LOCAL NOTES AND TOBACCO JOTTINGS

BY O. L. JOYNER.

A gentleman who has not visited Greenville since last year remarked this morning: "Oh! what changes in tobacco town since I was here last."

There are five steam plants running full day and part of the night on the Greenville market.

Greenville has sold tobacco this season from ten counties; Pitt, Greene, Lenoir, Edgecombe, Craven, Beaufort, Martin, Halifax, Wilson and Wayne. As a bright tobacco market Greenville is attracting probably more attention than any of the other eastern markets. As a matter of course overstocking the market tends to depress the price but on the whole during the rush of the first ten days, from the reports coming from other markets, Greenville has held her own as well as any of them. Buyers have held up remarkably well and with few exceptions have followed every sale showing by this their interest in the market.

The special European edition of the Southern Tobacco Journal is a credit to North Carolina and the Southern States and reflects impressions of types of North Carolina tobacco on the other side of the big branch that will prove of inestimable value to the enterprising tobaccoists of the Old North State. We are proud of the Southern Tobacco Journal and its enterprising editor. May you live long brother Harmon and continue to prosper in your chosen field.

They Keep Everlastingly at It.

It costs the Royal Baking Powder Company something like $500,000 annually for advertising. Some one once suggested to the company that it discontinue advertising one year, the baking powder was so well known and advertised, and so place that amount, $500,000, in the profits. The answer was that it would undoubtedly cost the company three times that amount to get the product in its original channels again. This is a pretty good pointer to those business men who imagine they are making a great saving when they discontinue a $6 a month advertisement a few months in dull seasons. It never pays to tear out a dam because the water is low.—Kimball Graphic.

FOR REGISTER OF DEEDS.

AYDEN N. C. September 22nd '98

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

Contentnea township has not said a word about a candidate for county office. Now we want Mr. Willie C. Jackson a young man of high character and ability who is thoroughly competent and capable to fill the office of Register of Deeds. He is no aspirant and has no political enemies to overcome but if nominated he can speak for himself as he graduated at the A & M college with high honor. VOTER.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The chairman of the Democratic Executive Committees of the several voting precincts of Pitt county are earnestly requested to meet in the Court House in Greenville on Saturday, September 24th, 1898, immediately after the adjournment of the Democratic convention, for the purpose of electing a central Committee and for organizing.

 Chairman of Ex. Com.

MISLED

WARD FARM, Pactolus Township
 September 21st 1898:

To the voters of Pitt county.

I have been in the Populist party ever since its organizations I was pulled into it by the Farmer Alliance. I was told by the leaders that we could not succeed unless we went into politics. I have followed the party and obeyed the orders of the Bosses until they have landed me into the Republican party, in negro rule and disgrace. I shall vote the Democratic ticket at the next election in November. I appeal to all good citizens of this county, who love their wives and daughters, quiet homes and good government to rally to the polls on the day of next election and cast their vote for the Democratic party, the only salvation of this country. G. G. WARD.

Preferred the Spaniards.

Rev. O. L. Stringfield, financial agent for the Baptist Female University, tells this story, which he says is a true one:

An old gentleman living in the country had as his guest one night recently a Republican politician. When time came for retiring the old farmer, as was his custom, brought out the family Bible, read a chapter and knelt down in prayer. In the course of his petition he asked that the Spaniards might triumph in the war then in progress and rule over this country.

This very much surprised the politician and he thought of it a great deal. Next day he asked the old farmer if he didn't make a mistake in his prayer.

"Wherein?" asked the farmer.

"Why, you prayed that the Spaniards might whip us and rule over us."

"Oh, that was no mistake. The Radicals now have the State and seem in a pretty fair way of holding it, and I'd rather be under the Spaniards than under niggers and half-breeds."—Radleigh News and Observer.

Superior Court.

The following cases on the criminal docket were disposed of since last report up to noon today:

J. H. Moore, appeal for Mayors court, mistrial.

E. J. Pollard, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Alex Bailey and Gus Hyman, affray Bailey guilty; sentenced 60 days in jail. Hyman not guilty.

Washington James, assault with deadly weapon, pleads guilty, sentenced 12 months in jail.

Will Murphy, assault, not guilty.

The civil docket was taken up this morning.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Dr. Samuel J. Kenney was indicted in New York for the murder of Dolly Reynolds in the Grand Hotel.

John Franklin murders Mrs. William Boles, his mother-in-law, near Glasgow, Ky., because his wife had left him.

Michael Schwartz, in the presence of his young daughter, shot and killed his wife and committed suicide, in Chicago, Ill.

Rev. Dr. John Hall's relatives in Belfast say he died of a broken heart brought on by the troubles in his New York church who gauges the quality of CLOTHING by the price has no business to be married. Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. The lady of the house generally knows where she can get the most and best for the money.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:
 Rabato, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respt.

Stand By Home

Bestow your Fall and Winter trade upon your home merchants—men who live among us and spend their money here—and not upon those who have no interest in us or with us beyond the dollar they can get out of us. Stand by home enterprise; is a motto that leads to mutual success.

He Comes Back

Elsewhere in this paper is a letter from Mr. G. G. Ward, of Pactelus township, in which he says his relations with the Populist party and declares his return to the Democratic ranks. Mr. Ward tells how he was first led away and the successive stages that followed. His experience is the same as many others. Like him there are also many others who have discovered that they were misled, yet some lack the courage of coming square out and acknowledging their error and getting themselves right again. It may be a hard thing to acknowledge error, yet it is the manly course to pursue when one has discovered that he is wrong. Let others follow Mr. Ward's example—come back to the white man's party where they belong.
