, and he was told that his corps, which had been reserved all along for the invasion of Cuba, would be sent there about the 1st of October as an army of occupation. The War Department thinks it better to hold the army in Jacksonville until cooler weather sets in, but General Lee was informed before he left Washington that in event of any trouble occurring sooner in Cuba his army would be ordered there forthwith. Being asked if he anticipated any trouble in Cuba, General Lee said he did not, though he could not, of course, tell what might happen.

"I have, though," said he, "the finest army corps in this country, and if anything does happen I will be able to handle it to the Queen's taste."

"Do you really consider the Seventh Corps the finest in this country?" quired the reporter.

"I most assuredly do," replied the General. "It is a magnificent body of men, and is the equal, if not the superior, of any army I know of."

General Lee is devoted to his corps, which the War Department authorities say has given them less trouble than any in the army. There is not the slightest doubt that General Lee is destined for Habana, and his corps will be the army of occupation in and around that city, and perhaps will be distributed over a great portion of the island. He will be military Governor of Habana, and probably of the island.

The Governor's Guard and the First Regiment are in Lee's corps (the 7th), which is the largest in the army. It has now 26,000 and will have 32,000. Its corps' badge is a 7-pointed star.—Richmond Dispatch.

LET US HAVE GOOD MEN

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

A determined effort upon the part of Democrats can and will carry Pitt county in the coming election. The people want a change. They are aroused as they have not done since the days of Rich and Laffin. If strong men of ability and character, who will inspire a confidence in the people are put forth as candidates, victory and triumph will be certain. Here is a winning ticket for the Legislature; F. G. James for the Senate, Thos. J. Jarvis and R. L. Davis for the House. For county officers, G. M. Mooring for Sheriff, D. C. Moore for Clerk, R. Williams for Register of Deeds, James B. Cherry for Treasurer and such men for the other places, as these in point of character, ability and integrity. These men cannot refuse to run if the convention of Democrats nominate them. They are patriotic and they can and will serve their country in such an hour of peril.

This is a fight for white supremacy and good government and in such a fight the people of Pitt county will choose wisely. Down with the pie hunters. SENEX.

Butler a Straight Out

Dallas Texas, August 20.—Marion Butler, chairman of the Populist National Committee, addressed several thousands persons at a middle-of-the-road Populist meeting at Greenville this afternoon. Butler and Milton Park, anti-fusion leader, became reconciled as the result of Butler's speech.

Butler declared that he would hereafter exert every effort in and out of committee for pure Populistic principles and independent action, and would abide by the letter and spirit of the resolution adopted at the national meeting held at Omaha on June 12th. He pledged himself to call a convention in 1900 to nominate a Populist national ticket at least thirty days ahead of either the Republican or Democratic conventions.

This declaration was greeted by the wildest cheering.

The Mexican papers catch on to the news. One of them informs its readers that "at a meeting between President McKinley and Admiral Cervera the other day, Cervera drew a pistol and shot McKinley dead." And yet some people say the Spaniard's can't shoot.

Devious Definitions

- Weathercock—A vain and glittering thing to a spire.
A—The one letter in the alphabet that makes all men mean.
Divinity—A doctrine that is more preached than practiced.
Sense—About the only thing of which the common brand is best.
Conclusion—Something a woman will jump at as quick as she will at a mouse.
Insincer—The majority of tombstone epitaphs and letters of congratulation.
Philosopher—A man wise in his own estimation and a fool in the estimation of others.

CAPTAIN PHILIP'S NEW START

Gallant Commander of the Texas Was Converted by Dr Tupper

Rev. Kerr Bovee Tupper, pastor of the First Baptist church of Philadelphia, has entertainingly told a Young Men's Christian Association audience in Brooklyn how Captain (now Commodore) "Jack" Philip, of the Texas, became converted. It occurred a year ago, when Dr. Tupper was conducting an evangelistic service in Emanuel Baptist church, Brooklyn, and the doctor tells of it thus:

"After the sermon this man came up and shook hands with me, telling me he was Captain Philip. He said he had everything in life to make him happy, a lovely wife, a fine home, a high position, hosts of friends, but he lacked something. He was a believer in Christianity; he believed in the atonement; he believed as a literal fact the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ. He desired to do good and be good and help others, but he lacked something. He needed to be born again, he thought.

"We went to the vestry and talked it over. He was knocking at the door like a child and his desire was to enter. He told him how the door would be opened unto those who knocked.

"He came again the next Sunday and sat listening just as thoughtfully. And when the sermon was over he took me by the hand again, quietly and strongly, and when we reached the vestry he said:

"It has come to me; I am born again."

"He went to the navy yard and called the crew together and told them that he had given himself to Christ, and as long as he was commander of the ship he would have religious services on board every day.

"One of the jackies of the battleship Texas says he believes the ship lost her 'hoodoo' at the time of that first religious service on board."—N. Y. Dispatch, 15th.

An income tax should be made one of the issues in the coming congressional election. Such a tax is needed now; it is needed badly, and we should have it. The millionaires of the country should be made to pay their part of the war tax.—Orange (Va.) Observer.

The stockholders of the Pullman Company have just received a special 20 per cent. dividend, which added to the usual 2 per cent. quarterly dividend makes an aggregate of $7,920,000 in distributed profit. The capital stock of the company has been increased to $54,000,000. There is great comfort and convenience in the Pullmans; but these huge dividends would seem to indicate that the public are paying too much for this particular luxury.—Philadelphia Record.

Two Bears Caught

Mr. T. H. Mathson, of Piney Grove, Craven county, has had a bear trap on his farm for a number of years in which he has caught 42 bears. He caught one on Saturday last which weighed 250 pounds and another one on Tuesday which pulled down the scales at 275. The bears were killed and divided among neighbors; the hides were shipped and sold for about $10 each.—M. C. Pilot.

