THURSDAY, AUGUST 17, 1899.

Object Lesson for the Southern People.

The city of Philadelphia is one of the richest and most prosperous in the United States, and is regarded as financially the most solid. In Philadelphia more people own their homes, proportionately than in any other city in the country, which is another good sign, and in Philadelphia there are 20,000 factories, the valuation of whose products is over $600,000,000 per annum, and this is another good sign. Philadelphia is within two hours' ride of New York, and still it is not overshadowed. Let us examine into some of the reasons of Philadelphia prosperity; we do not say all of them, but some of them.

In Philadelphia a factory pays taxes on its real estate. There it stops. Upon machinery, upon raw material, upon manufactured products, upon debts due and upon cash on hand no taxes are levied for either State or municipal purposes. A writer in the Louisville Courier-Journal draws a comparison between Louisville and Philadelphia in this respect. He says that in the latter city if a manufacturer invested $100,000 in his business, $20,000 of it being in real estate, he would pay in taxes only $368, while in Louisville he would pay $2,235, or more than seven times as much. The tax rate in Philadelphia is $1.85 for municipal purposes on real estate held and owned by manufacturers; for State purposes nothing.

This is the extent of the taxation levied. In Louisville the rate is $1.84 for municipal purposes and 69½ cents for State purposes, and everything owned by the factory—real estate, raw products, manufactured products, cash due and cash on hand—are all taxed at about 80 per cent of their value. The condition described in Louisville exists pretty generally in all Southern cities, except possibly in those of Alabama, where there are some exemptions.

We cannot say we favor the entire policy of exemption, although it has its good points, but we do heartily favor the policy of encouraging the establishment of manufacturing plants and the establishment of corporations of any kind which are employers of labor. Every one knows the chief reason why the North is rich and prosperous today is on account of its corporations, corporations to which the South pays tribute.

If we had great manufacturing concerns here in this section of country which turned our raw material into finished products; great banking concerns, which would furnish money to conduct operations of business of a large scale; great insurance companies which could take care of our business, both fire and life, how much better off we would be. Millions upon millions of dollars which are sent North every year would in this way be kept at home. Tennessee alone sends out of the State each year over $4,500,000 in insurance premiums. The establishment of such concerns would open careers for our young men, would give employment to labor, and would keep with us money now going away.

We would not write in this strain if we thought we were talking of the impossible or impracticable, but we are not. We have good ground for what we say. We have all the essentials here for a country every whit as progressive and prosperous as New England or Pennsylvania, and yet compared to them we are poor. Ought we not, therefore, to do all in our power to encourage the investment of capital, and the building up of corporations which give employment to labor, instead of giving heed to the demagogic cry which derides them?—Nashville American.

Don't Tobacco Spit and Smoke Your Life Away.

To quit tobacco easily and forever, be magnetic, full of life, nerve and vigor, take No-To-Bac, the wonder-worker, that makes weak men strong. All druggists, 50c or $1. Cure guaranteed. Booklet and sample free. Address Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago or New York.

A Safe and Profitable Agency.

In these days of progress it is natural and inevitable that human agencies in all walks of life should be stimulated by necessity and quickened by competition. This is especially so in the mercantile world; but the progressive merchant, who has learned by experience that good newspaper advertising is the most effective means of keeping in the forefront of the ranks of his competitors, need not dread the rivalry with which he must contend.—Philadelphia Record.

Beauty Is Blood Deep.

Clean blood means a clean skin. No beauty without it. Cascarets, Candy Cathartic clean your blood and keep it clean, by stirring up the lazy liver and driving all impurities from the body. Begin to-day to banish pimples, boils, blotches, blackheads, and that sickly bilious complexion by taking Cascarets,—beauty for ten cents. All druggists. Satisfaction guaranteed, 10c, 25c, 50c.

New Foliage and Blossoms.

An apple tree in a yard in this city, which bore leaves, blossoms and apples, in due season this year, was attacked by the caterpillar scourge about the time the apples were maturing, and stripped of foliage and every apple.

Some days ago the caterpillars took their departure, and since their going the apple tree has started a new covering of leaves and also a second crop of apple blossoms.

Whether it can produce another supply of apples this year remains to be seen.—New Bern Journal.

"I want to tell you something," said a young farmer to the editor of The Greenville News yesterday. "I am just learning the value of advertising to us in the country. I wanted some flannel not long ago and looked over the advertisements in The Semi-Weekly News. I found what I wanted and I make out that in that single transaction I saved enough by studying the advertisements to pay my subscription a year. I find the advertisements as interesting and valuable to me as anything else in the paper. I think farmers will find that it will pay them always to keep track of all advertising changes. They can pick out what they want before they come to town, will know just where to go for it and will save time and money. There are always bargains to be found in the advertising columns."—Greenville, S. C., News.

