OUT THEY GO.

In We Come—Democrats Take Charge.

At 11:30 o'clock this morning the fusion Board of County Commissioners, who have had charge of the county for the last two years, announced their readiness to turn over affairs to their successors. The Democratic Board recently elected—Messrs. R. L. Davis, O. W. Harrington and Calvin J. Tucker at once qualified and the new Board organized by the election of R. L. Davis as chairman. A recess was then taken until 1 o'clock for dinner.

Upon reassembling in the afternoon the Board examined and accepted the bonds of the county officers in the following order:

T. R. Moore, Register of Deeds, $5,000 with Claude Cannon, S. T. White, W. E. Proctor and B. F. Patrick sureties.

D. C. Moore, Clerk Superior Court, $10,000 with A. Ward, J. R. Bunting, Robt Staton, S. M. Jones, M. O. Blount, J. S. Brown, W. R. Ford, J. J. Carson, J. C. Taylor, S. T. Carson and B. A. Beverly as sureties.

G. M. Mooring, Sheriff, official bond $5,000 with A. G. Cox and J. L. Little sureties; State tax bond $10,000, with Jesse Cannon and J. B. Cherry as sureties; county and school tax bond $30,000, with J. R. Davenport, J. A. K. Tucker, J. L. Wooten, Oscar Hooker, W. H. Bagwell, W. G. Mizell, J. A. Andrews, R. R. Fleming, J. O. Proctor, W. E. Proctor and J. L. Perkins as sureties.

J. B. Cherry, Treasurer, official bond, $15,000, with J. J. Nobles, J. G. Moye and J. R. Moye as sureties; school tax bond, $18,000 with M. G. Ernul, J. R. Moye, J. G. Moye and G. M. Mooring as sureties.

J. D. Cox, Surveyor, $1,000 with A. G. Cox and Josephus Cox as sureties.

The oath of office was administered to each of these and the board then took up the bonds of the Constables of the several townships.

To Indict Wilmington Citizens.

Washington, Dec. 2.—The Attorney General of the United States has written a letter, directing United States District Attorney Bernard, of North Carolina, to at once proceed to indict the men who drove United States Commissioner Bunting from Wilmington. Bunting, together with ex-Chief of Police Melton and a man named Gill, from Wilmington, are now in Washington. The plan is that if bills of indictment can be secured, Judge Purnell shall issue bench warrants and have the men taken to Raleigh immediately for trial at the term of United States District Court, which begins next Monday. It is the purpose to make the proceedings the same as in the Tolbert case in South Carolina and to have Bunting, Melton and Gill at Raleigh as witnesses.—Special to Charlotte Observer.

RUNNING A RISK.

Somebody Liable to Get Hurt.

We never could see where the fascination for jumping on and off moving trains comes in, and just why people will engage in such a dangerous amusement, if amusement it can be called, is past understanding. Go to the depot here almost any morning and you can see numbers of boys, some grown men, too, clamoring to get on the platforms as the train starts, and there seems to be something of a rivalry between them as to which can let the train get the highest speed before he jumps off. It would not surprise us much to have to write up an account of somebody getting killed or losing a limb in this risky practice. Only a morning or two ago a man fell and the car wheels did not miss his foot more than a hand-breadth. If their reason can be appealed to, THE REFLECTOR urges those given to this habit of jumping off the trains to stop it.

RESOLUTION OF SYMPATHY.

Adopted by Bethel Lodge I O O F

Whereas, it has pleased our Heavenly Father in His mysterious dispensation to remove from our Noble Grand, Bro. S. M. Jones, two of his sweet little children, John David and Ruth Marie, therefore resolved, that we the members of Bethel Lodge No. 142 I. O. O. F. lamenting the irreparable loss of Bro. S. M. Jones, bow in humble submission to the will of Him who doeth all things well.

Resolved, that our sympathy and heartfelt condolence are tendered to Bro. Jones and family in their sad bereavement.

Resolved, that these resolutions be spread on our minutes and the Secretary furnish Bro. S. M. Jones with a copy of the same and a copy be sent to THE REFLECTOR for publication.

of Winter Bargains.

We are going to sweep the deck for the next few days with a Storm of Inducements. It may tear down great walls of competition, but we can't help it. Whatever or whoever stands in our Knock Down and Drag Out Bargains must take the consequences. This warm winter was about to leave too many goods on our counters, tables and shelves. The coldest part of the year has arrived and these goods must get a move on them. All kinds of CLOTHING from the cheapest to the highest—they must all move lively. Come early.

METHODIST CONFERENCE

Elizabeth City, N. C., Dec. 2.—The third day's session of the North Carolina Conference was called to order at the regular hour.

Will X. Coley of the Oxford Orphan Asylum was introduced and spoke of the good work that institution is doing, and asked the conference for its continued support.

Rev. Charles Brothers of the Western North Carolina Conference was announced as a transfer.

The committee on the paper question were elected as follows: J. N. Cole, J. E. Underwood, L. W. McMullan and L. L. Smith.

The call of question twenty was resumed and when John C. Kilgo was called he spoke at some length of the trials of the year, and said he came out of the storm without malice in his heart against any one.

He announced that he was ready to serve the church he loved in any capacity, and if further conflicts were ahead he was ready to lay all his strength upon the altar, and die if need be, for the interests of the Master's kingdom.

There were not many dry eyes in the conference when he took his seat, and there was a spontaneous outburst of applause.

Under call of question twenty, which was resumed, Presiding Elder Hall, of the Washington District, announced that there were charges against Rev. R. J. Moorman, of Rocky Mount; and a committee of investigation was appointed by the bishop, consisting of Revs. R. B. John, George F. Smith and W. J. Twilley.

