DOWN ON THE BORDER.

Some Notes of Interest Around Lumberton.

The editor spent Sunday and Monday in the town of Lumberton, and was somewhat surprised to find so much enterprise in a town of its size. It is the county seat of Robeson, the largest in area of any county in the State, and while the town itself has a population of less than 1,500 it shows traits of enterprise that would do credit to a place many times as large. To afford good drinking water eight artesian wells have been sunk at convenient points and Lumberton is now credited with having the purest and best water of any town in North Carolina. Besides this they have a fine system of water works for protection against fire, and a system of sewerage is also being put in.

The business houses of the town are modern in architecture and equipment and present an attractive appearance. They are occupied by substantial business men. The schools are excellent, as good as can be found anywhere.

Being there on a court day that drew a large number of people in from the country districts we had the opportunity of seeing a great many of the Croatans, a race that is an exclusive feature of Robeson county. These people claim to be the direct descendants of the first settlers on Roanoke Island. It was interesting to study these people. For years past these Croatans have been placed at a disadvantage by being classed along with the colored people in matters of public recognition. On the tax list they were put down as colored, in the issuing of marriage licenses they were mentioned as colored, their children had to attend the colored public school, if they went to any, and the unfortunate insane among them were sent to the colored asylum at Goldsboro. The Croatans are a much superior race to the Negro, and being thus classed with a lower race was a stigma that they felt keenly and from which they long sought deliverance. The last Legislature was considerate enough to change this condition, and the Croatans can now have their own public schools, there is distinction given their race on the tax lists and marriage records, and their insane will be provided for in a special ward in the asylum at Raleigh. The complexion and features of the Croatan resembles the Indian, but now and then one is seen who is as white as the Anglo Saxon. They are nearly all engaged in farming and there are many industries and prosperous ones among them.

For a few years some of the Robeson farmers have been cultivating tobacco and this year the acreage is being largely increased. A few of them whom we met, upon learning that we were from a great tobacco market, wanted to know something about Greenville. They got the information, and showed their interest further by saying they were going to ship some tobacco to Greenville next season. Prof. John Duckett, who some years ago was Principal of Greenville Institute, has charge of a very fine school in Lumberton, the enrollment for the present term numbering above 150.

Rev. George J. Dowell, also known to a number of Greenville people, is pastor of the Lumberton Baptist church, and is held in high esteem on his field. It was our pleasure to hear him preach twice while there.

Mr. Z. F. Highsmith, a Pitt county boy, is a jeweler in Lumberton and we were glad to learn that he is doing well there.

Judge Dorsey Battle, one of the newly elected Judges of the criminal court, was holding a term in Robeson county. Every where that he has held a court so far he has impressed the people with his ability and knowledge of the law. His selection to this important position was a wise one.

Mr. W. F. Carlisle, who spent sometime around Greenville, is at Lumberton engaged with a corps of engineers in surveying the route of a new railroad from Lumberton to Marion, S. C.

Mr. J. R. Whichard is publishing The Robesonian and we were glad to hear many of his patrons say he is giving them the best paper that was ever sent out for Lumberton. And that is saying a great deal, for through all of its existence The Robesonian has occupied a high rank among North Carolina papers.

It was our first trip to that immediate section of the State, and our visit to the town and acquaintance with its excellent people was in many ways interesting and pleasant.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, April 14th, '99.

This rain is interfering with work on the brick yard.

Miss Olivia Cox came in on the train last night.

Highest market price paid for cotton seed by A. G. Cox for a few days.

Mr. C. O. Brown has gone off with the rail-road carpenter force, and it is likely that he has a permanent position.

Mr. Ward the traveling man who sells Winterville Cigars, is here with orders for several thousand.

Mr. H. P. Strause stopped here on the freight one day last week to see about getting brick for his new building.

B. F. Manning & Co. have a large line of straw hats, hard hats, soft hats, etc., but bear in mind that these are only plain hats, and if you want trimming on them you will have to go to Millinery Store next door.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. are patting in their third grist mill. There seems to be a special rush over there for last few days, and they are making daily shipments of Planters, Fertilizer Distributors, Tobacco Trucks, Back Bands, etc.

You may talk about your first class fence, but you haven't seen any fence yet that will compare with G. W. Parker's new style picket fence, with iron posts, gates etc. The best thing about it is that it will last a man his life time even if he lives to be a hundred years old.

