THEN AND NOW.

Read below what Col. Harry Skinner said in 1892 when he was nominated for Governor by the first Populist State Convention. Look at what he is now doing and saying and see if you can aid him in accomplishing the very thing he then said was the cause of all of our troubles in North Carolina. If his present actions and utterances indicate the faith that is in him now he will not recognize the words of 1892 as his own. What a strange specimen of humanity politics has made the Colonel. He is to be pitted that $5,000 a year can so change his thoughts and acts. How will he feel when he loses his present fat job and wants to come back with his former friends. But here he is in 1892:

"I know I have taken a part in educating and trying to get you to think upon economic lines as I do. And I have thought, and my earnest conviction was that the best way to accomplish this was through the organization of the Democratic party. I made the fight upon the same, and I made the issue that the Democratic party was the people's party, and that under its wing of patriotism was the place for the great mass of the people instead of being bound by chains of gold to Wall street.

"But my friends, I want to make a plain statement. I am in the battle for financial reform through wealth or through woe. (Applause.) I do not want any office. I want to make the fight without having to be charged with the aspersion of aspiration; and before I accept this nomination, it must be upon known and well-defined terms. And what are those terms? They are these: That if at any hour there appears such a division wrought among the white people of this country that the Republican machine, the common enemy of us all and of our country, and the cause of all our evils, has and is surreptitiously taking advantage of our division and white supremacy is endangered, I want to advise you of it. I shall be a patriot to North Carolina and advise you of the dangers in which you are. And unless you give me that power, unless you are willing to entrust me with that confidence, unless you are willing of yourselves, while fighting nationally the battles of reform, in the case of North Carolina, you see that you people are divided and the Republicans have the advantage of you and are going to elect their ticket, if I cannot tell you that, gentlemen, I cannot be your candidate for governor, but with this position, taking the banner of financial reform in my hand, making that the chief tenor of my argument wherever I stand, only under this condition will I accept, and I do not want this unless it is done in acquiescence and perfect order."

THE POPULISTS BOLT.

Edenton, N. C., Aug. 26.—(Special)—Col. Harry Skinner was nominated twice for Congress here today. The Populist convention, composed mainly of Republican delegates and Populist office holders, nominated Skinner. When they did so a majority of the delegates from Pitt county bolted the convention. The Populists who bolted Skinner claim that most of the Populist voters in the district will refuse to support Skinner and that there are interesting times ahead in the First district.

After the Populists had nominated Skinner, the Republican convention promptly endorsed him.

Both the Republican and Populist judicial conventions met in Elizabeth

City yesterday and the news comes that all was not harmonious. The Republicans nominated Augustus M. Moore, of Pitt, for Superior court judge, and Isaac M. Meekins, of Elizabeth City, for Solicitor. The Populist convention named Solicitor Wm. J. Leary for Judge but did not make a nomination for Solicitor, the inference being that the Populists will endorse Meekins for Solicitor if the Republicans will withdraw Moore and support Leary. Populists openly say that Skinner is a Republican, and that to nominate a Republican for judge was to give the Republicans all three of the good places in the First District.—Raleigh News and Observer.

The Charlotte Observer has started a subscription, heading it with $100, to erect a monument to Lieut. W. E. Shipp, who was killed in the charge at Santiago. Lieut. Shipp was a North Carolinian, and it is gratifying to see that while the subscription list for a monument to his memory has been started but a short while there have been several liberal responses. The monument ought to be and will be erected.

Yes, politics is corrupt, but that is no reason that it should continue that way. Any one will admit that our country is in a deplorable condition, and all are agreed that the present conditions have been brought about by corrupt men who have used the offices with which they have been honored to their own selfish ends. Until we put men in office who love their country more than money and will serve the people rather than trusts and combines, we need not expect good laws and a fair and impartial administration. Let it be the high aim of Democracy to fill the offices of our State and Nation with such men as will honor them; then may our country be redeemed from the curse of corrupt politics.