The hour of 11 o'clock arrived, and the publishing house claim committee reported through L. L. Smith, Esq. It condemned the deception of Stahlman and the lack of candor on the part of agents Barbee and Smith, and proposed refunding the claim to the government if the Senate would say the bill would not have passed that body but for the deception practiced.

Rev. John N. Cole offered a substitute, asking the college of bishops to take steps for the unconditional and prompt return of the government.

The substitute was supported by Dr. Yates in a fine speech, but was lost. Revs. John and Norman spoke in favor of committee's report. So did L. L. Smith, and the same was adopted.

A class of five young preachers were elected to elder's orders, and eight local preachers were elected deacons.

The following were received into full membership in the conference: Bryan Thompson, Albeth Barnes, Robert Willis and Andrew Graves.

The conference took up the question of place for the next conference just before adjournment, and four nominations were made, viz: Washington, Wilmington, Newbern and Rocky Mount. The contest was somewhat spirited and Washington was chosen.

When Stephen Crane wrote "The Red Badge of Courage" he had never been in a field of battle and knew nothing of military affairs. His work excited great admiration. But later on he went to Cuba and was in the front at San Juan Hill, and in the December Cosmopolitan we have another story, this time from a real field of battle, entitled "The Woof of Thin Red Threads." It will be interesting for those who are familiar with his previous work to compare the two—the imaginary and the real.

Appropos of the name Cosmopolitan it is rather curious to note that the December issue of that magazine contains one article having to do with Spain, another with India, another with Japan, another with Cuba, another with Jamaica, another with England, another with Rome, and still another with France. This is a pretty wide range.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsillitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON, Eggle, Iredell Co., N. C. NOTICE.

The Board of Councilmen of the town of Greenville at their regular meeting on the first day of December, 1898, having made the following order, viz:

"This Board being unable to ascertain from the records what amount, if any, the town is in debt, it is hereby ordered that W. L. Brown, Treasurer, advertise for all persons holding orders upon the Town Treasurer, to present them to him on or before the 1st day of January, 1899, for the purpose of listing the same. And that the said Treasurer shall enter such orders on a book showing the date of such orders, to whom payable and the amount thereof, and report the same to this Board at the regular meeting in January next."

In pursuance of said order notice is hereby given to the holders of such claims to present them to me on or before the said first day of January, 1899, for the purpose aforesaid.

This December 2nd, 1898.

W. L. BROWN, Town Treasurer

DR. WURTH'S OPINION.

OF THE NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE.

A Remarkably Successful Remedy for Dyspepsia Indigestion and Stomach Troubles

Dr. Wurth in commenting on recent discoveries in medicine said: There is none which is certain to be so valuable and far reaching in benefit as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new stomach remedy; I say far reaching, because people little realize how important a sound stomach and vigorous digestion is to every man, woman and child.

Indigestion is the starting point of consumption, heart disease, Bright's disease, diabetes, nervous prostration, liver troubles; why is this so? Simply because every nerve, muscle and tissue in our bodies is created and nourished from the food we eat. If that food is, by reason of a weak stomach, compelled to lie for hours, a sour, fermenting mass of half digested food, it poisons the blood and nervous system, creates gas which distends the stomach and bowels, causing pressure of the heart, lungs and other organs, and seriously impeding their action.

He says further, the point to direct attention is not the nerves, nor heart, nor lungs, nor kidneys, but the stomach, the first cause of all the mischief.

The remedy to use for indigestion and weak stomachs is not some cathartic, but a remedy which will digest the food, increase the flow of gastric juice, absorb the gases, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will accomplish exactly this result in any case of stomach trouble, because these tablets are composed of the digestive acids, aseptic pepsin, Golden Seal and bismuth, pleasant to taste, and not being a patent medicine, can be used by anyone with perfect safety. I believe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any form of indigestion and stomach trouble except cancer of stomach.

Full size packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents or by mail from F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. A book on stomach diseases together with thousands of testimonials will be sent by addressing above or call on your druggist for them.

Annual Almanac and monthly paper, Word and Works, are now known from sea to sea. We are pleased to call the attention of our readers to the Almanac for 1899, now ready. It is a splendidly printed and illustrated book of 116 pages and the storm forecasts and diagrams and astronomical and scientific matter are superior to anything that has ever been seen before in a 25 cent book. His monthly journal, Word and Works is one of the best literary, home and scientific magazines in the country, besides containing his monthly storm forecasts with explanations. The subscription price of Word and Works is $1.00 per year and a copy of the Hicks Almanac is sent as a premium to every yearly subscriber. Single copies of Word and Works, 10 cts. Price of Almanac alone, 15 cents. Send your order to Word and Works Pub. Co., 2201 Locust Street, St. Louis, Mo.

We do not remember in any fall to have heard so many complaints as at present about people not paying their debts. If all who can would pay their accounts, or at least pay as much as possible, there would be less cause for complaint.

YELLOW JAUNDICE CURED

Offering humanity should be supplied with every means possible for its relief. It is with pleasure we publish the following. "This is to certify that I was a terrible sufferer from Yellow Jaundice for over six months, and was treated by some of the best physicians in our city and all to no avail. Dr. Bell, our druggist, recommended Electric Bitters and after two bottles, I was entirely cured. I now take great pleasure in recommending them to any person suffering from this terrible malady. Man Killed.

Saturday night at Penny Hill Mr. Van Riddick shot and killed a colored man. From what we can learn the colored man was a tenant of Mr. Riddick and had deserted the crop leaving the landlord to finish housing it. They met in a store at Penny Hill and had some words about the crop. The negro became very abusive and drew a pistol on Mr. Riddick, when the latter also pulled a pistol and fired the ball entering the negro's forehead just above the eye and killing him almost instantly.
