STOLE AN ENGINE.

And After Going Ten Miles Turned it Loose.

About midnight Saturday night some one went to the yard of the Atlantic Coast Line at Washington and stole a railroad engine. When the culprit started out of town with the engine he threw the throttle wide open, turned on the whistle and raised such a racket as he sped away that alarmed everybody in the neighborhood. The noise awoke the agent, and discovering what had taken place he began telephoning up the road in order to head off the runaway. No one was found awake except at Stokes station and orders were sent there to flag down the engine or ditch it. A watch was put out but the engine did not go that far. The thief stopped at Pactolus, and after reversing the engine to let it go back wild, jumped off. Fortunately the steam was so near exhausted that the engine went back only about two miles when it ran down on the track. Had it gone back wild into the yard at Washington great damage might have been done. The officials are hunting for the engine robber.

GRIMESLAND ITEMS.

GRIMESLAND, N. C., Dec. 16 '98. Several went from here to Greenville Sunday to attend the Convention.

Rev. N. L. Seabolt returned from Conference last week and will continue his work on this circuit. His many friends wish him success.

W. M. Moore has advertised his house and store for sale. He will move his family to Greenville.

Tickets are out for a grand tournament and coronation ball to be given here on Wednesday Jan 4th, 1899.

Pastor Called

Sunday was the time for the Baptist church here to call a pastor for next year. A church conference meeting was held at the close of the night services, and Rev. A. W. Setzer was recalled to the pastorate. The fact that there was a large attendance of the members and the call was made by a unanimous rising vote indicates the high esteem in which Mr. Setzer is held by the church. He is greatly beloved by the entire community. He has served the church for the last two years and his work in every has been most gratifying.

Cutting Scrape.

Down at the Elmwood Dairy, two miles below town, two colored men had a row and Jim Whichard was seriously cut by another man named Johnson. This occurred Saturday night.

THE POOR CHILDREN.

Poor folks don't have no Christmas—just don't have none at all; An' brother Jim won't git no drum, an' sister Sue no doll.

'Cause since our mother went to where they say the angels stay They don't know where we're livin' at, an' Santa's lost the way!

Poor folks don't have no Christmas, an' all they got to do Is stand an' see the toys an' be wishin' for 'em, too!

But I bet you if our mother wuz livin' here to-day, She'd send a word to Santa Claus an' tell him where we stay!

IT WAS THE RIGHT THING.

The letter of Augustus M. Moore, Esq., published a few days ago, but addressed to the Governor before the giving an opinion by the Attorney General upon the judicial election in the first District, is creditable alike to his conscientious sense of duty, and to his integrity and honor. He, at once, declined to accept the office of Judge upon a technicality. He shows no wavering between his duty and his interest. With the secretary of State proclaiming Moore's election, and the Governor ready to approve the opinion of the tricky Secretary, Mr. Moore blocked the game and waived away the honor that morally and legally was another's.

Mr. Moore was once a Democrat, and it is within living memory, that his Democracy was of the stalwart type, but in his early manhood and inexperience he was confronted by circumstances that overcame him and he fell into the arms of a party to which he did not belong by social instincts and association, by intellectuality or by patriotic impulses, and we do not believe that he is a whole hearted Republican of the dusky type today and we are more confirmed in that opinion by the manly course that he has pursued in refusing the proffered goods that Thompson proposed to steal for him.—Elizabeth City Economist.

Quite Naturally.

"You can't fill the bucket by one stroke of the pump handle."

Many business men insert a small advertisement once or twice in a publication "as a trial," and then sit back and wait to see what comes of it. Quite naturally, nothing—or next to nothing—comes of it. People who see your advertisement once or twice are just beginning to take note of what you say, and, perhaps, to resolve to give your goods a trial. The next time they look over the advertisements in their favorite paper you aren't there. Consequently the man who advertises steadily and persistently wins their confidence and gets their trade. It is quite just and proper that he should. Nobody is going to take the trouble to hunt up a man why shyly bobs up to the surface now and then, and then bobs down again.—The Curtis Publishing Company.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 19, 1898.

More than 40 per cent. of the British people could not write their names when Queen Victoria ascended the throne. The proportion in that condition has now been reduced to 7 per cent.

It is said that a movement is on foot to form a negro settlement of 6,000 people within sight of Greater New York. That a tract of land comprising 1,600 acres has been secured and that the families will be at once brought to their new homes from North and South Carolina.

The Mifflinburg (Pa.) Times is poking fun at the loungers who hang around the church corners on Sunday evenings to ogle the girls. It says: "A few members of the Donkey Club braved the inclement weather on last Sunday evening and held a meeting at the north-west corner of the M. E. Church. So many people are noticing the ears and bray of the members of the organization that it is somewhat difficult to find members who will acknowledge that they belong to the club."

