BAPTIST STATE CONVENTION

Large Gathering and Interesting Session.

SATURDAY AFTERNOON SESSION.

The convention assembled at 3 P. M., Vice President W. L. Poteat in the chair. The report touching co-operation with the colored people as suggested in the report of the Board of Missions and Sunday-schools, was taken from the table. It was discussed favorably by J. E. White and opposed by Dr. Hufham. It was adopted.

A. D. Hunter offered the report of the committee to nominate Board for State Missions. The report named a member from each association as well as a general Board.

President F. P. Hobgood, of Oxford Female Seminary, offered a report on education, and the report for the time was laid on the table.

Dr. E. W. Sykes read the report on Home Missions. The report was discussed by Dr. Sykes, Dr. Penick and S. J. Porter. The report was adopted.

G. L. Finch offered report to nominate a committee on Sunday-school and Colportage work, naming a committee. The report was adopted.

B. F. Hester made a report nominating a Board of Education, which was adopted.

Adjourned at 4:45 with benediction by Rev. W. R. Gwaltney.

SATURDAY EVENING SESSION.

Convention met at 7:30 o'clock devotional exercises conducted by Rev. C. W. Scarborough.

Rev. T. J. Taylor presented the report on Ministerial Relief which was adopted without discussion.

Rev. H. L. Watson submitted the report of the Orphanage. Manager J. B. Boone addressed to Convention on the Orphanage, giving the condition of the institution. There are five buildings and 170 children, with many more applying for admission. These children are fed, clothed and educated at an average cost of $4.66 2-3 each per month. The subject was discussed forcibly by J. W. Bailey and E. E. Hilliard.

Rev. J. A. Hardaway moved that a hat collection be taken for the Orphanage, which was adopted.

The report on the Baptist Female University was read by Prof. W. L. Poteat, and was discussed by Dr. R. T. Vann and Rev. O. L. Stringfield, the latter being the financial agent of the University. Dr. Dickinson, of Richmond, and C. J. Hunter, of Raleigh, also made some remarks in behalf of the institution. N. B. Broughton took charge of a collection and $930 was raised for the University.

Convention adjourned at 10:20 with benediction by Dr. C. E. Taylor.

SUNDAY MORNING.

Like all the weather we have enjoyed during the Convention, Sunday dawned beautifully. It was a grand day, one in which God could truly be worshipped in the beauty of holiness.

The exercises of the day began with a Sunday school meeting, the preliminary song service being led by Prof. H. A. Wolfsohn, of Atlanta. Rev. B. W. Spilman took charge of the meeting and announced the speakers. Very interesting five minute talks were made by N. B. Broughton, Dr. A. E. Dickinson, E. E. Hilliard, J. W. Bailey and H. C. Moore.

At 11 o'clock Dr. J. W. Carter, of Raleigh, preached in the Baptist church; Rev. J. E. White, of Cary, in the Methodist church; Dr. Thos Hume, of the University, in the Presbyterian church; Rev. O. L. Stringfield in the colored Baptist church; and Rev. C. E. Gower, in the colored Methodist church.

At 3 o'clock a Sunday school mass meeting was held, presided over by N. B. Broughton. The report on Sunday schools was read and discussed by N. B. Broughton, Dr. O. F. Flippo, W. E. Wilkins and B. W. Spilman.

An interesting feature of the evening was the rendering by John E. Ray of "Nearer My God to Thee," in the deaf and dumb sign language, Mr. H. A. Wolfsohn interpreting the signs in song.

The report on Sunday schools was adopted.

Miss Fannie E. S. Heck called a meeting for 3 o'clock in the Methodist church of all women who felt an interest in Woman's Female University. There was a large attendance and the matter of helping the institution was discussed. Pledges were taken amounting to $1,070, making a total amount, with what was pledged by the convention Saturday night, of $2,000 for the University.

SUNDAY NIGHT.

The first work of the night session was a collection to assist in paying for the church at Murphy. This collection amounted to $120.

Dr. J. A. Mundy led in prayer.

Dr. Thos Hume took charge of the meeting to preside over the historical exercises. He made some prefatory remarks relative to church history and introduced T. M. Pittman, of Henderson, who delivered an address on "Preparation for Our Baptist History."

SAM T. WHITE

Next speaker was Dr. T. E. Herring on "The Personal of the Convention of 1830." Prof. E. W. Sykes, of Wake Forest College followed upon the subject "The Importance of the Preservation of our History."

