THE FAIR.

A Great Occasion for Greenville.

SECOND DAY.

The second day of the fair brought out a good attendance and the weather, except a light shower in early afternoon, was good. Hundreds of people expressed surprise at seeing such splendid exhibits gotten together on so short notice, the entire work of the fair being accomplished in about a month's time.

The race program for the day consisted of two exciting trots, one in the 2:24 class and one in the 2:37 class. The former was won by Firewood, owned by Jos. Lantier, Richmond, and the latter by Ella Leo, owned by Samuel Walton, of Falls Mills, Va.

PREMIUM SALE.

The premium sale of tobacco on Thursday in connection with the fair was a very interesting occasion at the warehouses and was witnessed by a large crowd. The different warehouses drew chances for the order of sales and got numbers in the following order: Farmers 1, Greenville 2, Eastern 3, Star 4, Planters 5.

The premium winners at the Farmers warehouse were as follows: Best pile white wrappers, $50, won by J. P. Simpson, of Martin county. Second best pile white wrappers, $25, won by H. L. Pippin, of Edgecombe. Best pile catters, $25, won by R. J. Little, of Pitt.

The premium winners at the Greenville warehouse were: Second best dark mahogany wrappers, $10, won by F. M. Smith, of Pitt.

The premium winners at the Eastern warehouse were: (We could not get names from this house up to hour of going to press.)

The premium winners at the Star warehouse were: Best pile of smokers, $10, won by J. F. Williams, of Craven.

The premium winners at the Planters warehouse were: Best pile bright mahogany wrappers, $50; largest quantity (15,597 lbs.) $50; largest pile (1,902 lbs.) $10; largest check ($1,402.65) $25, all won by Staton & Cletcher of Martin county. Best dark mahogany wrappers, $25, won by R. T. Buck, of Beaufort.

A CARD

QUINERLY, N. C., Nov. 10 1898.

EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I am informed that it has been reported that I was forced to vote a Democratic ticket at the recent election or lose my position. In response to that charge I have this to say. I have been in the employ of L. J. Chapman & Co., for nearly two years in the capacity of salesman and know them to be men of too much integrity and honor to be guilty of such a low crime as trying to bribe a voter. As for my accepting a bribe I believe those who know me were satisfied if they heard such a report, that it was an infamous lie. I have been a Populist since the birth of that party and love the principles of it, but I have never been a Republican and God forbid that I should ever be, and when I saw the Populist party being dominated by the Republicans for the sake of spoils, leaving the Populists practically without any organization in the state, believing it for the best interest of our people and believing it the best way to carry out the principles I love, and not being willing to kill my own vote by casting it for the free coinage of silver and also for a gold standard on the same ticket, on the 8th inst. I voted a straight Democratic ticket. I am glad to know the vote of old Pitt has shown that this sentiment has pervaded the mind of many of our people. Now for those who could not see these things as I do I have only the kindest feeling and believe if the Democratic party in North Carolina will do its duty (as I believe it will) two years hence they will be with us in the fight for good government.

Very truly yours,

J. B. LATHAM.

The Wilmington Trouble.

The news from Wilmington reports the riot subsided and everything quiet. In all there were eleven negroes killed and three white men wounded. One of the white men was hurt so badly that it was thought he would not recover. Hundreds of white people from neighboring towns went to Wilmington to render assistance if needed. The trouble grew out of the negro editor, Manly, not complying with the resolution adopted by the white people, that he must stop publishing there and leave the city within twenty-four hours. Several hundred of them went to Manly's office and wrecked it. The building accidentally took fire and burned down. The negroes undertook to retaliate and raised the riot which resulted in the leaders being killed.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1898.

The great victory in North Carolina for Democracy is due to many causes. We will mention one now. This is the management of the campaign. The head of this management was State Chair man F. M. Simmons. The party made no mistake when he was put at the helm. He is as fine a chairman as any State ever had. He takes in the situation. He knows the enemy. He knows where to hit and how to strike effectively. He is a fine organizer. He makes no mistakes. He is bold, aggressive and wise. He is tireless and full of courage and does not falter in the face of odds against him. The State owes him a debt of gratitude which she will pay some day. All honor to the noble Simmons. He was aided very greatly in his work by county chairmen. We can speak positively in reference to this in Pitt county. A. L. Blow who was at the helm here, did his work magnificently. He is energetic, pains taking and tireless in his efforts in his work. There are few men who keep up so well with every detail of the campaign work as A. L. Blow. In the present contest he has excelled himself and every man in the county will respond to the sentiment, well done good and faithful chairman. He was aided nobly in his work by many of his fellow Democrats. Their names are too numerous to mention, but we feel it is due to say that J. L. Fleming in his canvass of the county and his activity in aiding in the organization of the White Unions deserves special mention and commendation at the hands of his fellow citizens. So was also were F. C. and W. F. Harding uniting in their labors in organizing the White Unions which aided materially in redeeming Pitt county. They did fine work to the last wherever work was necessary. To one and all of these gentlemen as well as to every man who aided in this great victory, the people of Pitt county would say your work is well done, let us all rejoice together.

