THE LEGISLATURE.

What The Law Makers Are Doing.

At Wednesday's session the following of general interest was introduced:

Instructing the U. S. Senators and requesting the Congressman from North Carolina to introduce and use their best efforts to secure the passage of a bill establishing light beacons at Cape Channel in Pamlico sound, and off Hateras.

To incorporate the African Burial Society, etc.

To prevent the spread of disease, etc., in Edgecombe county.

To limit the number of assistant clerks and other employes of the General Assembly.

The repeal Chap. 235 Acts 1897, being a bill to repeal the law establishing a liquor dispensary in Cumberland county. Committee on Propositions and Grievances.

To amend Section 1 and 2 of Article X of the Constitution of the State, in reference to homestead exemption, etc. Referred to Committee on Constitution Amendments. This bill reduces the homestead exemption to $250 personal property and $500 real property.

To equalize the payment of witnesses in State cases, providing for the payment of the same when true bills are not found, etc.

BILLS PASSED SENATE.

To authorize Louisburg municipal bonds.

To authorize Charlotte municipal bonds.

To provide a joint committee to investigate State Treasurer's office, charitable institutions and the Agricultural department.

To repeal section 1,906 of Code-Substitute forbidding clerks of courts to appoint themselves or deputies commissioners to sell land.

To repeal chapter 203 of Laws of 1897 with reference to the procuring and distribution of dead bodies for scientific purposes.

To provide for a joint committee of three from the Senate and five from the House on court districts. Ordered to the House and Senators Glenn, Jerome and Travis appointed in behalf of Senate.

What Next?

It does seem as though the seedsmen would stop somewhere, but here comes a work of art. Think of it, twenty-four pages lithographed in colors, not gaudy chromos, but from photographs in colors, upon an entirely new plan. This, in itself, is enough to turn every woman's head. Then follow about one hundred more pages, filled with handsome half-tone illustrations of Flowers, Fruits and Vegetables, photographed from nature, all printed on fine paper and enclosed in an elegant cover of white and gold. Vick's Garden and Floral Guide also contains full descriptions and directions for planting Flowers and Vegetables, Plants, Small Fruits, etc. It explains a new departure in selling Vegetable Seeds by weight in place of old style of packets; also a grand offer giving customers credit for full amount of purchase to apply on order for implements and useful articles. This splendid work of art will be mailed with a Due Bill good for 25 cents worth of seeds, for only 15 cents. Write JAMES VICK SONS, Rochester, N. Y.

SUPERIOR COURT.

Work of the January Term.

The following cases have been disposed of since last report:

Sam Cobb and Jim Wilson, burglary, plead guilty, Wilson sentenced 10 years in penitentiary, Cobb one year.

Henrietta Galloway, Geo. Howard, Will Hardy and Joe Brown, larceny, guilty, Henrietta Galloway sentenced to one year in penitentiary, others 6 months each in county jail with leave to hire out.

Robt. Hodges, carrying concealed weapon, pleads guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

John McLawhorn, assault with deadly weapon, guilty.

Edmond Edwards, disposing of crops, guilty, judgment suspended upon payment of costs.

Swindlers.

There are all sorts of schemes used by swindlers to get money out of unsuspecting persons. One of the latest schemes that we have heard of is that now being played by a concern that mails packages of needles to ladies, whose addresses have been obtained for that purpose. The scheme is to mail a small package of needles to a lady without any information as to why it is sent—whether it is a gift or a sample package—and then afterwards write her a letter demanding payment for it and threatening to sue her if she does not pay. We wish to warn our county women against such swindlers, and would suggest that they pay no attention to them or their threatening letters.—Pittsboro Record.

A Mother Takes a Long Walk for a Truant Son.

Mrs. Mary Biggerstaff, a poor woman who lives above Rutherfordton, N. C., was in our office today with her little son, who had run away, on her lonely tramp back home. Mrs. Biggerstaff says some one sent her a clipping from The Headlight about a stray boy, and having no money to pay railroad fare, she walked the entire distance to Fairmount, which took her three days. The kind people along the road gave her food. She said her boy had no cause for leaving home, for she is a widow with three other smaller children, and did the best she could for them. She earns her suppost as a field hand. Mrs. Biggerstaff says she worried a great deal about her boy, who has been missing since September. It is a pitiable case, indeed.—Spartanburg, S. C., Star.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

The colored graded school building at Durham was destroyed by fire Wednesday night. It is believed to be the work of incendiaries.

Merchants of Winston have sent a petition to the Legislature to repeal the purchase tax law.

The Cumberland county dispensary at Fayetteville made a profit of $11,000 in eighteen months. Yet a petition is in circulation there asking the Legislature to abolish it.

Mrs. Nancy Welch, a widow lady of Chatham county, was outraged and murdered, Tuesday evening, by a negro named Henry Jones. The negro was caught and confessed the crime, and that night was taken back to the scene by a mob and lynched.

