WINE OF CARDUI

For Mothers!

The discomforts and dangers of child-birth can be almost entirely avoided. Wine of Cardui relieves expectant mothers. It gives tone to the genital organs, and puts them in condition to do their work perfectly. That makes pregnancy less painful, shortens labor and hastens recovery after child-birth. It helps a woman bear strong healthy children.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has also brought happiness to thousands of homes barren for years. A few doses often brings joy to loving hearts that long for a darling baby. No woman should neglect to try it for this trouble. It cures nine cases out of ten. All druggists sell Wine of Cardui. $1.00 per bottle.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Mrs. LOUISA HALE, of Jefferson, Ga., says: "When I first took Wine of Cardui we had been married three years, but could not have any children. Nine months later I had a fine girl baby."

the wonderful new constitutional cure for RHEUMATISM. The other two per cent. were not curable, or failed to take medicine according to directions. Thousands have been cured. In view of the fact that many physicians think that rheumatism is incurable, and that most remedies fail, it must be true that RHEUMACIDE is the greatest medical discovery of the age. ## THE TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.

RALEIGH, N. C., April 26 1899.
To Teachers, School Officers, and Friends of Education:

This is to call your special attention to the sixteenth annual session of the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly to be held at Morehead City, N. C., June 13th to 18th, 1899.

The only meeting held in North Carolina this year that brings the entire educational body of the State together is this Assembly, as this letter is sent to impress upon your mind the necessity and value of attending. Every teacher, school officer, and friend of education, who can possibly do so should be present. Every phase of school work and school administration will be represented in the work of the assembly, and full and free discussions will be a distinctive feature this year. The practical good that is possible from such a gathering can not be overestimated.

As long ago as 1859, Dr. Calvin H. Wiley, one of our wisest educators, then State Superintendent of Public Instruction, urged all teachers and school officials to join in one great yearly meeting. The time seems ripe for a forward movement, and increased interest in our annual gathering.

Railroad rates have been reduced to one-half and even less, and board can be secured for one dollar per day, or less, and I urge the importance of your attending this year. Do so for the sake of the great cause of education which is entrusted to your care in North Carolina.

From the Secretary (W. T. Wittsett, Whitsett, N. C.) full programmes and further information can be obtained at any time.

May this meeting mark the beginning of a brighter educational day for the State.

Yours very truly,
C. H. MEBANE,
State Supt. of Public Instruction.

Sec. 22. That after the 30th day of June, 1899, no person shall retail or sell within the corporate limits of said town, or within half a mile of said limits in any direction around it any spirituous, vinous, malt or other intoxicating liquors in quantities less than one gallon without first having obtained a license from the Board of Aldermen and paid to the town Tax Collector therefor the tax assessed by the Board of aldermen for such license for the privilege of carrying on his business in said town or within a half mile of the limits thereof, which tax shall not be less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars for one year, or half these amounts for six months, provided, that no license shall be given or tax paid for less than six months, and provided further that all license shall begin on the first day of January and July, and shall end in one year or six months, as the case may be, from those dates. Sec. 24. That it shall be unlawful for any person or firm to keep any billiard table, pool table, bagatelle table or other like thing for hire or public use in said town without first obtaining a license from the Board of Aldermen, and paying to the town Tax Collector, the tax levied by the Board for such license.

Sec. 25. That all licens bars rooms or other places where liquors are sold and all billiard rooms, pool rooms or other places where billiard tables, pool tables, bagatelle tables or other like things are kept for hire or public use shall be closed not later than eleven o'clock at night, and opened not earlier than four o'clock in the morning, and it shall be unlawful for any liquor to be sold or games played within these places within these hours. And the said Board may prescribe the hours for closing all other places of business within said town. Any person violating any of the provisions of this section or any of the ordinances or regulations passed by the Board in reference thereto shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and on conviction shall be fined not more than fifty dollars or imprisoned not more than 30 days, provided such violation did not occur between the hours of closing Saturday night and the opening Monday morning. But if any person shall be guilty of violating any of the provisions of this section between the hours of closing on Saturday night and opening on Monday morning he shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction he shall be fined or imprisoned in the discretion of the Court, and shall in addition thereto forfeit his license, provided, the retail dealer may within these prohibited hours fill a regular practicing physician's prescription in which the name of the patient and the necessity for the stimulants shall be certified to without being guilty of violating this section.

