NEW COACH.

A Nice one Now on This Road.

For sometime past THE REFLECTOR has been calling attention of the railroad authorities to the bad condition of the first-class passenger coach on this road, and asking them to give us a better one. Mr. H. A. White, Vice-President of the Greenville Chamber of Commerce, who recently spent some days at Wilmington and Wrightsville, called personally on Mr. J. R. Kenly, one of the Atlantic Coast Line officials, and brought the matter directly to his attention. Mr. Kenly promised him that the matter should be investigated and such improvement made as was found needed.

This promise of Mr. Kenly has been well kept, for going out to the depot this morning we were gratified to see a splendid first-class coach attached to the passenger train, and now the conditions are in keeping with the travel on this road. THE REFLECTOR believes that not only the people of Greenville, but also the people all along the road from Kinston to Weldon, will appreciate this improvement in the passenger service.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by The Orange Va. Observer.

Most people believe in a personal religion.

Many a good man becomes a better at a horse race or a prize fight.

The string is apt to break if a girl has too many young men on it.

Some men who assume to be dogmatic only show their puppyism.

The young man's words have the right ring when he proposes to his sweetheart.

A man cannot gather grapes from thistles, but he can get currents from electric wires.

The streets will be kept clean now—the ladies have commenced wearing sweeping dresses.

The heathen bows down to wood and stone—the enlightened people kneel to a god of gold.

UNCLE WAYBACK'S PHILOSOPHY.

I hev noticed that suitable marriages plees everybody but the contractin parties.

Thet a parson's pants generally wear out at the seat afore they duf in at the knees.

Thet lazy men allers hev smart wives.

Thet most preachers think the Lord is deaf.

Thet wise men sometimes learn ov fools, but then fools don't learn ov wise men.

Thet you can't tell the size ov a man by the noise he makes.

Thet a pound of perswashun is better than a ton ov compulsion.

Thet "thank ye" pays a pile of debts.

Special Meeting.

On Monday, July 10th, 1899, the Board of County Commissioners will hold a special meeting for the purpose of hearing complaints of any and all persons who are not satisfied with the valuation placed upon their lands by the appraisers.

Died.

At the residence of Mr. John Murphy at half past one o'clock on the morning of Friday, June the 30th, Miss Penelope Dudley in the 70th year of her age. Her remains were interred in the old family burying ground about four miles from town Friday afternoon, Rev. I. A. Canfield conducting the services at the grave.

Aunt Penny as so many people loved to call her, joined the Missionary Baptist church when a young woman, but after leaving her old home she never moved her membership as she lived for years in a neighborhood where there was no church of this denomination, but while taking no active part in any particular church work she was ever ready and willing to do any kindness, especially for the sick and for little children. She said only a short while before her death "I belong to Jesus, I love Him and know that He loves me." Mr. Adolphus Dudley is her only living brother and she leaves two aged sisters, Mrs. Jennette Dudley and Miss Melvinie Dudley, to tarry here yet a little while until the Death angel shall whisper to them, too, to cross over the river and rest under the shade of the trees.

Porterfields Creditors Get Nothing.

The application of the North Carolina creditors of Porterfield and Company, the stock brokers of this city who recently made an assignment, for the appointment of receivers, has been denied by the court, upon the ground, it is stated, that the counsel for the company admitted that the business was one of gambling, and that gambling debts cannot be collected by law. If this is true, it is held that it makes the firm guilty of crime, and an attempt will be made to secure the indictment of the firm in North Carolina, and application may be made for the requisition of the partners to that State. There seems now in view or the decision of the court, no prospect of the creditors of the defunct brokerage firm ever getting their money.—Charlotte News.

Convicted of Lynching.

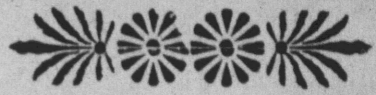

Richmond, July 1.—In the County Court of Patrick, today, C. J. Thompson, L. D. McMillan, Madison Montgomery, Jr., H. I. Montgomery, Robert Montgomery, and W. M. Branch, all white, were convicted of murder in the second degree in lynching Lee Puckett, white, for attempted criminal assault on a young lady.