The Parker Fountain Pen (best made) is a great convenience for the business man. Get one at Reflector Book Store.

Ten Things a Baby Can Do.

A baby can beat any alarm clock ever invented for waking a family up in the morning. Give it a fair show, and it can smash more dishes than the most industrious servant girl in the country. It can fall down oftener and with less provocation than the most expert tumbler in the circus ring. It can make more genuine fuss over a simple brass pin than its mother would over a broken back. It can keep a family in constant turmoil from morning till night, and night till morning without once varying its tunes. It can be relied upon to sleep peacefully all day when its father is down town, and cry all night when he is particularly sleepy. It may be the naughtiest, dirtiest, ugliest, most fretful baby in all the world, but you can never make its mother believe it and you had better not try it. It can be a charming and model infant when no one is around; but when visitors are present it can exhibit more bad temper than both its parents together. It can brighten up a house better than all the furniture ever made, sweeter music than the finest orchestra organized, fill a larger place in its parents' breasts than they knew they had, when it goes away it can cause a greater vacancy and leave a greater blank than all the rest of the world put together.

Mrs. Hobson's View of Her Boy.

The mother of Richmond Pearson Hobson is now in New Orleans. In reply to a reporter who asked her opinion of her son, she said: "What do I think of my boy? Why, I did not need the incident of the Merrimac to reveal Richmond to me. I always call him Richmond," she said, "and at home his sisters and brothers call him Rich, by way of affection. I always knew my boy; he has always been the truest hero, a noble son and a good brother; no mother ever had a better son. Richmond has been a tower of strength to me for years, and in every way a help and comfort. As a child, he was always his mother's boy. In the three years that he was abroad, he never failed to send constantly the most loving and tender letters home and his resources were always at my command. He never forgot the many demands of our large household, and it has always been his greatest happiness to share his salary with us.

"The appreciation of the country is, of course, most gratifying to us, but it has told us nothing new of Richmond's worth."

Correctness in Advertising.

The immense multiplication of combinations in locks is one of the most interesting and surprising features of the lockmaking trade. It is claimed that in one make of locks 2,592,000 changes of combination may be made. In fact, the difficulty seems to be not to make the locks different, but to get some of them precisely alike. This principle of variety is one which the tradesman should apply to his methods of advertising. In the same manner that a multiplicity of combinations renders the locks safe and valuable, so variety in advertising enhances the worth of the "ad." But just as it is necessary to make the lock adjustments perfect, so it is needful to make an advertisement correct as to assertion; and thus the merchant and the locksmith, following the same line of accuracy and care, reach the same profitable results.—Philadelphia Record.

Ineffective Proselyting.

Benny, the four-year-old member of the family, had been trained to believe in the deep-water form of baptism.

This is believed to be the reason why he was trying to plunge the household cat into a bucket of water.

The animal resisted, it howled and scratched, and clawed, and used violent language.

Finally, Benny, with his hands covered with scratches and with tears in his eyes gave it up.

"Darn you!" he said, "go an' be a Methodist' if you want to!"

One thing that possibly is not sufficiently considered with reference to the future of our commercial interests in the West Indies and the Philippine islands is the fact that these new dependencies are already sufficiently populated. The islands of Luzon and Puerto Rico, for example, are much more densely inhabited than the State of Pennsylvania. There may be opportunity for the development of unproductive resources by the introduction of machinery and the possible utilization of native labor, but climatic conditions as well as race conditions forbid permanent white immigration and make doubtful the possibility of any immediate transplantation of free government after the American pattern.—Philadelphia Record.

Consul Wildman telegraphs our government that the "plague" has broken out in Hong Kong, and the Washington officials are alarmed lest it reach Manila. Providence will begin to take a hand in this Philippine business soon, and we had better turn it over to Him. If not, it may yet become a plague-spot of this country.—Raleigh Post.

It is estimated that England's stock of coal will last 200 years longer, and North America's 600 years. It is not likely, however, that these supplies will ever be needed, as it is probable that before many decades have passed power will be gained in other ways.

CATARRH OF THE STOMACH.

A PLEASANT, SIMPLE, SAFE BUT EFFECTUAL CURE FOR IT.

Catarrh of the stomach has long been considered the next thing to incurable.

