AYDEN COMMENCEMENT.

Close of Free Will Baptist Seminary.

The commencement exercises of the first session of the Free Will Baptist Seminary at Ayden took place on Friday, 9th inst. A large crowd was present and the interesting programme was very much enjoyed.

The exercises began at 11 o'clock, and after the opening prayer by Rev. Mr. Phillips and two songs by the pupils Miss Emma Lee, of Dunn, one of the students of the Seminary, arose to introduce the speaker of the occasion. Her introductory remarks were as follows:

The long hand upon the dial-plate of the centuries, points to one word—progress. Each decade demands deeper convictions, a broader culture, a more elevated standard of citizenship than its predecessor. The greatest of American orators and statesmen has said: "The most awful thought that ever presented itself to my mind is that of my personal responsibility to God." Next to this, in solemnity we would place our duty to the State.

It is our privilege to listen today to one whose life is a noble lesson in civics. In accepting our invitation to deliver the annual address, our venerable friend expressed a sentiment, which has dominated a long life of distinguished service. His response was—"If I can serve the people of your community and the patrons and pupils of your school on that occasion, you may command my services."

So it has always been while wearing the numerous political honors which it has pleased a grateful people to bestow; he has been always the plain unassuming Christian gentleman, the brave soldier, a man of the people, the secret of whose usefulness has been his willingness to serve. I have the honor of presenting to this audience Ex-Gov. T. J. Jarvis, of Greenville.

Gov. Jarvis in acknowledgement of this said that in his long career as a public speaker he had been introduced to audiences by many different people, but never before had he been presented by a lady in such beautiful language as this. Man can have no higher motto than "I serve" and in any sphere of life to be a true servant of your fellowman is an honor to be held in high esteem. He was present on this occasion to serve, as best he could, those before him and he wished to make a plain, practical talk that even the humblest might understand and have something to take home with them to reflect upon.

Gov. Jarvis announced for his subject "The Home and the School." He spoke at some length upon the influence that goes out into the world from the home, and this influence can be measured for good or evil according to the character of those who occupy the home. The very foundation of our nation rests upon the influence that emanates from the ideal home. Such home is not confined to the palace or mansion, but is oftenest found in the cottage or even the humblest cabin. He enlabeled the consecrated, cultured, Christian mother in the home as yielding the most powerful influence known to the world. The school is second in influence only to the home, for it is here that the foundation laid in the home is builded upon and the structure of true manhood and womanhood is developed. The speaker enlarged upon the importance of having only the best and most careful instructors in our schools. One strong sentence that he uttered in this connection was that "no man who visits a barroom is fit to occupy the teacher's desk or to stand in the sacred pulpit."

Space will not permit a fuller synopsis of Gov. Jarvis' excellent address which was of such a nature as to be of much value to all so fortunate as to hear it, and was listened to intently by the large audience.

The commencement exercises closed with a splendid concert at night.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, June 10, '99.

Winchester bicycles for sale at B. F. Manning & Co's.

Mr. J. L. Sugg was in town yesterday afternoon.

People were coming and going yesterday listing taxes.

The A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is prepared to furnish meal and corn.

Don't fail to see F. O. Cox before shipping your Irish potatoes.

A. G. Cox will pay cash for 100 cows, steers and yearlings.

There was lots of grain sown in this section, and farmers are busy now cutting and saving it.

We were glad to have a call from Hon. T. J. Jarvis and the editor of THE REFLECTOR yesterday evening.

F. O. Cox and B. F. Manning in digging a well this week were bothered badly by gas, a man not being able to stay in the well more than about half hour at the time. Twenty seven feet below the surface they also found some chips seemingly cut with an axe, which are great curiosities.

FARMERS—Have you decided the fine question yet? If so you would do well to put in your order with us at once. If you haven't decided, let us reason with you and help you to decide as curing time will soon be here and you want to be right ready when it comes.

A. G. Cox Mfg Co.

Did You Forget?

In the midst of such sweltering as this one consolation comes to us, and that is it cuts off fuel bills. Nothing is quite so bad that it is without its compensating features.—Henderson Gold Leaf.