Puckett was a discharged lunatic. Thompson was given six and the other five years each in the penitentiary. The jury were out only thirty minutes. This is said to be the first case of its kind in Virginia.

Jr. O. U. A. M., of Fayetteville.

Rev. C. A. G. Thomas was elected Supreme Chaplain of the Junior Order of United American Mechanics at Minneapolis last week. This is a worthy selection of a loyal Junior. This order which has 180,000 members has changed its name to United Americans, which is more expressive of their principles.

S-say on Clothes.

We are writing about Clothes because we are "THE KING CLOTHIER." It is our "line" and we are proud of it. The Child, the Boy, the Youth, and the grown-up Man, all have a prominent place in our mind. Our CHILDREN DEPARTMENT was somewhat disfigured by the fire-but we still have some rare bargains in it that are the real stuff. For instance we can sell you a BOPS 2-PIECE SUIT for 65 cents or a PAIR of PANTS for 10 cts. Now ain't that Bargains? If you see the goods you'll agree with us. These Suits fit, they are stylish, strongly sewed and made of good material. There is a great future for the boy who wears our Clothes. Provided his habits are as correct as his clothes. And in Mens Wear, too, we are "roosting on the highest limb." The fire destroyed a great many of our Suits but we have them from $2.50 up. We can fit you.

"Breathes there a man so stout or slim
That clothiers fall of fitting?
Let him take heart, for if he tries
In our store he'll find his size.
No shape or style do we omit
To fit men who are hard to fit."

We guard the QUALITY of our stock with sleepless vigilance. Never is a poor article allowed in our stock. New line of

COLLARS -- COLLARS

This chance WILL NOT LAST ALWAYS.

My trade last week was very satisfactory and I still have a goodly number of those choice bargains left.

WHEN I GET IN MY NEW STORE YOU WILL WISH YOU HAD BOUGHT THEM

WHERE WILL THEY STOP?

The Trust mania is spreading. It struck Greenville Saturday and all day its subtle poisonous influence could be felt in the air. A bright young man, who had been a buyer on the Greenville tobacco market, arrived from Danville on Friday. Saturday morning a shrewd reticent lawyer arrived from Wilson by way of Kinston, and he and the young man from Danville were soon closeted together. In a short while the owners and lessees of the tobacco warehouses were sent for and all day the mysterious conferences were going on at the Hotel Macon. We have not been able to get at the exact status of affairs, but enough is known to justify us in saying that a movement is on foot to put the warehouses of Greenville and other eastern towns in the Danville Tobacco Warehouse Trust. When this is accomplished then we predict that many of the markets will be closed and the tobacco growers forced to ship their tobacco to certain markets to be handled by the Trust upon its own terms. It may be that Greenville will be one of the closed towns and its unoccupied warehouses will stand as sad monuments of the desolation and ruin wrought by the Trusts.

There are some things so clean cut and simple that no man can fail to understand unless he be blinded by partisan zeal. Among these we mention these facts. Since McKinley and the Republican party came into power the 4th of March, 1897, Trusts and combinations have multiplied, grown and prospered and they are still multiplying and absorbing 'till no one can tell where they will stop. Republican policies and practices foster and protect Trusts and the people need not expect to overthrow the Trusts until they overthrow the Republican party and repudiate its policies. Republican conventions and Republican politicians may declare against Trusts but as long as the Trusts go on multiplying and prospering under Republican policies the people will not be deceived by these meaningless declarations. The people we believe are becoming more and more alarmed at the rapid growth of these Trusts and unless we mistake the signs of the times we predict they will force men and parties to make the an-ihilation of these Trusts the great issue in the great battle of 1900. The promoters of these Trusts may feel that McKinley and the Republican party is sure to win in 1900 and that therefore the Trusts are safe. It would seem from the manner in which they are multiplying them and spreading them out that they have this confidence in the success of McKinley and his party. They seem not to consider that there is a point beyond which they cannot safely go. That point, in our humble judgment, has been reached. Will they stop there? It seems not. Flushed with success and blinded by greed they rush madly on. If Democrats will cease their bickerings, get together, select candidates and leaders in whom the people have confidence and meet the Republican party fairly and squarely on its Trust policies and productions they can win in 1900 if it has the courage and the wisdom to seize upon it. Will it do it? We have faith that it will.

