RAWLS ARRAIGNED.

The Case Set for Next Tuesday.

About 3:30 o'clock Wednesday afternoon Sheriff Mooring walked into the courtroom with Joe Rawls. The intimation had gone out that Rawls was to be arraigned sometime during the afternoon and a large crowd had gathered in the building. All were anxious to see the prisoner and all eyes were fixed upon him as he walked calmly up the aisle and was given a seat near his counsel in the bar. While waiting for the arraignment Rawls looked around the room and recognized many of the friends of his boyhood around Greenville, and shook hands with some who were near enough.

When all was in readiness Solicitor Moore asked Rawls to stand up and raise his right hand. The Solicitor then read the bill of indictment found at September, 1890, term of the court, and in response to the usual questions Rawls answered clearly and calmly and again took his seat. Arrangements for the trial were then briefly discussed by the counsel and it was agreed that the case be set for next Tuesday, if certain witnesses wanted can be gotten here by that time.

Solicitor Moore then requested the Judge to order that a venire of 150 be drawn from the jury box. Gov. Jarvis for the defense stated that he did not deem it necessary to have so large a venire, but thought 100 would be sufficient, and the Solicitor readily agreed to that number. Judge Moore stated that it would be a hardship on the Sheriff for the venire to be drawn from the box instead of allowing them to be summoned at large, and asked the Solicitor if he had any special reason for requesting the order. Solicitor Moore stated that as the homicide was committed here in Greenville those familiar with it were on one side or the other, and it would be hard to find a hundred men close by who had not already expressed an opinion of the case. Upon this the Judge made the order as requested.

Solicitor Moore will be assisted by Aycock and Fleming and possibly others in the prosecution of the case. The defense will be represented by Jarvis & Blow, Skinner & Whedbee, Gilliam & Eure and F. G. James.

STATE NEWS.

Mr. Harry D. Watts, a young man of Charlotte, was killed by being caught under a massive door that fell on him when he was passing along the sidewalk.

A thief stole a railroad engine at Winston, Sunday night, and made a run with it. This was a similar occurrence to the one at Washington a few weeks ago.

Canida Carter, one of the wealthiest citizens of Yadkin county, was drowned Tuesday. He was intoxicated and attempted to drive his team across a swollen stream. Man and mules all drowned.

It Works.

Tuesday evening Mr. W. B. Pollard advertised in THE REFLECTOR for a lost walking stick. Next morning the stick was carried to him. That is the way advertising in this paper works.

An infant gopeler five years old is drawing more or less irreverent throngs in New York and doing a doubtful service to religion by his prattlings. New York certainly needs all the gospel it can get, but there is a law in the interest of humanity which represses infantile precocity on the stage, and it would seem to apply with equal pertinence to the prodigy business in the pulpit.

THURSDAY, JANUARY 12, 1899.

The printers at Iloilo declined to put the President's proclamation in type, and it was accordingly necessary to read it to the Filipinos. If any more reading should be necessary it might be well to read the Riot act to the obstreperous compositors, supplementing that performance with the establishment of a Government printing office of modest dimensions. Dewey grasped the Spanish nettle at Manila, and nettle-grasping on a smaller scale would appear to be in order at Iloilo.—Philadelphia Record.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. (See 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money)

Good Farming in Union.

Mr. S. A. Lathan, a prosperous young farmer of Buford township, this fall gathered 4,272 pounds of seed cotton from two acres. On the average 1,300 pounds of this variety of seed cotton will make 500 pounds of lint. This gives a yield of three and a little over one-third bales of 500 pounds, for two acres. This result was due to Mr. Lathan's plan of fertilizing. He could have used the same amount of fertilizer on four acres, done twice the labor and made the same.

No-To-Bac for Fifty Cents. Guaranteed tobacco habit cure, makes weak men strong, blood pure. 50c. All druggists.

The Asheville Citizen, which has sense like a horse, recognizes the fact that a State cannot grow and the expense of its government stand still, and it agrees with The Observer that the growing expenses of the State government can be met and still an increase in general taxes be avoided. "It can be done," it says, "If the proper men are put on the finance committees of the present Legislature, they will find all the new subjects of taxation that will be necessary to meet all legitimate expenses of the State government, without touching any of the ordinary tax rates." That's the doctrine. Talk it.—Charlotte Observer.

Some Examples of Good Farming.

