GREENVILLE, N. C., Sept 8, 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

There are a good many Populists in Pitt county who wish to vote differently from what they have been voting. They are tired of Skinnerism and negroism. They will vote the Democratic ticket if they are treated fairly, but they cannot swallow the old gang of office holders and office hunters that have abused them so badly in the past. Give us a ticket of good, honorable men, men who have not made office hunting their business in the past. Place men on your ticket who have at least treated us with respect, and I, for one, will say success be with the white man's ticket.

Think of it, Democrats. Can you support men who have insulted and abused you on every occasion? If you cannot, do you think the Populists can? A Populist is only human as well as yourself.

On the 24th of September when you held your county convention remember my warning and get out such a ticket as will draw us to you instead of driving us away. ONE OF THEM.

General Miles to be Court Martial- ed

New York, Sept. 7.—General Miles today declared that the interview with him published in the Kansas City Star was in the main correct. He refused to retract the most serious allegations made against the War Department. A few minor points reported in the interview he said were incorrectly stated, but on the whole he fathered the statements. According to army regulations his reiteration of charges against his superior officers will force the Secretary of War to order the General to appear before a court martial. That is what his friends say he wants—the administration of the war in Cuba thoroughly overhauled.

Chills from the Hail.

It is noticeable that chills are more prevalent in the community of the heavy hail in May than anywhere else in this region. All through the community of Tillery chills have been very prevalent. Persons in that community think it comes from the water in the streams and swamps becoming poisoned with the decay of the great mass of leaves that were stripped from the trees by the hail. Some persons say that some days after the hail the water in the streams became so poisonous that fish died in large quantities and could be seen floating in the streams anywhere—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Farmers John Burkhardt and Albert Neitzel quarreled in Buffalo, N. Y., and Neitzel was fatally shot.

Edward M. East, a tight rope walker, fell 60 feet while giving a performance at Chicago, Ill., and will die.

Belle McElheny, aged 17, was shot and killed by Frank Linderman, at Kansas City, Mo., and the murderer fatally shot himself.

Four auger holes were found in the bow of the bark Northern Light, which arrived at San Francisco, Cal., leaking badly.

Mrs. Frank Boylston, of Jacksonville, Fla., wife of a traveling salesman, died suddenly in a drug store on Broadway, New York.

Mrs. Frank Dodge and Miss Ethel Fairchild, of Mount Vernon, N. Y., narrowly escaped being gored to death by a mad bull by nimbly climbing a tree.

THE RECRUIT'S SOLILOQUY.

I remember, I remember,

How I used to sit and scoff,
When, on getting down to breakfast,
I would find the coffee cold;
How I used to turn my nose up
If the steak was done too rare—
But, oh, for home and mother,
And the dear old bill of fare!

I remember, I remember,
How I always would upbraid
Myself for eating rarebits
That my little sweetheart made;
How I used to worry over
My digestion night and day
And the pills I used to punish
To drive fancied ills away.

I remember, I remember,
How I used to sit and scoff
When I fancied that the butter
Must be "just a little off;"
How I scorned the lowly biscuits
That my sister used to make!
And the things I said concerning
Her attempts at jelly cake!
Oh, it may be childish weakness
That possesses me, but I
Would give a whole month's wages
For one piece of mother's pie,
And I think that I'd be willing
To walk twenty miles today
Just for one of those dear doughnuts
That I used to throw away.

Elsewhere in this issue we print a communication from a Populist that expresses some plain truths. We know that there are Populists in this county who are tired of their affiliations with that party. There are many of them who left the Democratic party through honest motives but have discovered that they were deceived by the leaders whom they were following and they now wish to return to the party which they left. We have had them to tell us so personally, and now one says so in print and makes suggestions that are timely. While THE REFLECTOR wants to say here that it is emphatically opposed to every phase of fusion or to swerving one iota from Democratic principles, yet it is time that white men were coming together and white supremacy, and we believe that the Democrats should nominate such a ticket as will give every Populist who wishes to do so an opportunity to return to the party and support it.

