BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION
Large Gathering and Interesting Session.

At 8 o'clock Thursday night in the Memorial Baptist church met the Baptist State Convention of North Carolina in its 68th annual session, President R. H. Marsh in the chair.

The exercises opened with the congregation singing "All Hail the Power of Jesus Name."

Payer was offered by Dr. R. R. Overby, of Hertford.

The introductory sermon was preached by Rev. W. L. Penick, D. D., the popular pastor of the Elizabeth City church. His text was Acts 6:2-7, his subject "The Power of the Apostolic Church." He made an earnest plea for a higher consecrated ministry, that the churches be released from modern secularization, and the pastors liberated from the necessity of engaging in secular pursuits. The pastors should give their time to preaching the word, while the serving of tables should be left to the care of the deacons to whom this was assigned in the days of the Apostles. It was a grand sermon and brought forth many hearty amens from the congregation.

"The convention is now ready for business" said President Marsh as he rapped the body to order. He then announced that the first work was appointing a committee to enroll delegates.

The following committee on enrollment was appointed: J. W. Bailey, H. M. Shaw, W. H. Ragsdale, T. M. Pittman, A. D. Hunter, T. B. Wilder and C. J. D. Parker. The committee reported 127 delegates in the house.

Dr. A. M. Simms, of Raleigh, arose and nominated Dr. R. H. Marsh for President. He was unanimously elected for the seventh time.

The following committee was appointed to nominate the other officers: R. G. Kendrick, W. A. Smith, N. L. Shaw, J. A. McKaughan, H. M. Mashburn, L. M. Curtis and A. W. Earley. This committee retired and made the following report:

Vice Presidents—N. Biggs, W. L. Poteat and L. Johnson.

Secretary—N. B. Broughton, Corresponding Secretary—J. E. White.

Treasurer—J. D. Boushall.
Auditor—Walters Durham.

Several visiting brethren were then announced and the following were introduced and made brief remarks to the Convention:

Dr. R. J. Willingham, of Richmond, Secretary of the Foreign Mission Board.

Dr. J. M. Frost, of Nashville, Secretary of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention.

Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of Richmond, editor of the Religious Herald.

Dr. Flippo, of Philadelphia, representative of the American Baptist Publication Society. In expressing his pleasure at being present Dr. Flippo said there were many brethren in the Keystone State and in the City of Brotherly Love who are in deepest sympathy with the North Carolinians in the recent troubles and trying ordeal through which some sections of the State had passed.

Dr. J. R. Sampey, of the Theological Seminary, Louisville.

Dr. Needham, General Evangelist.

Dr. James Nelson, President of the Woman's College, Richmond.

Dr. C. F. James, President of Roanoke Female College, Danville.

Dr. Vines, the new pastor at Asheville, and J. F. Love, of Suffolk, were welcomed.

J. W. Bailey moved that the pastors of local churches be invited to seats in the Convention. Rev. N. M. Watson, of the Methodist church, was recognized and made a few remarks.

Rev. A. W. Setzer, pastor of the Greenville Memorial church then delivered the address of welcome which was couched in most beautiful language and eloquently delivered. The address was as follows:

ADDRESS OF WELCOME.
Mr. President, Delegates and Visitors to the North Carolina Baptist State Convention:

It gives me genuine pleasure, both in behalf of the town of Greenville and the Memorial Baptist Church, to most cordially extend to you a hearty welcome among us. Our anticipated pleasure of your coming are now, to a large extent, realized by the joy and inspiration your presence brings us. The invitation we extended, and which you accepted, proceeded from our love for and interest in you; believing, as we did, that it would be both pleasant and profitable for North Carolina Baptists to hold the 68th annual session of their Convention at the place which gave birth to our organized work as a denomination. We cannot claim that our interest in you has been greater than that of other churches which make up your strength and influence, but that we have watched you in your struggles and rejoiced with you in your successes, and now with open door and open hearts we receive you with a joy akin to that of a mother when, after a long absence, she receives her child as it enters again the threshold of the old home.

It can be truthfully said that the real life of our denomination began when the Baptists of the state united their efforts under the Articles of the Constitution of our Convention. Let me be understood in that seemingly broad statement, for I would not for one moment ignore the lives and sacrifices of men like Ross and Daniel upon whose labors and sacrifices was builded the institution we love so well; but I would join with no small degree of holy pride to what has been accomplished since our organized work began on March the 26th, 1830, and no one will deny that with this united effort came new life with larger aims and increased activities among the Baptists of North Carolina.

Though there is some difference of opinion as to the house in which the organization was effected, in either case you are assembled almost within a stone's throw of the spot which gave birth to one of the grandest and best institutions North Carolina has ever known. Your sessions will be held in this beautiful and substantial building erected by the Baptists of the State as a memorial to the wise plans and heroic sacrifices of our Godly Sires whose dreams have only been realized by those who have been witnesses to the attainments of organized effort made through our Convention. For many years the dust of these heroes of a pure gospel has slept in the grave, but their spirits hover over us, inspiring us with more and more zeal and courage in defending "the faith once delivered to the saints."