The usual symptoms are a full or bloated sensation after eating, accompanied some times with sour or watery risings, a formation of gases, causing pressure on the lungs and heart and difficult breathing; headache, fickle appetite, nervousness and a general played out and languid feeling.

There is often a foul taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and if the interior of stomach could be seen it would show a slimy, inflamed condition.

The cure for this common and obstinate disease is found in a treatment which causes the food to be readily and thoroughly digested before it has time to ferment and irritate the delicate mucous surfaces of the stomach.

To secure a prompt and healthy digestion is the one necessary thing to do, and when normal digestion is secured the catarrhal condition will have disappeared.

According to Dr. Harlanston the safest and best treatment is to use after each meal a tablet, composed of Diastase, Aseptic Pepsin, a little Nux, Golden Seal and fruit acids.

These tablets can now be found at all drug stores under the name of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, and, not being a patent medicine, can be used with perfect safety and assurance; that healthy appetite and thorough digestion will follow their regular use after meals.

Mr. N. J. Booher, of 2710 Dearborn St., Chicago, Ill., writes: "Catarrh is a local condition resulting from a neglected cold in the head, whereby the lining membrane of the nose becomes inflamed and the poisonous discharge therefrom, passing back into the throat, reaches the stomach, thus producing catarrh of the stomach. Medical authorities prescribed for me three years for catarrh of the stomach without cure, but today I am the happiest of men after using only one box of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets. I can not find appropriate words to express my good feeling. I have found flesh, appetite and sound rest from their use.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets is the safest preparation as well as the simplest and most convenient remedy for any form of indigestion, catarrh of the stomach, biliousness, sour stomach, heartburn and bloating after meals.

Send for book, mailed free, on stomach troubles, by addressing the F. A. Stuart Co., Marshall, Mich. The tablets can be found at all drug stores.

The suggestion to abandon the Confederate re-unions after this year will hardly find a favorable lodgement in the hearts of the Southern veterans. They are not made of material to forget their comrades and while two of them remain and enabled to do so, they will get together and talk over their trials and pleasures of camp life. The Confederate veteran can cheerfully forgive all, but he can not and will not forget his manhood.—Raleigh Times Visitor.

Our Cottonseed Oil for France.

France, or at least Marseilles has become an enormous customer of American cotton seed oil, not only the edible oil, which, it is presumed, is converted into "olive oil" for reimportation, but of the soap stock, used presumably in the manufacture of castile soap and other fancy brands. In 1898 there were imported at Marseilles 120,541 barrels of edible oil and 143,739 barrels of soap stock. The latter is a product of cotton seed oil caused by the refining process, the thick and fatty parts of the crude oil being precipitated and so treated as to be available for the purpose named.—Philadelphia Record.

TETTER ON THE HANDS.

For several years I was a sufferer from tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well. MRS. M. E. KING. Burlington, N. C., May 27, 1896.

BE CURED OF GRIP!

The Wonderful Results Obtained in the Case of Supt. Davidson.

Now, what is the grip? Can it be avoided or prevented? And can it be cured? Grip is characterized by a continued fever, by a tendency to inflammation of the membranes of the digestive and often the respiratory tracts, by pain in the muscles, and by debility. The grip in individual cases varies from a slight indisposition to severe forms with grave symptoms—these variations depending wholly upon the health, age, temperament or nervous condition of the person. Those predisposed to rheumatism suffer great pain in the muscles; persons of nervous temperament become low spirited, often have hysteria, and, if not closely watched, have been known to commit suicide. Several cases of this sort have been reported this month in the newspapers. Headache is a constant symptom. The bowels are generally constipated. Whatever form the disease takes there is invariably extreme prostration. The danger to persons in previous healthful condition is slight. It has been absolutely proven that there is one certain preventive of serious cases of grip; and that there is one remedy for persons suffering with it, or beginning to be convalescent from its attack. The unexampled public demand for Paine's celery compound during the last two months—and the proprietors of this remedy have never while the disease not having left him, he was advised to try Paine's celery compound. He was soon back at his office in the department of public works, a well man, and forthwith wrote a letter to the proprietors of the remedy, in which he says: "I had been told by friends of the wonderful results obtained by them from the use of Paine's celery compound. After my severe attack of the grip I determined to try it. I have already found that my friends' reports were not at all exaggerated, and I wish to join most cheerfully with them in recommending the remedy to others." Hundreds of grateful letters have been written to the proprietors of Paine's celery compound since the appearance of grip this year, telling of the perfect recoveries it has effected. The letters come from men and women of many conditions. Few persons are so poor they cannot afford to have this great remedy constantly in the house, and none are so prosperous that for their health's sake they can afford to be without it. When so many men and women whose words carry the utmost weight in the communities in which they live testify as they do to the great benefit they have received from Paine's celery compound, there can be no hesitancy in trying it. A single trial is the test which is confidently invited.