Mr. G. W. Templeton, of Amity, cultivated last year 65 acres of ground. He spent $31 for fertilizer and made on the 65 acres 332 bushels of wheat, 500 bushels of corn and 15 bales of cotton. Mr. Templeton and his boys did nearly all the work of raising the crop themselves. This is good farming but Mr. Templeton is a hustler.

Mr. C. A. Shook, of Shiloh, raised five bales of cotton averaging over 450 pounds each, on 4 1/2 acres of ground. This, too, is good farming.—Statesville Landmark.

In an interview in Washington last night Representative Harry Skinner, of the first district, said: "The present Legislature should disfranchise the negro in North Carolina; it should never let the opportunity pass, and if it does, it should be held responsible." This does not sound very well, coming, as it does, from a man who is now holding an office given him by the help of the negro vote. The negro is all right as long as he can elect the politicians to office, but when he fails, he must be put out of the way. And if the Democrats should be censured for a failure to disfranchise the negro, what should be the punishment of Mr. Skinner's crowd for fostering his suffrage?—Charlotte Observer.

To Cure Constipation Forever. Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money

There are people who affect to treat with contempt the influence of American women in politics; but ex-Governor Merriam, of Minnesota knows better. The ex-Governor would like to go abroad as Ambassador to Russia, and President McKinley is inclined to nominate him; but the wife of Senator Davis, of Minnesota, says "No!" as she said "No!" when the same ex-Governor was suggested as a member of the McKinley Cabinet. This very pretty quarrel has all grown out of the fact that Senator Davis had the good sense to marry a dressmaker because he loved her and that Mrs. Merriam, who is at the head of aristocratic society in Minnesota, "cut" her. It is now the turn of Mrs. Davis to do the "cutting."—Philadelphia Record.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic, clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists, satisfaction guaranteed.—10c, 25c, 50c.

Changes.

Senator R. B. Glenn, of Forsyth, passed through to Raleigh this morning from a visit home. He says the other day when our Senator, Hon. Jno. N. Wilson, put in nomination Mr. A. Tickle, of this county, for a clerk, there was some fun after the counting of the ballots commenced. The tellers commenced—"Tickle one; Tickle two; Tickle three," and so on. In a few moments the repetition of the name caused some of the members to smile very audibly, whereupon a wag remarked that they seemed "tickled," and at once there was an uproar, every body being tickled but Tickle got there in short order.—Greensboro Record.

Col. Skinner Defined.

The North Carolina Congressman who calls for the abolition of the 14th and 15th amendments, the disfranchisement of the negro and the disqualification of insular colonies for statehood, is a true and frank-spoken imperialist, who perceives the logic of the situation.—Springfield Republican.

The usual midwinter cry of distress comes from Dawson. The Yukon Council in an appeal to Washington says that food is plenty "but it takes money to buy it," and that nothing less than $200,000 will see the colony through the winter. Even the Klondike seems to have no lode equal in richness to the Federal Treasury.

STOPS SMOKING. If you smoke, you are sure to get sick. No-To-Bac is the only cure. It is a powerful, reliable, and safe remedy. It is sold in all druggists. Price, 50c. All druggists.

He Obeyed Orders.

Years ago, when Clemenceau was the mayor of Martre and at the same time a deputy, he opened a dispensary in the quarter, where advice was given free, for Clemenceau is a specialist in skin diseases. One day he noticed that he had just one hour in which to get his luncheon and go down to the chamber, where he had to interpellate the government. He called his assistant and said, "How many more patients are there waiting?"

"Six," replied the man. One after the other had his case diagnosed, and Clemenceau, after another glance at his watch, said, "Tell the other two to undress at once, as I have only two more minutes to wait." One entered, and Clemenceau wrote out a prescription in the twinkling of an eye. The last man came in as naked as the day when he was born. Clemenceau eyed him for a minute and then said: "You are suffering from no skin disease. What have you come here to worry me for?"

The man looked at him aghast for a minute and replied: "Skin disease? I never said I had a skin disease. Your man came in and told me to undress, M. le Depute, and I did so. All I wanted to ask you was to use your influence to get my sister a place in the post-offices in Algeria."

Clemenceau smiled, took his name and did use his influence.—Today.

How Far Can Quail Fly?

