To Give Bond to Uncle Sam.

All postoffice employees will, after the 1st of January, be bonded directly to the government. The order just issued applies to everybody from assistant postmaster down to the person who holds the humblest position.

The does not include carriers who are already bonded.

The order has been issued in pursuance of a provision of an act of Congress passed last June. It does not relieve the employees from giving indemnifying bonds to the postmaster. The bonds executed to protect him will stand. The order from the department signed by First Assistant postmaster Perry S. Heat says on this subject:

"The taking of the bonds by the United States directly from assistant postmasters and clerks in post-offices does not in anywise effect the liability of the postmaster upon his official bond for the proper discharge of all the duties of his office and the due accounting for all the public funds which may be in, or come into, his custody as postmaster and he and his sureties are responsible on his official bond to the same extent as heretofore for the defaults and defalcations of his subordinates. The bond taken from assistants and clerks in post-offices are simply security of which the United States may avail itself in case of loss.

Astonishing Figures of Prosperity.

The year is so nearly ended that its statistics can be made up with almost exact accuracy. Some of them are both astonishing and picturesque.

1. We have sold to other nations more of our products than we ever did before, the figures being $1,230,000,000 this year, against $1,090,714,807 last year—a gain of more than $130,000,000 in one year and a gain of $405,000,000 over 1895.

2. We have sold more goods to other countries this year than has any other nation in the world, our exports exceeding even those of Great Britain by more than $60,000,000. That is to say, we have become the greatest exporting nation in the world.

3. We are buying less than ever before of other nations, so that our excess of exports over imports is nearly double what it ever was before. In 1897 it was $357,000,000—the highest figure ever reached. This year it is about $600,000,000. And there has been an excess every year since 1890.

It is no wonder that, besides paying off enormous indebtedness abroad and buying enormous amounts of American securities there, we have imported during the first eleven months of this year about $135,000,000 in gold to balance accounts—New York World.

CARD FROM MR. ABDELL.

SUFFOLK, Va. Dec. 22nd, 1898.
EDITOR REFLECTOR:

I want to ask liberty to express through your paper my gratitude and thankfulness to the dear people of Greenville, who take interest in my welfare by extending their sympathy to me in my helpless condition. I assure you they have my heartfelt thanks for their kindness, whether it be much or little.

I am not feeling much better this morning after my wondrous journey home yesterday, but I am in hopes to be able to get back to Greenville in a few days.

R. D. ABDELL.

A bulletin just issued by the United States commission of fish and fisheries shows that in North Carolina there are 11,945 persons employed in the business, and that the total investment in it in boats, seines, nets, shore property, cash capital, etc., is $1,217,209. For the year in question there were taken 63,857,457 pounds of fish, scale and shell of a value of $1,301,629. The North Carolina shad catch for the year under discussion was worth $357,351; our oysters brought $232,099, and alewives $127,055.

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 23, 1898.

Three Months to Qualify.

In an opinion given the Secretary of State, Attorney General Walser holds that magistrates who were elected at the last general election have three months in which to qualify.

It has been popularly supposed and in some instances Clerks of Courts have so held, that a magistrate elected at the last general election, who failed to qualify by December 1st, forfeited the office. This supposition was based on a clause in the election law, which states that the term of office of magistrates expires December 1st, following the general election.

Attorney General Walser has received dozens of letters relative to this matter. He was notified that the Clerk of the Court in Davie county refused to allow two magistrates to qualify, because they failed to do so prior to December 1st. The following is the Attorney General's opinion which also shows that the Governor has no authority to appoint magistrates, except in instances of failure to qualify.

In reply to your communication of this date referring to me for answer to a letter from Mr. W. W. Watson, Clerk of the Superior Court of Craven county, I will say that it is my opinion that the Clerks of the Superior Court are authorized to appoint Justices of the Peace to a vacancy caused by death, resignation or other causes during the term of office and also in case of a failure of the electors in any district to elect.

I am inclined to think that the Justices of the Peace elected on the 8th day of November, 1898, have three months within which to qualify from the first Monday of December, 1898.—Raleigh Post.

Christmas Presents for the Poor.

