RECENT INVESTMENTS.

Northern and Western Capital In Southern Enterprises.

Mr. Richard H. Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record of Baltimore, spent yesterday in Norfolk, his native place, and in an interview with The Landmark said that never before was there such general prosperity throughout the whole industrial life of the South as at present. Southern cotton-mill business is expanding rapidly and over 1,000,000 spindles; representing upwards of $20,000,000 of new capital, are now being added the number already operating in the South. In the development of iron and coal properties and the building of steel works and kindred enterprises $25,000,000 of new money from the North is now going into the South. The building of new steam railroads and the improvement of old ones and the purchase and development of street-railway systems represent over $100,000,000 of new productive capital for the South; $2,500,000 is being spent on new cottonseed-oil mills; vast tracts of timber land costing in the aggregate some millions of dollars, are being purchased, while minor industries are nearly all sharing in this general advance.

At least $200,000,000 of new money, most of it from the North and West, are now being added to the South's employment-creating and wealth-making capital in these various railroad, cotton, iron, lumber and smaller industrial interests. Moreover, the South itself is steadily increasing its own surplus capital, which is being turned into productive enterprises. These vast investments are worthy of our careful study. They indicate the confidence of the moneyed people of the world in the South's vast natural resources, but if we of the South are wise the magnitude of these investments will be vastly exceeded in the future. It is an easily demonstrable fact that wherever corporations and manufactures are most numerous there the prosperity of agricultural interests and of all classes of the people is the greatest. If we of the South would reap the full harvest of our natural advantages, turn our villages into prosperous towns and our towns into great cities and create employment for everybody, we must give every possible encouragement to capital and to the great corporations which are rapidly pushing America to the front in the world's struggle for commercial, industrial and financial supremacy.

Our country is fast becoming the dominating power in the world's business affairs, but how great a share the South shall win in this contest—the most stupendous and wide-reaching in its influence which the human race has ever known since modern civilization began—must depend upon whether we join forces with the leaders in this great work, or whether we continue, as so often in the past, to ally ourselves with the forces that tend to retard development through the work of political demagogues seeking their own profit. For two years we have been on a rising tide of prosperity, and unless political agitation against sound money and business interests become acute, we may look for a continuance of this great activity which is fast giving the South a position of world-wide influence in iron, steel and cotton manufacture.—Norfolk Va., Landmark.

He Wasn't Joking.

"I had four days' growth of beard on my face when I struck a little town in northern Michigan, said the civil engineer. "I found a little coop of a barber shop near the depot, and I entered it to discover the barber sitting on a bench with his head in his hands. As he roused up I told him to get to work on me, but after looking me over he replied:

"If I shave you you'll have to take the chances!"

"What chances, I asked."

"Well, I've been on a drunk for the last week, and am just on the point of seeing rats. I may get through with it all right, and I may cut your head off."

"The man had a wild look and was all a-tremble," continued the engineer, "and though he smiled as he talked, I saw that he wasn't joking. I went away without getting shaved, and for the next two hours was busy making purchases. As I returned to the depot I looked in on the barber to see how he got along, and found him hanging dead. Just what would have happened had he started to shave me, I don't know, but I've always felt much obliged to the man for putting the case as plainly as he did."—Baltimore Herald.

Original Bryan Man.

Mr. J. H. West, of Greensboro, who was in the city last night, says he is the only original Bryan man in the country. He wears a Bryan button which has been pinned on his coat ever since Bryan was nominated for President at Chicago and says he intends to wear it until the silver leader is either elected president or retires from politics.—Salisbury Sun.

$10,000,000 DAMAGE.

Official Report of the Weather Bureau on the Texas Flood.

Washington, July 15.—The Weather Bureau to-day issued a special bulletin on the recent flood in the Brazos river district, Texas. The bulletin is accompanied by a map and tables showing phenomenal rainfalls.

Prof. H. A. Hazen, in an introductory article, says. "It must be said that, after allowing for all the conditions, we still have a most serious difficulty in accounting for such rains, which are analogous to so-called cloud-bursts, about which nothing is known."

I. M. Cline, the Texas forecast official, says in his report that in places the river was more than twelve miles wide.

"The damage to crops has been very great. There was a large acreage in cotton, corn, sugar cane and other crops. Cotton planters have suffered most. Sugar cane plantations in the Brazos bottoms have suffered much. In some places half the crop has been destroyed. Farming implements, stock and many of the small tenant houses in the bottoms have been washed away. The total loss, judging from the press reports and other available information, will aggregate nearly $10,000,000.

"Action has already been taken by some farmers to plant other crops where cotton and corn have been destroyed. Some cotton will be planted, but to what extent cannot be approximated. It is desired to make the district self-sustaining as soon as possible, and many who have interests along the Brazos consider this the best course to pursue."

LOST.—Many golden opportunities have been lost by those who suffer from rheumatism. By taking Rheumacide now they will be permanently and positively cured.

Chat From Over The Sea.

A French squadron of 20 vessels has arrived at Barcelona, Spain.

