CAROLINA!
Her Awful Dilemma.

BY J. DAIL.

"Carolina, Carolina, heaven's blessings attend her,

While we live we will cheerish, protect and defend her."

Carolina! one of the dearest names to Americans, for various reasons and dearer to me than the name of any State or territory, ever written or spoken by man. Why?

1st. Because it was the home of my father and mother, and is my home, and is in all probabilities to be home of my offspring forever.

2nd. It was the home of some of the greatest Revolutionary heroes.

3rd. Carolina has always stood in the front ranks for American liberty, and when South Carolina severed her connection with the great union of States and a ked us to follow we were too loyal, and loved our achievements too well, to lightly burst the bands that bound us together a mighty nation and one common brotherhood, but preferred neutrality in the union. But when Presiden Lincoln lifted his broad foot and kicked our beloved State out of the union she locked arms with her twin sister and for four long years, half clad and hungry, waded through blood in the most desperate struggle on record, and was always in the front ranks.

Show me a man that does not love the name of our dear old State, and I will show you a man that is not a "Tar Heel." And I say, God pity the white man who has been raised in North Carolina, and who first saw the light within the limits of her beloved borders that can wilfully and deliberately vote to turn our grand old State, our homes, and once the home of Gen. Jackson the great hero who so nobly defended our liberties at New Orleans in the war of 1812, over to the descendants of Africa or any other race. Oh that I had the patience of a Job, the meekness of a Moses, the eloquence of a Demosthenes and the zeal of a St. Paul!

It seems to me that I would combine them all in one grand appeal to my Populist brethren to rally to the salvation of our beloved State, that the name of our party should not go down in everlasting disgrace. Fellow Populists, our vote in this election will either give us white supremacy and the peaceful adjustment of the race question, or will forever put our fair State in the hands of the colored people of the South until the blood of our sons shall redeem it. Can we vote the fusion ticket under these trying circumstances? God forbid that we should do it. If my vote was to shape the destiny of our State in this great contest and I should refuse to cast it for white supremacy, the worst renowned traitor in the world would blush in purgatory if a Democrat should compare me to him. Yea, he would do injustice to Benedict Arnold or Judas Iscariot in such a comparison, for they did not sell out to the God cursed black race, as I would in this case. Judas sold his Lord for thirty pieces of silver, and Benedict Arnold sold what had been committed to his trust to the English who were flesh of his flesh and bone of his bone. So you see there would be no comparison, but I would be the most contemptible traitor in the history of the world, which will all be true of us as a party if we fail to redeem the State.

Take Warning

Some people have registered in Pitt county who are not qualified to vote. They have been spotted, and just so sure as they undertake to vote the law is going to be pushed against them. The Democrats are determined that this shall be a fair election, and anyone who attempts illegal voting will be prosecuted.—Greenville REFLECTOR.

The above is a good idea as far as it goes, but it does not go quite far enough. The white people should not allow illegal voters to vote at all. It is enough to have a good intelligent man's ballot killed by an illiterate, ignorant negro's vote, but to have ballots of good white men killed by votes of negroes not legally entitled to vote is insufferable and should not be allowed. It would be better to kill the negro who attempts to cast an illegal vote rather than allow white supremacy to be endangered by such votes.—Kinston Free Press.

A Boon for Wheelmen

J. A. Dunning, of Aulander and Kenneth Barrow, of Norfolk, have invented and patented a steering guide for bicycles that riders who have tested it say is the best invention yet made in wheeling. It is an appliance fitted in the front portion of the bicycle frame that gives the rider perfect control of the steering, prevents the wheel slipping out of its course. With this appliance the rider can remove his hands from the handle bar and the wheel will keep a straight direction or can easily be guided at will by motions of the body. On Monday W. R. Whichard, Jr, brought to Greenville a wheel built with this appliance and left it on exhibition for a few days at the store of S. E. Fender, where anyone interested can call and examine it. Printed specification fully explaining the steering guide can also be seen there.

Died in Camp

The body of Kit Reeves, a colored soldier from this town who died Saturday morning in the camp at Knoxville, Tenn., arrived here on Monday evening's train. Fully two hundred colored people were at the depot to meet the corpse.

Beauty is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets—candy for the young. All drug stores sell them. Price, 10c, 25c, 50c.

The colored Congressman, George H. White, of the second district, must be a bigger fool than people generally thought him to be. The public is familiar with his late caper at the circus in Tarboro, when he refused to sit with the colored people but went over and took a seat with the whites, resulting in his being driven out. This action shows not only his inscience, but also that he thought himself above mingling with his own color. And now we hear the rumor coming from Tarboro that a daughter of White is circulating a petition among the colored people asking them not to work any more for the white people. Poor idiot! If they don't work for the white people who are they going to work for? They could not get work enough among themselves for one-tenth of the race to live on. But by following such leaders and being guilty of such acts as they are going to make the white people refuse to give them work first thing they know, and then they will be in a sorry plight.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From our regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 31, 98.

