JARVIS PREDICTS SUCCESS.

Ex Governor Jarvis spoke here to a large and appreciative audience Saturday night. Leading Democrats here say his speech has had good effect, and they now believe Henderson county will give a small Democratic majority. Henderson has for years given 300 to 400 Republican majority.

Ex-Governor Jarvis furnishes your correspondent with the following statement today:

"I confidently believe the Democrats will carry the State. Our great contest is to secure the Legislature and to elect our candidates for judges of the Superior Court. In this State the Governor has no veto power, and the power of the Legislature is only limited by the constitution. Hence much depends on the Legislature. The party that controls the Legislature controls the State. Both parties are therefore putting forth their best efforts to control that body.

"It now looks like the Democrats will not only elect a majority of both houses of the Legislature, but that they will elect the Democratic candidates for judges and a number of the congressional candidates."

"I have been in the campaign since the 4th of July and have been in nearly all sections of the State. I find the Democrats everywhere active and enthusiastic. There were in the State in 1896 32,000 Populists, and I think 20,000 of this number will vote the Democratic ticket this year. Many old-time Republicans will also vote with us, while thousands others will not vote at all. With all these elements favorable to Democracy, it seems to me victory is certain and that the fusion majority of 40,000 will be wiped out. The results of fusion in this State have been so disastrous that thousands of good men who voted for it two years ago, repudiate it now and will vote to put the State back into the hands of the Democratic party. Each day, in my opinion, but adds to our certainty of victory. The tide sets all the time one way in this great campaign for white supremacy in this State."—Hendersonville Special, 17th, to Atlanta Journal.

THE TRUTH COMES OUT.

On the 26th of September, W. H. Chadbourn, postmaster of Wil mington, and a leading Republican of New Hanover county, wrote a letter to Senator Pritchard, in which he sought to make it appear that statements that had been published in regard to negroes holding office in New Hanover were Democratic misrepresentations, without specifically denying the truth of the assertions. That the letter was well calculated to produce such an impression is evident from the fact that it has been published prominently in every fusionist newspaper in the State and has been issued as a campaign document from the headquarters of both the Republican and Populist State Committees.

Three weeks' reflection upon that letter and the effect it had upon the public; especially in Wilmington where it was impossible to receive his neighbors and friends, sufficed to convince Mr. Chadbourn that he had done the people of his city and county a grievous wrong and by attempting to create a false impression abroad in regard to the state of affairs existing there. The only course open to an honorable man was to do what he could to repair the injury that he had done his community. This Mr. Chadbourn has done by writing a second let ter to Senator Pritchard in which he holds back no part of the truth making a statement of facts that fully justifies all that has been charged by the promoters of white supremacy.

The letter follows: Wilmington, N. C., Oct. 13, 1898

Senator J. C. Pritchard,

Dear Sir:--Since writing you on September 26th, events have taken place in this community which necessitates some farther explanation on my part in order to put myself right before the community here, and also to correct any mistaken impression I may have made in your mind.

For the sake of any fancied political advantage I cannot afford to make a one-sided presentation of the situation in this City and County, and by naming only the white officials and leaving out the colored, doubtless some advantage has been taken, and a false color given to the actual situation, to which the business people and taxpayers regardless of party have made objection.

As a matter of fact, there are in this county thirty-six colored magistrates, and a colored register of deeds and various other minor officials besides some Presidential appointees, and the property owners, taxpayers and business men seriously object to this state of affairs, and there now exists here the most intense feelings against any sort of negro domination.

There is a greater feeling of unrest and uncertainty about the maintenance of order than I have ever seen, and many, even the most conservative feel that a race conflict is imminent, than which nothing could be more disastrous not only to this city and county, but to our party in the State: and rather than have riot, arson and bloodshed prevail here, I, Republican though I am, advise giving up the local offices in this county, as there are no national political principles involved in this contest.

