WEDNESDAY, JULY 12, 1899

The Durham Herald well says:

"If the farmers would back up the local warehousemen it would be no trouble to throttle the warehouse trusts."

This is right. The farmers are not so much at the mercy of the trust as some would have them believe. The trust is a failure without tobacco, and where the goods that are wanted and must be had are for sale, the trust must go there to buy. If the charge that a trust has been organized to control the places of sale, or rather to compel, so far as it can, the sale at a certain place or a few places and close warehouses established at other places is true, then the farmers should organize to resist this by sticking to their local markets. Let every tub stand on its own bottom. The trust cannot succeed in closing warehouses unless the owners thereof sell out to it, and this they are not compelled to do; and if they do it may be known they receive more from the trust than they could expect from the handling of the product on their own floors. There is no law, human or divine, that we are aware of which will prevent sales under such circumstances, or circumstances which are satisfactory to owner and seller, and buyer; but neither is there, or can there be any enactment which will compel the trust or any one else to buy on any particular market or at all.

But the trust and all others engaged in manufacturing are compelled to buy or go out of business, and rather than go out of business will buy, somewhere, and anywhere the best goods can be had. The farmers therefore can be as powerful, if they will, as the trust. They can say of themselves where they will sell, if they cannot regulate the prices at which they will sell. It is an insult to the spirit of independence as well as intelligence of our farmers to say they can be made mere vassals by a few shrewd men. Let them be as determined and as united as those with whom they deal can be, and they will compel the consideration due them. We have not lost faith in the people, nor do we believe that they can be "injured" for long by any combination. Mutual dependence will yet assert itself and re-establish the equilibrium according as conditions may require and intelligence dictate.—Raleigh Post.

LOST.—Many golden opportunities have been lost by those who suffer from rheumatism. By taking RHEUMACIDE now they will be permanently and positively cured.

Coroner.—Were there any marks about the deceased by which you would be able to identify him? Witness—Yis, sor. He stuttered.—Chicago Tribune.

Greensboro's Gala Week.

The state firemen's tournament will be held in Greensboro, August 1st, 2d, 3rd, and 4th, and the people of that progressive city propose to celebrate the occasion in a fitting manner. The celebration will be turned into a "gala week" of the rarest enjoyment, and all who attend will be made to feel at home in the "Gate City" of North Carolina.

In addition to the meeting of the North Carolina State Firemen's Association, and the many interesting events incident thereto, such as quick-steaming contests, reel races, hook and ladder races, etc., there will be many other interesting and instructive features. On Tuesday, August 1st, a road congress will be held, and addresses will be made by Prof. J. A. Holmes state geologist, and other prominent and well-informed people on the subject of good roads. Tuesday night the annual meeting of the State Horticultural Society will be held. The grand street parade and spectacular trades display will come off Wednesday morning, and this feature alone will be worth traveling miles to see. Wednesday afternoon will be devoted to horse-racing. Liberal purses are offered and some of the finest blooded stock extant will be on the turf. The half-mile track has been put in splendid condition for the occasion and those who attend may confidently expect to see some interesting races. The industrial exhibit, the trades display and the fine arts exhibit will be specially attractive. Two spacious exhibit halls have been secured, and two of the finest bands in the state will give continuous concerts. No admission will be charged to anything, except the horse races.

Greensboro is putting on her Sunday clothes for this event and her citizens are bubbling over with enthusiasm. Tremendous crowds are anticipated and everybody that comes may feel that they will be properly cared for. Not only the hotels and boarding houses but the private homes of citizens will be thrown open to visitors. If you go to Greensboro you will not be "a stranger in a strange land," but you will be the guest of the most hospitable people on the globe. They will take you by the hand and make you feel that you are among friends.

The railroad rates are so low as to enable all to attend. Tickets will be sold on a basis of one first-class fare for the round trip. Tickets will be on sale July 31, and August 1, 2, and 3, good to return until August 7. On August 2 and 3 (Wednesday and Thursday) a rate of practically one cent a mile will prevail. This rate will apply to points within 150 miles of Greensboro and extend beyond that distance to include Wilmington, Kinston, Rocky Mount and Asheville.

A Morganton special to the Charlotte Observer says a strange fatality seems to attend the Houston family of that place. Early in May three members of the family died of smallpox, these being the only deaths from that disease in Morganton. Two other members of the family were recently discharged from the pest house cured. Saturday morning one of these, a young man, Sandy Houston by name, shot his sister-in-law, the widow of a brother who had died with smallpox. The woman has since died. Both parties claimed that the shooting was accidental but the neighbors say that a violent quarrel was in progress when the shooting occurred. Young Houston is in jail awaiting an investigation.

Woman

When a girl gets married the women inquire "how her mother took it," as though it was a funeral.

A wedding isn't perfectly satisfactory to the women unless it costs so much they can abuse somebody afterwards for spending so much.

A woman has few friends who do not wonder, when her engagement is announced, if she used hypnotism.

The world is getting easier for the women. They can buy everything cooked, everything ready-made, and men are becoming more subdued every day.