A person will continue to suffer from the evil effects of grip for many months unless he attacks the disease by getting rid of the unnatural unhealthy poisons in the system supplying the body with new blood, arousing the healthful action of the kidneys, liver and digestive organs, and nourishing and upbuilding the over-exerted and debilitated nervous system. All this and just this Paine's celery compound will do. In the multitude of cases where it has been used, it has never failed. A case well known in Chicago is cited. Mr. Frank E. Davidson, who is one of the most brilliant and best known engineers in the world, had just finished the plans for the great intercepting sewer system of Chicago, which is to divert the entire sewerage of the city from Lake Michigan, through the famous Chicago drainage canal, and down the Mississippi. Superintendent Davidson had worked for months on this scheme. He was well nigh exhausted and took to his bed with an attack of the grip. After a

A Good Neighbor Gone.

Andrew Dixon, who died the other day, was thus eulogized by a neighbor: "He was the kindest man I ever see. When a neighbor was sick Andy was always around. He would do up the chores, split wood, help inside the house or ride like — for the doctor. He always wanted you to get well, and you knew it by looking at his face. If you would die, Andy would go out there on the hill and dig your grave—if it took him four days, it had to be jus' so. Jus' so long, so deep and so wide. He wanted to see 'em put away right."—Kansas City Times.

Crusade Against Cigarettes.

The News learns that a number of good ladies of Charlotte will, in the near future begin a crusade against cigarette smoking. There is already a law prohibiting the sale of cigarettes to boys under the age of 18, but it is not enforced. The crusade will be mainly for the purpose of bringing this law to the attention of the authorities and if possible to curtail the consumption of the cigarette.

A similar crusade has been waged in a number of the large cities within the past few months. The society for the Protection of Children has taken the matter in hand in Baltimore and other cities. As Charlotte has no such organization as that the ladies think that they can be successful along this line.—Charlotte News.

Going Abroad.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Rocky Mount has had several new cases of smallpox in the last few days.

The cruiser Raleigh will come to Wilmington between the 1st and 10th of May.

The R. J. Reynolds Tobacco Company, of Winston, has decided to increase its plant to a capacity of fifteen millions pounds a year.

The North Carolina Dental Society will meet in Raleigh May 3rd. Dr. D. L. James, of Greenville, is Treasurer of the Society.

Charlotte has a case of smallpox. The patient is a traveling salesman who says he caught it at Roanoke, Va., or on the train.

Frank Wilson's Sale.

For nine days, beginning Thursday, 20th, Frank Wilson will have one of the greatest special sales ever held in Greenville. For a week preparation for this sale has been in progress, and today the store was closed to give opportunity to the salesmen for putting on the finishing touches. The store is handsomely arranged, and for the nine special sale days everything has been marked down to an astonishingly low figure. Greenville is well aroused over such an unprecedented sale, for at no time in the past have the people had an opportunity to do such buying. They will stand in their own light if they fail to go to Frank Wilson's and take advantage of these bargains.

the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age. ## WINE OF CARDUI

THE NEW WAY.

WOMEN used to think "female diseases" could only be treated after "local examinations" by physicians. Dread of such treatment kept thousands of modest women silent about their suffering. Their production of Wine of Cardui has now demonstrated that nine-tenths of all the cases of menstrual disorders do not require a physician's attention at all. The simple, pure taken in the privacy of a woman's own home insures quick relief and speedy cure. Women need not hesitate now. Wine of Cardui requires no humiliating examinations for its adoption. It cures any disease that comes under the head of "female troubles"—disordered menses, falling of the womb, "whites," change of life. It makes women beautiful by making them well. It keeps them young by keeping them healthy. $1.00 at the drug store.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

W. I. ADDISON, M.B., Cary, Miss., says: "I use Wine of Cardui extensively in my practice and find it a most excellent preparation for female troubles."