"In your Christmas purchasing do not be tempted to forget those who, because of their poverty, are unable to do any shopping either for themselves or for others," advises Francis E. Lanigan, in the December Ladies' Home Journal. "Let your presents to them be of a substantial character—a ton of coal some warm clothing, some money, a box of groceries, or a basket of Christmas marketing, topped with a bunch of holly. And to the little children in whose homes Christmas is little more than a name, send some of the many bright, new tin toys which are so inexpensive; same candy, some fruit, bright red woolen mittens and Tam o' Shaners, and, if you can afford it, some good stout shoes and warm stockings. A piece of bright-colored plaid will make a pretty gift for the little girl who has never, perhaps, had a new dress in her life.

Accompany your Christmas presents with some cherry Christmas greetings and some Christmas greens. Be very sure that this thoughtfulness will bring its own reward, and that in the years to come the memory of the Christmas when you gave most and received least will be the happiest memories to you."

A Very Nice Fad.

Every man must have his fad, and one of a very unusual character developed a day or so ago in the possession of a guest from the West of an up-town hotel. He was a nice looking man of fifty or more, and evidently had money, for he handled himself like a man habituated to the use of the best there was going. It is not unusual to see new money in Washington, but this particular man had so much that was new and none that was old that the clerk at the hotel spoke to him of it.

"Well," laughed the gentleman, "I admit that I do have considerable new money with me. It's a fad of mine, don't you know? Twenty years ago I had a friend who died of smallpox, contracted from the man who unwittingly was thus spreading the contagion. It impressed me so strongly that I made up my mind never to handle any second-hand money, and from that day to this I have never touched a cent except from first hands. You may have not noticed, but I always have the change for any bill I pay in cash, so that I need not take second-hand money. I provide myself each day, from a stock I keep on hand, replenishing it from the bank with silver and copper coins and nickles and with new bills from $1 to $10, though I very rarely carry a ten dollar bill, as I use a check when the amount gets to be as much as that. Thus I am always prepared to meet any demand. See?" And the new money faddist spread out on the counter before the clerk a handful of shining new dimes, quarters, nickels and halves, with a dozen or more coppers as dazzling as gold. "It's not a bad sanitary idea, I think," he continued, "and I'm a bit like the Bank of England; you know, it never passes out but brand-new bills, and if you should receive a five-pound note at one window and tender it in payment at another two minutes later, that bill would go into the fire box just as speedily as would the bill that had been doing service in every English colony for forty years.—Washington Star.

Wise Words From a Negro.

A respectable and intelligent colored citizen of Charlotte said to an Observer representative yesterday: "I wish you would roast the negro women of this town who flock to the court room every day. It is a shame. Every morning the mayor's court room is filled with a lot of filthy, trifling, negro men and women. Last week a decent person, white or colored, had trouble to enter the Criminal Court room on account of the aisles and passage ways being blocked with the same class. You may go around the streets of the town and see the same dirty, loafing gang. That is why the negroes, as a race, are cursed. We have so many insolent loafers. It is growing worse day by day. The best negroes of the town are as bitterly opposed to such vagrants as are the best white people. Cannot something be done to stop it? Can't the vagrancy law be rigidly enforced and either drive this class of people back to the country, or send them to the chain-gang? They are needed on the farms. Why should our court rooms be packed and jammed with such people? Decent colored people are thoroughly disgusted with this loafing element. They want to see them dealt with according to the law." Soon after this, about the same request came from a white gentleman, who attended Criminal Court last week. The negro women, he said, almost took possession of the court house.—Charlotte Observer.

A gentleman remarked recently that had a stranger or an outsider come to North Carolina, and made the cures among our people that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy had made, the people would be have stirred as never before. Read this and suppose a case:

Eleven years ago I had a child that was delicate from birth, and for six months she was under constant care of the best physician we had in our town. But his medicine seemed powerless to control the bowel trouble, which had become chronic dysentery. She also suffered from some aggravated blood trouble, which caused large sores and risings to break out on her body. Oft time there would be as many as 20 or 25. We had several doctors to treat her at different times, but nothing reached her case. They would lance these risings, but as soon as one was cured another broke out, and the doctors gave me no hope of her cure. After she had led a life of agony and suffering for six months, I was inspired to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. There was a change for the better in twenty-four hours, it seemed to check the bowels at once, and after using a few bottles my child was entirely cured, and has never since had any sign of trouble and is now in perfect health. A few years after this I had two sores to break out on my ankle, and strange to say I did not think of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I was under the treatment of doctors for three years, but the sores continued to get worse until they had eaten to the bone. I then thought of trying Mrs. Joe Person's Wash and did so, and it is almost useless to say it soon made a cure.

