Those in Must Stay In

Washington, Oct. 3.—To a number of interested callers today. President McKinley had occasion to reiterate his determination to have no more troops mustered out for the present. In the course of several interviews he stated in substance that it was the intention of the administration to send fresh troops to Porto Rico to take the place of the volunteers who will have to be returned and who will be given turpounds. He stated very firmly that there would be no general discharges until the situation was cleared up.

The President also during the day testified his appreciation of the soldiers from the South. To a delegation he said one of the results of the war which particularly gratified him was that the war seemed to have effaced the last vestige of sectional feeling as between the North and the South. He referred to the hearty responses from the South when the war broke out and concluded with the statement that if the elimination of all difference of feelings between the North and the South will continue permanently, he would be a happy man. He also spoke of the evident contentment of the Southern troops to remain in service so long as they were needed.

Brained With an Axe.

Warrenton, N. C., Oct. 3.—Mr. William Lynch, a respected white citizen of Warren county, was murdered this morning by William Hargrove, colored. Hargrove was employed by Lynch as a servant, and lived on the premises. This morning he was about two hours late in getting at his work. After breakfast had been cooked, Mr. Lynch walked from his house into the yard. Upon approaching the negro, he said: "Why are you so late today? Don't you think it is about time you were at work?"

Mrs. Lynch was sitting at the breakfast table and heard her husband speak. A moment afterwards she saw the negro run by the window of the dining room.

Alarmed at this, Mrs. Lynch went on the porch to ascertain the commotion. Stretched out in the yard was the body of her husband, with his head cut open and his brains oozing out on the ground.

The negro made his escape and has not been heard from. The good people of the community are terribly incensed. Mr. Lynch was brained with an axe by the brutal negro.—Releigh Post.

Chaplain a Suicide.

San Francisco, Oct. 3.—Advices received today from Japan state that Rev. Thaddeus F. Freeman, chaplain of the United States cruiser Baltimore, committed suicide by jumping overboard from the steamer Zealandia in Nagasaki harbor. He was mentally depressed through failing health.

WINNIE DAVIS

Under the Stars and Stripes
 How still she lies;
 How pale the sunny face—
 Death-closed, the eyes,
 Outside, a people mourn,
 Gray coats and blue;
 Bands play a solemn dirge;
 Tears all unbidden surge
 In eyes still true.

Under the Stars and Stripes,
 As a lily, fair,
 Lies there a girlish form—
 What else lies there?
 Hush! For "The Lost Cause" she
 Stood brave and true.
 Faithful; her woman's heart
 Love filled, from hate apart—
 Off, caps of blue!
 Half-mast, the Stars and Stripes
 Over a girl!
 Stilled are triumphal shouts,
 O'ld flags we furl.
 Warm hearts beat sadly 'neath
 Gray coats and blue.
 "Our Daughter," say the gray—
 "Yours and ours—One, today,"
 Whisper the blue.
 —Rochester Post-Express.

TIRED OF POLITICS

GRIFFON, N. C., Oct. 5, 1898.

MR. EDITOR:

Please say (to my friends) in your paper that from now on, and henceforth I shall eschew politics, always reserving the right to vote and work only for good, honest men for office. My reason for this conclusion is there is too much demagogary in politics for a man to take hold of, that will destroy all his "Christian virtues," if he has any. Such is my experience, and now by God's help I shall try to regain that which I have lost (my religion) by dabbling in politics, and spend the remainder of my days in my Lord's service by letting the devil and his works severely alone.

S. V. LAUGHINGHOUSE.

JUST FOR FUN

Perspiration o' zed.

A package party—the expressman,
 Summer seems to linger in the lap of October.

An uptown baker is doing a rushing business in "kisses." He calls them
 "Robson."

"This is nice October weather," remarked the fiend, and the patient man replied: "July!"

Hoax—"Jenkins' baby swallowed a tape measure, and it stuck in the child's throat and nearly choked the poor kid." Joax—"Why didn't they call in the doctor?" Hoax—"They did call him, but he couldn't budge an inch."

A STUPID FELLOW.

who gauges the quality of CLOTHING by the price has no business to be married. Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. The lady of the house generally knows where she can get the most and best for the money.

The new battleship Illinois that is being constructed at the Norfolk navy yard was launched Tuesday.

Some Populist speakers have pretended to be very anxious to learn the names of those former Populists who were returning to the Democratic party. The Charlotte Observer accommodates them by giving a long list of the names with addresses, and refers to it as an exodus.

A Dandy Barber.

