BIG TIME AT BETHEL.

BETHEL, N. C., Oct 29th, 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

The White Government Union of Bethel township was called to order by S. T. Carson, president, on Friday night. Mr. Carson in a few well spoken words introduced Dr. R. J. Grimes, who made an eloquent speech for the occasion. He told the whole history of the Populist party. He also paid his respects to Col. Skinner and his fusion gang. His speech had a telling effect upon the audience, who greeted him with tumults of applause.

C. H. James in a short and fiery speech in the interests of Democracy, introduced as our next speaker, W. W. Brisco, of Franklin county, who made a good talk and bombarded the Rep-Pop camp about one hour. He told how the taxes of the State had been increased, and the crimes and outrages that had been going on since the fusion gang had control of the State. He told a good old side splitting joke that represented the Democratic party. A preacher living in the western part of the State, up in the mountains, was holding a revival. The old man had four sons who were in the habit of playing cards. Now, when these boys wanted to play cards they would get off in one of the rooms at home and have their time, and whenever they got through playing they would hide their pack of cards in their father's baptismal gown. Well, after the old man had been carrying on a series of meetings a few days, it was time for baptising. The old man got ready and put on his gown to go in the water to perform his duty. As he went into the water his gown began floating out behind. Then the cards commenced falling out behind him. All the old man's sons and his wife were there to witness the scene of baptising. His wife saw the cards falling around her husband's feet, and she turned aside to one of her sons and said: "Look what a disgrace you have brought upon your father." This son who was listening to his mother, looked at the cards and saw the ace, the king, the queen, the jack and the ten spot all turned up. He then said to his mother, "if dad cannot stand on that hand, he cannot stand on anything." So if the Democratic party cannot stand on its past record, it cannot stand on anything.

Old Bethel is thoroughly aroused and on the 8th day of November will roll up a big majority.

Points About Advertising.

You will always find that the best papers give you more for your money than any other.

Advertisements are real more now than ten years ago, because they are more readable.

Look Out for It.

Your heart would still be happy, and would never have a woe

If you looked out for the engine when you heard the whistle blow!

You wouldn't keer for summertime—you wouldn't mind the snow

If you looked out for the engine when you heard the whistle blow!

I don't keer what they tell you, and I don't keer what you go—

You must look out for the engine when you hear the whistle blow!

For time—it is a-flyin'—no river stops its flow;

So, look out for the engine when you hear the whistle blow!

The law fixes the fall election to be Tuesday after the first Monday in November, therefore election day may be as early as the 2nd day of the month and cannot be later than the 8th. As November comes in this year on Tuesday the election comes on the 8th, the latest possible date for the election to be held.

Tom Fields, a negro would-be politician of Halifax county, in a bold and thunder speech recently, is quoted as saying the negroes are going to rule this country, and that "in ten years from now a white man in North Carolina will be no more respected than a coal scoter in hell." Some of them are no more respected now—by the negroes they associate with.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Because the Democratic Legislature of 1877 was tricked into electing a few negroes as magistrates in some of the eastern counties, and because the Democratic party always, and properly, put negro committeemen in charge of the negro public schools, the Republican-fusionists have raised the cry that the Democratic party is the negro party. Mr. Jas. H. Poy in his public addresses, answers this in a sentence. "It may be so," says he, "that the Democratic party is the negro party though I do not think so; but if it is so, it is strange that the negroes have never found it out." It is not worth while to write a column in elaboration of this argument. What Mr. Poy says is just enough.—Charlotte Observer.

Thanksgiving occurs this year on Thursday, November 24, the earliest date on which "the last Thursday in November" can fall. There is no law fixing the time, being done always by proclamation by the President and Governor. But custom has so established the time that no one ever dreams of changing it.

Nothing could better illustrate what sort of a man our Governor is than the fact that when he made an appointment to speak in Wilmington, the city of his residence, a committee of leading citizens of that place wait on him and suggest that he do not do it. This in the interest of the public peace and this suggestion addressed to the chief peace officer of the State. We wonder if there was ever a similar incident.—Charlotte Observer.