How about the ice dealer, Thad? You must have forgotten that this very weather that kicks out the coal dealer lets down the gap to the ice dealer. And of the two evils—but it's too hot to prolong that sentence.

Round Trip to Morehead.

The fare to the Teachers' Assembly from Greenville next week will be as follows: Railroad $3.15, to which add $2.00 for gentlemen and $1.00 for ladies and you have $5.15 for gentlemen and $4.15 for ladies. WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
Washington, D. C., June 9, '99

When the influences which were brought to bear in his favor were considered, the ease with which Henderson, of Iowa, knocked out all the other candidates for Speaker and made his own election certain had nothing wonderful about it. It was a simple case of cause and effect. The principal factor in his speedy success was the tip given out by the administration in his favor. That tip was a little bit puzzling at first, because it had been understood that the administration was rather inclined to favor Sherman when Reed's retirement first became known. There were several reasons for the transfer of the favor of the administration from Sherman to Henderson. Mr. McKinley was jealous of the influence that Tom Reed would have with Sherman, wished to jolly the West by aiding it to capture the Speakership, and was most anxious, of all to put a man in the Speaker's chair who could not become a candidate for President—Henderson's birthplace was Scotland. The great personal popularity of Henderson made it easier to engineer the stampede to him than it would have been to any other man who was named as a candidate. While no man in Congress is a stronger partisan than "Dave" Henderson, no man in Congress has fewer personal enemies than he. What his policy as Speaker will be is yet to be ascertained. As a member of Reed's committee on Rules he always helped to carry out the Reed programme.

The most interesting bit of political gossip of the week is that in addition to practicing law in New York, Mr. Reed intends to retain his seat in the House and to take an important part in all discussions that will give him a chance to pay off an old score or to push himself to the head of his party. Although this is only a rumor, with the probabilities strongly against it, there is alarm in administration circles on account of it. There is no doubt that Mr. Reed could make a lot of trouble for the administration should he set up as a free lance on the floor of the House, as he is known to be opposed to the policy of the administration on a number of important questions. Mr. McKinley would much sooner have Reed in the Speaker's chair, where his party responsibility would act as a restraint, than to have him on the floor armed with a club and looking out for heads to crack, with no responsibility to anything except his constituents. This gossip is likely to continue until Mr. Reed resigns as a member of the House, which nobody seems to know when he will do, if at all.

Boss Hanna is trying to enact the role of the boy who has to be begged to play. He says he doesn't wish to remain at the head of the republican National Committee, during next year's campaign, because his health, for which he has been ordered to Europe, isn't what it was, and because there is so much work attached to the position that it allows him no opportunity to indulge in recreation and diversions. He gave the whole snap away by adding that the position might be forced upon him again, in which case he would take it, but he wanted it known that he would do so against his wishes. Tommyrot every word of it. Hanna would throw a series of fits if he thought any other man would be put at the head of the republican committee. Owing to his numerous trust connections, he is making a grandstand play, intended to convince jays that he doesn't wish to manage the campaign.

Ex-Congressman Follet, of Ohio, is sanguine that the democrats have more than a fighting chance to carry that State this year. He said: "The democrats of Ohio have solid grounds for believing that they can elect the Governor this year. The revolt among the republicans who dislike Senator Hanna and his methods, and who are dissatisfied with the nomination of Judge Nash, will split the republican party asunder. In fact, the breach between the factions is too wide to be healed, and all talk of harmony is for effect. The Ohio democracy is going into this campaign united, confident and enthusiastic, while the opposition, conscious of the division in its ranks, is timid and dubious of the result."

A handsome and life-like marble bust of Hon. Wm. J. Bryan, made by order of a number of Washington democrats to be presented to Mrs. Bryan on her birthday, is on exhibition in Washington.

The difference between enthusiasm and cold cash is being exemplified by the slow growth of the fund for the purchase of a Washington house for Admiral Dewey. Subscriptions come in slower and slower and the total is still less than $7,000.

No official news from the Philippines has been given out this week although it is known that long dispatches have been received both from Gen. Otis and from Mr. Schurman, President of the Philippine Commission. It is also known that these dispatches did not agree in conclusions reached. Replies were sent to both, and Secretary Hay made public an official denial of the report that the civil commissioners were to be ordered home.