Red Springs, down on the Cape Fear road, must be a good place to live. They don't do things by halves when it comes down to business. As proof of it, look at this from the Wilmington Messenger, the truth of which is vouched for by a gentleman who lives there, and is well known here:

"I think Red Springs leads the State in 'barbers.' We have a white barber here who says he shaves only White Men. No 'niggers' or Populists are shaved in his shop. The barber's name is Pete Cowan. To-day a deputy sheriff of Robeson county came in to get a shave. Mr. Cowan showed him a list of the members of a White Supremacy organization and asked him to sign it. On his refusal to do so Mr. Cowan told him to get out of his shop, and made him get out of the chair and leave. He told him he shaved only White Men, and no Populists or niggers could shave in his place. These are facts and I take pleasure in giving them to you."

Agree with Dancy

The negro is making rapid strides in these days. From a slave to freedom. From a political inferior to social equality, these are easily, quickly passed, and now the infamous Dancy intermarriage of the races is being discussed, and in a measure meeting the full approval of the negroes.

A local instance of this took place the other day in a talk between a country man and a negro office holder of Craven.

The conversation turned upon the Rochester, N. Y., convention where John C. Dancy, colored, of Wilmington, N. C., was elected vice president, and where a resolution was passed favoring the abolition of the law prohibiting intermarriage of whites and blacks.

"I suppose you will be glad to see the marriage of whites and blacks," said the white man, in order to get the negro's views.

"Yes, I am in favor of the law, but it will be hard on the white men, for while we colored men can get white wives, it will not be so easy for white men to get good looking colored women. It would take a good white man to get such a fine looking colored woman as my wife is. Yes, I want to see this law enacted, but it will be hard on the white man."

Is any commentary necessary? Could the estimate of the character of the white race be placed in any lower, meaner or more common degree?

Truly the negro is setting a rapid pace, one which is leading to his destruction.—Newbern Journal.

A Populist in giving his reasons for quitting the Populist party and uniting with the Democrats, says: "We did not think so at the time, but when we first faced with the Republican party 'we sold our birth-right for a mess of pottage.'" True, every word of it, and the gentleman might have added the bad men in the movement got all the pottage, while the honest masses were left to scuffle about without relief of any sort. On the contrary, instead of "relief" they have greater burdens, an increase of offices and salaries, scandals and disturbances as their only share of the fusion. It was unholy, and all have suffered, except the pottage eaters.—Raleigh Post.

The fusion leaders in their desperation are secretly sending out circulars to frighten the negroes and poor white people, saying that if the Democrats carry the legislature they will deprive them of the right to vote, and some "lewd fellows of the baser sort" are privately telling them the same thing. The Democrats had power for twenty years, and never attempted anything of the kind. Besides, the constitution of the State forbids it and it can not be done. It is simply a lie, started and spread for the purpose of scaring people.—Concord Times

The railway system in the United States employs 36,000 locomotives, 26,000 passenger cars and 8,000 mail and baggage cars. These figures seem large till the number of freight cars is stated, which is 1,250,000. A passenger train consisting of locomotive, tender, baggage and six passenger cars, with their contents, is estimated to weigh about 184 tons. Freight trains sometimes reach a weight of 550 tons.

Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, has accepted an invitation to speak at a Democratic barbeque in Fayetteville on the 21st instant.

TO CURE NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

To Gain Flesh, to Sleep Well, to Know What Appetite and Good Digestion Mean, Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

Interesting Experience of an Indianapolis Gentleman.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think that their nerves are to blame, are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines and spring remedies; the real seat of mischief is lost sight of; the stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every other organ; in some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others, the kidneys are affected, in others, the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite, with the accumulation of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

Mr. A. W. Barber of No. 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind., writes as follows: "A motive of pure gratitude prompts me to write these few lines regarding the new and valuable medicine, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I have been a sufferer from nervous dyspepsia for the last four years; have used various patent medicines and other remedies without any favorable result. They sometimes gave temporary relief until the effects of the medicine wore off. I attributed this to my sedentary habits, being a bookkeeper with little physical exercise, but I am glad to state that the tablets have overcome all these obstacles, for I have gained in flesh, sleep better, and am better in every way. The above is written not for notoriety, but is based on actual facts.

Respectfully yours,
 A. W. SHAPPER,
 61 Prospect St., Indianapolis, Ind.
 It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headaches.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Grabam, N. C. July 16, '97.
 Oneida Cotton Mills:
 About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold at the ears, the little boy having been lamed in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.
