WHITE MEN SHOT WITHOUT PROVOCATION.

Lumberton, N. C., Oct. 23.—A dangerous riot occurred at Ashepole, this county, last night. Negroes to the number of forty or fifty, all armed, came in early in the evening, threatening to kill the white people and burn the town.

The white citizens hastily armed themselves and drove the negroes out of the town.

The negroes then promised to disperse and return to their homes, but guards were left out to protect the people from the black marauders.

Late in the night the guard was fired on and three white men—Albert Floyd, Rob't Inman and Wm. Bullard were seriously shot.

The ring leaders of the black mob are known and a crowd of one hundred men, heavily armed, are after them with blood-hounds.

More trouble is expected. The negroes have been inflamed by incendiary speeches and the white people are determined to quench it if possible in its incipency.—News and Observer.

PERKINS AT AYDEN.

Some Thoughts on His Speech.

BY J. DALL.

Mr. Perkins in his speech at Ayden emphasized the fact that according to contract he was entitled to the Populist vote of Pitt county and boastingly said "I am going to have it"

In the name of our dear old county, my fellow Populists, who has the right to sell us to Mr. Perkins or any other man or set of men? Are we freemen? If so by what authority can he claim our votes by right? He says he is entitled to our votes because he voted the negro of Pitt county for Populists. Great God! what an insult to the colored voters of Pitt county. How can a colored man vote for him in the face of such an insult? and yet some if not all of them will do it.

There is not a colored man on earth that I am not friendly towards that I know of, and I hate to see their race insulted in any such a wholesale way. But that is with them, I have nothing to do with it.

As for myself, Mr. Perkins will have to produce a stronger claim on my vote before he gets it, I think. What do you say my fellow Populists?

Now I have this to say about his voting the colored men of Pitt county for Populist candidates, that if he did or did not, I am free to vote for whomsoever I will. No man has the right to deliver me or my vote to Mr. Perkins or any other man, and I have a better opinion of the colored voters of old Pitt county than to believe that they would be voted against their wills for any man, by Mr. Perkins or any other man. So they must have voted for Populist candidates willingly. If not Mr. Perkins ought to be dealt with according to law on his own statement.

Again he said, after raising every man present, both white and black, to almost fighting heat, that he was glad to see the people getting mad and went on to quote, "Whom the gods would destroy they first make mad." Well, he succeeded very well in making the people mad, but how he will succeed in destroying them is yet to be seen.

Mr. Phillips said if we would elect him again he would not get drunk like he did before, but I think if we want to save our big gun for future use, and I think we ought to encourage soberness, we will do well to keep him away from Raleigh. He might catch another monkey by the tail. They were actually so hard up for something to talk about that some of the crowd went back so far as the ant bellum negro, how he used to affect political ends. A people that stood by our most sacred interests in the days of carnage and blood as no other people recorded by the historian would have done under like circumstances; a people always to be trusted until they fell into the hands of designing politicians like Perkins and the rest of the crowd who are so bitterly opposing white supremacy, white metal and good government in our grand old State.

Fellow Populists, I want to appeal to you all in words of truth soberness for I feel that we have the greatest responsibility resting on our shoulders of any party or faction thereof in the history of our country. The life, progress and happiness of sweet womanhood and honest manhood are to be preserved by our votes on the 8th of Nov, or engulfed for ever in ruin and utter desolation. In the name of our beloved State and her sweet women what shall we do? The Republican party says plunge her still deeper in to destruction with her womanhood and manhood. The Democrat party says save the State, her womanhood and manhood. Then what shall we do?

Can we ruin forever our wives, daughters, mothers and sisters and the promising manhood of our dear old State by voting for the Republican party, when our votes are cast in favor of the Democrat party will lift us above the awful disgrace now upon us? No! No! No! fellow Populists, we can't afford to do it. We are too small to stand alone as a party expecting anything, yet we find ourselves standing between the two great contending parties of the state—one the great Anglo Saxon people the other the black race led by a few designing white men who have no higher aspiration than self aggrandizement. The Democrats cannot, elect without us, neither can the Republicans. Shall we, the Populist party, who hold the balance of power and who are called upon as honest men in this great deadlock, to cast the decisive vote, turn our beloved State, the land of the free and the home of the brave, forever over to the colored people of this country?

God forbid that the everlasting shame and disgrace should fall upon us and that the name of our party of boasted reform should go down in history the blackest and most infamous of any party that ever existed on the American continent, which will be true of us as a party if we refuse to redeem the State. We brought on the curse and it is now our duty as honest men to remove it. I expect to do my duty and if we fail to rescue the State, be it known my hands are clean of Populism henceforth and forever.