There are enough good and true Democrats in Pitt county who have not been hangers-on around the Court House or continual office-seekers to select our ticket from, and it will be wise to go among these men for our candidates. The names of some such men have been mentioned by correspondents of THE REFLECTOR and there are others whose names have not been mentioned, good men against whom no word can be said, and whom any Populist, wishing to return to the white man's party, can support. Just that kind of a ticket is what we should bring out.

Not a Party Issue

The political contest in which we are now engaged is the most serious one in which North Carolina has ever been engaged. It rises above party. It is not a party issue. It is a question of race, of home, of family, of honor, of civilization, of self-respect. The Democrats are united and determined, more than any other party and therefore it is called a Democratic issue. But in reality it is not a political issue. It is a social, racial and domestic question. It is neither a Democratic, Republican or Populist question. The Democratic party is a unit upon the question, and therefore it is the best agency with which the citizens of North Carolina can beat back the low white leaders who would negroize North Carolina and ultimately drench our old State in blood and massacre. For the white people of East Carolina are not going to submit to negro supremacy under the lead of a set of white men who deserve to be driven out of the State. The negroes are not to blame. They are a credulous, generally ignorant and weak race, and can neither manage the Republican party, in which they generally outnumber all others, nor the State government of North Carolina. We need no better evidence of their incompetency than the history of North Carolina under Republican administration. Without the negro vote the Republican party would go out of existence. Without the help of the Populist party the Republican party would probably go out of existence. The Democrats are united on this domestic question of negro supremacy. Without the help of the Populist party the Republican leaders and their negro allies could never have placed the State of North Carolina under the heels of low white pie suckers. If they withdraw their help or unite with the Democrats we can save the State. Otherwise a dreadful future awaits us, a future of conflict, convulsion, blood. A future in which the decent white men of North Carolina will be on one side and the negroes and low white Republicans on the other, and then the issue will not be Republican and Populist and Democrat, but the safety and honor and security of our homes, our families, our wives and daughters and property on one side, and a set of "lewd white fellows of the baser sort," and a set of savage negroes, drunk with power, and "lecherous as asps," on the other. In such a convulsion the issue, dreadful as it will be, cannot be doubtful and the negro question will no longer be a problem. God grant that our decent white population of North Carolina may avail themselves of the peaceful ballot in November and avert the dreadful doom that otherwise awaits us in God's retributive providence.—E. City Economist.

Barn Door Buying

A correspondent of the Durham Sun, signing himself "Tobacco," writes to that paper on a matter that vitally concerns important central North Carolina markets. He says:

Durham and Oxford are anxious to put a stop to buying tobacco in the county. Will Henderson and adjoining markets join them?

I write this after consulting many of the warehousemen and buyers, and I suggest a meeting at once to carry it out. Further comment is useless, for every one connected with the tobacco business knows what this trouble has caused. I am not interested in this matter at all, but thank I am suggesting the wishes of several markets.

Meet at once and discuss it. I would suggest Oxford as a meeting place, and am satisfied the board of trade there will entertain the delegates.

Efforts to get the boards of trade of these towns to put a stop to warehousemen doing barn-door buying have been made before. This practice has been brought about by keen competition, and it has hurt all concerned. The warehouse business has been rendered extra hazardous and barely profitable. We trust that the tobacco trade of that part of the country will in its wisdom and for the common good get together and agree upon a reform.—Winston Tobacco Journal.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:
 Greenville, N. C. July 16, '97.
 Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lancet, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Democratic Convention
 A convention of the Democratic part of Pitt county is hereby called to meet in the Court House in Greenville on Saturday, September 24, 1898, at 12 o'clock M. for the purpose of nominating candidates for the legislature and the several County offices. Township primaries will be held at 3 o'clock P. M. on Saturday, September 17th, 1898, for the purpose of appointing delegates to said Convention, to nominate candidates for Justices of the Peace and Constable and to appoint Precinct Executive Committees. Every white man of Pitt county, regardless of past party affiliations, who is in favor of white supremacy and good government, is invited and urged to participate in these primaries and convention. By order of the Democratic Executive Committee of Pitt county.
 ALEX. L. BLOW, Chairman.
 W. L. BROWN, Secretary.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company.
