REPUBLICAN CONVENTION

The Republicans Saturday held what purported to be their county convention to nominate a county and legislative ticket.

J. J. Perkins, chairman of the executive committee, called the convention to order. A rumpass was about to occur over organization when F. J. Johnson moved to make J. J. Perkins temporary chairman. Perkins arose and put the question himself, shutting off another delegate who was trying to get the floor.

The roll of townships was called and the lists of delegates handed to the Secretary. There being some contests C. M. Bernard moved that a committee on credentials be appointed to decide which delegates shall be entitled to seats. After this was carried Bernard also moved that a committee on permanent organization be appointed. These committees retired and labored long just as though their work had not already been cut and dried.

The credential committee reported, recognizing one set of the delegates and inviting the others to participate in what was done except voting. The list of delegates was read.

The committee on organization reported J. J. Perkins for permanent chairman and C. C. Forbes for Secretary.

A motion was then carried that the delegates all retire for consultation and the chair stated that the convention would take a recess until the bell rang again.

After an hour or more in consultation the convention met again and C. M. Bernard unloaded himself of an harangue that tickled the negroes and brought forth their screams and shouts. He paved the way with this and led them up to what was to follow, and said that the result of the consultation was that they would fuse with the Populists on the same terms as two years ago, the Republicans taking one Representative, the Register of Deeds, one County Commissioner and Coroner, the Populists to have the balance of the ticket. He said to fill these they had selected the following:

For the Legislature—John Thompson.

For Register of Deeds—J. J. Perkins.

For County Commissioner—B. J. Wilson.

For Coroner—J. W. Brown. This was unanimously endorsed and the convention adjourned.

LEGISLATIVE TICKET

MR. EDITOR:

I often see in your columns names suggested for our legislative ticket, and while I do not disparage the ability of any person yet named. I do wish to say in a frank way a few words to our people. It is true we need men at the helm this time, as we did in 1870, to redeem our State from disgrace and shame placed upon us by Rep-Pop fusion. In selecting men, however, to represent us in the Legislature, I think every candid minded man should remember that this is a strictly representative form of government. While we have smart men in our towns and cities, occasionally we find smart men in the country, who know what legislation means, and realize the condition and necessities of the farming class, which is the back bone of this republic. I think to adjust things properly, it would be more Democratic to select two good men from the country and one man from the town, and the Democratic party during all its existence has ever been that party to protect the poor and defenseless. Such a ticket as the above, it seems to me would be more representative, and in better harmony with the equality of justice, the equality of opportunity and the equality of the peoples burdens, all of which is tolerated by our Christian democracy.

But not to say anything against those who have been mentioned, I would suggest to the general public, to let two from Greenville and one from the country represent us in our next legislature. These men are Alex. Blow, F. G. James and W. J. Nichols. Such a ticket would be invincible, 1st it would be a speaking ticket and 2nd, it is an ambitious one, and this is what we need in the present campaign. As for Mr. Blow the people know him too well to require any comment here. I will add this much, he would be the "Brutus of the campaign." As for Mr. James, in the words of Antony, he is an honorable man, and above reproach. I will add this much: North Carolina cannot hold him much longer. As for Mr. Nichols you cannot find a better man in the country. There is not a scratch against him, he is acquainted with the national and State issues and can make a telling speech and he can poll all the Democratic votes and be of great assistance in bringing back the Populists to Democracy. So with the eloquence and ambition of Nichols, James and Blow, the people of Pitt county need not stop thinking of anything shorter than Democratic success, through the persistent efforts of Democratic men like these who will stand and fight for white supremacy as long as there is a white man and woman in North Carolina. A VOTER.

How Typhoid is Spread

Typhoid fever, says Youth's Companion, is generally regarded at the present day, along with cholera and some other diseases, as belonging to the class of "water-borne" infections. In other words, it is believed that the germs of such diseases are carried, and perhaps propagated, in water. There is little doubt that this theory of typhoid fever is correct, and that in tracing any extended epidemic of the disease to its source we must first of all examine into the condition of the water supply.

Drinking water has been proved to be the cause of the spread of typhoid fever in many epidemics in this country and England; but there is little comfort in this for those who habitually drink something stronger than water, because, although during an epidemic, the drinking water may be made safer by boiling, this is not enough.

If the water is contaminated, the germs may be introduced into the body while brushing the teeth or washing the face. Or again, salads and fruits which are eaten raw may be contaminated by the water in which they are washed. Typhoid fever has sometimes been spread in a city whose water supply was above reproach, by means of milk or ice.

Milk need not be watered in order to become a vehicle for typhoid germs; the germs may be introduced into cans and bottles while they are being washed in water drawn from a contaminated well or brook at the dairy. Although destroyed by boiling, typhoid germs will resist a freezing temperature for a long time, and have been found in ice cut from a pond poisoned with sewerage containing bacilli of the disease.

Another means of the spread of typhoid has recently been discovered in oysters. Oystermen frequently place oysters in brackish water near the mouth of a creek or river in order to fatten them before they are brought to market. If his place happens to be near the mouth of a sewer containing typhoid poison, or if the creek water be contaminated the oysters will take virus within their shells, and so revenge themselves on those who eat them raw.