Fellow Populists, the responsibility that rests on us as a party is awful, then let us be thinking and let us be acting. I have confidence in you as honest men and patriots and as an honest man myself I believe on the morning of the 8th of November when the sun comes forth from beyond the waters of the Atlantic, and darts his silvery rays with electric speed across our State from end to end and forces back the darkness which will have shrouded us through the night, and as those beautiful rays penetrate the mist and kiss away the dew drops from the last rose of summer that has been left blooming alone, and this beautiful orb of splendor as he comes forth from his chamber as a strong man to run a race forces his way across the universe, so also will the white men of North Carolina rise in their might and as a scroll roll back the cloud of disgrace that by our votes for four long years has shrouded our fair State.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular Correspondent, WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 24, 98. The Republican bosses are hot after the Republican office holders in Washington, both voters and non-voters. The voters have all been given to understand that if they do not go home and vote they will be blacklisted, and to remove their last excuse, the Republican Executive Committee is offering to furnish them with transportation when they say they are unable to pay for it themselves.

the administration allows time to be wasted by the Peace Commission, at Paris, in discussing various propositions of the Spanish Commissioners concerning our paying or guaranteeing the payment of any portion of the Spanish bonds charged against Cuba, if it be true, as has been claimed right along, that the American Commissioners had positive instructions before they left Washington, to the effect that this Government would under no circumstances either pay or guarantee the payment of one dollar of Spanish bonded indebtedness of any kind.

Young "Jim" Blaine, who by grace of pull holds a captain's commission in the volunteer service, has gall, if he has nothing else. The whole country knows that he was ordered home from Manila, whither he went as a staff officer, because he was fonder of intoxicants than of duty, and the opinion has been frankly expressed by officers that he ought to be courtmartialed and dishonorably dismissed from the army in the interest of discipline.

Col. Ike Hill, whose long connection with the House has made his judgment good on Congressional politics, said: "We have got the Republicans sure. Nothing short of a miracle can save them. Why, I believe that we will gain four Congressmen right in the President's own State." Colonel Hill says that Gen. Grosvenor's recent offer to bet $10,000 that the Democrats would not gain a Congressman in Ohio was only a bluff and that he will gladly undertake to make Gen. Grosvenor a present of $1,000, if he will put up the money to back his offer.

Beauty is Blood Clean. Clean blood means a clean skin. No skin clean without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body.

The negroes are not so much to blame for wanting to hold office. The contemptible white men that have made it possible for them to get office are responsible for the present state of affairs and should be the first ones to suffer for it--Santord Express.

Ashtabua, Ohio, has for years been treasuring as a relic a shell which was fired by a British warship in 1812 and which had failed to explode. Somehow it got into a pile of scrap iron delivered to the Phoenix Iron Works foundry and performed its functions so well that the furnace doors were blown to smithereens.

We are frank to say that we do not believe half the stories about the importation of negroes from South Carolina and Virginia, to vote in the North Carolina election next month. Some have, we believe, been imported, and others may be, but not so many as represented. But whether they be ten or ten thousand, they must be stopped from voting. They must not vote in North Carolina. If they cannot be prevented by one means they must by another. What is the use of our saying the same thing twice? They must not vote.--Charlotte Observer.

A Card From Mr. M. W. White.

(To Editor Statesville Landmark) I will say that I regard the Populist party as simply a side-show to the Republican party, and I don't propose to be one of the animals in the show. I am thoroughly disgusted with fusion and especially with Republicans. I have been opposed to it all the time and am satisfied that it is for nothing but to get some men positions. Skinner and his influence is managing the Populist party in North Carolina and I don't regard him as anything but a Republican I am opposed to his higgling about, so you can put me down as a full fledged Democrat. M. W. WHITE. October 17, 1898.

A Clever Boy.
 While reading Addison's "Sir Roger De Coverley" recently the subject of belief in ghosts arose in the class. Naturally in this progressive age all the scholars scorned the idea. One boy was especially vehement in his denunciation of spooks.
 "But," persisted the teacher, merely to develop his thinking powers, "Shakespeare seems to have believed in ghosts."
 "That's all right," retorted the boy. "I know more than Shakespeare did!"—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Saturday Washday.
 Every Saturday at certain back yards in the city the family wash may be seen hanging out to dry. The practice of observing Saturday as washday is due to the old fashioned and peculiar method of reasoning of some housekeepers. "You see," says one of them, "if the washing is done on Saturday then the ironing can be done on Monday, and the whole thing is out of the way early in the week."—New York Times.

THE TRUTH COMES

Sheriff Harrington Did Have a Negro Deputy

GRIMESLAND, N. C. Oct 22nd. '98.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

During the Afro-Pop campaign, I have heard it reported that sheriff Harrington denies having a negro Deputy Sheriff, when he was first elected.

I wish to say that he did have a negro Deputy Sheriff, for the negro came out to my father's place and arrested one of his negro tenants, and as my father was not home, he brought the negro to me for me to stand his bond. I asked the negro was he the Deputy? His reply was "yes," and he was taken to prison by said Deputy.

The above can be proven by good reliable men.

Respectfully,
J. B. TUCKER

A telegram has just been received in this city announcing the death of Mrs. Florence Webb (nee Perkins) at her home in Troy, Ala., yesterday. Mrs. Webb was the daughter of the late Mr. Julius Perkins, of Pacolus, and sister of the late Mrs. C. W. Tayloe. After the death of her parents she became an inmate of the home of her sister Mrs. Tayloe, and numbered her friends by the score. A few years ago she married Mr. Harry Webb and moved to Troy, Ala., where they lived happily until death claimed her for its own.—Washington Messenger.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper over. Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit, I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

The more I wore that suit of cloth, The better they did please. I never used Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well-made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium! For Fit, Fit, Fit.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example: And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grades Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For style, and Fit and Prices.