Greenville welcomes you and the Memorial church welcomes you, first of all, because it was here that your brilliant history had its beginning. From our threshold you went out into North Carolina on your noble mission of serving Christ and humanity. Your ministrations of love have healed many wounds and caused rejoicing in many hearts which before were beclouded with error and superstition. And you have not been a servant of Christ and humanity within the borders of your State alone, but the nations far away in the darkness and superstition of heathenism and idolatry have heard the tread of your feet and the rustle of your garments as you have come to them as an angel of mercy bringing them the water of life. As in the past so in the future, may you go forth wrapped in the mantle of your fathers; and God grant that your past and present attainments may be but the beginning of the history you shall write as you pursue your noble mission to humanity and your loving, grateful service to Christ.

We welcome you in the name of our Master—Christ, whose servants you are, and feel that if we but give you cup of cold water in His name we shall not lose our reward.

We welcome you in the name of religious liberty, that principle for which Baptists have contended throughout the ages past, and which they now cherish as a sacred and holy thing—a principle for which have been sacrificed as noble blood and life as God ever gave the world.

We welcome you to our hearts and homes. The citizens of Greenville open wide their doors and bid you enter. May your life and conversation around our firesides and in our homes be such as will sweeten the memories of your visit to us.

We trust that this session of our convention shall be one of such marked harmony and wise planning as that it shall go down in history as having been one of the greatest meetings of North Carolina Baptists. We already feel the inspiration of your presence, and our prayer is that heaven's richest blessings shall rest upon you and us, and with pleasure and profit may we ever remember the convention at Greenville.

Again, to one and all I extend a cordial and hearty welcome.

President Marsh called on Rev. J. A. Hardaway, of Oxford, to respond to the address of welcome, which he did in his usual happy style, and cursorily narrated some very interesting history of the Convention.

A committee on order of business was then appointed as follows: N. L. Shaw, J. C. Caddell, J. E. White, J. D. Bonshall, C. E. Gower, E. E. Hilliard and C. J. Woodson.

While this committee was preparing its report Mr. H. A. Wolfsohn, of Atlanta, sang very beautifully "Saved by Grace."

The committee reported the order of business for Friday, and the Convention at 10:45 adjourned with benediction by Dr. Frost.

FRIDAY MORNING SESSION.

The convention met this morning at 10 o'clock, the devotional exercises being conducted by Rev. R. R. Overby.

The first business was the report of the Board of Missions and Sunday schools by J. E. White, Corresponding Secretary, and after reading it was referred to appropriate committees. This report was embraced in a pamphlet of 35 pages and covered all departments of work for the year. It showed that there are now 2,500 Baptist churches in the State with a membership reaching a quarter of a million. There are 103 missionaries in the field and the amount contributed to missions is $30,000. Wake Forest College has a faculty of twelve members, 260 students and an endowment of over $200,000. There were about 1,500 additions to the churches during year and the work in all departments has been largely increased. The report made some reference to future plans and recommended still greater efforts towards enlargement.

The financial part of the report showed the following summary of contributions for the year:

State Missions	$16,582.91
Foreign Missions	8,785.29
Home Missions	5,453.93
Education	13,116.43
Orphanage	11,958.02
Ministerial Relief	918.06
Student's Aid Fund	560.30
Baptist Book Store	8,414.7

Sunday Schools and Colportage	203.39
Church Extension on Mission Fields	5,279.35
Church Extension, other than Mission Fields	75,000.00
Pastor's Salaries	122,508.00
Incidental church expenses	15,030.00
Contributions for Mission purposes	29,032.00
Sunday school expenses	7,182.89
Grand total	$324,389.40

The report of the Ministers' Relief Board was read by Rev. W. C. Tyree, of Durham.

The report on Ministerial Education was read by Dr. John Mitchell.

Dr. J. N. Frost, of Nashville, addressed the Convention on the work of the Sunday School Board of the Southern Baptist Convention. Several times during the address many eyes in the congregation filled with tears, so beautiful and touching were the speaker's words. He asked that help be given the Board in carrying on its work.

Dr. A. E. Dickinson, of the Religious Herald, followed with a few remarks. He scored the kickers among the brethren and said he was going to Washington to see President McKinley and buy one of the 1,400 Philippine Islands he has for sale and colonize all the kickers there. (Laughter.) "We have no kickers in North Carolina" interrupted Dr. Skinner, of Raleigh. Dr. Dickinson referred to strifes in some States that had injured the Baptist cause, and urged that all differences be kept down. The President then announced that the special order of the hour was the reception of the brethren from the former Western Convention who now come to form a new association with this Convention. Rev. C. S. Cashwell, of Hickory, presented the names of delegates from the associations in the west who were sent to be received.