Captain Blumm, of Lightship No. 69, whose station is off Diamond Shoals, reported at Norfolk the other day that on the evening of January 6 one of the severest storms he had ever experienced the ship. As evidence that the wind blew pretty hard the Captain pointed to a five-and-a-quarter-inch anchor stock which parted during the gale, leaving the anchor in the sea.

Two barns, about 300 barrels of corn and several stacks of fodder were burned on Mr. T. R. Rouse's farm, near LaGrange, Tuesday night. The loss is about $1,000. The burning is thought to be incendiary.—Kinston Free press.

Greensboro is in the midst of a hypnotic sensation, the town having two companies of hypnotists holding forth there at the same time.

The State Association of Confederate Veterans meets in Raleigh on the 25th.

OVER THE COUNTRY.

Judge Shiras yesterday, at Duluth, upheld the Iowa law taxing foreign insurance companies.

Ten residents of Fairburn, Neb., were attacked with trichinosis after eating pork, and the daughter of August Kellerman is dead.

The Association of American Photographers will hold its convention and exhibition at Coleman, on Lake Chautauqua, July 17 next.

At their own request Brigadier Generals W. W. Gordon and W. C. Oates, of the volunteer army, have been honorably discharged from the military service.

The New York Board of Estimate has appropriated $1,500,000 for the new Brooklyn bridge, the foundation of which is almost finished; $1,000,000 is for steel.

Vagaries of Jurors.

This question is being discussed in the papers, and some of its phases open a broad field for argument. In the Botkin case, in San Francisco, the latest gossip as to the jury's oath of secrecy concerning the happenings in the jury room is that one of the jurors knew the principal witness of the defence. While the jurors were discussing the case this juror advised them to place no reliance in this witness, giving as a reason that the man's word was not to be depended upon because he did not pay his debts. The defense has learned, it is said, that this argument was accepted by the jurors. The lawyers for Mrs. Botkin now say that in this way the testimony of the witness on whom they most relied was utterly overcome.

The failure of many a man to pay his just debts may be explained in ways which do not involve his truthfulness. If everybody in Durham who cannot always pay his debts as they become due is to be set down as unworthy of belief, when he makes a statement even under oath, there are several very unvarnished persons in our city.—Durham Sun.

Of course there are cases to which this rule does not apply, but nine times out of ten the man who gets a reputation for wilfully failing to pay his debts is not worthy to be believed. This is so from the fact that people who have dealings with such men hear the debtor tell so many falsehoods about when the debt will be paid that very naturally the creditor finds that no reliance can be placed upon anything he says. The San Francisco jury was right in saying such a man was unworthy of belief.

A curious divorce suit is in progress at Emporia, Kan., where John W. Gorman has applied for a legal separation from his wife because she persists in exhibiting herself as a freak throughout the country. Mrs. Gorman has a remarkable head of hair, which is wavy and lustrous and sweeps the floor. While at the World's Fair in 1892 she attracted the attention of showmen, and since then has been posing for the admiration of the public, much to the disgust of her husband.

A silk mill will be established at Lambert's Point, in the suburbs of Norfolk. A company with $400,000 capital has been organized and the money secured. A vacant factory there will be leased at once, and in this local labor will be trained during the erection of a permanent building, which will begin about May 1st. A thorough investigation of climatic conditions led to the belief that Norfolk was the best point in this country for the purpose. This will be the first large silk mill in the South.

Laid Out all the Senators.

A half dozen Republican Senators attended a dinner given a fortnight ago by Vice President Hobart. The guest of the evening was the Chinese minister, Wu Ting Fang. He speaks English fluently, is familiar with American manners and customs and can see a joke quickly.

After the opening drink was served, a Senator facetiously suggested to his colleagues that they test the drinking capacity of the Emperor's representative. This suggestion was snapped up and the drinks came fast and furious.

As the evening wore on the Senators became slightly boozy, and one by one they dropped out until none save the minister and the host remained. Then the minister, who was as fresh as a daisy, leaned over and said to the Vice President "Mr. President, where are the Senators?"

The Vice President smiled and reluctantly admitted that they had retired, whereupon the minister and the Vice President had a "night cap," and what remained of the party—the minister alone—walked quietly down the stair into his carriage.—Philadelphia Record.

"Sweet Sixteen."

The pretty society girls of "sweet sixteen" who consider themselves the belles of the community, should be careful how they snub the awkward, uncouth boy of the same age. When you are 38 and a trifle shelf-worn these boys will be young men, and they will remember the snub. The snub business is risky; the wheel of fortune goes around and it is impossible to tell who will be on top next year, or who will be on the bottom.—Marietta, Ga., Journal.