Sec. 27. That when it shall become necessary to condemn property for public uses the Board of Aldermen shall designate and describe the property to be condemned and if the Board and the owner or owners of said property cannot agree upon the damages then the Board shall appoint one arbitrator, the owner or owners of the property one, and the third shall be named by the Clerk of the Superior Court of Pitt county. But if any of the owners of the property are minors and without a general guardian then the Board shall file petition before the Clerk of the Superior Court setting forth the facts, and the said Clerk shall appoint some suitable person to represent such infant or infants and such guardian ad-tem shall appoint the arbitrator to represent such minors, and report the name of the person so selected to said Clerk who shall make a record of these proceedings which shall when approved by said Clerk be as conclusive as to said minors so made of record as if they were of full age. The three arbitrators chosen as provided for in this Section shall take an oath before entering upon their duties to do even and exact justice between the town and the owners of the property to be condemned to the best of their ability. The Board shall deliver to the three arbitrators a description of the property to be condemned, and thereupon the arbitrators shall view the property, hear the testimony, if any may be offered and make and sign their award which shall be filed with the Board and a copy delivered by them to the owners. The award when signed by a majority of the arbitrators shall be final and conclusive as to all parties, in case there should be no appeal. If the town or the owners of the property is dissatisfied with the award either may appeal to the Superior Court of Pitt county in term time, by giving ten days' notice of such appeal to the opposite party, and giving a bond to be approved by the Clerk of the Superior Court to secure the cost of such appeal. The notice shall state the grounds of the appeal and, to be effective, must be served within ten days after the award is filed with the Board, and a copy delivered to the owner. If the appeal be a question of law, the Judge shall render his decision thereon, if it be on the amount of damages then that question shall be tried by a jury. Upon the payment to the owner of the amount found by the Arbitrators, if there be no appeal, or of the amount adjudged by the Court, if there be an appeal, the Board of Aldermen may proceed with the contemplated improvements for the public convenience in the use of the property so condemned.

TETTER ON THE HANDS.

For several years I was a sufferer from tetter on my hands. It would come in little watery pimples and the itching was almost more than I could stand. The skin was tender and the itching would swell so I could hardly bend my fingers. Sometimes my hands would become perfectly raw from scratching or breaking of the pimples. When I was in this condition I tried one half dozen bottles of Mrs. Joe Person's Remedy and some Wash in 1884, and by the time I took it my hands were cured, and I am now well of the trouble. It has since broken out a little at times, but not enough to inconvenience me or make me try more medicine. I am now well. MRS. M. E. KING. Burlington, N. C., May 27, 1896.

He Doesn't Always Get Sympathy When He's Ill.

"John," said the sick author to the hired man, who was hanging on in the hope of getting his salary some day, "John, any callers this morning?"

"Three, sir—just three of 'em." "Ah!" exclaimed the sick author, with evident satisfaction, "they're gradually finding out I'm sick! There'll be a great rush after awhile. I'm pretty well known, John—I'm pretty well known! Left their cards, did they?"

"Yes, sir—they left 'em. Shall I read 'em to you, sir?"

"Yes, John; read 'em, while I am reclining on this velvet cushioned sofa."

"The first one reads, sir, in this fashion, 'If you don't get out o' that bed and settle my bill, I'll give you something to be sick for when I see you again!' And the second one reads—"

"Never mind the second one, John," interrupted the sick author, "but go over to the restaurant man and see if you can stand him off for my dinner, and admit no more callers. John; they're a darned ungrateful set!"—Atlanta Constitution.

A Couple of Rat Stories.

George Purcell tells some stories about mining coal that are interesting. Purcell says a rat, when caught in a trap, will cut off a limb to escape. He one day caught a rat with a blacksmith's pinchers. He had only time to fix the pinchers on the rat's tail, but with sufficient grip to hold the rat for a time. He intended taking the rat to a feed box in the barn, where its fighting qualities could be tested by a terrier. The rat, hanging by its tail, turned around to free itself from the pinchers. Finding that the pinchers were harder than its teeth, it turned its attention to its own tail. It cut with its teeth a ring around the tail and then made a jump. The skin peeled off the tail, leaving the tail covering in the grip of Purcell and the pinchers. It is needless to say that the rat escaped.

Miners believe that rats leave a falling mine. M. W. Kerrigan met a horde of rats one day when he was entering a mine. He attempted to kill them with a stick, but as fast as he knocked one out another took his place. He was accompanied by a dog, and the dog was so badly bitten by the rats that he sought shelter behind Kerrigan. Seeing that the dog was badly injured by the attack of the rats, Kerrigan took him outside the mine to have his injuries attended to. Kerrigan then returned to the workings, but was surprised to find that the entry in which he had met the rats had fallen in during his absence.—Pittsburg News.

Sextons In New York.

"Sexton and Undertaker" is the sign usually found affixed to or near the New York churches, but it does not mean that the sexton actually conducts an undertaker's establishment. He merely contracts for the funerals of the members of the congregation and sublets the work to what are known as wholesale undertakers, who attend to this class of work exclusively.

A 20 per cent commission is the sexton's share of the proceeds, and, taking into consideration the large membership of some of the New York churches and the elaborate funerals that take place almost daily, it can readily be seen that to be a sexton is an honorable calling—for it is a business that brings in the coin. The profits of a sexton in one of the large down town churches are estimated at $10,000 annually from his funeral business alone. Weddings are not so profitable, but they do fairly well and are cheerful. He collects the pew rents and takes his habitual commission: he is paid for opening the church and for closing it and a few other things that keep him from starvation. But there is one thing he must look sharp after, and that is his collections. It is a peculiar fact, but people will stand off a funeral bill as long and as callously as any other.—Exchange.