He Drew the Line

An Irishman went into a restaurant and asked for a 'square meal.' The waiter brought him a bowl of soup, which Pat drank with relish. She then brought in some celery which soup went the same way as the soup. The waiter then brought in a fine lobster. He looked at the lobster a moment and then rebelled. "Madam," he said, "I've drank your dish water and ate your bouquet, O'll be aggoned if O'll ate that bug."

Trinity College Notes

The grading of the college grounds has been completed. It has wonderfully improved the appearances of the campus.

The work on the buildings of the Trinity Park High School is being pushed with great rapidity. It is one of the most beautiful structures on the Park and one of the most complete high school buildings in the South.

The faculty of the Trinity Park High School consists of J. F. Bivins, Headmaster; W. K. Boyd, F. S. Aldridge, P. V. Anderson and D. W. Newsom, assistants. The first four mentioned young men are graduates of Trinity College, and all are teachers of experience. Mr. Bivins was principal of Albemarle Academy last year; Mr. Boyd was instructor in history in Trinity College during the last session and has taken the Master of Arts degree. Mr. Aldridge has been for two years one of the principals of Belwood Institute; Mr. Anderson was principal of the Wilson Graded Schools at the time of his election. Mr. Newsom has taught in Littleton Female College and Littleton Academy. This constitutes a strong teaching force.

The prospects for a fine opening in both College and Fitting School are very bright.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:
Irahan, N. C. July 16, '97.
Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respt.

Cardinal Manning's Humor.

Dr. Manning had a strong sense of humor, and delighted in telling Irish stories. One related to an Irish laborer, who was thus addressed by a passing Englishman:

"What's that you're building, Paddy?" "Shure an' it's a church, yer honner." "Is it a Protestant church?" "No, yer honner." "A Catholic church, then?" "Indade an' it is that same, yer honner." "I'm very sorry to hear it, Pat." "So's the devil, yer honner."

The Cardinal on one occasion arrived in full merriment, though informing his friends that he had been all but run over, and he added, "if the accident had been more effectual my epiphany must have been:

Sad was his fate, it happened thus,
He was run over by a 'bus."

Barrymore and Modjeska.

Maurice Barrymore is a careless actor now, and always has been. Some years ago, when he was acting in the company of Mme. Modjeska, who had not been long in this country, the Polish actress was reproaching him for his negligence in a certain scene which had deprived her of certain effects. "It is ungrateful of you to be so regardless of my interests," she said, "when I have made a reputation for you here in America." "My dear madam," Mr. Barrymore answered, "I may have been indifferent in that scene, but I must beg the privilege of contradicting you when you say that you made a reputation for me. I was a well-known actor here when most people thought that Modjeska was a tooth-wash or a headache cure."

A Bad Break.

He was a very nice young man, and quite innocent, but he made a bad break a few evenings ago which almost "queered" him with his best girl. The young man has a penchant for light effects in trousers, while his fiancée, on the contrary, prefers the dark effects for men's wear. Being flush one day, this young man went to his tailor and ordered a pair of trousers to be made up from a piece of light goods and another pair from a piece of dark material. That evening when he called on his heart's idol he remarked to her: "By the way, Jane, I bought two new pairs of trousers this morning—one for you and one for me."

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company.

Hand Badly Cut.

While cutting meat on Saturday, at the store of Sam White, T. R. Moore cut through the fleshy part of his left hand. It was a bad cut and the physician took several stitches in it. He is doing as well as could be expected.

Will Display it in his Window

Frank Wilson left this morning for Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York to purchase his fall and winter goods. He told us that he had received a letter Saturday night from a Baltimore firm stating that they had secured the suit of clothes worn by Cervera when he was captured at Santiago and would hold it for him until he came on. Frank will purchase the suit on his arrival in Baltimore and on his return will display it in one of his show windows. Look out for it for from the description it must be a beauty.

How She Bore it

A young widow put up a costly monument to her late husband and inscribed upon it: "My grief is so great that I cannot bear it." A year or so later, however, she married again, and feeling a little awkwardness about the inscription, she solved the difficulty by adding one word to it—"alone."

Spanish Commissioners

Madrid, August 19.—10 p. m.—The Cabinet council tonight decided to appoint General Gonzales Parrado, second in command in Cuba; Rear Admiral Luis Pastor Landero, who succeeded Admiral Navaro, the Spanish commander in Cuba waters, and Marquis de Montoro, Minister of Finance in the Insular Cabinet as the commission of evacuation for Cuba.

The Porto Rican commission has not yet been appointed, the Government awaiting an expression of the views of Governor General Macias, but it has been decided that Admiral Vallarino shall be one of the commissioners.

The peace commissioners have not been nominated, but it is believed the composition of the commission has been decided upon, though the names of its members will not be published yet, as the Government is resolved to take advantage of the delay granted by the protocol in order to avoid a Cabinet crisis.

Mustering out Order

Washington, Aug. 20.—At midnight tonight the President announced his decision to muster out of the service from 75,000 to 100,000 of the volunteers. Those to be discharged will include three branches of the service—infantry, artillery and cavalry.

From a prominent official of the administration it is understood to be the desire of the President to ascertain the wishes of the volunteer troops themselves as to remaining in the service. One or two organizations have already indicated a desire to leave the service as soon as the government can reasonably do without them. They are composed largely of business and working men whose private interests are suffering by reason of their absence from home. So far as the interests of the government will permit, it is believed that the President in the mustering out of the volunteers will accommodate himself to the desires of the men.

It may be some time before the organizations to be mustered out will be designated, but the reduction in the volunteer force will be made as soon as practicable.
