THE LEGISLATURE.

They Keep Doing Good Work.

Below are some of the important matters introduced Wednesday:

RALEIGH CHRISTIAN ADVOCATE.

First Issue Appears Feb. 15th.

The new Methodist paper which is to be published in this city has been christened the "Raleigh Christian Advocate." The editor, Rev. Dr. T. N. Ivey, has arrived in the city and the first issue of the paper will appear February 15th.

Articles of incorporation were issued by the Secretary of State yesterday to the following stockholders, who are the incorporators: Rev. N. M. Watson, of Greenville; J. G. Brown, J. S. Wynne, E. P. Brown, of Raleigh; R. B. John, of Newbern; Dr. J. F. Miller, of Goldsboro; M. T. Plyer, of Plymouth; J. W. Jenkins, of Smithfield; B. H. Black, of Fayetteville, and B. N. Duke, of Durham. The Advocate Company is incorporated for a term of thirty years and the capital stock is $10,000.

The stockholders had their first meeting yesterday and elected the following directors: Rev. N. M. Watson, Rev. R. B. John, Rev. J. W. Jenkins and Mr. Joseph G. Brown. The directors elected the following officers:

J. S. Wynne, president.
Dr. J. F. Miller, vice-president.
F. P. Brown, secretary.
Rev. N. M. Watson, treasurer.

The executive committee was chosen as follows: Jos. G. Brown, Rev. N. M. Watson and J. S. Wynne.—Raleigh Post.

That's What the Man Said.

Senator Black, a good poker player himself, learned that his son was playing poker.

"I have heard that you lost $50 last night," he told the son.

"The idea," replied the offspring, "I don't even know how to play the game."

"So I am informed by the man who won the money," observed the Senator quietly.

FILING PAPERS.

They Make Interesting History.

This morning Mr. Allen Warren dropped in at THE REFLECTOR office to talk over the weather old times, and other matters. When speaking of newspapers he said he first subscribed to the Tarboro Southerner back in the Fifties and took that paper for 37 consecutive years, his only regret about it now being that he did not file and preserve every copy of it. If those papers had been preserved they would make a valuable and interesting history of the years covered. Mr. Warren says he is convinced that people make a mistake in not preserving their papers and thus have a record of important matters transpiring, and that hereafter he is going to have his family keep and file away every copy of THE REFLECTOR that goes out.

Mr. Warren is right in this matter. The value of a complete file of your county paper would be incalculable for reference in future years. It will be worth far more than the trouble to save all copies of a paper, and it is a wonder that a large number of subscribers do not preserve them. If they start to saving them and get a few years papers on hand, they would not be without them for anything.

Others should follow Mr. Warren's example in this matter.

True to Life.

A young married lady one morning gave her husband a sealed letter, which he was to read when he got to his office. He did so, and the letter ran as follows:

"I am obliged to tell you something that may give you pain, but there is no help for it. You should know everything, whatever be the consequence. For the last week I have felt that it must come to this, but I have waited until the last extremity, and can remain silent no longer. Do not overwhelm me with bitter reproach, for you will have to put up with your share of the trouble as well as myself."

Cold perspiration stood in thick drops on the brow of the husband, who had prepared for the worst. Trembling he read on:

"Our sugar is all gone. Please order some sent this afternoon. I thought you might forget it the tenth time, and therefore wrote you this letter."

But he didn't forget it that time.

The Gun Burst.

On Thursday near Ayden Kenneth Henderson went hunting. His gun was over-loaded and when he fired it the gun burst. One of his eyes was put out and he narrowly escaped being killed.

JUST FOR FUN.

Snow wreaths always wreath the liveryman's face in smiles.

When a man gets accustomed to eating course dinners he considers any other kind coarse.

She—"What is your understanding of the ideal and the real?"
He—"When I deal the flush I get it always real, if that is what you mean."

The fellow who has "hung up" his heavy overcoat is in a predicament. He'll have to "cough" to get it, and he'll have a cough if he doesn't get it.

"Say, old fellow, you know Jones well. Is he a touchy person?" "What do you ask that for?" "Oh, I want to 'touch' him for a V; but if he's touchy I won't try to make the 'touch.'"