The Tobacco Combine.

Danville, Va., June 29.—The formation of a trust with a million dollars capital, three-fourths of which comes from unknown Northern and English capitalists to control the leaf tobacco warehouses of Danville and the sale of all leaf tobacco raised in the great bright tobacco belt of Virginia and the Carolinas, continue to be the principal topic for discussion and comment in this entire section of the country. This is but natural, inasmuch as bright tobacco is the one overshadowing money crop in this region. Tobacco is the principal industry of Danville and its neighboring towns. All the bright tobacco grown, one hundred to two hundred million pounds annually, is sold at auction in the warehouses in Danville and about 25 smaller towns in Virginia and North Carolina, Danville being the central and largest market, the sales here annually reaching 50,000,000 pounds. For nearly half a century this warehouse system has been operated with success, and the relations between the farmer and the warehousemen have become very intimate, the latter being, in fact, the farmer's agent to sell his product to the manufacturer, the foreign buyer, the speculator, etc. The warehouseman has ever posed as the farmer's friend, standing between him and all outside foes, and especially protecting him against trusts, monopolies and combines.

Now that the warehouseman has gone into a trust, become a part of a combine, and seeks to monopolize the whole tobacco business, the farmer is startled, frightened and indignant. He thinks he sees the last plank to which he clung shivered before his eyes. Since the news went out that the trust had been formed and that the combine had bought up all the Danville warehouses, farmers have been pouring into town to inquire into the matter.

The warehousemen have been kept busy since their return from New York, where the combine was formed, explaining to the many farmers who have rushed to town that the trust was formed in their interest and that they are not going to be hurt, but the farmers are taking these explanations with many grains of allowance. Some of these farmers are men of means, and quite a number of this class have been and are now consulting with city capitalists with a view to organizing a stock company to build and conduct independent warehouses.

The smaller markets, too, are up in arms against the new million-dollar trust, for the very first announcement of the trust's policy—indeed, the only announcement so far made as to its policy—is an aggressive movement to be made against the smaller markets, such as South Boston, Keysville, Chat-ham, Martinsville, Clarksville, Boydton, and Chase City, in Virginia, and Reidsville, Greensboro, Winston, Oxford, Durham, Henderson, Roxboro, Milton, etc., in North Carolina. The effort will be made to force the leaf tobacco to this market direct from farmers' hands, thus drying up all the nearby smaller markets and making those farther away, in Eastern North Carolina and South Carolina, simply tributary to the one great central market.

Such a policy, if successful, would redound to Danville's interest in general, and so, while Danville is politically and theoretically opposed to trusts, it is very much inclined to give this particular trust a very fair showing. However, there are men of large means here who think if the trust can make money by selling leaf tobacco on commission, they can also do it, and they are at present much disposed to take advantage of the strong anti-trust sentiment among the farmers and representatives of the smaller markets, and join with them and build two or more independent warehouses.

Lengthy consultations are being held daily behind closed doors, and a second tobacco warehouse combine may be announced at any moment. In the meantime the trust people are not idle and are making the most of their declaration that the trust will do great things for Danville and increase her leaf tobacco sales to a hundred millions or more annually.—Baltimore Sun.

WINE OF CARDUI MONTHLY SUFFERING.

Thousands of women are troubled at monthly intervals with pains in the head, back, breasts, shoulders, sides, hips and limbs. But they need no suffer.

These pains are symptoms of dangerous derangements that can be corrected. The menstrual function should operate painlessly.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

makes menstruation painless, and regular. It puts the delicate menstrual organs in condition to do their work properly. And that stops all this pain. Why will any woman suffer month after month when Wine of Cardui will relieve her? It costs $1.00 at the drug store. Why don't you get a bottle to-day?