I had thought at first that it was merely the usual political cry and the fight for the offices, but I am now convinced the feeling is much deeper than this, as it pervades the whole community, and there seems to be a settled determination on the part of the property owners, business men and taxpayers that they will administer city and county government.

Your friend, W. H. CHADBOURN, Raleigh Post.

Investors Driven Away

The effect of negro rule in our community may be seen from the following, which is part of a letter written to a gentleman in Wilmington by Mr. G. Fred Anslad of Cambridge, Md., one of a party of real estate men and capitalists who came to Wilmington on a prospecting tour:

"While in Wilmington we were very comfortably located. We spent part of Saturday, August 13th, at Ocean View, where the spectacle of a burly negro fighting a white policeman, and defying everybody was witnessed by myself and Mr. Orntsten. Sunday, August 14th, we spent a very pleasant day at the Hanover Club Carolina Beach, and I must say that we thought your white population charming and your city and surrounding country all that could be desired; but the power of the negro was more than we could stand. With a feeling of regret, nay of sorrow, I saw a fine country, with the greatest possibilities, ruined of its prospects, through the baneful influences of a race that few white men and no women can trust. You have negro police in your city, and we would absolutely refuse negro protection for our families. We saw thousands of acres of land lying waste, but I would not advise any of my clients to settle on them with the negro as a power in your State.

"We found the same deplorable condition in Weldon (colored postmaster, etc.) Wilson, and all over the State."--Wilmington Star.

The business men of Wilmington have held a meeting and taken steps to substitute white for negro laborers. By their conduct the negroes of Wilmington have made themselves a menace to the community and the men who furnish them employment and consequently a support are determined that they will not longer give them aid and comfort.--Greensboro Record.

Note the Difference.

The Democratic candidates had another big day at Falkland Wednesday. There was a large and enthusiastic gathering of white men and they gave the speakers a warm reception. J. L. Fleming, who goes along with the candidates, gets better every time he speaks, and at Falkland made the best he has yet delivered. A. L. Blow also made a rousing speech, full of facts and figures that exploded the big yarns the fusionists are going around telling. The candidates were all there and fully held up their end of the speaking. At every appointment they find people coming back to the white man's party and the outlook for Democratic success grows brighter every day.

The sure day the fusionist candidates were at Ayden, and what a contrast there was between their meeting and the one by the Democrats at Falkland. The Ayden speaking was attended by about 25 negroes and 15 Populists, and a few Democrats who were there out of curiosity. A telephone message to THE REFLECTOR said it was about the poorest attempt at speaking that has occurred in the whole campaign. Phillips told them that he got drunk when he was in the Legislature, but if they sent him back he “wouldn't do so any more.” But his promise won't do to count on and he will not be sent back. J. J. Perkins undertook to make a financial speech and tell how much had been saved the county under fusion rule, but they say his speech fell as flat as a pancake. Our informant further said that they were about the most desolate and disappointed looking set of speakers that could be pictured.

Another Row.

Late Wednesday afternoon Messrs. H. F. Keel and Sam Daniel were talking together in the vicinity of Smith & Hooker's livery stables. A colored man named Frank Fleming stepped up and asked what they were talking about. Daniel replied that it was none of his business. The negro became insolent and used abusive language when Daniel struck him across the head with a cane. The negro started off, cursing as he went, when Daniel drew a pistol and fired at him but did not strike him. Later Keel was talking with some other men about the occurrence when the negro came up again and began using abusive language to Keel. Keel struck at him and the two clinched, a few light blows passing. The negro broke loose and got away just before a crowd of white men rushed up. His absence at the time brought an end to the trouble.

With the feeling as high here as it is, it does look like the colored people ought to behave themselves and not be trying to bring on a disturbance.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper o'er. Who once asked me, as they ask you, "o step into their store. I bought a suit, I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price. Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of cloth: The better they did please I advertised Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well-made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grades Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Price.