President Marsh gave an opportunity for the delegates to be heard and A. I. Justice, T. Bright, A. B. Smith, W. M. Vines, and W. E. Wilkins responded. The Western Convention was established sixty-three years ago as an auxiliary to the State Convention, and fifty-one years ago became an independent body, and the union of the two conventions was hailed with delight.

Rev. J. A. Hardaway offered the following: Whereas, we have this day heard through messengers of the dissolution of the Western North Carolina Convention, and whereas said messengers are present seeking admission as delegates into membership of this body, therefore be it Resolved. (1) That the first article of the Constitution of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention be amended so as to read "The Baptist State Convention shall be composed of three male representatives from each white Association in the State, or one annual male representative." &c.

(2) That the delegates from the Associations and churches formerly composing the Western North Carolina Convention be welcomed on their application as delegates of the North Carolina Baptist State Convention.

The resolution was unanimously adopted and the names of the western representatives were ordered enrolled as delegates to this Convention.

President Marsh requested Dr. C. E. Taylor, of Wake Forest College, to speak a word of welcome to the western brethren. In his remarks he said it seemed so fitting that the Conventions should consolidate at the home of Gov. Jarvis, who did so much years ago in securing the railroad through the western part of the State that makes it possible for the brethren from all sections to assemble at one point.

Rev. J. B. Boone, manager of the Orphanage, also made some remarks expressing his pleasure at the union of the two conventions. Remarks were also made by Rev. W. R. Gwaltney and Dr. Skinner.

President extended the hand of fellowship to the brethren, and the congregation arose and sang "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," as all gathered around to welcome them.

The committee on order of business made a supplementary report and the President announced the several committees of the Convention.

A telegram from the students at Louisville was read, sending greetings and referring to Numbers 6:24-27. Rev. A. W. Setzer was appointed to respond to the telegram. Convention adjourned at 1:15 with benediction by Dr. Dickinson.

DR. WURTH'S OPINION.
 OF THE NEW DISCOVERY IN MEDICINE.
 A Remarkably Successful Remedy for Dyspepsia Indigestion and Stomach Troubles

Dr. Wurth in commenting on recent discoveries in medicine said: There is none which is certain to be so valuable and far reaching in benefit as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, the new stomach remedy; I say far reaching, because people little realize how important a sound stomach and vigorous digestion is to every man, woman and child.
 Indigestion is the starting point of consumption, heart disease, Bright's disease, diabetes, nervous prostration, liver troubles; why is this so? Simply because every nerve, muscle and tissue in our bodies is created and nourished from the food we eat. If that food is, by reason of a weak stomach, compelled to lie for hours, a sour, fermenting mass of half digested food, it poisons the blood and nervous system, creates gas which distends the stomach and bowels, causing pressure of the heart, lungs and other organs, and seriously impeding their action.
 He says further, the point to direct attention is not the nerves, nor heart, nor lungs, nor kidneys, but the stomach, the first cause of all the mischief.
 The remedy to use for indigestion and weak stomachs is not some cathartic, but a remedy which will digest the food, increase the flow of gastric juice, absorb the gases, and Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will accomplish exactly this result in any case of stomach trouble, because these tablets are composed of the digestive acids, aseptic pepsin, Golden Seal and bismuth, pleasant to taste, and not being a patent medicine, can be used by anyone with perfect safety. I believe Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any form of indigestion and stomach trouble except cancer of stomach.
 Full size packages of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by druggists at 50 cents or by mail from F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. A book on stomach diseases together with thousands of testimonials will be sent by addressing above or call on your druggist for them.

The Monroe Enquirer says there was a novel peace making on the streets of Monroe a few days ago. Two men who had been at enmity for some time made friends, shook hands and kissed each other with such fervor that on-looker declares that he heard the smacking of the lips fifty yards away.

Most peachers find a good fountain pen almost indispensable. The Reflector Book Store has the Parker Fountain Pen, the best made.

It is generally regretted that the venerable Dr. J. D. Hufham is detained by sickness and is unable to get to the Convention. In a measure the meeting seems incomplete without this able man of God. May the Lord abundantly bless and spare him for many more years of usefulness.

Work of the Ladies.

Many delegates have expressed admiration of the beauty of the interior of the church. The work of beautifying the walls is due to Miss Sallie Lipscomb, who gave an entertainment and raised the money required for it. The splendid iron fence in front of the church yard was provided through the efforts of Mrs. M. M. Nelson. Both these ladies have done nobly in their work.

THE EASTERN REFLECTOR of Dec. 9th. (published this afternoon) contains a list of the delegates to the Convention and who they are entertained by, an article from the Baptist Historical papers on the Baptist Benevolent Society of North Carolina, and a sketch of the early Baptists in Pitt county and history of the Greenville Memorial church. Every delegate should get a copy of this paper and preserve it. Price 5 cents.
