W. E. Fountain ex-State Chairman of The Populist Party Declares for White Supremacy

THE REFLECTOR received the following special this morning from Tarboro. "At the Democratic rally at Goldsboro on Friday W. E. Fountain, of Tarboro, ex-State chairman of the Populist party, made a bold speech for white supremacy. He said he was a business man, not a politician, that he had realized for thirty years that the negro was a disturbing element in our politics, causing a recurrence of disturbances every two years, thereby unsettling business, preventing the investment of capital and the advancement of our material development and progress. That the elimination of the mass of ignorance against the intelligence was the only solution and having the assurance that the patriotic white men of North Carolina were determined, in good faith, to do this and are aroused and uniting without regard to party, that he hailed with delight and extended his hand in the movement to consummate such a result.

He appealed to all white people to unite in the contest and after success upon the issue of white supremacy then white men can settle their differences. Party should sink out of sight when the best interest of North Carolina is threatened, that he regarded the negro in politics as the impediment to our advancement. He appealed to Populists to accept the issue and prevent negro domination by fusing with them. He said in most negro counties by the aid of two or three hundred Populists the negro was dominating the great body of white men and tax payers, that this condition could not and would not be tolerated longer, that pie-hunting Populists could not longer assume such a responsibility and he appealed to men to lay aside blind prejudices and accept the true situation in the light of reason and common sense."

Take Warning

Some people have registered in Pitt county who are not qualified to vote. They have been spotted, and just to secure as they undertake to vote the law is going to be pushed against them. The Democrats are determined that this shall be a fair election, and anyone who attempts illegal voting will be prosecuted.

Here is the "philosophy" of perpetual motion as solved by an up-to-date philosopher:
 Rags make paper.
 Paper makes money.
 Money makes banks.
 Banks make loans.
 Loans make poverty.
 Poverty makes rags.
 Rags make—well, just keep on repeating the above.

Run Away.

A Mr. Nelson, of near Vanceboro, was in town yesterday, and his horse run away on main street. The horse was hitched to a flat body cart, and the body coming unprung slipped off the axle. As the body came down to the ground Mr. Nelson was caught under it and rolled over several times. He was right badly bruised and had a narrow escape from being killed.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

(From our regular Correspondent,

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 28, 98.

The suspicion is growing daily that one of the causes--the principal one--of delay in the peace negotiations at Paris is the influence of the holders of the $500,000,000 in Spanish bonds that Spain calls Cuban bonds. These bondholders have satisfied themselves that public opinion in the United States would never consent to the payment of any portion of these bonds by this country, even if officials could be "persuaded" to agree to such payment. They are now working on another tack. They wish to secure a promise from this government, entirely outside of the treaty of peace, of course, that it will use its influence with the Cuban government, that is sooner or later, to be set up to recognize these bonds. They know very well that no such promise can be made officially, but they believe that it can be secured in such a way that it can be made effective. A hint of the work in this line that has been done at the Paris end of the line was contained in a recent news paragraph cabled over, which stated that one of the American Commissioners had said the Cuban government, after its establishment, and not the United States peace commissioners, would be the proper party for Spain to negotiate with concerning Cuban bonds. If the capitalists who are trying to make this exchange can get those bonds recognized by Cuba, with a sort of tacit consent by this government, they can pocket at least $200,000,000 in profits. That may be considered as the stake in the game now being played.

The semi-official statement sent out from Washington, that Mr. McKinley had sent an ultimatum to Spain, threatening to withdraw the American Commissioners and declare the truce at an end if the Spanish Commissioners did not proceed more rapidly with the negotiations of the treaty of peace, is nothing more nor less than a bit of campaign buncomb, put out solely for effect upon the Congressional campaign. Members of the administration have been very careful not to ratify this statement, or even to admit that it is true, but it originated from a source that the administration constantly makes use of to get things before the public. It is absolutely certain that no ultimatum has been sent.