A leak in the Paris end of the administration has made it apparent why the Republicans were so anxious that the treaty of Peace should not be concluded before the election. We are to get the Philippine islands. But we are to buy them—a new wrinkle, after capturing territory by force of arms, to pay money for it—either by paying a large sum in cash or by assuming about $40,000,000 of Spanish bonds, or by both. It is not surprising that the Republican managers should dread such information as that going to the country on the eve of an important election, or that they should now be trying to discount it by saying that nothing had yet been positively determined upon, except that we would demand all of the Philippine islands. That demand was today officially made by our Peace Commissioners, of the Spanish Peace Commissioners, but it was known in Paris several days ago, and known to the Spanish Commissioners that this government had agreed to a proposition to buy the Philippines. A suspicious thing about this agreement is that a special issue of Spanish bonds, of $40,000,000, alleged to have been issued for public improvements in the Philippines, which were floating around in the financial markets of Europe, from the time they were issued, all suddenly disappeared about the time the Peace Commission sat, and to day not one of those bonds can be bought. Where did they go? They were bought up by somebody, according to the testimony of European bond brokers. Did that somebody have advance inside information that this particular issue of bonds was worth more than other Spanish bonds, because of this agreement to buy the Philippines? If so, who gave that information, and who is going to profit thereby? These are questions that will not down, and which may, if Mr. McKinley allows this agreement to be carried out, bring about a scandal that will make Algerism seem like a very small matter.

Secretary Gage has been giving away administration secrets, by publicly admitting that while he hoped for the election of a Republican majority of the next House, he would not go so far as to say that he looked for Republican success. The only difference between Secretary Gage and the other members of the administration is that he has publicly said what they all think and say privately.

Instead of being a help to Quay Mr. McKinley's visit to Philadelphia was a positive injury to Quay and Quayism. Mr. McKinley did not speak the good word for Quay that it was hoped by the terror-stricken Quayites that he would speak. In fact, he spoke not a single word that could be construed into sympathy for Quay or a wish for his success, although some of Quay's friends took special pains to make openings for Mr. McKinley to say something of that sort. The result is that the Quayites are saying that it would have been better for Mr. McKinley to have remained out of the State, because his silence has been construed by the anti-Quay Republicans to mean lack of administration sympathy for Quay, and they are making some dire threats about what they will do in connection with the National Convention of 1900.

Mr. McKinley's Commission ought to give Capt. Astor Chanler, who served in the Cuban campaign and won praise from Gen. Shafter in an official report, and who is now Democratic candidate for Congress against Lemuel Eli Quigg, in one of the New York city districts, a chance to testify, if they really wish to get at some warm facts. Capt. Chanler says that Abner McKinley made money out of contracts for furnishing supplies to our troops in Cuba, and moreover, that the stuff furnished by the Abner McKinley concern was of inferior quality, and not up to the specifications in any particular. This matter will be heard from again as soon as Congress meets.

The country may expect the publication of a preliminary report from Mr. McKinley's alleged investigation commission, during the present week, as Boss Hanna and the other Republican managers have ordered that one be made and given to the public before the Congressional election. There is little probability that a whitewash report, such as will be made, will influence the casting of a single vote. The people of the country are on to that Commission and its work.

Although Gen. Butler and Admiral Sampson, two of our military Commissioners at Havana, have made strong representations of the danger of trouble in that city from riots by the unpaid and discontented Spanish soldiers and asked that one or more ships be sent there, the Cabinet has decided that no warship can be sent there, because to do so would be a violation of the protocol.

It is evident that somebody in authority thinks that Lieu. Hobson is getting too much glory out of his efforts to save those wrecked Spanish vessels. Hobson is now in Washington, being catechised by a Board of Naval officers who are inclined to stop his work, on the ground that it will cost too much money. If Hobson is not allowed to proceed with his plans for saving those vessels, the people will know very well that money had nothing to do with it, but that jealousy of Hobson and his reputation is at the bottom of the whole business.

Guaranteed to cure all cases of weak digestion, indigestion, flatulency, acidity, biliousness, constipation, and all ailments of the stomach and bowels. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money

Eleven Negroes and Seven White Men on the Jury

The grand jury in Franklin county which was sworn in at the present term of court is composed of seven white men and eleven negroes.

This is the kind of negro rule that the people in North Carolina will repudiate on the 8th of November. The experience of the State with negro juries has been such that the people are tired and more than tired of them.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just call this paper o'er. Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit. I took it home. I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of clothes The better they did please I admired Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well made and firmly knit) That still it takes the premium For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man, Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grade Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Prices.