The desire of the Superintendent of the State's Prison to prevent the purchase of the great Caledonia Farm for the use of the convicts seems to us to be well-supported in common sense. He maintains that the proper plan of support for the Penitentiary is to employ enough of the convicts in farming to make money, which is well-nigh hopeless; and to employ the rest of them in trades, in making bricks, mattresses, building railroads, etc., for profit. He says that the State has farms enough without the Caledonia, and moreover that there is no wood on that farm. There are 7,000 acres of land, and the price asked is $60,000, to raise which our Treasury must issue bonds. We think the farmers of North Carolina and the practical business men will endorse this position. We may say in passing that we know of nothing more hopeful in regard to this institution than the fact that the number of its inmates is surely decreasing by reason of the fact that many counties are employing their criminals in road improvement.—Biblical Recorder.

It rests with you whether you continue the nerve-killing tobacco habit. No-To-Bac removes the desire for tobacco, without nervous distress, expels nicotine, purifies the blood, restores lost manhood, makes you strong in health, nerve, and pocket. Buy and pocket. 100 boxes sold, 400,000 cases cured. Buy No-To-Bac from your own druggist, who will vouch for it. Take it with a will, patiently, persistently. One box, $1, usually cures; 7 boxes, $7.50, guaranteed to cure, or we refund money. Sterling Remedy Co., Chicago, Montreal, New York.

One Little Drop.

One little drop of rain does not produce much moisture; even two or three, or half a dozen, have little effect. But the constant, continual dripping of the rain drop will thoroughly moisten the earth. Just so with advertising. One little skinny advertisement should not be expected to produce very material results in this age of the world, when so much advertising is being done; but persistently keeping at it, if you have something meritorious, scarcely ever fails. Others have, perhaps, been advertising something similar to yours, long before your advertisement appeared, and people may be using that with satisfaction. Do you expect one little announcement of yours is sufficient to make them change? But if your advertisement is placed before them time after time, they will conclude your article has merit, and may be induced to try it, to see if it might not suit them better than the one they are buying.—Shoe and Leather Gazette.

Bitten By a Shark.
Jacksonville, Fla., Aug. 15.—Delano Wood, a 15-year-old boy, while bathing in the river at Panama, near this city, was bitten by a shark and died from his injuries this evening, four hours after the accident. His left leg was almost torn from his body and so badly lacerated that surgical aid was of no avail. The accident is unprecedented in this part of the river, fully 20 miles from the ocean. While small sharks have often been seen near the city, none of this size and ferocity have been known within the memory of citizens now living.

It is now predicted that the Danville Warehouse combine will go to pieces. The management has changed twice since the organization was formed, and is now in third hands. Whether it goes to pieces or not, there is one thing certain; the farmers are strong in their opposition to it, and the opposition is growing vigorously. There is a tide in the affairs of men which sometimes becomes a flood and destroys all combines.—Durham Sun.

THE FURNITURE MEN

It Can be Remedied.

We hear more and more complaints among house keepers of the town about their inability to get servants. Reliable cooks and washerwomen are hard to get, and it seems the large majority of those employed do not keep their positions but a short while. They leave their work without notice and housekeepers have to do the best they can under the circumstances. This all shows the utter unreliability of the colored labor. Our people can settle all this trouble very quickly if they will just make up their minds to do so. They could get a colony of white people to locate here among whom good servants can be found to do their housework, and they could establish a laundry to do the washing. By a little concert of action these things can be readily accomplished and the servant problem will be easily solved.

LITTLEDROPS OF WATER

Make a Pond—Little Drops of News Make a Paper.

Last night was a bad one. The storm keeps right on today. Not a good day for being out of doors. August is overdoing the rain record. Meeting in the Baptist church tonight. The storm seems inclined to wear out its welcome. The storm has caused trouble with telegraph and telephone wires. The weather has for the time being knocked tobacco sales out of the question.

It was twenty years ago this month when the big storm took the Atlantic hotel at Beaufort.

The body of John Worsley, the colored man who was drowned yesterday, was taken to Rocky Mount this morning.

If that storm hung on as many hours in the West Indies as it has been bad here, no wonder it did great damage. We are glad only the edge of it reached these parts.

C. S. Forbes in for a space in THE REFLECTOR today and calls attention to the great line of dry goods he is opening. Everything in his store is brand new and you get the best when you call on him.

Twelve Million Bales.

New Orleans, Aug. 14.—Henry M. Neill, a cotton crop expert, is out with a forecast indicating that the crop now maturing may reach the unprecedented total of 12,000,000 bales. Neill points out that his predictions in other years have been remarkably accurate and adds:

"For the present crop I am satisfied that on the average the promise per acre is fully equal, if not superior, to that of last year at this date. Temperature has been perfect and rainfalls generally sufficient and most opportune, with alteration of fine weather, so that the crop is now very far advanced and so heavily fruited that with ordinary weather a large crop is assured in every State.

"Texas, with the exception of the loss in the Brazos valley, which will hardly reach 100 bales, has been peculiarly favored with alternate rain and sunshine, and now promises the best crop to the acre ever known."

Mr. Neill points out that the crop will soon be independent of the weather, though much shedding may be reported.

The Circuit Court of Appeals at Richmond has decided that a horse or mule under mortgage cannot be seized and confiscated by the government when found attached to a load of blockade whiskey or other contraband goods. In such cases, says the court, the animal must be handed over to the mortgagee.