"I don't propose to be jumping around after my salary all the time," said the leading lady with some heat. "Well, here's your money," replied the manager; "now you're a 'fixed star.'"

A Lying Son.

Bob Jones is Evangelist Sam's noble son. He told his father that a certain estimable citizen of Sam's town had invited him into his rear office to take a drink of whiskey. Sam cut loose the following Sunday with a roaring sermon, of which misleading a boy was the text: He said: "the man who tempted my boy to drink must leave this town. If he will not go peaceably he will go at the muzzle of my shot gun. I am ready to go before my Maker with a record of having shot a scoundrel who led my child to drink." There was a barrel of the same sort, only hotter, and Sam fairly foamed at the mouth with threatenings. The whole congregation got excited. The excitement spread through the town, and every one was asking his neighbor, "Who can be the man?" One of the good women called Bob into her house and asked who had persuaded him to drink. Bob laughed. "Why it ain't nobody," he said, "I just told pa that lie to give him something to preach about, and didn't the old man howl!"

Spoke for the Sick Man's Job in the Event of Death.

Collector Harkins received a letter from an aspirant to the office of deputy collector, which created considerable amusement. The writer notified the collector that a certain deputy on the force was ill and that there was a probability of his dying. In view of this probability he offered himself as ready to take the sick man's position when death created the vacancy.—Asheville Gazette.

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 3, 1899.

Prof. E. E. Britton has brought suit for $5,000 against editor J. A. Robinson, of the Durham Sun, because the Sun mistook another man by the same name for him in a recent article. The case will be heard at Wilson court.

Soldier Marries a Negress.

William J. Jackson, a private of Company M., Two Hundred and First New York, in camp at Greenville, owing to his use of liquor, has gotten himself into trouble that will doubtless take many lawyers to unravel. Last Thursday night Jackson got on a first-class spree and wound up by taking a young negro woman, Mattie Earle, before a negro preacher and marrying her.

Friday the young man sobered up enough to realize the disgraceful mess into which he had gotten himself and came before a magistrate and told what he had done. He concluded by asking the magistrate for a divorce. When the reply came that there was no such thing as divorce in this State, but that the law was very strict as to miscegenation, the man seemed paralyzed. The authorities arrested him, and he is now being held to answer for violation of the miscegenation laws. It is now a question whether the law, being so stringent in regard to miscegenation the marriage can be considered legal.—Columbia, S. C., Dispatch.

Fruit Tree Swindlers.

A number of State experiment stations have issued warnings to farmers and horticulturists against certain men who are going through the country selling peach trees purported to be proof against what is known as yellows.

In a number of localities these peddlers have been making active canvass. Their representations have been that the trees offered by them were started in Canada from seed brought from France and that they are not only free from the germs of the disease which has killed thousands of peach trees in some States, but that they are so hardy on account of their growth in a Northern latitude that they are not subject to the disease when transplanted. This latter quality is also contributed to by their unusual slow growth and annual budding which carries them beyond the danger of spring frosts.

These swindlers may come into Halifax and adjoining counties and we publish the above for the benefit of farmers. Inquiries in Canada fail to find any Canadian fruit growers and the men offering such trees are humbugs. Warning against them has been sent out under the seal of official authority.—Weldon News.

The Boy and His Trade.

"Seventeen is the preferable age for going to a trade, but in many cases sixteen is not too young, nor eighteen too old," writes Barton Cheyney in the February Ladies' Home Journal. "But, all conditions being favorable, it is well for a boy to arrange his apprenticeship so that he can finish his trade by the time he is twenty-one. One of the advantages of going to a trade early is that it allows the lad time to make a change should he discover that he has made a mistake in choosing his vocation, and there is no infallible method or rule that can be followed in order that such mistakes can be avoided. But the best course to pursue is for the lad to fully acquaint himself with the details of the trades to which he may incline before he makes a selection. This can be easily done at the expense only of a little observation and inquiry. Then the matter of natural aptitude can be considered—and it is a most important factor—so that the lad can avoid going into anything for which he has no special fitness. It is asserted that every one is adapted for some one thing better than anything else, and the boy should strive to discover what that one thing is. It would be a great mistake for a lad without a natural bent for mechanics to attempt to learn the machinist's trade, and the chances would be against such a boy's proper advancement, for one's best work and development are the outcome of being congenially employed."