Sixty-seven motor cars have started on a race around France—1450 miles.

Many French agriculturists protest against the new Franco-American reciprocity treaty.

A bomb exploded in the house formerly occupied by Prince Pak, in Seoul, Korea, killed two natives.

It is reported that the Franco-American treaty will be discussed by the French Cabinet council and presented to the Chamber of Deputies for ratification in October.

Milk in the Windy City.

The Chicago Tribune figures that if one cow was to give all the milk consumed daily in the city of Chicago she would need to be 127 feet tall and to give 131,000 gallons of milk each day. Estimating that an average cow gives nine quarts of milk a day, it takes between 50,000 and 60,000 cows to supply the average demand. The milk comes into the city in 16,400 eight-gallon cans. To feed Chicago's cows requires each day 3,000 tons of food, exclusive of water. It is estimated that 17,000 people are directly engaged in gathering and distributing the milk supply. If there are 2,000,000 people in Chicago, each on the average consumes about half a pint of milk a day.

BLOOD TELLS.

YES, it is the index to health. If you have had blood you are likely to learn that you have Rheumatism, one of the most horrible diseases to which man is heir. If this disease has just begun its work, or if you have been afflicted for years, you should at once take the wonderful new cure.

RHEUMACIDE

Thousands have been cured. The summer season is the best time to take a rheumatic remedy. Nature will then aid the medicine in effecting a permanent, constitutional cure. People with bad blood are subject to catarrh, indigestion and many other diseases. To be healthy the blood must be pure. RHEUMACIDE is the Prince of blood purifiers. Sold at Wooten's Drug Store. $1.

TYPE AND PRESS.

WHO WANTS IT? SPEAK QUICK.

THE REFLECTOR recently purchased two printing office outfits and has a quantity of surplus material that will be sold cheap. There is a cylinder press large enough to print a nine column paper, in splendid condition, and a quantity of Small Pica, Long Primer, Brevier and Nonpariel body type. We can furnish a complete outfit large enough for a six or seven column paper.

Specimens of the body type are shown in this advertisement, the type being taken from the case just as it runs, so it shows for itself how well it prints. This is the Small Pica size of which there is 1 pair of cases.

Then here is a paragraph set from the Long Primer size. We have 4 pairs of these cases. In buying this type you do not get something that is worn out and cast aside, but a good serviceable type, capable of much wear.

Here is something a little smaller, Brevier size. There are 2 pairs of these and it is a bargain for somebody interested in printing. It may not come but once in a lifetime that an opportunity is given for buying type as cheap as we will sell these lots.

Again we have 1 pair of cases of this Non pariel size, a very useful type in any printing office. Cases will be sold with the type of all sizes. Any printer who can use any or all of this type can make us a spot cash offer. While we prefer a customer for a whole outfit, press and type, one case of type will be sold if no more is wanted.

WINE OF CARDUI

FOR ALL WOMEN

NINE-TENTHS of all the pain and sickness from which women suffer is caused by weakness or derangement in the organs of menstruation. Nearly always when a woman is not well these organs are affected. But when they are strong and healthy a woman is very seldom sick.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

Is nature's provision for the regulation of the menstrual function. It cures all "female troubles." It is equally effective for the girl in her teens, the young wife with domestic and maternal cares, and the woman approaching the period known as the "Change of Life." They all need it. They are all benefited by it.

For advice in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

THOS. J. COOPER, Tupelo, Miss., says: "My sister suffered from very irregular and painful menstruation and could not relieve her. Wine of Cardui entirely cured her and also helped my mother through the Change of Life."

Kentucky has a new post office in Pulaski county named in honor of General Fred Funston, the gallant Kansas fighter in the Philippines.

Railroad Wreck.

We learn that a wreck occurred over on the Plymouth branch of the Atlantic Coast Line two miles this side of Plymouth about 8 o'clock Tuesday evening. There is a lumber road that crosses the Plymouth branch at that point and in crossing the log train ran into the mail train. The engine and mail car were turned over and badly damaged. Several parties were hurt, but none seriously. The mail clerk, A. R. Dupree, was bruised in several places and feet sprained. We could not learn whether any one was hurt on the log train or not, or what damage they received.

Mixed Curds.

On this side of the Kentucky river, in this county, lives a man named Joe Curd. On the other side of the stream lives a man named Joe Curd, he being the nephew of the Joe Curd living on this side of the river. Many years ago they married sisters; both now have grandchildren. A man out here offers a chromo to any one who can unravel the relationship existing between the grandchildren of Joe Curd, Sr., and his nephew, Joe Curd, Jr., and vice versa.

Negro Kills Negro.

Wilmington, N. C., July 17.—This morning about 7 o'clock, at Spring Hope, Brunswick county, seven miles from this city, a negro—Ed Burton—shot and killed another negro—Ben White—who waylaid him, in consequence of an altercation that took place Sunday night between the two at a church. Burton surrendered himself to the sheriff and later was exonerated by the coroner's jury.
