The Mouth

A boy who was compelled by his teacher to write an essay on "the mouth" for some infraction of the school discipline, wrote the following: "The mouth is the front door of the face; it is the aperture to the cold storage of our anatomy. Some mouths look like peaches and cream; some look like a hole in a brick wall to admit a new door or window. The mouth is the crimson isle to our liver; it is patriotism's fountain, and cool chest for pie. Without the mouth the politician would be a wanderer on the face of the earth, and go down to an unhonorable grave. It is the grocer's friend, the orator's pride, the dentist's hope. It puts some men on the rostrum and some in jail. It is temptation's lunch counter when attached to a maiden, and tobacco's friend when a man. It is the home of that unruly member—the tongue. Without it married life would be like a summer dream, and a dude would lose half of his attraction."—Durham Sun.

Let 'Em Smoke.

Capt. I. R. Self informed us Wednesday that he had 40 big loads of peavine hay in pens and the pens were smoking like coal kilns. It is just at this point that the novice in curing peavine hay is apt to become alarmed and want to open up the pens. Don't do it. Let the vines smoke as much as they may. It will do no harm. In fact, it is what they ought to do in the process of curing, and if the pens or stacks are disturbed, and the air allowed to get to the vines, they will spoil. Let them smoke.—Lincoln Journal.

Died

On Sept 24 at her home near Oakley, Mrs. Mary C. Mizell, wife Mr. R. E. Mizell in the 59th year of her age, passed from earth, after a few days illness. She leaves a husband, ten children and a number of relatives and friends to mourn their loss. A true mother indeed is gone. She was a consistent member of the Primitive Baptist church at Flat Swamp. Truly our sympathy goes out to the bereaved family. W.

STATE NEWS

The State fair will be held October 24th to 29th.

Recent freshets have done immense damage to crops along the rivers in the western part of the State.

With Republican office-holders nothing is sacred. In Buncombe county they used $9,000 of the school fund for county expenses.

A white boy in the employ of C. F. Pate who had brought a load of tobacco to market and was returning home, was found dead in his wagon near the A. & N. C. B. R. track last evening. The mules had stopped by the road side. Nothing could be learned as to cause of the boy's death.—Newbern Journal.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Ex-Congressman Sherman Hoar is delirious, and appears to be dying of typhoid fever at Concord, Mass.

The Congressional Industrial Commission has postponed its meeting at Chicago, Ill., till October 17.

Five women, alleged "badger game" workers, were arrested while loitering around the crowded Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York.

Mrs. Julia F. Trout has sold Mrs. Barbara Friehe for $10,000 at Buffalo, N. Y., for saying she used pads to fill out her figure.

After a quarrel over $3, Penrose Carter, a merchant at Richmond, Va., shot and killed Contractor Charles F. Moore, near that city.

To avoid going to jail as a chicken thief, James Hall, colored, has consented to be chained and saw wood for three days at Melrose Park, Ill.

A Swindler

The Greensboro Record is advising neighboring towns to lookout for Dr. G. Smith, a colored individual, who is going about selling a "hair tonic" to the colored folks, claiming that the tonic would make their hair as straight as a white man's. He swindled a number of Greensboro darkies.

He Will Be There

Gov. Jarvis will be at Johnson's Mills Thursday. A long list of appointments have been made for him in the extreme western part of the State, and we learn from a conversation with him that these appointments would have commenced this week but for his purpose to be at the great meeting in Swift Creek on Thursday next.

With Mason, Small and Jarvis there we may expect a great day.

who gauges the quality of CLOTHING by the price has no business to be married. Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our Star Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C. Sept. 26, 98.

Why should the investigation of the War Department be made a star-chamber affair? That is the question asked on every side since it was announced that Mr. McKinley's commission would until further notice, conduct the investigation behind the locked doors of a room in the War Department. Secret investigation has never been popular with the American people. This was recognized by those who stated that these doors would be closed, "until further notice." It is expected that public opinion will demand that those doors be thrown open and the testimony in this investigation be publicly taken, and that expectation will almost certainly be realized. Let the Commission make its consideration of the testimony as secret as its members may desire, but let the testimony be taken in public. Otherwise, the public will put the whole affair down as farcical. It may be only a coincidence, but it is a significant one that the chairman of Mr. McKinley's Commission is named Dodge, Gen. G. M. Dodge of Iowa. The other members, secured after much trouble and many absolute refusals to serve, are Col. J. A. Sexton, of Ill.; Capt. E. P. Howell, of Ga.; Maj. Gen. J. M. Wilson, U. S. A.; Hon. O. A.

Denby, of Ind.; Ex-Gov. Woodbury, of Vt.; Ex-Gov. Beaver, of Pa.; Gen. A. D. McCook, of New York, and Dr. F. S. Conner, of Ohio.

Giving officers honorable discharges, who have been openly accused by Generals in the army of incompetency and mismanagement, is not a good way to convince the country that the War Department either wishes to find the guilty or intends to punish them when found. A case in point is that of Lt. Col. Rush R. Huidekoper, the horse doctor who was Chief Surgeon at Camp Thomas, Chickamauga Park, and against whom many charges were made, including one from a Brigadier General, made directly to Secretary Alger. Instead of having Huidekoper court martialled, so that he could have been either vindicated or convicted, orders were issued that his resignation should be accepted and he be given an honorable discharge. Mr. McKinley heard of that order and countermanded it, and directed that Huidekoper be ordered to Washington to testify before the investigating commission. Mr. McKinley is finding out much more about things than he knew before the talk about investigation began; and it is believed that he intends making it hot for some of the guilty parties. In fact, his personal friends are telling him that he must do so for self preservation.