A number of sportsmen have been discussing the question of how far a quail can fly. There are a good many contingencies to be considered in arriving at a definite conclusion of the question, the which cuts no inconsiderable figure in the distance one of these birds can fly. If there is a stiff wind blowing and the bird's course is with the wind, a full grown quail could certainly go more than a mile with ease and doubtless a much greater distance.

Those who have noticed quail trying to fly across the Missouri river, where the distance is about a mile, recall that not all the birds make the trip safely. They usually pick a spot where they can make a halt on a sand bar in mid-stream, and thus cross the river in two flights. But sometimes they make the distance at a single flight, and this seems to be their full limit under normal conditions, for when they alight they are completely exhausted.

It is generally believed that on an average a mile is about the limit of the flight of a quail where it is neither favored nor retarded by the wind. It happens very often that in crossing the Missouri river at a single flight quail drop exhausted into the water. Probably these are young birds.—St. Louis Republic.

PIMPLES

"My wife had pimples on her face, but she has been taking CASCARETS and they have all disappeared. I had been troubled with constipation for some time, but after taking the first Cascaret I have had no trouble with this ailment. We cannot speak too highly of Cascarets."—FRED WARTMAN, 5708 Germantown Ave., Philadelphia, Pa.

Pleasant, Palatable, Potent, Taste Good, Do Good, Never Sicken, Weaken, or Grip. 10c, 25c, 50c. CURE CONSTIPATION. Sterling Remedial Company, Chicago, Montreal, New York. 314

A gentleman remarked recently that had a stranger or an "outsider" come to North Carolina, and made the cures among our people that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy had made, the people would have been stirred as never before. Read this and suppose a case:

Eleven years ago I had a child that was delicate from birth, and for six months she was under constant care of the best physician we had in our town. But his medicine seemed powerless to control the bowel trouble, which had become chronic dysentery. She also suffered from some aggravated blood trouble, which caused large sores and risings to break out on her body. Oft time there would be as many as 20 or 25. We had several doctors to treat her at different times, but nothing reached her case. They would lance these risings, but as soon as one was cured another broke out, and the doctors gave me no hope of her cure. After she had led a life of agony and suffering for six months, I was inspired to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. There was a change for the better in twenty-four hours, it seemed to check the bowels at once, and after using a few bottles my child was entirely cured, and has never since had any sign of trouble and is now in perfect health. A few years after this I had two sores to break out on my ankle, and strange to say I did not think of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I was under the treatment of doctors for three years, but the sores continued to get worse until they had eaten to the bone. I then thought of trying Mrs. Joe Person's Wash and did so, and it is almost useless to say it soon made a cure.

I wish I could speak so that every man, woman and child, in North Carolina could hear, that I might tell them what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash did for me and mine. I advised one of my friends who had been a terrible sufferer for a long time, with nurses sore mouth. She used the Remedy and Wash, and it soon made a cure.

I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends, for indigestion and other ailments, and I have never known it to fail to cure yet. There is no medicine equal to it. MRS. RACHEL READE LONG. Roxboro, Person Co., Oct. 8, 1898.

G. Escher, of Washington City, arrived Wednesday evening. He succeeds W. G. Alley as manager of W. A. Porterfield & Co's brokerage office here. Mr. Alley will go to Washington City.

The Twelfth Annual Fair.

The promoters of the Newbern fair association did better than they knew, when some dozen years ago they established the East Carolina Fish, Oyster, Game and Industrial association, which next month makes its twelfth annual exhibition in this city.

The Newbern fair, while really a local institution, promoted, established and carried through twelve years of most successful exhibitions by the energy and enterprise of citizens of Newbern, is not a local fair in character or reputation.

The exhibits shown in the various departments in this fair display what eastern North Carolina can produce.

The exhibits in some departments are more general in their character and come from a distance.

These displays have grown to such an extent, are so meritorious in every way, that they have attracted attention from beyond the State, and the Newbern fair is known and recognized as an annual exhibition worthy of going a long distance to see.

The fair not only exhibits the products of this section, but also in its display features is an educational exhibit, which the people of this section have found worthy of seeing and studying.

In the amusement line are the races, there is pleasure of a varied degree for old and young, which is always thoroughly enjoyed, and this year will be fully up to past years in the amusement and racing departments, if not exceeding all former years.

In this, the twelfth fair exhibit, Newbern will show to the State what her own people and those of this section can do in the way of exhibits, and the same general invitation is extended to all to come, see, be instructed and have a good time, and everything will be found as advertised.—Newbern Journal.
