HISTORY OF THE LIGHTWOOD HUB AND RIM CART WHEELS.

The Lightwood Rim and Hub Cart Wheels are no new thing, yet we are only able to learn of their being in use about 50 years.

J. C. Cox was among the first to introduce these wheels, and because of his skill as a wheel-wright it was considered that his wheels were the best in use. Some of his wheels can now be found that have run over 30 years. He sought out every possible means to arrange the joints so they were perfect and would remain well preserved. His art was learned to his son A. G. Cox, who became a practical wheel-wright about 22 years ago, and even his first make of wheels are still in use today.

The same style of wheels are still being made by A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. under the management of A. G. Cox, and one can tell in a moment after seeing the wheels that the same care is being taken that is needful to keep their reputation up. They are now making lots of wagons which these wheel are used on, also carry a big lot of cart wheels in stock, and can fill your orders promptly for regular sized wagon or cart.

You can look out in this space for the next few weeks, and if any users of these wheels will give us a testimonial, we will be glad to have it published. Don't forget to read every issue, and we feel sure you will be surprised at some things our customers will say.

HISTORIAN.

Mr. J. L. Jackson has accepted the position as Principal of Winterville Academy for next session beginning October the 2nd., with the privilege of selecting his assistant. Mr. Jackson certainly is gifted along this line, as what experience he has had has proven, and we feel sure that if the people of the community will co-operate with him we will have a good school.

The dictionary is the most popular book in town right now, every little girl, and somebody helping her, looking up words.

Yes, there will be some more warm weather.

SATURDAY, AUGUST 19, 1899.

Mr. W. F. Marshall retires from the editorial management of the Gastonia Gazette and Mr. W. M. Griersucceeds him. Mr. Marshall is among the best editors of the State and we regret to see him lay aside the work, even if it is to enter more remunerative fields.

Other towns over the State continue to forge ahead and become prominent. Gastonia held an election last Tuesday on the question of issuing $50,000 bonds for the construction of water works and sewerage, and $15,000 for electric lights, and both were carried by a large majority. Gastonia is only about the size of Greenville, but that election shows the way it has started out to be a town sure enough.

A COMPRESS COMBINE.

Efforts to Organize a Trust to Fight Improvements.

In view of the attacks upon the Roundlap bale of the American Cotton Company, and the cry of "trust" against the manufacturers of the machines for making those bales raised by the owners of compresses and others the following letter, indicating a "combine" of a different sort, is of peculiar interest. The letter was forwarded to the Atlanta Constitution by Richard Cheatham, editor of the Cotton Planter's Journal, of Memphis, Tenn. It is as follows:

"New York, May 3, 1899.—Executive Committee of the American Cotton Compress Company, 71 Broadway.—Dear Sir: It is proposed to consolidate by purchase or otherwise some of the most desirable compresses in the Southern States, provided such consolidation can be arranged on a conservative basis.

"We are in consultation with the representatives of all the capital required for the business who are willing to take it up if it can be put upon an attractive basis.

"We desire to call your attention to the fact that in order to meet the competition that has arisen from the round bale system, it will be necessary for the compresses referred to to consolidate under one general management, fully able and capable to reduce expenses by improved methods, more uniform systems of compressing (aided by the adoption of the standard box), to obtain lower rates of insurance and secure lower rates of freight to foreign and domestic points.

"We recognize the advantages both to you and us of utilizing your personal influence in the new business, as well as your plant, but at the same time we feel confident that unless a consolidation can be arranged on an obviously economical basis, we may not be able in the long run to successfully compete with the round bale systems or with other new compresses which may come into the field.

"If it is your desire to sell your press property at a reasonable price please be kind enough to answer the list of questions enclosed and also sign the option enclosed.

"The information received will be strictly confidential and not disclosed to any one else in the business of compressing cotton, except with your consent.

"As there are over two hundred compresses, and as it will require considerable time and labor to send a committee to examine these properties and books and make all proper arrangements, it is therefore necessary that the option shall hold good for not less than six months from the date of your signing.

"Unless we hear from you within two weeks of this date we shall consider that you are not disposed to enter into the proposed consolidation. Awaiting your reply, we are yours truly.

HENRY C. KNUBEL,
For Executive Committee."

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Aug. 18, '99

Frequenters of the War Department, which continues to be the busiest of them all, are reminded by the present situation, of the adage about the difficulty of teaching old dogs new tricks. There's a new head to the department, but the machinery is just the same that it was during the Alger regime, and there is the same disinclination to tell the public anything that can be hid. Although it is well known that more men have already been enlisted than will fill the original announced number of Philippine regiments of volunteers, and that enlistments are still being made as rapidly as possible. War Department officials say that no official decision has been made to increase the number of regiments, and that no additional call for volunteers is likely. This is nothing more than quibbling. It is so certain that more regiments will be organized that lists of their officers have been made out. As to issuing a new call for volunteers, none is necessary to continue the recruiting up to the limit fixed by Congress 35,000 men. As a matter of fact, no call was issued when the present recruiting was begun—a simple order of the Secretary of War was issued.