There are Democrats in Robeson county who propose to draw the lines more distinctly between men whose faces are their only claims to being white. At a recent meeting at Red Springs, in that county, resolutions were passed to ostracise socially and treat as negroes all who work and vote for negro domination in this campaign, also, "that where certain kinds of work is to be done a preference be given to the man who upholds and votes for white supremacy." And what more can such men expect who deliberately put themselves in that position.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

They are Already Beaten

If Russell, Pritchard, Butler and the other leaders of the negro party really wish Federal troops sent to North Carolina, it is conclusive evidence that they have given up all hope of carrying the State on the 8th of November. They are actuated solely by a spirit of malevolence and revenge. They know that any movement to overawe the white men of North Carolina will only result in an increase of the Democratic majority. It was so in 1870, when Kirk's Hessians tried to intimidate the people of North Carolina. It was so in 1876 in South Carolina when United States troops were sent there to keep the negro party in power, and when the white men walked boldly up to the ballot box under crossed bayonets.—Wilmington Star.

The Finest Calendar of the Century

Those who receive the new Calendar for 1899 given by The Youth's Companion to all new subscribers will be ready to allow that the publishers have pretty nearly accomplished their object, which was to produce the finest calendar of the century. The subject of the exquisite color piece which forms the center is "The Ideal American Girl," and it is depicted in the most delicate tones as well as the most brilliant shades. The Calendar is so designed that no printing appears on the lithographed panels, and they may be preserved as permanent ornaments—suitable for the prettiest corner of the house. Not only is this Calendar a gift to all subscribers to the 1899 volume, but all new subscribers receive also the remaining issues of The Companion from the time of subscription until January 1, 1899, free, then for fifty-two weeks, a full year, to January, 1900. A beautiful illustrated announcement of the principal contributions engaged for the 1899 volume will be sent free to any one addressing

HEART DISEASE

Some Facts Regarding The Rapid Increase Of Heart Trouble.

Do Not be Alarmed, But Look For The Cause.

Heart troubles, at least among Americans, are certainly increasing and while this may be largely due to the excitement and worry of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion.

Real organic heart disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by branches of the same great nerve, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric.

In another way, also the heart is affected by that form of poor digestion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food; there is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also poisons the blood, makes it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible for heart trouble is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can best be done by the regular use after meals, of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at most drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular, persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

Full sized package of the tablets sold by druggists at 50 cents.

Little book on stomach troubles mailed free. Address Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

CHESS CLOCKS.

There Are Specially Constructed Ones Used In The Game.

Hourglasses or sand glasses were formerly used for the purpose of measuring time at chess matches, but now specially constructed clocks are in general use for this purpose. These clocks consist of two clocks, mounted on a common base, which moves on a pivot, the two clocks therefore being on the arms of a sort of seesaw. The beam or base is so constructed that when one clock is elevated it stands perfectly perpendicular, while the depressed clock lies over at an angle, but as the mechanism of each clock is so constructed that it only moves when the clock is perfectly perpendicular it follows that when the upright clock is going the depressed clock is at rest.

Another and more modern variety has the two clocks fixed on the same level, but with a small brass arm reaching from the top of one to the top of the other. This arm acts on a pivot and can be brought down into actual contact with one clock at a time by a touch of the finger. When it is thus in contact, by an ingenious device the clock is stopped and the desired result is attained. The working of the clock during a match is simplicity itself. At the commencement of the match the hands of each clock point to 12. Then at the call of "time to commence play," the clock of the first player is started; then, as soon as he makes his first move, he stops his own clock, either by depressing it or by touching the arm referred to, the same motion starting his opponent's clock. So it goes on during the entire course of the game, each move being marked by the stopping of one clock and the starting of the other.—Leisure Hour.

"Yes."
"Improves with age, does he?"
"Well, he seems to get fresher every day."—Philadelphia Record.

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

The discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

Editorial scraps.

Saturday morning editor R. A. Bryar, of the Union Populist, went to the office of H. T. King, editor of the Weekly, and assaulted him about something King had printed. King's brother was present and between them Bryar was pretty badly used up and had to get a doctor to take some stitches in his head. Bryar seemed to want to get even with somebody about the office and that night made an assault on D. A. Alexander, a printer on the Weekly, and came out second best in this engagement also. He then got on a hunt for Harvey Jones, the kid of the office, thinking he would lick somebody, but found Harvey so well fortified that he gave up the warfare.

C. T. MUNFORD.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just call this paper over. Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit. I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and I admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of clothes The better they did please I advise I used Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. 'This suit' so kept its stylish shape, (Well made and firmly knit). That still it takes the premium For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grade Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Price.
