JOHNSON'S MILLS RALLY

Two Thousand People Present—Cavalcade of 150 Horsemen—Republicans and Populists Coming to the Democrats

A good day was the Democratic rally at Johnson's Mills on Thursday. People arriving early on the grounds could see strings of vehicles coming from every direction. These continued to pour in until the crowd reached fully 2,000 people. A long table in the grove, and a large speaker's stand with plenty of seats around it told what the occasion was for, to fill both the heads and stomachs of the people full of good things. And verily, every one was filled.

A cavalcade of exactly 151 horsemen, with flags floating from their hats and from the heads of their steeds, rode out two miles to meet the speakers, Hons. John H. Small, Thomas W. Mason and Thos. J. Jarvis, and escort them in. Henry Keel and Dick King were given places of honor at the head of the column which came in with shouts all along the line. Arriving at the scene of the speaking Mr. Small, our candidate for Congress, was taken bodily from his carriage and borne on the shoulders of four stalwart Democrats to the stand and a rousing demonstration was given him.

At the stand Job Moore, Tobe Johnson and Joe La'ham were in charge to make announcements and introduce the speakers. Notice those three names a moment. The first always a true blue Democrat, the second always known heretofore as a leading Republican, the third a prominent Populist from the beginning of that party, now all three standing shoulder to shoulder for a white man's ticket and white supremacy. And that seemed just the situation throughout Swift Creek township, all white men, regardless of what they have been politically, joining hands for the protection of their homes and for good government.

Hons. Small, Mason and Jarvis were the principal speakers, the two first named coming before dinner and the latter after. And such speeches as they delivered are seldom heard. They were all listened to with closest attention and were frequently applauded.

Just after Goy, Jarvis had finished John Dail, of Ayden, took the stand. Mr. Dail has been a prominent Populist for several years and has been a leader in his section in working for that party. He made a strong speech showing where that party had left its meetings and gone to the Republicans and said he could not follow there, but was coming to the white men's party. A. A. Forbes, who was the Populist State Senator four years ago, was called for and also made a strong speech. Following him the several nominees on the county ticket made brief announcements.

An incident between the speeches of Small and Mason was the introduction of Bill Kilpatrick as the youngest Democratic speaker in Swift Creek township. Bill is a little son of F. M. Kilpatrick, and is only about 5 years old. He was stood on top of a box and in a strong, clear voice for one so small delivered this speech:

Ladies and Gentlemen,
 I'm a political man, though small as you see
 A Democrat I am bound to be;
 So goodbye, third party, I must bid you adieu,
 I may wander to the devil, but never to you.
 The little fellow was given a hearty round of applause.
 Dinner was served about 2 o'clock.

It was one of the best managed affairs we ever saw. Those 2,000 people were lined along the tables in perfect order and there was ample for them all to eat. The entire occasion was remarkable for its good order and excellent management. It reflected great credit upon the people of Swift Creek township and shows that they know how to manage and take care of a crowd.

That it was a red letter day for Democracy need not be said, for the enthusiasm told this stronger than words can express.

Hundreds of ladies graced the occasion with their presence and encouraged the men in their struggle for white supremacy and home protection.

Fair and Races.

Some days ago THE REFLECTOR announced that a movement was on foot to establish a fair in Pitt county. This movement has developed in the organization of the Greenville Tobacco Fair Association with O. H. Ker president and H. A. White secretary and treasurer. The association is composed of substantial men who will carry it to success. The date for the first fair has been set for Nov. 9th 10th and 11th, as will be seen by announcement in this paper. The premiums on exhibits is $1,500 and the purses for races $2,100. There will be prize tobacco sales and many features of interest. Let the people throughout the county lend a hand to this enterprise. Bring some of your best products and finest stock for exhibition and win some of the prizes, list of which will be out in a few days. Watch for later announcements.

Take Either Alternative

If the Democratic and fusion administrations have both been honest it is manifest that the Democrats were the better managers—were the more economical; if neither was honest, but both stole then it is manifest from the figures that the fusionists have stolen the most. After all his swelling around about free silver, Senator Butler could not prevent nineteen of his people in the Legislature from voting for a gold bug for Senator, and his explanation of it was that they would have proved their loyalty to silver if they had not been bought. It may be that he and his fellow fusionists will pitch their defence of their State government on substantially the same ground and say that they surely would have fulfilled their promises of cheaper government and reform except that some of their people stole the public money.

The truth about it is that for what it accomplished for its general efficiency, Democratic government in North Carolina was a marvel of economy. No party or combination of parties, however honest it or they might be, could take this State and conduct its affairs on the same plane as that on which the Democrats conducted them, on a smaller expenditure of money.—Charlotte Observer.

A STUPID FELLOW.

who gauges the quality of CLOTHING by the price has no business to be married. Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. The lady of the house generally knows where she can get the most and best for the money.

They are seeing the Light

The Populists, who are honest citizens (and we have always known and declared that most of them are honest)—are beginning to see the light, and are walking in the light.