Drink Bill of The United States.

We print herewith a very accurate estimate of the cost of the liquor traffic to the United States. Its author, Dr. Hargreaves, of Philadelphia, is the highest living authority in the world on this subject. He has made it a life study, and the information thus imparted in his declining years may be his last statement. It is of the highest value, and will probably be appreciated by our readers.

During the fiscal year ending June 30, 1896, there were registered and operated 3,158 distilleries, grain and fruit. Their aggregate production was 72,240,864 gallons, which at $6 a gallon to consumers, will be $432,845,184. There was not less than the above when we consider that during the year there were discovered 2,241 illicit stills and 829 persons arrested for the business. During the same period there were 1,830 breweries that produced 35,836,098 barrels of 31 gallons each, or 1,130,609,038 gallons of fermented or malt liquors, (ale, beer, porter, etc) which at $20 a barrel retail, will cost the consumer not less than $716,521,960.—N. C. Christian Advocate.

The country papers are the palladiums of our liberty, declares a recent writer. And he undertakes to prove the correctness of the assertion in this wise:

The "country paper," as the county weekly is generally called, is about the only means left to preserve the spark of liberty in this country. There is not a metropolitan paper in the United States, we care not what political party it pretends to affiliate with, but what is edited and conducted entirely and exclusively on the toad eating plan. They fawn and flutter around the tainted, tinselled and glittering scum that pose as "saw-ciey" leaders and bend the pregnant hinges of the knee to those in high positions of trust—but never a criticism do they have to offer when not only severe criticism, but censure and exposure of their corrupt aces are due to the public. The big papers are all run on the policy plan and "supported by the same prop."

CATARRH OF STOMACH.

A PLEASANT, SIMPLE, BUT SAFE AND EFFECTUAL CURE FOR IT.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable. The usual symptoms are a full or bloating sensation after eating, accompanied sometimes with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the heart and lungs and difficult breathing; headaches, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out, languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue and if the interior of the stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure of this common and obstinate trouble is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily, thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach. To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanson the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diatase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids. These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets and not being a patent medicine can be used with perfect safety and assurance that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom passing backward into the throat reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me for three years for catarrh of stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I cannot find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use."

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for little book mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

To Spell it With a Capital.

Representative Jones in the Alabama Legislature has offered a bill to eliminate the word "colored" as it appears usually in place of Negro and to put in place the true word with a capital "N." He said there could be no stigma in the name Negro, but that it should be capitalized as the name of all other races are.

Says an exchange: Prompt trials, prompt conviction and punishment, or prompt acquittal, are the surest ways to inspire respect for the law and confidence in the courts, and would be one of the most effective ways to deprive Judge Lynch of his occupation.

NOTE THE NAME.

A gentleman remarked recently that had a stranger or an outsider come to North Carolina, and made the cures among our people that Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy had made, the people would have been stirred as never before. Read this and suppose a case:

Eleven years ago I had a child that was delicate from birth, and for six months she was under constant care of the best physician we had in our town. But his medicine seemed powerless to control the bowel trouble, which had become chronic dysentery. She also suffered from some aggravated blood trouble, which caused large sores and risings to break out on her body. Oft time there would be as many as 20 or 25. We had several doctors to treat her at different times, but nothing reached her case. They would lance these risings, but as soon as one was cured another broke out, and the doctors gave me no hope of her cure. After she had led a life of agony and suffering for six months, I was inspired to try Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. There was a change for the better in twenty-four hours, it seemed to check the bowels at once, and after using a few bottles my child was entirely cured, and has never since had any sign of trouble and is now in perfect health. A few years after this I had two sores to break out on my ankle, and strange to say I did not think of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy. I was under the treatment of doctors for three years, but the sores continued to get worse until they had eaten to the bone. I then thought of trying Mrs. Joe Person's Wash and did so, and it is almost useless to say it soon made a cure.

I wish I could speak so that every man, woman and child, in North Carolina could hear, that I might tell them what Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and Wash did for me and mine. I advised one of my friends who had been a terrible sufferer for a long time, with nurses sore mouth. She used the Remedy and Wash, and it soon made a cure.

