The Miller's Daughter or Bound in Honor

Rehearsals are going on every night at the opera house and a rich treat is in store for Greenville people at the opening next Wednesday night Oct. 12.

The Miller's Daughter or Bound in Honor is a mixture of comedy and tragedy not too light nor too heavy. Just such a plot as pleases the light hearted and interspersed with enough tragedy to satisfy the most serious. The cast is as follows:

- Basil Lawrence and Lord Harry-ton—Wm. F. Harding.
- John Derwent and Humped Tom—R. M. Meye.
- Squire Thornton—Ed Flanagan.
- Lord Hyde—R. Hyman.
- Dicky Brown—J. B. Lightfoot.
- Black Joe—Jarvis Harding.
- Mountain Mag—Miss Mollie Parham.
- Countess Harrington—Miss Bessie Jarvis.
- Mrs. Derwent and Lady Isabel Hyde—Miss Aylmer Sugg.
- Beauty Lynn—Miss Lizzie Laughinghouse.
- Elsie Mlle Cerani—The Millers daughter, Miss Sallie Lipscomb.

A little peep in at the rehearsal last night enables us to make the following brief paragraphs upon the cast of the characters:

Mr. W. F. Harding as Basil Lawrence, one of the principal characters, shows talent that would do credit to more than an amateur. He is equal to his part and will please the audience.

Miss Sallie Lipscomb, always a favorite here in amateur troops, as Elsie, will sustain her former reputation, having the faculty of being able to appear serious at the right moment and under the force of her love becomes equally bright and light hearted. To say that Bob Meye as Mr. Derwent the Miller, is one of the cast is enough to convince that the role played by him is well sustained and Bob will show you this when the play comes off. Ed Flanagan as a villainous Squire has interpreted his part and makes a hit in the death scene dying "with a lie on his lips." He shows decided talent for acting. Mr. Hyman makes a splendid love sick "old fool" who yields to the smiles of Beauty Lynn and finds himself thrown off before he knows it. Miss Lizzie Laughinghouse insists that she knows nothing of the art of flirting, yet she does it so well one would think her yielding to a natural inclination. She plays well a good part. Miss Aylmer Sugg as Lady Isabel sustains her role well and can act the jealous woman so well one would think her a little tainted with that malady. Any way she is equal to her part. Miss Mollie Parham as Mountain Mag is a veritable witch and the management has builded better than it knew in securing her in that role. Miss Bessie Jarvis, always dignified and stately has only to be her natural self to act well the part assigned her.

Mr. Lightfoot as Dickey Brown has attended only one rehearsal, but when the time comes he will be there for his share of the honors. Jarvis Harding and Bob Meye as Mountain Ruffians are good.

In fact the entire cast is well adapted to the parts assigned and those who have seen the rehearsals say it is the best amateur company Greenville has ever had.

who gauges the quality of CLOTHING by the price has no business to be married. Yet one of this class directed his wife to buy Clothing from another firm because they charged more for it, and "it must therefore be better." His better half bought some from us and some from the other house, and showed her husband that they were identical. This proved conclusively how foolish a man can be when he really tries. The lady of the house generally knows where she can get the most and best for the money.

MR DAIL'S SPEECH

He Comes Out Squally for White Supremacy

(Concluded from yesterday.)

Neither were we billed to such a party as that other great and pure man proposed, to represent; that man that used to drive the mules about the tow-path up "Clinton's big ditch" you know, that man who was too good to live in the white house as the chief representative of the then greatly corrupted republican party, who was also brutally assassinated, the details of which tragedy, it fully known and handed down in history would make every true American blush with shame.

fession is good for the soul; therefore I submit this my humble and honest confession.

Again I ask, what shall we do. Shall we still support the arch traitor who has thus endeavored to use us? who has the effrontery the cheek, to again ask us to vote for him. Who so beautifully preached free silver and other reform, saying the people's desire should be respected, who when the appointing power was in his own hands and we his humble Supporters prayed him to appoint as certain men to certain offices, he obstinately and wilfully refused to grant our humble prayers; but at the request of a few court house suckers, who had no more to do with our business than a Hottentot on an iceberg, appointed men contrary to the wishes of the people of all parties.