Two years ago when the Legislature was in session nearly every member of that body wanted an office either for himself, for some son or daughter, or relative. It was the greatest gang of pie-seekers that ever assembled. Note the contrast: The present Legislature passed a resolution that no member nor any son of a member of the body was to be appointed to any office within the gift of the same. No one can ever say that the Legislature of 1899 was a "set of miserable pie-hunters" as has been said of some of our past General Assemblies.—Lexington Dispatch.

The Cabbage Accused.

The Chicago physicians now believe that much of the diphtheria prevailing in that city is due to the extensive cabbage-fields which skirt its suburbs.

In the town of Gallen, Mich., fifty cases of the terrible disease were reported in one day, and the doctors there believe they have traced the germs to the many acres of cabbages which lie rotting near the city. These discoveries have opened the eyes of Chicago's health officials, and they think that the conditions which prevail in Michigan are duplicated in Illinois.

Let them try old North Carolina collard. It is germ proof.—Raleigh Post.

The man who cannot pay at least a poll tax—who cannot contribute this much toward the support of the government that protects him—should not only not be allowed to vote but should get off the earth. When this country was young there was a great flurry in it on the injustice of taxation without representation, and because, largely, of this injustice it went to war with the mother country. The pendulum has swung the other way and now we are having entirely too much representation without taxation.—Charlotte Observer.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA.

TO GAIN FLESH, TO SLEEP WELL, TO KNOW WHAT APPETITE AND GOOD DIGESTION MEAN.

Make a Test of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets.

No trouble is more common or more misunderstood than nervous dyspepsia. People having it think their nerves are to blame and are surprised that they are not cured by nerve medicines. The real seat of the mischief is lost sight of. The stomach is the organ to be looked after.

Nervous dyspeptics often do not have any pain whatever in the stomach, nor perhaps any of the usual symptoms of stomach weakness. Nervous dyspepsia shows itself not in the stomach so much as in nearly every organ. In some cases the heart palpitates and is irregular; in others the kidneys are affected; in others the bowels are constipated, with headaches; still others are troubled with loss of flesh and appetite with accumulations of gas, sour risings and heartburn.

It is safe to say that Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets will cure any stomach weakness or disease except cancer of the stomach. They cure sour stomach, gas, loss of flesh and appetite, sleeplessness, palpitation, heartburn, constipation and headache.

Send for valuable little book on stomach diseases by addressing F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. All druggists sell full-sized packages at 50 cents. Prof. Henry W. Becker, A. M. the wellknown religious worker and writer of St. Louis.

PROF. HENRY W. BECKER, A. M.

Secretary of the Mission Board of the German Methodist Church. Chief Clerk and Expert Accountant for the Harbor and Wharf Commission. Public Secretary for the St. Louis School Patrons' Association, and the District Conference of Stewards of the M. E. Church; also takes an active part in the work of the Epworth League, and to write on religious and educational topics for several magazines. How he found relief is best told in his own words:

"Some weeks ago my brother heard me say something about indigestion, and taking a box from his pocket said 'Try Stuart's Tablets.' I did, and was promptly relieved. Then I investigated the nature of the tablets and became satisfied that they were made of just the right things and in just the right proportions to aid in the assimilation of food. I heartily endorse them in all respects, and I keep them constantly on hand."

A gentleman remarked recently that had a stranger or an outsider come to North Carolina, and made the cures among our people that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy had made, the people would be had stirred as never before. Read this and suppose a case:

Eleven years ago I had a child that was delicate from birth, and for six months she was under constant care of the best physician we had in our town. But his medicine seemed powerless to control the bowel trouble, which had become chronic dysentery. She also suffered from some aggravated blood trouble, which caused large sores and risings to break out on her body. Oft time there would be as many as 20 or 25. We had several doctors to treat her at different times, but nothing reached her case. They would lance these risings, but as soon as one was cured another broke out, and the doctors gave me no hope of her cure. After she had led a life of agony and suffering for six months, I was inspired to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. There was a change for the better in twenty-four hours, it seemed to check the bowels at once, and after using a few bottles my child was entirely cured, and has never since had any sign of trouble and is now in perfect health. A few years after this I had two sores to break out on my ankle, and strange to say I did not think of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I was under the treatment of doctors for three years, but the sores continued to get worse until they had eaten to the bone. I then thought of trying Mrs. Joe Person's Wash and did so, and it is almost useless to say it soon made a cure.

I wish I could speak so that every man, woman and child, in North Carolina could hear, that I might tell them what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash did for me and mine. I advised one of my friends who had been a terrible sufferer for a long time, with nurses sore mouth. She used the Remedy and Wash, and it soon made a cure.

I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends, for indigestion and other ailments, and I have never known it to fail to cure yet. There is no medicine equal to it. MRS. RACHEL READE LONG. Roxboro, Peison Co., Oct. 8, 1898.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefitted by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."