The Two Admirals.

There are now only two admirals with their flags afloat, namely, Dewey and Sir John O. Hopkins of the British navy. France has no grade in her navy higher than vice admiral, and there is but one officer of this rank, who is now attached to the French admiralty office. Russia also does not recognize a higher grade than vice admiral, and none of her stations is now commanded by officers of higher rank than rear admiral. Great Britain has more admirals than all the other naval powers combined, although the majority of them are members of the admiralty board, one is in command at Portsmouth and another at another important home naval port.

An Unprogressive Settlement.

"Dill writes home," said the old citizen, "that he's only been in New York six weeks, and he's had appendicitis twice. An you moult live a lifetime in this here darned ole settlement an' 'bout all you could hope to have would be plain mumps or measles or slow fever!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Knew Him and Didn't Know Him.

A young couple called at a fashionable boarding house in the west end to engage board. They were from Chicago, and the husband had recently secured an appointment in one of the departments. The landlady, an amiable and pretty, if a trifle faded, little woman, showed the couple the vacant rooms, and one of them was finally accepted.

"Now, you'll want references, of course," said the young wife after the terms had been fixed. Then she mentioned the name of a Washington man of some prominence.

"You know him, or of him, I presume?" she inquired. "He is my husband's uncle."

"Well," replied the landlady, "I cannot precisely say that I know him. Nobody ever really knew him. He's something of a mystery. Now, I was married to him for 12 years, and at the conclusion of that period, when I secured my divorce, I don't think I could have conscientiously placed my hand over my heart and declared that I actually knew him. Some men are so difficult to get acquainted with, you know."

The situation was a bit embarrassing, but the young couple took the room they had decided upon anyhow.—Washington Post.

He Failed to Pass.

General Benjamin F. Butler was one of a commission to examine young applicants for admission to the bar, and before him came a youth who failed miserably on all that pertained to jurisprudence, case law, civil law, sumptuary law, unwritten law and due process of law. Finally Butler, who rather liked the chap and wanted to see him through, asked: "What would you like to be examined in? You have failed in everything we have suggested."

The reply came, "Try me on the statutes; I'm up on them."

Butler shook his head solemnly. "My young friend," he said, "I'm afraid you won't do. You may be ever so familiar with the statutes, but what is to prevent a fool legislature from repealing all you know?"

Kerosene on the Carpet.

If you spill kerosene on the carpet, don't leave it to "evaporate." Cover the place an inch deep with bran or cornmeal and set enough hot irons to cover the spot. Let stand until the irons are cool, then sweep off the meal, and usually there is no trace of the spot. If there is, repeat the operation. Unless the oil is removed the dust settles into it and makes a bad looking place in the carpet.

Financial Advice.

"Here's a man," said the old citizen, "who lost $5,000 in a bank war he put it fer safe keepin. Bill, don't you ever take no risk like that. Ef ever you gits hold of any money, do like your father before you done—bury it, an spon' the rest of your life settin over it with a shotgun!"—Atlanta Constitution.

He Deals In Snow.

The Prince of Palermo is said to owe his wealth chiefly to the trade in snow, of which he has a monopoly. The snow is brought at night in baskets on mule back from the mountains to the coast and shipped to the Italian cities, where it is sold at 2 and 3 cents a pound.

A Maidenly Device.

Evelyn—So, you've broken off with Jack again?
Edna—Oh, yes, I'm tired of the old ring and the old man.

Clerical Errors.

An evidence of the errors made by the clerks in copying bills passed by the Legislature can be found in the town charter of Greenville which we are now publishing. For instance in Section 7 at (14) it says the Aldermen shall have power to "contract" the sale or use of fireworks, while it was "control" in the original bill. Again in Sec. 23 it says that applicants for license to retail liquors must state the place and "charaction" of their business. No doubt this word should read "character," but we are printing it from a certified copy of the Secretary of State and give it just as it is. There may be other error; equally as bad.

The busy fly is no doubt a believer in the open door policy, but much to his disgust the screen door policy is being adopted.

A hard-hearted Frankford boarding house mistress has evicted one of her boarders who recently lost his position because she doesn't trust idle roomers.

"What is the meaning of this?" demanded the customer hotly, as by the aid of the mirror he detected a pucker across the back of his new coat. "Oh," replied the quick-witted tailor promptly, "that is—er—the last wrinkle, sir."

About the Same.

For a business man to say to the advertising solicitor: "Oh! goodness, no. It's too dull to advertise now. Wait until times pick up a little," is equivalent to a very sick person saying to a physician: "Oh! no, doctor, I can't take any of your medicine now. I'm too sick. Wait until I get better, and then I'll take it." When the patient gets well—if he ever does—he will not be in need of medicine. The best time to advertise is when the need of stimulant is the greatest, and that is when business is dull.—F. J. Haskin.