These were all of great interest, containing important historical matter reaching as far back as into the sixteenth century.

The present officers of the Historical society were re-elected, viz: President—Dr. T. Hume. Treasurer—Prof. W. L. Potat. Secretary—J. C. Caddell.

Chairman Committee on Publication—T. M. Pittman.

A motion was adopted that the Historical Society meet with the Convention at its next session and a committee appointed to prepare a program.

John E. Ray sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul" in the sigh language.

President Marsh announced that Rev. G. W. Greene, missionary to China, would on January 7th depart with his wife and daughter to return to their labors in that foreign land, brief farewell exercises would now be held.

Rev. L. Johnson, chairman of the Foreign Mission Board of the State, took charge of this farewell exercises.

Dr. C. E. Taylor was requested to speak the words of farewell for the Convention. Mr. Greene also spoke a farewell word to the Convention.

Dr. Hume offered a resolution containing a message to be sent by the hand of Mr. Greene to other brethren in China.

Prayer for the departing missionary and his family was offered by Dr. Vann.

"God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again" was sung as the departing hand shake was given.

Benediction was pronounced by Dr. Skinner.

MONDAY SESSION.

Convention met at 9:30 o'clock, President Marsh in the chair. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. J. E. Herring, prayer by Dr. Mitchel.

N. B. Broughton offered report nominating Ministerial Relief Board which was adopted.

J. E. White, W. M. Vines and L. Johnson were appointed a committee to co-operate with the committee for Western Associations on missionary work.

Dr. Simms moved that the Book Store provide a bland form of statistical letter for the Associations, to be furnished all desiring to use them. Adopted.

N. B. Broughton offered the following:

Resolved, That a committee of five members of the body be appointed to confer with the railroad authorities of this State with the view of securing better accommodations and lower rates for delegates and visitors in attending our annual sessions.

The roads showed very little favor to the Convention. For instance, the special rates they gave from Raleigh was only 55 cents lower than the regular first-class fare for the round trip, with about a proportional rate from other points.

The resolution was adopted. L. Johnson read the report on obituaries, referring to the death of Dr. R. D. Fleming, J. A. Edger-ton, James Dowd and Jerry Gay who had passed away during the last year. The report was adopted.

Report of the committee on Ministerial and general education was read and adopted. It was discussed by Dr. Mitchell.

Rev. A. W. Setzer read the telegram which was sent in response to the greeting from the North Carolina students at the Seminary in Louisville.

Rev. J. W. Herring read the report on Woman's Work. It was discussed by Rev. F. H. Jones.

A resolution was adopted authorizing the printing of the minutes.

A letter was read from Rev. F. H. Jordan expressing his regrets at not being able to attend the Convention.

A resolution encouraging B. Y. P. U. was adopted.

Dr. Thomas Hume offered the following:

Resolved, That we hereby express our cordial appreciation of the delightful hospitality so generously given by our brethren, by the pastors and people of other Christian bodies and the citizens generally of Greenville, and we thank all those who have furthered us on our way and in our work.

The Doxology was sung, Dr. J. W. Carter offered the closing prayer, and at 1 o'clock the 68th session of the Convention closed to meet with the First Baptist Church in Asheville Wednesday before the second Sunday in Dec. 1899.

WOMAN'S MISSIONARY UNION.

The Union had another interesting session in the Methodist church Saturday morning. The devotional exercises were conducted by Miss Draughan.

Rev. J. E. White, Corresponding Secretary of the Convention, delivered an address on State Missions.

Discussions were then had on questions introduced by the Vice Presidents of the different Associations. This was followed by short reports from individual Societies.

A paper on the Canton, China School for girls, was read by Miss Greene.

Reports of committees were heard and discussions of some of the recommendations from the Central Committee through Miss Heck were had and adopted.

A paper on General Mission work prepared by Mrs. Hoge, was read by Miss Picot.

The following resolution was presented and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That the thanks of the Woman's Missionary Societies of the North Carolina Baptist Convention be and are hereby extended to the citizens of Greenville for their generous hospitality and to the Methodist church for the use of its house of worship.

We wish also to express our appreciation to the Kinston people who so kindly entertained us while in that city.

We desire that these resolutions be published in THE DAILY REFLECTOR

- MRS. HIGHT C. MOORE, " W. G. FREEMAN, " W. O. ALLEN, MISS M. W. HARDY, " MARY CARTER.