Every community has a ghoul or grave digger whose work it is to exhume the dead past and keep it in perpetual remembrance. It is human nature to err and it is also possible for human nature to try to reform and live down the past. This a man or a woman might do if it were not for the reputation snatcher, whose deed is even blacker than the body snatcher, for it drags back to life some fault for which no doubt ample repentance and bitter penance has been done. Every town has its share of these ghouls who never forget somebody's past sins of commission and are never more full of ghoulish glee than when bringing these unsavory sins into the broad light of publicity. Nowadays when the world teems with so many wonderful and beautiful things with which to fill the mind, how terribly empty and barren must be the mind that depends for its mental food only upon the knowledge of somebody's scandalous past conduct. A good memory is a great blessing but there are some people who would be mightily improved by cultivating the art of forgetfulness.—Orange Va. Observer.

Educate Your Bowels With Cascarets.
Candy Cathartic, cure constipation forever. 10c, 25c. If C. C. C. fail, druggists refund money.

No greater danger menaces the peace, happiness and prosperity of the toiling wage earners, and product producers, than does the daily formation of the gigantic combine, trust and monopolies. There is now scarcely a single important industry in this God blessed country of ours that is not controlled by them. The rich, by throwing their millions together, are monopolizing everything and bleeding the farmers at every pore. The condition of affairs in this country is deplorable and is daily growing worse and for no other reason than the concentration of all the wealth into the hands of the few to the destruction of the many. The greatest danger, the prosperity and happiness of our poorer class of people have to combat, is not so much imperialism as it is the concentration and combination of the wealth here at home. What can be done? What ought to be done is this, the people by all means should cry out against those who favor unlawful combines, put them out and put men of sterling character who would destroy them. This the only hope for the poor man and this is what must come soon or late.—Wilksboro Chronicle.

To Cure Constipation Forever.
Take Cascarets Candy Cathartic. 10c or 25c. If C. C. C. fail to cure, druggists refund money.

BUCK'S JUNIOR RANGE

Every little girl wants it, and one little girl shall have it. On the 15th of July we will present it to the little girl under fourteen years of age, who cuts out the greatest number of Buck's Trade Marks in the advertisement below and brings them to our store. They must be done up in neat packages and the number and name written plainly on each package. Now girls get your friends to help you, save every Trade Mark and see who can win the prize.

Respectfully,

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by The Orange Va. Observer.

The flannel cakes of flattery make the best diet for fools.

Some men are most popular where they are the least known.

The difference between the fly and the wasp is only in the finishing touch.

The weather this week has been hot enough to sour the "milk of human kindness."

Open air concerts will take place in Orange this summer under the musical directorship of the mosquito.

A poet writes of a "sun-kissed face," as though it were something new under the sun. Sun kissed faces are every day visions in Orange.

Now doth the little busy ant improve every pic-nic chance—it bathes its feet in cream and pie and dries them on our pants.

Love may rule the court, the camp and the grove, but for a good moving cause what is better than a healthy green cucumber, which isn't afraid of paregoric?

A concert will be given in the opera house, Monday night, for the benefit of a most worthy object. Our people should give it a liberal patronage.

No man liveth to himself nor for himself altogether. To a certain extent where community interests are concerned each of us must be our brother's keeper.

Single handed and alone it is difficult for one man to accomplish much in any public undertaking, but with co-operation and concert of action all things are possible.

A colored man who was working out a $15 fine on the streets skipped about three weeks ago. Mayor Forbes picked the man up in Washington and brought him back here Friday.

MALE HELP WANTED.—Salesman. Cotton Mills and other employers of power buyers. Also stores, R. R.'s. etc. Agent in Mass. Cotton town earned $1,700 in 1898. P. O. 1371, New York.

H. C. Hooker is now in the small store next door to Miss Alice Carson's millinery store where he has his goods saved from the recent fire. He is going to close out the entire lot regardless of cost and is offering bargains.

KEEP CLEAN—The coming of warm weather reminds you of your linen. You want it clean and well laundered. Any of our patrons can tell you where they get the best work.