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, "The Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

TYPE AND PRESS.

WHO WANTS IT? SPEAK QUICK.

THE REFLECTOR recently purchased two printing office outfits and has a quantity of surplus material that will be sold cheap. There is a cylinder press large enough to print a nine column paper, in splendid condition, and a quantity of Small Pica, Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpariel body type. We can furnish a complete outfit large enough for a six or seven column paper.

Specimens of the body type are shown in this advertisement, the type being taken from the case just as it runs, so it shows for itself how well it prints. This is the Small Pica size of which there is 1 pair of cases.

Then here is a paragraph set from the Long Primer size. We have 4 pairs of these cases. In buying this type you do not get something that is worn out and cast aside, but a good serviceable type, capable of much wear.

Here is something a little smaller, Brevier size. There are 2 pairs of these and it is a bargain for somebody interested in printing. It may not come but once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given for buying type as cheap as we will sell these lots.

Again we have 1 pair of cases of this Nonpariel size, a very useful type in any printing office. Cases will be sold with the type of all sizes. Any printer who can use any or all of this type can make us a spot cash offer. While we prefer a customer for a whole outfit, press and type, one case of type will be sold if no more is wanted.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Wesley Booth, a white man 83 years old who lived near Cary, was killed by a train Saturday afternoon. He was drunk and drove on the railroad track ahead of a train.

There is a preacher in Durham who says he has tramped 20,000 miles and preached the gospel in every section of the country. He travels without purse or scrip, and does not carry an extra coat. His only baggage consists of an old pair of saddle-bags in which he carries his food from one place to another.

In New York Tuesday a negro killed a saloon-keeper, on Amsterdam avenue. The block was surrounded and the negro captured. A large crowd collected and insisted on lynching the murderer, but one hundred policemen got the negro safely to prison by disguising him as a woman. About the same hour a mob was doing its best to fasten a clothes line around the neck of a white man who had assaulted a little girl, and in this case the arrival of sufficient police power was all that prevented a lynching. Affairs of this kind occur almost weekly in and around the large cities, and the only obstacle in the way of the criminal being swung to a lamp post or elevated railroad is the arrival of the police. It is about time these facts were being considered by the newspapers and speakers of the North.—Charlotte Observer.

Marriage Licenses.

During last week Register of Deeds Moore issued marriage licenses for four couples all colored. For the month of June the total number was twenty-one, ten for white couples and eleven for colored.

RICH'S PATENT "Julia Marlowe"

Shoes and Oxfords

ELASTIC GORING OVER INSTEP.

Original in design. Attractive in appearance and Perfect Fit—Fascinate and Captivate the wearer At First Trial.

Probably no shoes have ever been introduced that have made so many friends in so short a time.

A Few Points wherein the Julia Marlowe styles differ from other shoes.

They fit like a glove. They never pinch the foot. They are beautiful in design. They fit high or low insteep. They yield to every action of the foot. They conform in vital points to the shape of the wearer's foot instead of pressing the foot into the shape of the shoe.

THE FRIENDLY TIP.

Kind friends! we greet you once again,
And take another look
Within the volume that you see—
It is our bargain book.
We've pored its pages o'er and o'er,
To see if we could clip
A cheering word for customers,
Who want a friendly tip!

Of all the seasons of the year,
This is the one we like;
In this, of all the many months,
Great bargains you can strike.
Don't pass our store, or you'll regret,
As down the street you trip,
We're waiting for you, one and all,
To give a friendly tip!

Our counters are piled high with goods,
Fresh, beautiful and fine;
Our shelves are stocked with novelties
In each and every line.
Come one and all, and come at once,
Don't let your chances slip,
And as a present we will give
You all a friendly tip!

For one and all, for old and young,
For every choice and taste,
We have the goods to suit and please,
So come, and come in haste
We'll bring delight to every heart,
A smile to every lip,
OUR STOCK IS FINE, OUR PRICES LOW,
This is our friendly tip!