There is a Populist of this character in Martin county, Mr. Samuel Pate. A Democratic neighbor asked Mr. Pate how he would vote with the Republicans to fasten such negro government as exists in Craven county. Mr. Pate replied that he didn't believe it was anything like the Democrats said, but that if it was he would not advocate fusion with the Republicans. The Democratic neighbor then said: "I will make you a proposition, You go to Newbern and look into the matter there. If you do not find it like the Democrats say, I will pay your expenses and not ask you to vote with us. But if it is exactly as the Democrats say, then you will pay your own expenses and vote the Democratic ticket."

Mr. Pate accepted and went to Newbern to see how things are conducted there and whether his Fusion leaders or the Democrats were telling the truth. What did he find? The Newbern Journal says:

"Mr. Samuel Pate, an industrious farmer of Martin county, was a visitor in Newbern yesterday, and seeing how matters stood here, was so shocked at the negro supremacy in evidence that he declared at once that he was through with Populism, and was for Democracy and the white man's government hereafter."

Later Mr. Pate gave the Journal the following card:

"To the People of North Carolina:

"Two years ago I was persuaded to leave the Democratic party, in hopes of furthering certain reforms which I was led to believe could be secured through the agency of the Populist party and through that party alone. But since the eventful election of 1896, I have had my eyes opened to the corruption of the Populist leaders, and have witnessed the ungodly subservience of principle to greed. I have seen that the Populist machine aids, abets, and stands pledged to fasten negroism even more firmly upon the people of the Old North State than that which at present curses our people.

"Fellow citizens: I am a white man, and I believe that this country and this State should be controlled by white men alone. I am for white supremacy first, last and all the time. I cannot stand with a party which stands for negroism and every species of wrong and misgovernment. In Craven county I see the negroes are completely in control of the Republican party, and yet the Populists are moving Heaven and earth to arrange fusion with such a crowd I cannot, will not, support any such unholy movement, and when election day rolls around, I will be found voting the Democratic ticket and get all others I can, which is the only ticket for a white man to vote. SAMUEL PATE 'Of Martin County.'

If every honest Populist in the State, who wants good government, could take a trip like Mr. Pate did and see for himself what negro supremacy has wrought, the white man's party would win this year by 80,000 majority.—Raleigh News and Observer.

True Friend of the Negro

The Democratic party is not an enemy of the colored man. It is his friend. All that has ever been done for him in North Carolina has been done by Democrats. This is the only party that treats the negro honestly. It promises and gives him, his rights, the protection of the law and the benefit of a good government, under which he may live happily, contentedly, and accumulate property if he will work. It does not promise him office, and will never give it to him. It promises him no elevation over the white people, and its war in this campaign is not against the negro himself, but against the pig-hunters, who, for the sake of getting his vote for themselves, are willing to hoist him to positions for which he is not competent, and which he would not attempt to reach but for the demagogues who want to climb over him into office.—Monroe Journal.

DANGER IN SODA.

Serious Results Sometimes Follow Its Excessive Use.

Common Soda is all right in its proper place and indispensable in the kitchen and for cooking and washing purposes, but it was never intended for a medicine, and the people who use it as such will some day regret it.

We refer to the common use of soda to relieve heartburn or sour stomach, a habit which thousands of people practice almost daily, and one of which is fraught with danger; moreover the soda only gives temporary relief and in the end the stomach trouble gets worse and worse.

The soda acts as a mechanical irritant to the walls of the stomach and bowels and cases are on record where it accumulated in the intestines, causing death by inflammation or peritonitis.

Dr. Harlandson recommends as the safest and surest cure for sour stomach (acid dyspepsia) an excellent preparation sold by drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. These tablets are large 20 grain lozenges, very pleasant to taste and contain the natural acids, pepsines and digestive elements essential to good digestion, and when taken after meals they digest the food perfectly and promptly before it has time to ferment, sour and poison the blood and nervous system.

Dr. Wuertth states that he invariably uses Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets in all cases of stomach derangements and finds them a certain cure not only for sour stomach, but by promptly digesting the food they create a healthy appetite, increase flesh and strengthen the action of the heart and liver. They are not cathartic, but intended only for stomach diseases and weakness and will be found reliable in any stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

All druggists sell Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at 50c per package. A little book describing all forms of stomach weakness and their cure mailed free by addressing the Stuart Co., of Marshall, Mich.

DYSPEPSIA

"For six years I was a victim of dyspepsia in its worst form. I could eat nothing but milk toast, and at times my stomach would not retain and digest even that. Last March I began taking CASCARETS and since then I have steadily improved, until I am as well as I ever was in my life."

Where Wives Are in Demand.
 Wives are wanted in Rhodesia. The British South Africa Company is anxious for active colonization. For many years the Chartered Company has discountenanced marriage among the mounted police, civil servants and other employes, a measure for which Cecil Rhodes, whose misogynist views are well known, has been held responsible. But this policy has been entirely reversed, and an edict has gone forth among the Chartered Company's officials promising that preference in promotion will be given to married men and advising all who can do so to enter forthwith into the bonds of matrimony.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:
 Graham, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lance, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably, I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To my satisfaction the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only. We wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—