I wish I could speak so that every man, woman and child, in North Carolina could hear, that I might tell them what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash did for me and mine. I advised one of my friends who had been a terrible sufferer for a long time, with nurses sore mouth. She used the Remedy and Wash, and it soon made a cure.

I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends, for indigestion and other ailments, and I have never known it to fail to cure yet. There is no medicine equal to it.

NO FAITH CURE.

ABOUT STUART'S DYSPESPIA TABLETS.

They Cure Stomach Troubles and Indigestion Anyway, Whether You Have Faith in Them or Not.

Mere faith will not digest your food for you, will not give you an appetite, will not increase your flesh and strengthen your nerves and heart, but Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will do these things, because they are composed of the elements of digestion, they contain the juices, acids and peptones necessary to the digestion and assimilation of all wholesome food.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will digest food if placed in a jar or bottle in water heated to 98 degrees, and they will do it much more effectively when taken into the stomach after meals, whether you have faith that they will or not.

They invigorate the stomach, make pure blood and strong nerves in the only way that nature does it, and that is, from plenty of wholesome food well digested. It is not what we eat, but what we digest that does us good.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by nearly all druggists at 50 cents for full sized package, or by mail from the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich.

The Pioneer

one-cent morning newspaper in the United States, "The Record" still LEADS WHERE OTHERS FOLLOW.

Witness its unrivaled average daily circulation exceeding 180,000 copies, and an average exceeding 145,000 copies for its Sunday editions, while imitations of its plan of publication in every important city of the country testify to the truth of the assertion that in the quantity and quality of its contents, and in the price at which it is sold "The Record" has established the standard by which excellence in journalism must be measured.

The Daily Edition of "The Record" will be sent by mail to any address for $3.00 a year or 25 cents per month.

THE DAILY AND SUNDAY

editions together, which will give its readers the best and freshest information of all that is going on in the world every day in the year, including holidays, will be sent for $4.00 a year, or 35 cents a month.

We carry a full line of the celebrated

Geo. S. Parker

Fountain Pen

It is a big hit in fountain pen making and is distinctive Parker feature. Not only does it feed the ink perfectly, but prevents soiled fingers.

The Daily Reflector

Gives the home news every afternoon at the small price of 25 cents a month. Are you a subscriber? If not you ought to be.

The Eastern Reflector

TWICE-A-WEEK.

Is only $1 a year and contains the news every week, and gives information to the farmers, especially those growing tobacco, that is worth many times more than the subscription price.

THE DAILY REFLECTOR

WEATHER BULLETIN.

Fair tonight and Saturday, colder.

WINE OF CARDUI MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides hips and limbs. But they need not suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

Wine of Cardui

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. ROZENA LEWIS, of Denaville, Texas, says: "I was troubled at monthly intervals with terrible pains in my head and back, but have been entirely relieved by Wine of Cardui."

7,247,245.

They look like large figures, and so they are. At the same time they represent the number of pounds of leaf tobacco sold on the Greenville market from August 1st to Dec 22nd, 1898. Mr. Julian C. Jordan, secretary of the Tobacco Board of Trade, keeps an accurate record of the sales, and from the opening of the season to the holiday adjournment the aggregate is 7,247,245 pounds. This market sells tobacco.

The weather is turning colder and may be all right by Christmas.

The children of the Presbyterian Sunday school were very happy at their Christmas tree Thursday night.

VALUABLE PROPERTY FOR SALE

On Tuesday at 12 o'clock, January 3rd 1899, I will offer for sale at public auction before the Court House door in Greenville, N. C., my house and lot situated in the town of Greenville on corner of Pitt and First streets where I now reside.

This is an excellent opportunity for any one wishing a good home, almost self supporting. Good reasons for selling. Terms made known on day of sale.