Senator Clay expresses the belief that there will be an anti-expansion republican Presidential ticket in the field next year, and that such men as Tom Reed and ex-Secretary of the Treasury Boutwell, of Massachusetts will support it, and that its vote in New England will be large enough to throw the electoral votes of those States to the democrats.

That nearly all of the negroes troubles has its origin in bad advice, given sometime thoughtlessly and not a few times with the malicious intention to make trouble is well known to those who have taken the time to study the race problem. A Washington lawyer deserves a place among the bad advisers of the negro. He stated, in an argument in defence of a negro who was charged with being disorderly and found guilty and fined that his client would have been justified had he shot the policeman who arrested him. If some negro desperado who heard that statement should kill the officer who attempted to arrest him for some petty crime, wouldn't that lawyer be an accessory to the murder?

The administration crowd is really becoming alarmed at the extent of the "nigger" animosity to Mr. McKinley, and the word has been passed around to the "nigger" office holders to whoop it up for the administration at every turn, and especially to try to counteract the anti-McKinley talk at the gathering in Chicago, to be known as the Afro-American Council. The negro voters of Ohio have it in their power to make it impossible for the McKinley-Hanna candidate for governor to be elected; consequently, they are being "jollied" by everybody connected with the administration, but some of those "niggers" are just smart enough to make it plain that an office with a good salary attachment is the only sort of a jolly they will take from the administration.

The revival of the story alleging the intention of ex-Czar Reed to remain in Congress and lead the fight against expansion, on the floor of the House, probably had no more substantial basis than a desire to worry those Republicans who for one or another reason welcome his retirement from Congress. Even if he remained in the House, he would not lead the fight on imperialism; that patriotic duty will be performed by a Democrat.

Representative Bankhead, of Alabama, was in Washington this week. He was indignant because of a publication several days ago alleging that he attended an anti-Bryan meeting at Saratoga. Speaking of it, he said: "I haven't been in Saratoga and it is well known that Alabama is a Bryan State. We will send an instructed Bryan delegation to the next national convention. Bryan is the logical candidate, and he will be unanimously nominated, and he will be elected, too."

The country newspaper man who stands up for the right has to look to the hereafter for the most of his reward. In one or two respects, however, he comes out ahead in this world of sorrow. In the first place he has the commendation of his own conscience—if he has any. In the second place, he learns that nearly all the people who are so ready to pat him on the back and encourage him in his work will promptly desert him when there are signs of trouble. 'Twas ever thus and always will be. "Blessed is he that expecteth nothing, for verily he shall not be disappointed."—Greensboro Record.

A Whooping Cough Party.

There have been kissing bees and Hobson parties in Peoria recently, but the first whooping cough party in this vicinity was given by Miss Luthy, the fourteen-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. Milton Luthy, at their home, 914 Sanford street. For ten days Miss Luthy has suffered with the whooping cough, and all of her companions were similarly afflicted. Yesterday Miss Luthy invited seventeen of them to her home and, though all were whooping they had a splendid time. The menu for dinner included dainties for convalescents.—Chicago Chronicle.

Says the Durnam Sun, and very correctly: "The interests of a town and the adjacent country are mutual. For this reason farmers should recognize and appreciate the fact that a good live town near by is a great help to the farmer, just as a good agricultural country is essential to the town. Whatever helps one, helps the other."

Insanity is Increasing.

The Central Hospital for the Insane, of this city, is now filled to its capacity with patients. Once last year the hospital was taxed to its capacity, but since then the new annex, with accommodations for 120, has been completed.

Dr. Kirby stated yesterday that there are 425 patients at the asylum, and until some discharges are made no new patients will be received.

These figures are worthy of reflection and thought. The hospital's capacity has been increased within a year so that it will accommodate 120 additional patients, and yet the institution is taxed to its limit.—Raleigh Post.

We Lose Them With Regret.

The fact has already been noted that Mr. N. P. Strause has accepted a position with the American Tobacco Company and would go to Wisconsin to manage their business in that State. His leaving Henderson caused his mother to decide to give up her residence here and go to Greenville to make her home with her younger son Henry.

Mrs. Strause went to Chase City, Va., Monday to stay a few days with a relative, after which she will return to Henderson and spend a week with Mrs. Teiser before going to Greenville. Mr. Strause left on the same train for the field of his future labors going by way of Richmond and New York on business.

There is general regret at the breaking up and removal of these good people. Mrs. Strause is held in very warm esteem by a wide circle of friends. She is a truly good woman at heart, charitable in word and deed, a kind and considerate neighbor and sincere friend. She will be greatly missed and the best wishes and loving regard of all who know her will go with her to her new home.—Henderson Gold Leaf.
