AN OPEN LETTER.

WHICHARD, N. C., Aug 8th, '98.

Editor Union Populist,
Greenville, N. C.

Dear Sir:—I am growing tired of your criticism without letting the people know who you are talking about.

I thought a man had a right to select such literature as he wanted to circulate in his family and when any one attempted to thrust such upon him—unasked for—as he was not willing to receive, he had a right to return it, with the request that no more such be sent him. I have made two such requests of you over my own signature. You have published what I said both times, and then without giving my name, so that the people might know who you were trying to slander, you have attempted to criticise me in a manner both ungentlemanly and false.

Now, some of my reasons for not being willing to receive your paper are that Populism is not a political party, but a corrupt faction, seeking spoils from the political parties of the country, regardless of which party it comes from. This you virtually confess when you publish the action of the leaders of your faction, in asking for fusion with the Democrats first, and when it was so justly refused, you said the only hope for the Populists was by holding the balance of power between the two political parties. You then devoted all the little talent and energy you had to abuse of Democracy, apparently hoping thereby to secure fusion with the Republicans. (See June numbers of your little Enterprise.)

I was not willing to have such corrupt duplicity of action and sentiment circulated in my family, and returned the paper with the request that no more such stuff be sent to my address.

You published my request without giving my name, and then, as if you thought you were doing a smart thing sent the paper with your criticism to me. I returned the paper again with best wishes for the defeat of Populist corruption. You published my request again without giving my name, and then, smarter like, sent me the paper again. This time the slander was so harsh and so baseless false that I feel I ought to resent it.

While I am willing to confess my ignorance, yet it is unpleasant for me, and I think ungentlemanly in you, to apply such epithets as rot, skunk, fool, ignorance and prejudice to a man much older than your father.

Why boy, you even say you were my school mate. May the Lord teach you the worth of truth. Perhaps if you would take the trouble to examine the common school records of the county and find where such men as Col. E. C. Yellowley, Hon. Germain Bernard, Alfred Moye and James Murray thought me worthy to receive a first grade teachers certificate for several consecutive years, away back in the fifties, when your father was a mere school boy, and then think how it sounds in the ears of decent people to hear an upstart of a boy, like yourself, claim to have been my school mate, and apply such abusive epithets as you have to me, you might find out that there was room for the term "ignorance" at least, if not for that of "fool" on the other side.

As you have been taking such privileges with me without letting the people know who you were talking about, it may not be amiss for me to give the extent of our acquaintance.

About twenty months ago you came tramping up the railroad at a late hour and bummed a night's lodging with my boys at the depot, and next morning you came up and bummed your breakfast with them at my table, and after you had eaten your breakfast you went on tramping. This is the only time I ever saw you to know who you were. Now you seem to think there is great need of a foolkiller in this section, but really I do not feel any special need of one, and have not since the morning you left here.

You complain that I accuse you of advocating negro equality. Now if you will explain who is responsible for the negro government of Greenville; and then explain who is responsible for the negro committees over the white schools in the county, and then explain how it is that the appropriation has been increased from $80 to $135 per district, (as you say it has) and yet our district has only $73 this year; and then explain why your faction should first seek for fusion with such a political monstrosity as you say the Democratic party is; and then publish this letter over my signature, and send me a copy of the paper with it, and all these explanations, then I'll ask pardon of the decent people of the county for ever having noticed you at all, and will promise them that I'll lay my hand upon my mouth and never notice you again.

Respectfully,

W. R. WHICHARD
WHICHARD, N. C., Aug 26 '98.

EDITOR EASTERN REFLECTOR.

DEAR SIR:—I sent very nearly a copy of the above to the editor of the Populist on the 9th inst. I told him if he refused to publish it I'd try to find a man who would. If you publish it, ask King's Weekly to copy, for I am not ashamed for the people to know that I am unwilling to receive such literature as the Populist in my family.

Yours very respectfully,
W. R. WHICHARD.