An Acheson woman is so fond of writing notes that she sends one upstairs to her husband to tell him that breakfast is ready.

An Acheson woman gave a party recently at which there was to be no gossip or "criticism" of any one else. The guests left at nine o'clock in order to talk about the hostess at the next corner.

Another old girl in town has joined the Pit-a-Pat society. This society's members are women whose hearts act strangely at the approach of a man.—Acheson Globe.

The total value of property lost on account of the Cuban war, says the Havana correspondent of the Louisiana Planters, is estimated at $500,000,000 in round numbers, and the island will need, even provided foreign capital comes to it as abundantly as previously, six or eight years to retrieve its former prosperity. The value of the exports dropped from $100,000,000 in 1895 to $20,000,000 on January 1, 1899.—American Grocer.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

WINE OF CARDUI

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefitted by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and doctors could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."

Mrs. L. I. Moore went to Wilson this morning to visit relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ficklen left Tuesday afternoon for Morehead City.

A Fall of Babies.

There was a fall in babies last week in New York that was a record breaker. John Mason, fourteen months old dropped from a fourth story, struck an awning and landed in a basket of waste. He is in condition to consume a full share of soothing syrup.

John O'Brien, a sixteen-months old boy, fell thirty-two feet and demolished a friendly pile of ashes. Papa is still liable to walk the floor at midnight squeezing the colic out of him.

Father's Skin to Save Child.

Next week at St. Joseph's Hospital, in Marsfield, Wis., doctors will perform a delicate operation on the five-year-old daughter of John Beickmar.

It will be the grafting of a large area of skin on the child. The father will submit to have the skin removed from his body to save her life.

The little one was almost fatally burned four weeks ago when her clothes caught fire. On nearly one-third of the surface of her body only the raw flesh remains.—Atlanta Constitution.

The Kissing Bug.

Cities to the north of Wilson have announced with a flourish of trumpets that the kissing bug has visited them. Wilson joins the ranks of the sufferers; for last week Mr. Ernest Meredith, after a nap, woke to find his upper lip swollen, and Dr. Nathan Anderson found on examination that Mr. Meredith had been bitten by the pest known as the "kissing bug."—Wilson News.

Sixty Thousand Dollars for the Fight

San Francisco, July 10.—The managers of Glen park, in this city, have raised their offer of a purse for the Jeffries-Sharkey match to $60,000. Any person who has failed to list property for taxation upon application at that time will be allowed to list the same.

TYPE AND PRESS. Southern

WHO WANTS IT? SPEAK QUICK.

THE REFLECTOR recently purchased two printing office outfits and has a quantity of surplus material that will be sold cheap. There is a cylinder press large enough to print a nine column paper, in splendid condition, and a quantity of Small Pica, Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpareil body type. We can furnish a complete outfit large enough for a six or seven column paper.

Specimens of the body type are shown in this advertisement, the type being taken from the case just as it runs, so it shows for itself how well it prints. This is the Small Pica size of which there is 1 pair of cases.

Then here is a paragraph set from the Long Primer size. We have 4 pairs of these cases. In buying this type you do not get something that is worn out and cast aside, but a good serviceable type, capable of much wear.

Here is something a little smaller, Brevier size. There are 2 pairs of these and it is a bargain for somebody interested in printing. It may not come but once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given for buying type as cheap as we will sell these lots.

Again we have 1 pair of cases of this Nonpareil size, a very useful type in any printing office. Cases will be sold with the type of all sizes. Any printer who can use any or all of this type can make a spot cash order. While we prefer a customer for a whole outfit, press and type, one case of type will be sold if no more is wanted.

Killed Buck With a Hoe.

Elijah Frazier, one of the prosperous young farmers of the Stovall section, on Thursday last killed a big buck on his farm with a hoe. As he went to get over a fence he came face to face with a fine buck, and he frightened it so badly that it ran against a small tree and stunned itself. Mr. Frazier seized the opportunity and dealt the buck a blow over the head with a hoe which he had in his hand at the time, and continued the blows until he had him at his mercy when he cut his throat with his knife. Of course Mr. Frazier enjoyed his venison and was proud of his prize.—Oxford Ledger.

LIGHTNING'S FATAL STROKE

A Man and Two Mules Killed and Several Persons Injured.

Fayetteville, July 10.—News was brought here Saturday of a lamentable catastrophe on Mr. John Kirkpatrick's plantation, in Gray's Creek township, in the southern part of this county, whereby, during a thunderstorm Andrew Murdock was killed, together with two mules, while Mrs. Murdock, a little white boy and Henry Gilmore and a girl, the last two colored, were more or less stunned and injured.

During the prevalence of the storm the party, who were at work on the farm, took refuge under a large tree, under which it had been the custom for the hands to take the noon-day meal. Mr. Murdock was killed instantly. Gilmore was restored to life, but is badly hurt and can hardly recover. Mrs. Murdock was terribly burned on different parts of her body. The colored girl was burned on one foot, while the boy seems to have received serious internal injuries.