A superstitious naval officer has called attention to the fact that the Massachusetts is the third vessel of the navy whose name commences with "M" that has met with an accident off Governor's Island since the war began. The others are the Mayflower and the Montgomery. The Maine is pointed to as another unlucky ship with that initial. There are just thirteen naval vessels now in commission with "M" as the first letter of their names, and—a clincher!—there are just thirteen letters in the name Massachusetts.

Christmas Chit-Chat.

If you give your girl a present she will keep, don't choose a diary.

Many a person has got licked for looking a gift horse in the mouth. The average Christmas slipper is about the worse thing a man can put his foot into.

Doing business without advertising is about the same as for a pretty girl to hang up her mistletoe and then neglect to stand under it.

While it is always commendable to make useful presents, don't give a man a bottle of whiskey just because it's well known that he uses it.

There is a drawback to everything in this world. The biggest stocking the small boy can find is the golf variety without any foot in it.

When you are careful not to let your little boy have anything for Christmas there is sure to be some kind friend who will give him a drum and a whistle. Judge.

The Drummers Annual Banquet

Piney Woods Inn at Southern Pines, N. C., the winter health resort, has opened for the winter season and announces the annual banquet in honor of the commercial travelers, to be held at the hotel Monday evening, January 9th.

During the last two years these banquets have been a pronounced success and it is the aim of the commercial traveler to so arrange his route that he may be present on that occasion. Manager St. John always gives the traveler the glad hand of welcome and the spread which he prepares for the boys is a most bounteous one, and we doubt not but that the annual reunion this year, like those of former occasions, will be one of pleasure long to be remembered.

If you would be successful, have faith in your own ability. Nothing is so essential to a leader in any kind of society or business as self-confidence. Of course, nothing can be accomplished without effort, but without confidence in one's ability to succeed there will be no effort. Business success has resolved itself into a matter of looking out for number one, and if number one has faith in his own works he makes for himself a position at the head of the procession and retains it by right of possession.—Ad Sense.

Thought to be Dead, but Living.

Yesterday morning a grave had been dug in the cemetery, a small coffin prepared and an infant wrapped in burial clothes. The undertaker went to the house at 2 o'clock in the afternoon and was making preparations for its burial when he was startled by discovering life in the little one. It was given some stimulants and began to breathe regularly and show other unmistakable signs of life. A doctor was called and there was slight hopes for its recovery; but the child was too far gone and it breathed its last this morning.

The burial clothes were used and the grave filled after all.—Fayetteville Observer.

General Miles' theory of army reorganization is that the army should be large enough to meet our responsibilities the world over, and at the same time so small as not to be a menace to the American people. The problem ought not to be complex, and it might be further simplified by such a reorganization of the National Guard of the States as would make that organization in effect a standing reserve from which the regular army could be recruited in mass in an emergency, but without the hitches which attended such a movement in the late war.—Philadelphia Record.

Remember Your Home Merchant

The next time a traveling peddler calls at your door and tries to sell goods, says an exchange, ask him if he will take your butter, eggs and other farm products; ask him if, when your neighbor gets ready to build a road over the creek slough, he will donate a few dollars to help it along. Tell him there is a poor widow down the road, and ask him to donate a few provisions; ask him if he will contribute to a new enterprise just starting. If he agrees to do this, then patronize him. Your home merchant does all this and more.—Greensboro Patriot.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Troubles and Indigestion Anyway, Whether You Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give you an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves in the only way that nature does it, and that is, from plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

Story of Lincoln.

This Lincoln story is told in Short Stories: A New York firm applied to Abraham Lincoln some years before he became president for information as to the financial standing of one of his neighbors. Mr. Lincoln replied as follows:

Yours of the 10th inst. received. I am well acquainted with Mr. X. and know his circumstances. First of all, he has a wife and baby; together they ought to be worth $50,000. Secondly, he has an office, in which there are a table worth $1.50 and three chairs worth, say, $1. Last of all, there is in one corner a large rathole, which will bear looking into. Respectfully yours, A. LINCOLN.

A Close Shave.

A circus paid a flying visit to a small country town, and the price of admission was sixpence, children under 10 years of age half price. It was Edith's tenth birthday, and her brother Tom, aged 12, took her in the afternoon to see the show. Arrived at the door, he put down ninepence and asked for two front seats.

"How old is the little girl?" asked the money taker doubtfully.

"Well," replied Master Tom, "this is her tenth birthday, but she was not born until rather late in the afternoon." The money taker accepted the statement and handed him the tickets. But it was a close shave.—London Tit-Bits.