Below we publish an editorial taken from a negro paper published in Wilmington. We call upon every white man in Pitt county to read it and read it again and then consider what it means. Having done this, if you are still willing to aid in putting the negro over the white man, you are no better than he is; you endorse this slander upon every white woman who lives in the country and you deserve to be ostracized by every man who respects virtue. White men in the country in Pitt county read the following and then say what you will be towards the man who by his action endorses this vile slander. God pity the white man who can read it and not have every drop of blood in his Anglo-Saxon veins revolt and rise in indignation at this infamous indictment against the wives and daughters of the white yeomanry of North Carolina:

"Poor white men are careless in the matter of protecting their women. ESPECIALLY ON

THE FARMS. They are careless of their conduct toward them, and OUR EXPERIENCE AMONG POOR WHITE PEOPLE IN THE COUNTRY TEACHES US THAT WOMEN OF THAT RACE ARE NOT MORE PARTICULAR IN THE MATTER OF CLANDESTINE MEETINGS WITH COLORED MEN, than are the white men with colored women. MEETINGS OF THIS KIND GO ON FOR SOME TIME UNTIL THE WOMAN'S INFATUATION or the man's boldness, brings attention to them, and the man is lynched for rape. Every negro lynched is called a 'big burley, black brute,' when, in fact, many of those who have thus been dealt with had white men for their fathers, and were not only not 'black' and 'burley,' but were SUFFICIENTLY ATTRACTIVE FOR WHITE GIRLS of culture and refinement to fall in love with them, as is very well known to all."

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents.
Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c, $1. All druggists.

Heroes of Manila

Dewey and Merritt were the right men in the right place and the greatest men of our army and navy occupying the greatest responsibility that devolved upon any of our officers. They knew that peace was at hand, and they knew that the disposal of the Philippines was certain to be the gravest complication in arranging the details of a treaty. They understood the imperious necessity of actual military possession of the capital of the Philippines before the promulgation of peace, and they were just the men to be trusted in the performance of such a duty. They understood it; they were equal to it, and they have performed it grandly. The way for the adjustment of the fretting issues of the war has been clearly blazed by the masterly ability of Dewey and Merritt, as the Philippine Islands are now in actual military possession of the United States.

Admiral Dewey's place in the history of the war is so clearly defined that none dispute it. He has not won his position by accident or fortuitous circumstance. He stands admitted by all at home and abroad, as unsurpassed by any naval officer in the skill and courage necessary to command and fight a fleet to win the highest measure of success and he is admittedly second to none in the great art of diplomats of any nation.

However brave and skilful in fighting his fleet, and however grand his victory, that is unexampled in the history of naval warfare, his sublimest achievement in Manila has been in the diplomatic skill with which he met the machinations of the Germans, and the treachery of Aguinaldo and his forces. Charged with the most delicate and responsible duties of the war, he has proved himself more than equal to every emergency, and the world must recognize him as the foremost naval hero and diplomat of the age.—Philadelphia Times

A Fortune Teller's Bank

One of the best known characters in this section died a few days ago. Her name was Hester Brantley and her home was about eight miles from Rocky Mount, near Sandy Cross. Mrs. Brantley was a noted fortune teller and many a love-sick swain, and fair maid whose virgin heart had been pierced by the arrows of Don Cupid hid them to her lowly cottage to hear with throbbing heart and bated breath the oracle foretell what the future held in store for them.

Whether the seeress unrolled the web of life truly to her believers was one question but there was another side of the question that was never disputed, and that was her palm must be crossed with a goodly sum in silver before she would exercise her magic art. This and the fact that she was exceedingly miserly gave rise to rumors of fabulous sums of money being hidden in and around the old Lester Brantley cottage and so when the old lady went the way of all the earth a few days ago, speculation was aroused as to the whereabouts of the hidden wealth. Yesterday T. J. Thorne, Esq., one of the administrators of the property left by the deceased went to the cottage, and after a short while digging in the yard, unearthed two coffee pots containing nearly six hundred dollars in cash. It is thought that this is but a small part of the money left by the old fortune teller, and that further search will unearth a great deal more.

Mr. Thorne placed the treasure trove in the Bank of Rocky Mount—Rocky Mount Argonaut.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Irabau, N. C. July 16, '97.
 Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lancet, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels, without irritating or weakening them, and does not gripe nor nauseate. It is the best and most beneficial effect. Remember the name of the Company.