How humiliated and ashamed must be those unprincipled office seekers and leaders, who in our struggle for white supremacy in North Carolina took sides with the negroes and against their own color. For such men no censure can be too severe, and the slow un-moving finger of scorn should forever point them out as unworthy of respect or confidence. But no such censure should be bestowed ed upon those honest men in the ranks, who were deceived and deluded by their unprincipled leaders. Among them are some as honest and true white men as North Carolina can boast of. Let us not abuse them but invite them row to take their stand with us and never again to depart from the ranks of those who have so gloriously redeemed old North Carolina!—Pittsboro Record.

One result of the great Democratic victory in North Carolina will be the passing away of the Populist party in this State, just as it had already almost ceased to exist in all the other Southern States. And for the destruction of the Populist party in this State its selfish and unprincipled leaders are responsible. They used that party, and tried to use "both the old parties," for their own promotion and for the selfish advancement of their personal interests. They were ready to trade off, or sell out, the People's party to either of the old parties, and finally succeeded in selling out to the Republican party. Never before in American politics has there been a party with so many men in its ranks, with so large a number of unprincipled leaders. All that these leaders cared for was office, and after getting fat offices they cared nothing whatever for the principles of the party which at first they so zealously advocated. But they will be remembered!—Pittsboro Record.

The negro will never again play so important a part in North Carolina politics as he has heretofore. The white people have arisen in their might and majesty and determined, in a manner not to be misunderstood, that they will rule every part of this State, and that no town or county shall ever again be dominated by negroes! And yet the Democratic party, composed as it is of the great bulk of the white people, will give the negro full and ample protection in his life, his liberty and his property. The Democrats bear no malice to the negroes, but on the contrary have the kindest feelings for them and are really their best friends, ready and willing to aid them in all laudable efforts for their improvement, mentally, morally and materially.—Pittsboro Record,

Good Advice.

To our friends of eastern North Carolina: Good friends, sweet friends, you have been saved again by the Democratic party. Say with it hereafter. Don't run off after Farmer's Alliances and Populists. You were set up in business by the constitutional convention which gave you the late Democratic system of county government. You will be set up in business again as a result of the election on Tuesday. Being set right, friends, stay right; stay right!—Charlotte Observer.

Some of the Northern and Western papers that are always on the lookout for a lynching in the South have found it convenient to overlook the recent affair in Illinois. A negro had assailed a miner's daughter, and instead of locking him up to await the slow process of the law, they hung him, if not with neatness, with dispatch. When some things are brought close home they look quite different from what they do when viewed from afar, and when the negro ravisher invades the North and is promptly lynched, it is small wonder that the press of that section does not find in it a subject to rant over.—Charlotte Observer.

The people of North Carolina should make humble acknowledgment to Almighty God for the great deliverance He gave them Tuesday. They have suffered many evils during the past four years, but we were perfectly honest in telling them, during the recent campaign, that these things were nothing compared with what would have been visited upon them if that irresponsible gang had gotten its hands upon their throats and in their pockets again.—Charlotte Observer.

THE SIMPLEST CURE FOR INDIGESTION,

As Well as the Safest and Cheapest.

The new medical discovery, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, digest the food instead of making the worn out stomach do all the work, give it a much needed rest, and a cure of dyspepsia is the natural result.

You get nourishment and rest at the same time because these Tablets will thoroughly digest all wholesome food taken into the stomach whether the stomach works or not. A cure is certain to result because the digestive organs are given a chance to rest and recover their natural vigor and tone. The Tablets are then no longer required.

To show the manner in which the remedy acts on different people and how quickly and effectually it cures stomach troubles we present a few recent cases:

Mr. J. O. Wondly, of Peoria Ill., writes: I was unable to eat any thing but the plainest food and even that often distressed me, but since using one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets I can eat anything and everything I want.