My dear fellow reformers; How long before we get the desired reform, voting for such a demagogue, and the republican party which openly declares against it? If time should last throughout the unfathomable length of eternity and we permitted to live that long we could not hope for the promised reform.

In the name of heaven and all that is holy and good, what shall we do? fellow citizens I find, not in my limited vocabulary, words that would suitably set forth the awful, and yet deserved damnation, that awaiteth the vile wretch who can wilfully, deliberately, treacherously and schemingly take advantage of any people un-informed as we, were and lead them as he has us to such an awful precipice, and then have the cheek to ask as this arch traitor does us to plunge themselves headlong into the very cesspools of republican filth and degradation. Fellow reformers! While I have no desire, even if I could, to dictate the policy of any man I will say in conclusion; let us bear whatso ever political title we may, as there is no honest man of any political party, either white or black, that desires the awful state of affairs that negro supremacy brings on our fair Southland, in the name of God and right; in the name and for the sake of the church of Jesus Christ and all the holy apostles; in the names of fathers and framers of our noble government and those who defended it and those who have suffered assassination for it; and in the name and for the sake our dear Southern ladies, our wives, daughters, mothers and sisters, let us stand up as white men and honest men for white supremacy, regardless of every promised reform, that few, if any of us, even hope to see.

One thing more! I understand that it has been intimated that I went to the third party for office, and left because I failed to get it, I say, that a more contemptible, base falsehood never fell from the lips of a demon; but the poor unfortunate wretch is more to be pitied than blamed perhaps as he may have stated it in ignorance of the fact that I was offered two offices by the said third party, and refused to accept either of them. But if it were true that not getting an office was the cause of me leaving the awful stench, that fusion, corruption and degradation has brought on us, I say thank God I did not get the office.

The Negro Magistrates of '77

No better proof could be furnished of the fact that the fusionists are sorely pressed for a defense to offer the people for the reign of negroism in the east than the big circulars on colored paper they are now distributing and posting throughout the State. It attempts to excuse their putting the schools, the courts, the police forces and the town and county governments of the east, under the control of the negroes, by charging that the Democratic Legislature of 1877 elected 107 negro magistrates. On this poster is given the names of the Democrats who voted for the bill electing about 3,000 magistrates 107 of whom, the fusion managers say, were negroes. The record of the Democratic party as a white man's party has been so well established that we knew that this poster bore the imprints of falsehood as soon as we saw it. We looked up the journal of the Legislature and found the facts as follows:

The committee on the election of magistrates agreed that each Democratic member should make up the list of magistrates for his county, and that each Republican member should have the naming of one-third of the magistrates of his county, while the other two-thirds would be selected by the Democratic members of the committee. The lists were brought in and the magistrates for the whole State, about 3,000 in number, were elected by one vote. The lists of the Republican members for one-third of the magistrates from their counties were accepted without question. There were no marks to the names to indicate that any of them were negroes. After the election the fact cropped out that some of the men were negroes, and immediately many of the Democrats had a protest entered on the journal.

Thus we see that our opponents by their squirming and twisting, get deeper and deeper into the mire. Those 107 negro magistrates were named by Republicans. Even when they were in the minority they put negroes in office by reason of the courtesy extended them by their Democratic associates, and we are told by those who recollect the circumstances, that these Republicans, when called upon for an explanation, said they had put in the names of negroes for magistrates because there were no white Republicans in certain townships to take the offices.--Newton Enterprise.

Mr. McBride Holt Says:

Greenville, N. C. July 16, '97.

Oneida Cotton Mills:

About two and a half years ago my little boy about four years, and my little girl about two years, each had an enlargement of the glands about the ears. The trouble appearing on each about the same time, I was inclined to think it mumps, but soon observing to the contrary, I called in the doctor, who said the trouble came from colds, prescribing accordingly, yet swelling continued to grow, until each had to hold or the lancet, the little boy having been lanced in three places, and at three times, his face at times, looking alarming. The nature of the trouble was termed one thing by one and another thing by another. This however, did not concern me, as I was looking for a cure, and Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy having been called to my attention so favorably. I dropped the treatment from the doctor and commenced to use Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. To say that the results obtained have been satisfactory is putting it in mild terms, the children, and especially the little boy being entirely well, yet wearing the scars that will ever keep fresh in my memory the merits of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

SYRUP OF FIGS

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties.