Representative Cochran, of Mo., who is in Washington trying to convince the administration to order more Missouri volunteers mustered out of service, said of the Republicans asking endorsement of their conduct of the war: "The Republicans will be fortunate indeed, if they can divert public attention from the bond issue, the neglect and mismanagement which has characterized the conduct of the authorities in actual charge of the prosecution of the war. How they can expect to gain any advantage by raising war issues, it is difficult to understand. The troops in the field are composed of men of all parties. They did their duty nobly, and have added to the glory and reputation of American arms, by deeds of unparalleled heroism. So much for the soldiers in the field. Now, if the authorities at Washington can afford to go to the country for approbation of an administration, which failed to provide our brave soldiers with rations, tents, medicines, and competent surgeons and attendants, during the struggle, and hinging the result of the Fall election upon this issue, the Democrats can afford to meet it. I think, however, that the war will cut very little figure. Parties will divide on old lines, and the issue of 1896 will be fought over again."

Much interest is felt in Washington in that affidavit made by "Teddy" Roosevelt, that he was not a resident of New York, but of Washington. It is not believed that the making public of this affidavit by the friends of Gov. Black, will prevent "Teddy" getting the Republican nomination for Governor of New York, but "Teddy's" explanation of why he made it will go a long way towards helping the Democrats to defeat him afterward. He says he made the affidavit under advice from his lawyers, because he was assessed for personal taxes both in New York and in Washington, and did not wish to pay double taxes. He escaped the payment of his personal taxes in New York by filing that affidavit, and a careful search of the tax book of the District of Columbia, shows that he paid no personal taxes in Washington. "Teddy's" army record shows that a tax dodger may make a tight fight but the voters of New York are likely to decide by a large majority that they do not approve of making a tax dodger Governor of their State.

Col. W. J. Bryan and Governor Holcomb, of Nebraska, received much attention from prominent Democrats during the several days they were in Washington working in the interest of Nebraska volunteers. Col. Bryan could not publicly talk politics, but he participated in some important political conferences and freely gave his opinion to his fellow democrats.

Meridian, Miss., has adopted a curfew law which differs from the traditional one in that it applies to grown men as well as children. The ordinance provides that "on each night of the week, except Saturday night, no person shall be allowed upon the streets of the city after 8 o'clock, except in cases of extreme necessity, the said hour of 8 o'clock to be indicated by eight taps of the city bell." On Saturday night everybody must seek shelter at 10 o'clock. The fine for a violation of the curfew law will be $25. The police are now busy in warning loiterers that the law will be strictly enforced, and that they must learn to keep within doors.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:
 Irbahn, N. C. July 16, '97.
 Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lancet, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. Respt.

LIGHTS IN THE PYRAMIDS.
Tomb of the Pharaohs to be Illuminated by Electricity.
 The ancient institutions of Egypt are rapidly giving way to the new order of things. For centuries old methods of transportation have been in vogue unaffected by the rapid strides in other parts of the globe, the camel being the only means of conveyance of freight and passengers, and crude agricultural implements of Biblical times have only recently been laid aside for newer machines. Idle waterfalls have been recently made to turn mill wheels, and where no falls existed the Nile's waters are being impounded for power purposes as well as for irrigation. There are immense stretches of country, until recently unproductive, now covered with cotton plantations, and their product has become of the greatest importance to Egypt. English capital is now building a great storage reservoir near Assouan, in the Upper Nile region, in which will be caught the water of the river during the freshest season, to be released in the dry times. This will feed a great irrigation system, which, it is hoped, will reclaim vast stretches of desert land and what was once a barren waste of sand will be transformed into blooming plantations, growing wheat and cotton. Thus will be restored to the ancient country its old reputation and standing as the "granary of Europe."
 The latest and not the least novel of these innovations is the illumination of the pyramids by electric light. Already the trolley car has invaded the ancient precincts, and it is possible to ride to these old structures from several points by electric vehicles. Wires will soon be laid from the Assouan cataract, where a modern power plant will be constructed, to the pyramids, and the interior rooms and passageways as well as the exterior will be ablaze with electric light. Many timid persons have heretofore been deterred from making this trip because of the gloomy interior. The tour was formerly made with the assistance of several natives, who acted as guides and torch-bearers, their flaming lights serving only to enhance the darkness of the passageways.

Wonder of a Volcanic Isle.
 One of the greatest wonders of Java, "the fire island," a large lake of boiling mud, is situated almost in the plains of Grobogana, some distance to the northeast of Solo. It is nearly two miles in circumference, and in the center immense columns of soft, hot mud may be seen continually rising and falling, like great black timbers thrust forth and then suddenly withdrawn by a giant's hand. Besides the pho-nomena of the columns, there are two gigantic bubbles near the western edge, which fill up like huge balloons and explode on an average three times per minute.

Good Advice.

We hear that a colored preacher told his congregation Sunday that the white people were entitled to halt the sidewalks and should be given all that belonged to them in passing. That preacher was giving his hearers good advice.