In some puzzling cases of typhoid it has been supposed that the food was infected by flies, which had carried the germs a long distance on their feet—a strong argument for the proper care of food in the fly season.

These are only a few of the ways in which this disease may be spread, but they are enough to show that so far from feeling surprise that the disorder should be so common, we may rather wonder that we are not all its victims.

Southern Heroes

The South certainly furnished its share of heroes and conspicuous figures in the late war. Schley is a Southerner, Hobson a Southerner, Bagley a Southerner, Blue a Southerner, Lee a Southerner, Wheeler a Southerner, and latest to be recognized, Lieutenant Brumby, who hoisted the flag over Manila, is a Southerner. The South has thus taken a pretty important part in the war and kept up its reputation for bravery and gallantry.

When Henry Ward Beecher was in England during the Civil War making his powerful speeches there to influence public opinion in favor of the Union, he was interrupted on one occasion with the suggestion that the Northern soldiers had not yet whipped the South, and quick as a flash he replied, "Yes, but they have been fighting Americans." American courage and valor were tested on both sides in the Civil War, and it was because Americans were fighting Americans that the war was so deadly and so prolonged. General Grant said that any man who depreciated the bravery of the Southern army slandered the Northern soldier. General Sherman gave willing testimony to the bravery and splendid soldierly qualities of his Southern antagonists. So it is not surprising that men from the South distinguished themselves for courage and gallant action in the late war.

We can be proud of the fact that all the heroes of the war were Americans, whether they came from Alabama or Maine, North Carolina or Utah. The war has wiped out all sectional lines. It has done more to develop the national spirit and weld together the affections of the people of every section than could have been done by years of peace.—Syracuse (N. Y.) Herald.

They say "money talk," which would seem to prove that Mr. Alger is not a millionaire after all. Secretary Alger has made several misses in his conduct of the war. The question is, are they as good as Miles?

Hoax—What do you think of this ridiculous suggestion to teach Spanish in the public schools? Joax—That's proper enough. They teach Latin and Greek, and Spanish is a much more modern dead language.

Well, said her mother, eighty dollars is pretty expensive for a flat like this. At that rate I don't see how you can hope to keep the wolf from the door. Oh! we don't care if it does reach the door, said the bright young matron. Charlie says it could never squeeze into any of the rooms.

INTENSE SUFFERING

FROM DYSPEPSIA AND STOMACH TROUBLE.

Instantly Relieved and Permanently by Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

A New Discovery, But not a Patent Medicine.

Dr. Redwell relates an interesting account of what he considers a remarkable cure of acute stomach trouble and chronic dyspepsia by the use of the new discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

He says: The patient was a man who had suffered to my knowledge for years with dyspepsia. Everything he ate seemed to sour and create acid and gases in the stomach; he had pains like rheumatism in the back, shoulder blades and limbs, fullness and distress after eating, poor appetite and loss of flesh; the heart become affected, causing palpitation and sleeplessness at night.

I gave him powerful nerve tonics and blood remedies, but to no purpose. As an experiment I finally bought a fifty cent package of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at a drug store and gave them to him. Almost immediate relief was given and after he had used four boxes he was to all appearances fully cured.

There was no more acidity or sour watery risings, no bloating after meals, the appetite was vigorous and he has gained between 10 and 12 pounds in weight of solid, healthy flesh.

Although Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are advertised and sold in drug stores yet I consider them a most valuable addition to any physician's line of remedies, as they are perfectly harmless and can be given to children or invalids or in any condition of the stomach with perfect safety, being harmless and containing nothing but vegetable and fruit essences, pure pepsin and Golden Seal.

Without any question they are the safest, most effective cure for indigestion, biliousness, constipation and all derangements of the stomach however slight or severe.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are made by the Stuart Co. of Marshall, Mich., and sold by druggists everywhere at fifty cents per package.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Greenville, N. C. July 16, '97.
Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold on the lobe, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS. Made by the Orange Va Observer.

The man who trusts in providence—and a full pocketbook—seldom gets left.

As cold weather is approaching the foot of the mountain will soon need a shoe.

The man who carries brick in his hat will never build a house of that material.

If the dress reformers succeed in abolishing corsets, the dear girls will have no staying qualities left.

Most people have no opinions of their own—they are satisfied to get them second-hand from the few who formulate them.

Love is the electric current that flashes from heart to heart, carrying messages of joy which sweeten the soul with a peerless perfume.

Hark from the girls a dolesome sound, mine ears attend the cry—“September's come, we've oysters found let's have a stew or try.”

The man who was filled with amazement had no room for his dinner—but it wouldn't be safe to ask him to take a drink on a similar presumption.

The great need of the soul is sunshine. It cannot grow and expand in dark and dreary environments. Then let us have more good humor and more hearty laughter as we journey along life's rough roadway, and drive out fretfulness, despondency and bad temper, those noxious weeds which choke and stunt the flowers of beauty planted by the unseen hand.

LUMBER. I am prepared to fill orders for Rough Lumber on short notice. If you should have any building to do let me furnish your lumber. I will be in Greenville every evening after 7 o'clock. Phone 38. J. B. TRIPP.

GREAT SLAUGHTER of the RICKS & TAFT STOCK. EVERYBODY COME and get some of the BARGAINS.
