BUSINESS CHANGES.

Some That Take Place During the Holidays.

Always about the close of a year or beginning of a new year there are some business changes to take place. Several are already known for the present season.

Right after Christmas Mr. Alfred Forbes will move from his present stand to his building on Five Points that is now being put in readiness for him.

As soon as he is out Messrs. J. C. Cobb & Son will move from their present stand in the Phoenix building into the Forbes store which will give them the room necessary to accommodate their increasing trade.

Messrs. W. H. White and W. T. Fleming, both excellent business men, have formed a copartnership and will open a stock of general merchandise in the Phoenix building as soon as Messrs. Cobb & Son vacate.

Mr. D. S. Smith has purchased Mr. M. H. Quinerly's stock of groceries, and will combine his own stock with it by moving down to the Quinerly store. Mr. Smith once occupied that store and it will seem like old times to see him back there.

THE REFLECTOR will be found at the same old stand ready to do first-class job printing and top-column advertising.

Christmas for Pensioners.

This morning Register of Deeds T. R. Moore received the warrants for the Confederate pensioners in Pitt county, and is ready to distribute them to the owners. The list for this county contains two in the 2nd class, each drawing $54, three in the 3rd class drawing $36 each, and thirty-one soldiers and twenty-four widows in the 4th class who get $18 each. These checks will help the pensioners to enjoy Christmas.

Another Robbery.

Monday night the barroom of Mr. H. C. Edwards, on Fifth street was broken into by a window being prized open. The thief helped himself to liquor and cigars and left the faucet to a barrel of brandy open so that the entire contents leaked out on the floor. The loss of the barrel of brandy was more than the goods stolen.

Musical

On Thursday night there will be a musical at Mrs. Alfred Forbes' school house, under the auspices of Mrs. E. A. Moye, Jr., and Miss Nannie Richardson. All patrons and friends of the school are cordially invited.

Hotel Changes Hands.

Several weeks ago it was announced that Mrs. W. M. King had sold her King House property to Mr. J. A. Andrews and would retire from the hotel business. Mr. Andrews rented the property to Mr. C. C. Vines, of Falkland, and Tuesday afternoon Mrs. King retired and Mr. Vines took charge of the hotel. Mrs. King has conducted the hotel for fourteen years and kept such a house as won the favor of the traveling public. Mr. Vines will no doubt make a good successor to the business. He is well known and a popular man, and is agreeable to all with whom he comes in contact.

Moore Court.

The January term of Pitt Superior Court will not have any more officers than are necessary to transact its business, but at the same time there will be Moore officers about it than have been known in one court before. Judge Fred Moore will preside and pass sentence on the guilty. Solicitor L. I. Moore will prosecute for the State and make it warm for offenders. Clerk D. C. Moore will do the swearing and make 'em kiss the Book. Sheriff G. M. Mooring (that like to have been Moore) will keep order and have an eye on the prisoners. While all this is going on up stairs, Register of Deeds T. R. Moore will be holding the fort down stairs keeping things in his quarter in order.

Excursion Rates.

The Atlantic Coast Line will sell holiday tickets to all points on the system at one and one third fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale from Dec. 22nd to 25th and also from Dec. 30th to Jan. 1st, good to return until Jan. 4th.

Merry Christmas.

From the time he went in office on the 5th inst. up to Tuesday night, fifteen days, Register of Deeds Moore issued even forty marriage licenses, twenty-five for white couples and fifteen for colored. We wish them all a merry Christmas.

Come and See.

The Reflector Book Store has received from the Parker Pen Company, of Janesville, Wis., a beautiful show case built especially to display the celebrated Parker fountain pen which are sold nowhere else in Greenville. We have handled these pens for several years and have sold them to many people in this community. Every user of a Parker pen will tell you it is the best made.

SOUTHERN SCHOOL BOOLS.

We understand that quite a number of publishers will enter the race this year to supply school books to the children of North Carolina. We take it that the Legislature will carefully investigate this important matter and will cause to be selected none except the very best publications. We think that the time has come when we ought to have Southern school books for Southern school children. We are informed it is likely that the Legislature will appoint a Board consisting of eight or ten leading educators upon whom will devolve the duty of naming a uniform system of text books, giving certain latitude of choice, for the entire State. We do not express any opinion as to the wisdom of this course but we wish to be put on record as saying that the youth of the South ought "not to be invited by the exclusion of other matter to believe that all the important events of history and literature occurred in Massachusetts." In this connection we are informed, editorially, by the Baltimore Sun of November 22nd that the Johnson Publishing Company of Richmond, Virginia, is the first and only Southern House to provide our schools with a complete course of reading and history of the United States which tell the whole truth and place the facts of our domestic history in true perspective. We do not advocate one publishing house more than another, but we say in unmistakable tones that the South will not come to her own until she has her own literature; and until the lives of her great men are written by her sympathizers and admirers and until a great Southern Publishing House is formed as a nucleus around which may cluster the best sentiment and traditions of our people. We understand that the publishing house above spoken of has drawn largely upon Southern authors, and that its illustrations have much to do with Southern men and Southern scenes. And hence we believe that when a child shall have finished a course of reading similar to that contained in such books it will not only not be ashamed of the South but it will regard her as the fairest spot upon the globe.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets. Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 40c. 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

