THE NEW RAILROAD.

Action of Chamber of Commerce.

At a meeting of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, held on December 14th., the following resolutions were adopted in reference to the proposed Greenville and Farmville railroad:

1. That the Board of Commerce has heard with pleasure the proposition of Mr. R. S. Cohn and associates to build a railroad from Greenville to Farmville and promise to give the enterprise its cordial endorsement and support.

2. That the chairman of this board appoint at his leisure a committee of three to confer with the owners of the lands over which the proposed line of railway will pass and upon which the terminal of said proposed line will be situated and see what is the smallest cost for which the right-of-way and terminal can be obtained from the river to the county gate, and to obtain options for the same.

3. That a committee of three be appointed to confer with the citizens of the town and ascertain what amount can be raised to pay for said right-of way and terminal.

4. That these two committees report at a subsequent meeting of this Board to be held on the 22nd. inst.

The proposition of Mr. Cohn was to build a first class narrow gage commercial railroad from Greenville to Farmville if the citizens of Greenville would donate to said railroad Company a right of way from the river below the Old Dominion Steam Ship Company's wharf up the river to the county gate and a terminal on said river.

This is an enterprise calculated to do Greenville much good and the citizens of the town should hasten to accept Mr. Cohn's proposition.

Beware.

The Kinston Free Press calls attention to a new "green goods" circular people in that section are receiving. Some of them may have come here also. People should beware how they tamper with the "green goods" swindler.

A Good Man Dead.

When Mr. J. H. Mills, the founder of Oxford Orphan asylum, died at the Thomasville orphanage last Thursday, aged 67 years, a good man died, one whose death will be a severe loss, and sincerely mourned by the thousands who knew him and knew the good work to which he had so unselfishly devoted his life. He was a friend to humanity, and a tender father to the orphan, to whose care he devoted the best years of his life.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 20, 1898.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 19, '98.

The reception given Col. Bryan by Democratic Senators and Representatives shows very plainly that he is still recognized by them as the party leader. One probable result of Col. Bryan's visit to Washington will be that with one or two possible exceptions, Democratic Senators will offer no opposition to the prompt ratification of the treaty of Peace by the Senate, they having, after talking the matter over, agreed with Col. Bryan that the question of expansion was not involved in the treaty and will not necessarily be affected by that document. Col. Bryan is very emphatic in expressing his belief that we should accord the same treatment to the Philippines that will be given to Cuba. Representative Swanson, of Virginia, goes further than Col. Bryan in opposing expansion. He said, while discussing in which he asked "Who would haul down the flag in the Philippines?" I am one of the men in Dixie who would haul down the flag over the Philippines. I would rather establish a republic in the Orient than destroy one of the Occident. The Philippine islands should be turned loose and their people should be allowed to establish and maintain their own government." But there are other Democrats who favor expansion. For instance, Representative King, of Utah, who hopes soon to be a Senator, said: "The Democratic party will never go on record as a party in opposition to expansion. We will oppose imperialism, but not expansion, and we will advocate giving all persons under the sovereignty of the United States the greatest degree of self-government of which they are capable," and Senator Sullivan said: "Col. Bryan tried to convince me that I was wrong, but I firmly believe that the United States should not relinquish anything it has fairly earned by the war." Among other Democrats who openly express their belief in keeping what we won by the war, are Senators Morgan and Money, Representative Berry, of Kentucky, and Livingston, of Georgia. There are many Democrats who decline taking ground either for or against expansion until it can be officially learned what interpretation the administration intends to put upon the term.

The Democrats of the House, who solidly opposed the measure, are gratified at their success in defeating the bill for the incorporation of an international American Bank. This victory was won with the assistance of the votes of some western Republicans and the absence when a vote was taken, of some others. The vote was 148 to 103. Representative Dingley, the Republican floor leader, could not conceal his chagrin at the defeat of the bill. The Senate bill, incorporating this bank is in the hands of the House Committee on Banking and Currency, and when it is reported to the House, the fight may have to be made over again.

Representative Rixey, of Virginia, fully endorses the opinion of Mr. McKinley, that the government ought to help take care of the Confederate dead, and goes further, by advocating its helping take care of needy living Confederate soldiers and sailors, who served in the Civil War, shall be admitted upon the same terms to all soldier's homes and other institutions wholly maintained by the United States government.

The Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections has referred the charge of bribery made against Senator Hanna, by the Ohio Senate, to a sub-committee, composed of Senators Hoar, Spooner and Tully, for investigation and report. There will be a white-wash report from the majority of this sub-committee, and that will end the matter, so far as this committee is concerned.

A joint resolution for the usual two weeks Christmas recess of Congress has been reported from the House Ways and Means Committee, and it will be promptly adopted. Congress very seldom turns down an opportunity for a holiday.

The war investigation commission will take a Christmas holiday, although for anything it is accomplishing, it might just as well take a permanent holiday. The next prominent witness it will hear will be Gen. Shafter. The Commission has been having a little trouble of its own. Half of its force of stenographers went on a strike, because they said they were tired of doing all the work, and that the other half were incompetent.

There is a regular cat and dog fight going on among the Republicans over whether an extra session of the next Congress shall be held in the Spring, and it is growing more bitter all the time. Mr. McKinley and the Republican leaders in both Senate and House, agreed at the beginning of the session that an extra session should be avoided, if possible, but the men who want financial legislation as soon as the Republicans control both branches of Congress, are working on Senators and Representatives, in order to make an extra session necessary, if they cannot control Mr. McKinley, by all sorts of pressure, to change his mind and agree to call one. Democrats are not taking any part in this wrangle, although most of them believe that Republican financial legislation, at an extra session, would benefit the Democratic party.

Charles Franks has been lodged in jail at Newbern in default of $500 bond for causing the death of Elisha Anderson, near Vanceboro. Anderson was cut in a quarrel near Pitch Kettle on November 15th, and died from the wound Thursday. The coroner's verdict was that Charles Franks was guilty of cutting Anderson, from which death resulted Franks was bound over to next term of criminal court by a magistrate.—Kinston Free Press.

The First Celebration of Christmas.

Christmas was first celebrated in the year 98, but it was forty years later before it was officially adopted as a Christian festival; nor was it until about the fifth century that the day of celebration became permanently fixed on the twenty-fifth of December. Up to that time it had been irregularly observed at various times of the year—in December, in April and in May, but most frequently in January.—December Ladies Home Journal.

Colored Cotton. Peruvian cotton grows in 12 different colors, running from white to a rich dark red. Each color produces when the seed is planted the same color.

It is said that 95 per cent of Chinese children suffer from throat worms, which is attributed to bad weather and eating vegetables raw.

Coal is a storehouse of colors, medicines, perfumes and explosives.

Sandy and the Mare. A Scottish paper tells a story of Sandy Mc—, a Forfarshire farmer who had been spending an hour or two in the evening with a friend a couple of miles away. It was a moonlight night, and Sandy, after partaking freely of his friend's hospitality, was riding quietly home across the sheep pastures on his "guid and mare," when they came to an open ditch, which his mare refused to cross.

"Hoot awa, Maggie," said the rider, "this winna dae. Ye maun jist gang ower."

He turned back about a hundred yards, wheeled round and gave the mare a touch of his whip. On she went at a brisk canter, but as they reached the edge of the ditch she stopped dead and shot Sandy clean over to the other side. Gathering himself up, Sandy looked his mare straight in the face and said: "Vera weel pitched indeed, ma lass. Bit hoo are ye goin to get ower yersel', eh?"

TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON, Eagle, Iredell Co., N. C. Single Standard

only is possible, whether as a test of excellence in journalism, or for the measurement of quantities, time
or values; and

The... Philadelphia Record

after a career of nearly twenty years
of uninterrupted growth is justified
in claiming that the standard first established by its founders is the one true test of

A Perfect Newspaper

To publish ALL THE NEWS
promptly and succinctly and in the most readable form, without elision
or partisan bias; to discuss the significance with frankness, to keep
AN OPEN EYE FOR PUBLIC
ABUSES, to give besides a complete record of current thought,
fancies and discoveries in all departments of human activity in its DAILY EDITIONS of from 10 to 14 PAGES, and to provide the whole for its patrons at the nominal price of ONE CENT—that was
from the outset, and will continue to be the aim of "THE RECORD."

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOL-LOW.

Witness its unrivaled average
daily circulation exceeding 180,000
copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city
of the country testify to the truth
of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the stand-
by which excellence in journalism
must be measured.

The Daily Edition

of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 a year
or 25 cents per month.

editions together, which will give
its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on
in the world every day in the year,
including holidays, will be sent for