The cod fisheries of Newfoundland have been followed for nearly 400 years. They greatly exceed those of any other country in the world. The average export of cod is about 1,350,000 cwt. per annum.

Carved His Epitaph and Died.

"John Harmon died here from the bite of a rattlesnake."

This is an inscription on a beech tree standing on the knobs, in Monroe township, back of Jeffersonville. A date once followed the words, but it is now indistinct. There is a strange story connected with the inscription. An old resident relates it.

"Years ago, when that section of Indiana was little explored and when the heavy bush was the dwelling place of the wild turkey, deer and rattlesnake, John Harmon started to Charlestown to attend court. He was armed with an old fashioned rifle. A rattler bit Harmon's leg. Harmon killed the reptile. Then he began to prepare for death. It was he who carved the words in lighter lines on the tree, with the request beneath, long since obliterated by the tree's growth, to bury him on the spot. A few days later Harmon's body was found. A grave was dug by the tree and there it can be seen today."—Louisville Courier-Journal.

Excessive Precaution.

A southwest Georgia couple going to be married, the prospective husband said:

"Molly, the last time I was married I lost the ring fore I got to the parson's. But I'm shore of it this time."

"'Whar is it, John?" she asked.

"I've got it in my mouth," he said.

"I'm shore of it now."

But when they stood before the preacher the latter asked:

"'Where is the ring?"

The groom gulped—choked—stuttered, and finally exclaimed in despair:

"Fore de Lord, I done swallered it!"—Atlanta Constitution.

"Detectives."
There are probably not less than a score of men walking about New Orleans today who are decorated under their lapels with large tin stars bearing the cabalistic word "detective." They are patrons of the various private agencies of the north that advertise for "shrewd men as operatives in all parts of the country," and supply the tin star and a beautifully lithographed "certificate" for the trifling sum of $5. The wearers of their insignia labor under the hallucination, as a rule, that they are vested with some special right to collar their fellow men. The same agencies do a land office business in wigs, false beards and other disguises which the amateur sleuth believes firmly are part of the necessary equipment of the profession.

Now and then one of these deluded individuals, who are to be found in all large cities, gets himself into trouble by attempting to make an arrest; but, as a rule, the mania is harmless and its victims confine themselves to prowling through side streets and looking mysterious. They find great joy also in posing in boarding house circles and hearing folks say in awed undertones, "Do you know Mr. So-and-so is a detective?" It is one of the queerest of all queer phases of city life.—New Orleans Times-Democrat.

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON

NOTICE.

The Board of Councilmen of the town of Greenville at their regular meeting on the first day of December, 1898, having made the following order, viz:

"This Board being unable to ascertain from the records what amount, if any, the town is in debt, it is hereby ordered that W. L. Brown, Treasurer, advertise for all persons holding orders upon the Town Treasurer, to present them to him on or before the 1st day of January, 1899, for the purpose of listing the same. And that the said Treasurer shall enter such orders on a book showing the date of such orders, to whom payable and the amount thereof, and report the same to this Board at the regular meeting in January next."

In pursuance of said order notice is hereby given to the holders of such claims to present them to me on or before the said first day of January, 1899, for the purpose aforesaid.

Single Standard

only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time or values; and

The... Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years of uninterrupted growth is justified in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper

To publish ALL THE NEWS promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision or partisan bias; to discuss the significance with frankness, to keep AN OPEN EYE FOR PUBLIC ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought, fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its DAILY EDITIONS of from 10 to 14 PAGES, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of ONE CENT—that was from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOLLOW.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 180,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

The Daily Edition of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 a year or 25 cents per month.

THE DAILY AND SUNDAY

editions together, which will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year, or 35 cents a month.

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Threatening weather tonight and Tuesday.

WINE OF CARDUI THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. L. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it most excellent preparation for female troubles."

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

Santa Claus is a bigger man than old Blanco ever was.

The wish is father to the thought and mother to the deed.

The credit gained by a lie lasts only until the truth comes out.

The man who was lost in slumber found his way out on a nightmare.

A smile in sleep is the reflected gleam of a love-ripple upon the current of a dream.

Many people call on you to pay their respects—and that's all some of them ever pay.

Tears bring forth the richness of our natures, as the rain deepens the fragrance of the flowers.

This is a bad time of the year for the United States to adopt an "open door" policy when the mercury is flirting with zero.

How cruel it was of Rudyard Kipling to describe woman in a recent poem as "a rag and a bone and a hank of hair." Even a woman hater could not have done as bad.

Every good deed for others, whether they appreciate it or not, is adding to our crown; every tear that we dispel is a diamond that will be worn in that crown; every bit of sunshine we can throw into the lives of others is a tint in the refined gold; every act and deed and article that we can make to add to the beautifying of others is a leaf in our crown.