Our friend Herbert, of the Kinston Free Press, thinks we are growing old because we have been in the newspaper business a long time. Age is not necessarily a logical sequence of long service because we began quite early in life. But as if it was not enough to try to make it appear that we are old Herbert adds insult to injury by insinuating that we are red headed. It is only out of consideration for Dave Whichard that we do not take this as a down right insult and treat it accordingly.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

Just listen at the boys. They should not be so jealous. Dave Whichard doesn't need a bit of "consideration" for wearing such a mark of distinction as a red head, for he wouldn't take a million of Klondike gold for this head he carries. We won't tell about hearing Thad Manning talk in his sleep and wishing for a nice head like ours instead of being so near bald-headed.

A Rooster with a Record.

When Uncle Sam called for men to go to Cuba, four muscular fellows of Tampa, Fla., offered their services. They were sent to New York to join the pack-train force. From there they were sent to Santiago. While loitering in Brooklyn waiting for the transport to get ready to depart, one of the men purchased a small domineer rooster. He carried the chicken to Santiago. It soon became a pet with the boys around the tents. One day while all the men were out a Cuban came along and stole the rooster. After searching for several days in vain for the pet of the tent, the soldier despaired of ever finding his rooster. But one day, on going to a Cuban's house for some water, he found him. After a sharp battle with vitriolic epithets the chicken was carried away by its owner. Thursday morning the same four men that left Tampa at the beginning of the war passed through here from New York. The rooster was in perfect health and a cheerful mood.

One of the men in the party was carrying home three Cuban parrots. At the depot one of them got out and the rooster fell to fighting him. Several brisk rounds were pulled off. The rooster was carried in a small cage.—Charlotte Observer.

A subscriber at Ormondsville writes that Mr. H. L. Carr and family will move to Greenville about the first of January, also Mr. H. C. Ormond, to engage in the mercantile business together. The subscriber says he hopes all the good people will not take a notion to move to town, as he needs some neighbors. He adds truly that there is a reason for all this leaving the farm and going to the town; that farm products are too low, therefore there is no remuneration in farming.

This is too true, but in many instances going to town is like "jumping from the frying pan into the fire." It really takes harder work we believe, to make a living in town than it does in the country. It is hard to make more than a living anywhere.—Kinston Free Press.

The sympathy of our entire community goes out to Mr. R. R. Warren, who had the misfortune to lose his dwelling by fire yesterday. This is the second misfortune of this kind that Mr. Warren has met with. From what we can learn the house caught on the roof from a spark and while the building was destroyed the household and kitchen furniture was mostly saved.—Washington Messenger.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Dec. 21st. A. G. Cox has a place for all the cotton seed you can bring.

Mr. W. H. Rouse moved Monday out to his wife's (Miss Phelia Cox) old home, where they will live. The house vacated by Mr. Rouse will be occupied at once by Mr. Charlie Kittrell.

B. F. Manning & Co. want your peanuts and field peas, and will give you as much as you can get any where for them.

The Winterville Cigar Company shipped a small order of goods Monday for the holiday trade. You had better get some too.

Mr. Alonzo Harris, who first moved very near here about two weeks ago, has moved again. He says he almost has his chickens so they will lie down and cross their legs when they hear him coming.

Look out at the cross roads for advertisements by the A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. Also look out for some of the many wagons and carts made by this company now in use and see how well they are standing up.

Mr. L. E. Whaley, from near Suffolk, was over part of last week and Monday of this week, assisting J. D. Cox in estimating timber.

E. G. Cox and G. W. Parker are both putting up wire fence as hard as they can. See them after Christmas and get yours put up next. You will find some interesting figures in their circulars.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPEPSIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Troubles and Indigestion Anyway, Whether You Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give you an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves in the only way that nature does it, and that is, from plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

USE A MARLIN REPEATER. And SAVE MORE THAN HALF on the cost of Cartridges. 32-calibre cartridges for a Marlin, Model 1892, cost only $5.00 a thousand. 32-calibre cartridges for any other repeater made, cost $12.00 a thousand. You can save the entire cost of your Marlin on the first two thousand cartridges. Why this is so is fully explained in the Marlin Hand Book for shooters. It also tells how to care for firearms and how to use them. How to load cartridges with the different kinds of black and smokeless powders. It gives trajectories, velocities, penetrations and 100 other points of interest to sportsmen. 128 pages. Free, if you will send stamps for postage to THE MARLIN FIRE-ARMS CO., New Haven, Ct. TONSILITIS

CAN BE CURED BY USING

Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy.

For a long time my son was troubled with some bronchial disease, which every time he took cold, settled in his throat and produced something like tonsilitis. The tonsils would enlarge and swell so that he had great trouble to swallow anything, and could take no solid food. Last spring he took half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy, and gargled his throat with the wash, and it cured him. He has never had a spell since. MRS. J. STINSON

WINE OF CARDUI

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. The introduction of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. I. ADDISON, M.D., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