The meeting closed with a farewell by the Union to Mrs. Greene and Miss Greene who are soon to depart to return to their work in China.

He Remembered the Apple Barrel.

Dr. Lorimer, of Tremont Temple, Boston, tells this story of one of our distinguished men, who was introduced at a great public meeting as a "self-made man." Instead of appearing gratified at the tribute, it seemed to throw him, for a few moments, into a "brown study." Afterwards they asked him the reason for the way in which he received the announcement.

"Well," said the great man, "it set me to thinking that I was not really a self-made man.

"Why," they replied, "did you not begin to work in a store when you were ten or twelve?"

"Yes," said he, "but it was because my mother thought I ought early to have the educating touch of business."

"But then," they urged, "you were always such a great reader, devouring books when a boy."

"Yes," he replied, but it was because my mother led me to do it, and at her knee she had me give an account of the book after I had read it. I don't know about being a self-made man. I think my mother had a great deal to do with it."

"But then," they urged again, "your integrity was your own."

"Well, I don't know about that. One day a barrel of apples came to me to sell by the peck; after the manner of some store keepers, I put the speckled ones at the bottom and the best ones at the top. My mother called me and asked what I was doing. I told her, and she said: 'Tom, if you do that you will be a cheat.' And I did not do it. I think my mother had something to do with my integrity. And, on the whole, I doubt whether I am a self-made man. I think my mother had something to do with making me anything if I am of any character of usefulness."

"Happy," said Dr. Lorimer, "the boy who had such a mother; happy the mother who had a boy so appreciative of his mother's formative influence!"—Index

Remembered by Sycamore Hill.

To the white Baptist State Convention: We the members of Sycamore Hill Baptist church colored did highly appreciate the rich and glorious sermon by Rev. O. L. Stringfield Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. His sermon was powerful and full of Holy Spirit.

At 2:30 the union service by Dr. Chas. F. Meserve assisted by President Taylor also Rev. Chas. we don't remember the other part of his name, but they were all Chas. and oh, what a Service we had. The rich truths which they imparted to us were glorious, we have never witness a better service than on Sunday, the rich instruction on the lines of Christian character.

Moral training, education, and wealth, they spoke very lengthly along these lines, and oh, how our people was enthused.

At 7:30 Rev. A. M. Croxton preached a rich and glorious sermon. Dr. Chas. F. Meserve gave a short talk. We thank God and the Baptist State Convention for those able Divines. We pray God's blessing upon that glorious body, and we pray the blessing of God upon the white Baptist church of this town where the Baptist State Convention was first founded.

GREENVILLE SLANDERED.

It is not often that a man is found who so far loses his self-respect and home pride as to wilfully slander his town, but Greenville has one such citizen. We are told that C. M. Bernard was returning to his home here Saturday evening, and while talking to several strangers on the train told them he did not see why the Baptist State Convention was invited here, that the town could not begin to entertain it. Going further by way of comparison he said that a few years ago the North Carolina Conference was held here, that only about 150 people attended it and they had to be packed away like sardines in a box to be taken care of.

This is a slander, a willful falsehood, and no one is better aware of it than the author. The North Carolina Conference met here in 1892, was attended by a full delegation, and it was most handsomely entertained, as every one then present remembers and as the record of proceedings of the body shows in a resolution expressing their appreciation of the same. The Baptist State Convention has been with us the last few days, the number of delegates and visitors in attendance was about 350, and if any one has a doubt about their being well entertained he has only to ask any of those present. It can be said further that there was ample room to entertain more than were here, and the only regret Greenville people have expressed is that more delegates and visitors did not come.

Coming from the source it did perhaps this slander should not have been noticed, but it being made so publicly THE REFLECTOR will not let it pass unrebuked. It can be said that Greenville is already congratulating herself over the prospect of the author of this slander moving away. He has long been the object of contempt with most people here, and the sooner he departs the better they will like it. But the town that gets him gains nothing.

Gen. Miles' recommendation for the reorganization of the regular army, based upon the supposition that the strength of the army will be increased to 100,000 men in accordance with the recommendations made by Mr. McKinley and the Secretary of War, contains much that is calculated to arouse antagonism in Congress. For instance, the proposal to create three new officers, a General and two Lieutenant Generals. Such positions have been created by Congress in the past, but it was done to honor particular officers and the grade was only established temporarily.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and pro-

 The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble

 he took half dozen bottles of Mrs.

 his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a

A POPULAR MISTAKE.
 Regarding Remedies for Dyspepsia and Indigestion.