I have recommended it to ever so many of my friends, for indigestion and other ailments, and I have never known it to fail to cure, yet. There is no medicine equal to it.

De WOLF HOPPER.

America's Greatest Comedian Uses Paine's Celery Compound.

Back of every smooth performance there is an amount of preparation, study and rehearsal that soon tells on the health of every actor. It is significant how unanimous men and women in professional life, whether actors, editors, teachers or physicians, are in regard to Paine's celery compound. As a nervetonic for the exhausting strain of their professional duties nothing else does the work of Paine's celery compound.

A testimonial taken at random from the many that are constantly received from the theatrical professional, says:

NEW YORK CITY, Sept. 25, 1898. Wells, Richardson & Co.,

Gentlemen:—If others have been helped by Paine's celery compound as decidedly as in my case I do not wonder at the enthusiastic testimonials this remedy is constantly receiving. If I had never heard a word as to its remarkable invigorating capability, I could unhesitatingly recommend it from my own experience. As a fact, many of my professional friends have been urging me to try Paine's celery compound. It proved to be the very thing my tired system needed to overcome the exhausted effects of close application to stage work. I am recommending it to all my friends whenever they complain of sleeplessness, indigestion, or other indications of nervousness common in our profession.

I am yours sincerely,
KATHERINE KIDDER.

De Wolf Hopper, America's most popular comedian, writing on Oct. 4, 1898, from the Knickerbocker theatre, New York, says:

"I cordially recommend Paine's celery compound as being thoroughly efficacious."

When the history of Paine's celery compound is studied it is easily understood why its popularity is so enormous. Paine's celery compound is the world-famed discovery of Prof. Edwards Elisha Phelps, M. D., LL. D., professor of materia medica at Dartmouth college. Prof. Phelps' unusual talent quickly established his reputation and prominence among his professional brethren.

He was fully alive to the dangers attendant upon the American way of living, and he sought diligently for some common-sense remedy that would cure the common evils, which, under one name and another result from an unhealthy state of the nervous system. His labors were crowned with glorious success and he gave to the medical profession the celebrated remedy which has won world-wide fame as Paine's celery compound.

SYRUP OF FIGS
NEVER IMITATED IN QUALITY.

THE EXCELLENCE OF SYRUP OF FIGS is due not only to the originality and simplicity of the combination, but also to the care and skill with which it is manufactured by scientific processes known to the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, and we wish to impress upon all the importance of purchasing the true and original remedy. As the genuine Syrup of Figs is manufactured by the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. only, a knowledge of that fact will assist one in avoiding the worthless imitations manufactured by other parties. The high standing of the CALIFORNIA FIG SYRUP Co. with the medical profession, and the satisfaction which the genuine Syrup of Figs has given to millions of families, makes the name of the Company a guaranty of the excellence of its remedy. It is far in advance of all other laxatives, as it acts on the kidneys, liver and bowels without irritating or weakening them, and it does not gripe nor nauseate. In order to get its beneficial effects, please remember the name of the Company—

BAND CONCERT.

Next Tuesday Night the Time.

The Osceola Cornet Band will give their second concert in the opera house on Tuesday night, Feb. 7th. Those who attended the former concert a month ago will be glad that the band give another. They have put in another month of hard practice and no band excels them in making music.

Leader Ola Forbes tells us there will be several new features in the coming concert. Mr. Wilson, of Durham, who is the finest trombone soloist in the South, has been engaged for the occasion, also two specialists in clog dancing and comic songs. Mr. C. V. Murphy, who has had much experience before the footlights, will give several specialties, and Mr. H. W. Holcomb will render some old time plantation songs in negro dialect. Other local talent will also take part in the program. It is going to be the finest concert ever given in Greenville.

It Has Done Good.

The Greenville REFLECTOR was seventeen years old with the issue of last week. The first issue of the paper was published on January 25th, 1882, by the present editor of the Robesonian, who sold it to his brother in 1885. It has since remained in his charge and a DAILY REFLECTOR has been published for the past four and a half years. It might be said that close relationship to the REFLECTOR man influenced our opinion were we to say what we think has been its power for good in Pitt county, therefore we refrain.—Lumberton Robesonian.