Mrs. Samuel Kepple, of Girty, Pa., writes: I have been entirely relieved of my stomach troubles by your tablets. I suffered three years with sour stomach and gas at night. I am thankful for them.

Mrs. A. Bowen, of Barnard, Vt., writes: I think Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are the best things for dyspepsia I ever took. I will recommend them to anyone troubled as I was.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will not disappoint because they cure Dyspepsia surely and lastingly by causing the food to be properly assimilated, and cure constipation by producing the proper quantity of bile. Sold by all druggists at 50 cents per package. Send for free book on stomach diseases to Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

PHYSICAL TRAINING.

Its Value as a Preventive and Cure of Pulmonary Diseases.

Dr. E. Fletcher Ingals of Chicago, in a paper with this title, said that the absence of systematic study by physicians and the very meager literature compelled him to be somewhat dogmatic in his paper. One of the most common observations made by medical men, he said, was that the long, narrow, flat chested individual was the one liable to the development of tuberculosis and that in patients presenting this form of chest the chances for recovery were reduced to a minimum.

This observation he considered sufficient to suggest that systematic physical training in aiding the development of the respiratory muscles, thoracic walls and pulmonary capacity would be of great service in preventing tuberculosis and in curing its early stages. Collapsed air cells, he said, furnished a most favorable nidus for the development of tuberculosis. Therefore for the prevention of the disease measures should be adopted to expand the lungs and bring the air cells into the best possible working condition.

He thought it probable that in most cases there was an early tuberculous localized anemia, diminishing the nutrition of the parts and making them more susceptible to the tubercle bacilli and their toxins. Of the large percentage of the human family said to be affected by tuberculosis (80 per cent), the majority recovered, even when the disease affected the lungs, it not proving fatal in more than 12 per cent.

He stated that in most of those who recovered the disease had made but little progress, and that it was only at autopsy after death from other causes that its presence was detected, in view of which it was the physician's duty to recommend measures likely to strengthen the resisting power of the lungs.
The beneficial influence of a high altitude he considered probably due to the increased distension of the air vessels, and that as a means of prophylaxis the first measure should be to teach the patient to breathe deeply.

Careful physical training, he said, was of the greatest importance, it being possible for the long, narrow, flat chested to increase the expansion of the chest two or three inches, improve the form and increase the circumference. He believed it possible by physical development to check the process of tuberculosis when it had become established in the chest and to promote recovery.—Medical Record.

WASHINGTON RELICS.

Articles of Priceless Worth Kept in the National Museum.

One of the most interesting relics in the National museum at Washington is the camp chest used by Washington throughout the Revolution. It is a compact affair about the size of a tourist's wicker chest for cooking of the present day, 2½ feet long, 2 feet wide, 1 foot high, and it contains an outfit consisting of tinder box, pepper and salt boxes, bottles, knives, forks, gridiron and plates. Every bit of the outfit save one bottle, which is broken at the shoulder, looks strong enough to stand another campaign.

Near by are the tents used by Washington—three in number. One is a sleeping tent, 28 feet long, with walls 6 feet high and a roof with a 6 foot pitch. It is made of linen. The other two are marquee tents of smaller size, one with walls, the other a shelter tent open on the sides. That the tenting material of Revolutionary days was good stuff is proved by the excellent condition of these tents, which sheltered the great commander through all his severe campaigns.

Here also is Washington's uniform, worn by him when he gave up his commission as commander in chief of the army, at Annapolis in 1783. It consists of a big shabby coat of blue broadcloth, lined and trimmed with soft buckskin and ornamented with broad, flat brass buttons; buckskin waistcoat and breeches. The size of the garments (which are in a state of excellent preservation) testify to the big stature of the Father of His Country and suggest that he had an eye to a fine appearance in his dress.—Washington Post.

Factories Without Chimneys.

The statement that a chimney, the third or fourth tallest in the world, has just been completed at a cost of $53,- 000, and the announcement that the most gratifying success has attended the use of forced draft, without any chimneys whatever out of the ordinary, appear in contemporary journals. The experiment of forced draft gives promise of great economy in fuel, as well as doing away with the expensive and unornamental chimney. The draft arrangement consists of a large fan, which is connected with a 4 by 4 double cylinder engine. The fan has a wheel 54 inches in diameter and runs at almost any rate of speed desired. The draft is something prodigious and makes it possible to employ fuel of a lower grade than any heretofore used. Instead of the best Cumberland coal, a mixture of Cumberland and screenings has been tried. The cost of operating the fan, even with imperfect apparatus, is something like $800 per annum. The smokestack is scarcely taller than the roof of the building and of less capacity than that heretofore used for such purposes.—New York Ledger.

WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

THE discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

NOVEMBER NOMENCLATURE.

The List Changes Every Day.

W. S. Greer, of Baltimore, is here

M. H. Quinerly left this morning for Wilmington.

J. L. Harris returned to Spring Hope today.

W. G. Clark, of Tarboro, is visiting J. B. Cherry, Jr.

T. C. Wooten, of Kinston, came over this morning.

Rev. Tunstall, of Greene county, has taken a position with J. S. Tunstall.

J. G. Lyman, proprietor of the Economy Clothing store, returned to Suffolk this morning.

Miss Nellie Simpson, of Everetts, who was visiting Mrs. L. C. Arthur, returned home today.

Mrs. S. H. Linton, Mrs. W. C. Fields and Miss Annie Fields, of Kinston, are visiting Mrs. J. B. Cherry.

Dr. W. F. Powell and wife, of Castoria, spent the day here with the family of C. D. Rountree and at ended the fair.

Misses Ruth Harris, of Wilmington, and Annie Noell, of Mississippi, arrived Thursday evening to visit Mrs. H. A. White.

Misses Sallie Rountree and Nannie Cox, of Kinston, came over this morning and are the guests of Mrs. M. H. Quinerly.

D. Abram, of Rocky Mount, who was here attending the fair and visiting his daughter, Mrs. S. M. Schultz, returned home this morning.

R. H. Salisbury and daughter, Miss Lizzie, of Hamilton, who were here attending the fair and visiting the family of J. S. Congleton, returned home this morning.

The fusionists wish this month had not been down on the calendar.

Did you ever see finer sweet potatoes than those that were on exhibition at the fair?

The fair season closes with the marshals ball in the Farmers' warehouse tonight.

You cannot find many white men now who will admit that they voted the fusion ticket.

We have baskets from a lunch basket to a clothes hamper. If you want baskets see Zeno Moore & Bro.

Judge R. F. Armfield, of Statesville, died Wednesday morning after a lingering illness. The state has lost no better man than he, and sustains a great loss in his death.

A. P. Fields, one of the soldier boys, was fooling with a pistol Thursday night, when the weapon was accidentally discharged and the ball passed through the calf of his leg.

Now that the election and the fair are over people can come down to business once more. One thing THE REFLECTOR calls their attention to is if they owe us anything we would be very glad to have it.

Look over this list and select when you want fresh prunes, dates, currents, raisins, citrons, dried peaches and apples, and canned goods of all descriptions, macaroni, baked beans and plum pudding, prepared and unprepared buckwheat, Pettijohn's breakfast food, dessertine, icealine and pearl tapioca. All new goods at J. S. Tunstall's.

Don't Disband.

Several of the White Government Unions in this county at their last meeting before the election, resolved to continue the organization and have regular meetings once a month. Every Union in the county should do this. There will be good in keeping the white men organized.

Married.

On Nov. 8th, at the Osborn hotel in Oxford, Mr. Geo. H. Joyner and Miss Lucie V. Gallion, of Chatham City, Va., were married by Rev. Mr. Caldwell. The groom is very well known in this county, being raised in Farmville.

Changes Around the Depot

There is a force of hands at work around the depot preparatory to making some important changes. An excavation is being made for the purpose of swinging the main track about 14 feet to the west to make room for an extra switch and another warehouse on the east side of the track. The new warehouse will be for handling tobacco shipments.

C. T. MUNFORD.

C. T. MUNFORD.

MORE THAN PLEASED.

There is a firm, to know their name, Just on this paper over, Who once asked me, as they ask you, To step into their store. I bought a suit, I took it home, I found it cheap and nice. And I never fail to recommend That firm for Price, Price, Price.

I took a walk, I saw all eyes Observing my new clothes: I was a model and admired By friends, also by foes. I set the fashions for the town, And travelled many a mile To tell the people where to go For Style, Style, Style.

The more I wore that suit of clothes The better they did please I advertised Munford's store until The clerks were brisk as bees. This suit so kept its stylish shape, (Well-made and firmly knit), That still it takes the premium! For Fit, Fit, Fit.

So if you'd be a happy man, Just follow my example And if you'd be a stylish man. Just take me for a sample. Go to Munford's store where the grade Are new, and cheap and nice, And see if they do not excel For Style, and Fit and Prices.