The publication of the letter from Chairman Babcock, of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, to Senator Penrose, imploring him to show the letter to prominent Republicans who are opposing the Quay ticket in Pennsylvania, in order to get them to try to save the party the loss of a number of Congressional districts, indicates how frightened the Republican managers are at the outlook. This letter was not intended for publication, but was to be shown around to Republicans only. There are good reasons for saying that Mr. McKinley would not care a continental if Quay was defeated, if his defeat does not cause the loss of enough Representatives to give the House to the Democrats, and it is just the same with Roosevelt in New York. If Mr. McKinley could be assured that the Republicans would retain control of the House, even by a largely reduced majority, he would be perfectly willing to see Quay and Roosevelt defeated. He has had it in for Quay a long time, and he fears the election of Roosevelt may make him a dangerous rival for the Republican nomination in 1900. How much that had to do with his refusal to go from the Philadelphia Peace Jubilee to New York and make a speech, only himself knows.

It would be something entirely new for a Republican administration to make anything even resembling a fight against the trusts. Therefore no one was surprised when Attorney General Griggs said in reply to a question as to whether his office intended to take advantage of the Supreme Court decision that the railroad trusts known as the "Joint Traffic Association," was illegal, to prosecute other trusts: "This office is not looking for jobs. It has all the work on hand that it can stagger under now." While the Department of Justice probably has a lot of work to do, there is little doubt that the right sort of an Attorney General could use that anti-trust Supreme Court decision to make things very lively for the trusts, and if the present force of the department was insufficient to do the work, it could easily be increased, if it were made known why the increase was desired.

Secretary Kerr of the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee, declines to make public a statement of all the Congressional districts he expects to go Democratic, because there are some of them that the Republicans do not regard as in serious danger; but he expresses confidence that the Democrats will control the next House by a good working majority, and his look expresses his confidence plainer than his words do. Lack of money confined the work of the democratic committee to a few districts as it was early in the campaign decided that with the means at its disposal better results could be obtained by concentrating its efforts in those districts that were carried by small majorities by the Republicans in '96. The Republican committee has been run on the scale of a Presidential campaign, having at times more than one hundred persons engaged in sending out literature, and must have spent more money than was ever before spent in a Congressional election, but that has not prevented their winding up on the anxious bench, fairly shivering in dread of defeat.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fails to cure, druggists refund money.

The Companion's Definite Programme.

The Youth's Companion in its announcement for the volume of 1899 promises that it shall be the best one ever published, and The Companion always gives more than it promises. More than 200 distinguished contributors are already engaged. Among them are Hon. John D. Long, Secretary of the Navy, who has written for the New Year's Number an article on our torpedo-boat service, entitled "The Little Demons of War;" Edward Everett Hale, Bret Harte, Henry M. Stanley, Rt. Hon. Jas. Bryce, John Burroughs, William D. Howells, Andrew Lang, Edmund Gosse, Alfred Austin, the English poet laureate, Hon. Carl Schurz, Thomas Nelson Page, William Back, Sarah Orne Jewett, Oscar Thayer and Poulton Bigelow. This is but a selection from the definite programme which The Companion has prepared for its readers in 1899--a programme so rich and varied as to attract young and old with equal charm. All subscribers to the 1899 volume will not only receive the paper for the 52 weeks of the new year for January, 1900, but will also receive as a gift the remaining issues of 1898 from the time of subscription, and the exquisite Companion Calendar for 1899--the finest one ever given to Companion readers, and one of the finest ever produced. A handsome illustrated announcement and sample copies will be sent free to any one addressing THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 211 Columbus Ave, Boston Mass.

Beauty Is Blood Deep. Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets--beauty for ten cents. All drug stores, satisfaction guaranteed. 10c, 25c, 50c.

CONSTIPATION

"I have gone 12 days at a time without a movement of the bowels, not being able to move them except by using hot water injections. Chronic constipation for seven years placed me in this terrible condition; during that time I did everything I heard of but never found any relief; such was my case until I began using CASCARETS. I now have from one to three passages a day, and I feel as if I would give $1000 for each movement; it is such a relief." AYMER L. HUNT, 1639 Russell St., Detroit, Mich.

Why Do So Many Ladies SUFFER WHEN RELIEF Is Within Reach? KITRELL, N. C., March 22, 1897. Mrs. JOE PERSON--I hereby tender you my testimony to the real worth of your Remedy. I suffered with an ailment peculiar to one of my sex until by accident I began to take your Remedy. I have taken four bottles, and am today in good health, better than for years. I most cheerfully testify to all it did for me.

SYRUP OF FIGS

NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS

is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper o'er, Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit, I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of cloth, The better they did please I advertised Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grade Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Price.