A question that every honest taxpaying citizen should ask himself: If, after two years control, the negro becomes so insolent, obtain so many important offices, and the authorities of the institutions and departments of the State and county governments become so reckless, aud, as charged by the Governor himself so scandalous and corrupt, what will be the result to follow the success of this same crowd in another election. Will they not feel fully justified, not only in what they have done, but in anything they may do, however oppressive, expensive, or revolting it may be?

The honest men must answer this at the polls. The destiny, the welfare of this State, the safety of their homes, the enjoyment of peace and comfort, all are at stake in this election. It is in the power of the white people—those who honestly love their families, and desire honest, decent government rather than office at the sacrifice of their fellow citizens to wipe out the blot and remove the dangers which do now beset us all. Will they not exercise that power in behalf of good government for all the people?—Raleigh Post.

Friday an Unlucky Day

Many persons have a superstitious notion that Friday is an unlucky day. And so far is this carried by some that they will not begin a piece of work or start on a journey on Friday that cannot be finished that day. But, if Friday has proven unlucky for one side it has brought equally as good luck on the other in the war with Spain. Many of the most important events connected with the war occurred on Friday.

As a matter of fact, however, Friday has always been a day of much prominence in American history; and in the Spanish-American war it has well sustained its past reputation. As we find in the Wilmington, Delaware, Star, a gentleman of that city, Mr. Edwin Hirst, has kept a record of the principal happenings of the war that have occurred on Friday.

The list is as follows:
Proclamation blockading Cuban ports issued on Friday.

First gun of the war was fired by the cruiser New York about eight miles south of Sand Key Light on Friday.

First Spanish prize captured, Friday, April 22.

Merrimac sunk in Santiago Harbor Friday, June 3.

First land battle in Cuba, Friday, June 24.

Diguari, east of Aguadores was bombarded by the American ships on Friday, June 10.

The battle of Siboney was fought on Friday, June 24.

The first great battle of the land and naval forces and the capture of San Juan was on Friday, July 1.

The U. S. transports Colonia, Zealanhia and Senator, arrived in Honolulu on Friday with 4,000 men enroute to Manila. They were overwhelmed with kindness.

General Miles sailed from Guantanamo for Porto Rico on Friday, July 22, and the city of Ponce was peacefully surrendered.

On Friday, July 22, the Madrid government decided to seek peace.

On Friday, July 29, the President and Cabinet practically decided on the terms of peace.

On Friday, August 5, the first real battle was fought in Porto Rico and the city of Guanama was captured by General Brooke.

On Friday, August 12, the end of the war came, the protocol of peace being signed in the White House.

About the 10th of September, we propose to issue a large campaign paper, fully illustrated, and containing a complete review of negro rule in North Carolina and of the maladministration of public affairs under the present regime.

It will be the strongest paper ever issued in the advocacy of White Man's Government.

There will be 50,000 copies issued, allowing an average of 500 to each county; and they will be sent directly to the county chairman for distribution.

The chairman of each county is requested to begin at once and procure the names of 500 voters to whom they will send these papers; and he is further requested to prepare in advance the stamped wrappers and have everything in readiness to send the papers out. The cost will be small to each county and the money should be raised at once to pay this postage. It is suggested that Democrats in every township shall send at once a list of names to the county chairman. Capt. S. A. Ashe will assist in preparing this paper.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Salem, N. C. July 16, '97.
Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the face, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respectfully,
MCBRIDE HOLT.

A Beautiful At Home

Misses Maud and Mary Blow were at home to their friends on last Friday evening—and Greenville society was not reluctant to take advantage of an opportunity to show its esteem for the charming young hostesses. From 9 to 12 the spacious halls, parlors and verandas were crowded with Greenville's young people talking and laughing and enjoying themselves only as Greenville young people can. On entering the guest were received by Dr. R. L. Carr and Miss Maud Blow, while in the parlors Mr. W. Moore and Miss Mary Blow received and made welcome those who came early or late. Refreshments were served at eleven and more than one thought as did the prophet of old, "Tis good to be here." Time flew by on rapid wings and more than one heart sighed as the door hand printed to 12 and in silent gesture said good night. Every one who went carried a heart full of anticipated pleasure, every one in departing carried away a heart full of realized anticipation and a good wish that the Misses Blow may ever retain in the hearts of Greenville people the same warm place they now possess.