The national disease of Americans is indigestion or in its chronic form, dyspepsia, and for the very reason that it is so common many people neglect taking proper treatment for what they consider trifling stomach trouble, when as a matter of fact, indigestion lays the foundation for many incurable diseases.
 No person with a vigorous, healthy stomach will fall a victim to consumption. Many kidney diseases and heart troubles date their beginning from poor digestion; thin, nervous people are really so because their stomachs are out of gear; weary, languid, faded out women owe their condition to imperfect indigestion.

When nearly every person you see is afflicted with weak digestion it is not surprising that nearly every secret patent medicine on the market claims to be a cure for dyspepsia, as well as a score of other troubles, when in fact, as Dr.
 Werthier says, there is but one genuine dyspepsia cure which is perfectly safe and reliable, and moreover, this remedy is not a patent medicine, but if is a scientific combination of pure pepsin (free from animal matter), vegetable essences, fruit salts and bismouth. It is sold by druggists under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. No extravagant claims are made for them, but for indigestion or any stomach trouble, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are far ahead of any remedy yet discovered.
 They act on the food eaten, no dieting is necessary, simply eat all the wholesome food you want and these tablets will digest it. A cure results, because all the stomach needs is a rest which Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets give by doing the work of digestion.

Druggists sell these tablets at 50cts. per package. Circulars and testimonials sent free by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall,

WINE OF CARDUI THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."

Haynie's Special Cigar in Greenville.

J. L. Wooten, the Druggist has just received a large supply of the great Haynie Special Cigar. Haynie's Special is a 5c cigar with a Sumatra wrapper, Havana filler and a connecticut wrapper for a binder. They are guaranteed to equal any 10c cigar manufactured in the world. They have met with a large sale wherever they have been introduced and as Greenville people always want the best thing for their money no doubt they will have a large sale in Greenville. Don't fail to go and see J. L. WOOTEN the Druggist and get a Haynie Special Cigar.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent. Washington, D. C., Dec. 5, '98. Republican leaders are as reticent about the Congressional policy of the party at this session as Mr. McKinley's message was about the policy of the administration towards the territory acquired from Spain, but, young as the session is, one thing has been made plain. That is, the administration and the leading Republicans in Congress have combined for the purpose of preventing an early extra session of the next Congress, if it can possibly be done. The word has been passed around that all of the regular appropriation bills must be passed as soon as possible, and that no bill likely to provoke extended debate will be pushed by the leaders.

WANTED—A first-class solicitor to represent The Prudential Life Insurance Company in the counties of Martin, Pitt and Greene. C. M. HAWKINS, Gen. Agt., Raleigh, N. C.

Greenville Has Done it Handsomely.

The child of destiny, born at Greenville, N. C., in the year of Our Lord 1830, and named the Baptist State Convention, under the guidance of its Heavenly parentage, has grown year by year until it is a great giant. In its 68th year, the good people of Greenville said, "come back to your birth place, and sojourn with us a few days, renewing your youth, gathering inspiration from the hallowed scenes and recollections of bygone years and then go on your heavenly mission with renewed zeal." In response to this kind invitation, we came. We have been warmly received, handsomely entertained, and now we reluctantly go away, but we will carry sweet recollections of Greenville and her generous people with us. The whole session of the Convention has been one of harmony and love. Where there are so many, all cannot be leaders, some must be hearers and followers. John E. White, is a master leader, and to him more than any other one man, is the praise due for a successful Convention. Dr. R. H. Marsh, is one of the best presiding officers the Baptist of N. C. ever employed and honored as its president. The other officers of the Convention are competent and faithful men. Mr. Herrmann A. Wolfshong, a native of London, England, now of Atlanta, Ga. has added much to our pleasure, both in the meetings and homes, by his sweet singing. He is a solid Baptist, loves gospel work, and prefers aiding pastors to working with evangelists. Every minister would say he had the best home in the historic town, but those of us who were entertained at the home of Mr. R. A. Tyson, think our entertainment could not have been better. Mrs. Tyson presides with the ease and dignity of a queen and well can she preside over the home made so lovely and attractive by such a princely husband. Now lets all put our trust in God, turn our eyes to the mountain city of beautiful Asheville, do a faithful years work, and hope to meet next December. J. H. LAMBERTH.
