OVER THE COUNTRY.

New York Custom House receipts for August were $13,780,471, the largest under the Dingley law.

Harry Winans was killed by the explosion of a kinetoscope gas tank, at Garnett, Kan., on Thursday.

A piston rod broke and smashed out a cylinder head on the cruiser Newark, at San Francisco, on Tuesday.

While trying to arrest Clem and Marcus Darnell, at Sedan, Ky., Marshal A. A. Wilson was killed and Sheriff C. G. Kiser was wounded.

Ex-Secretary Alger says he would no more accept a nomination for Mayor of Detroit than he would a nomination for Governor of Michigan.

Frank J. Loomis, janitor of the Seaman's Savings Bank, at New York, fatally shot himself by the side of his sleeping wife Thursday night.

The first International Convention of Factory Inspectors, at Niagara-on-the-Lake, Quebec, has adjourned, to meet next year at Minneapolis, Minn.

Beginning today New York firemen will be allowed time off duty for three meals a day, instead of two, as heretofore.

Mayor R. E. Boyle, of Atlanta, Tex., is in jail charged with murder, for shooting his brother-in-law, Albert Culberson, on the street.

The backbone of the strike at the Lake Superior (Cernegie) mines has been broken, the majority of of the men going back to work at the old schedule.

Ought to Have It.

It is perhaps not known by very many people that there is a law requiring that the different counties have a map made of their respective counties, showing the township lines, etc., etc. Such is the case, however, the law having never been repealed.—Durham Sun.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Wallace's show is billed for Raleigh on the 25th.

For the year ending Sept 1st Charlotte handled 29,010 bales of cotton.

The stockholders of the Atlantic and North Carolina railroad have declared a dividend of two per cent, and it is claimed that this does not represent all the earnings of the road, a portion remaining for improvements.

Policeman William Kerns, of Concord, tried to quiet three negroes who were raising a fuss on the street, before day on Sunday morning, when one of the negroes shot him through the heart with a pistol. Two of the negroes were captured and Concord came near having a lynching.

We are told that a certain farmer in this county, who, with the aid of his wife, cultivated a two-horse farm, resorted to an unusual method of taking care of the baby while the mother was helping in the field. He prepared a box for the baby, fastening it to the plow stock, so when the father was plowing and the mother hoeing, the baby was riding.—Monroe Journal.

All Good Papers.

The Charlotte News, in order to keep pace with its growing patronage, has enlarged to six columns, eight pages. It is the leading afternoon paper of the State and is as large as any of the morning dailies.

Another handsome paper just published is the industrial edition of the Kinston Free Press. This was a paper of 36 pages, nicely illustrated and describing Kinston and her many enterprises. It is a splendid paper and is but a further evidence of the spirit of co-operation among her business men that is accomplishing so much for the development of the town.

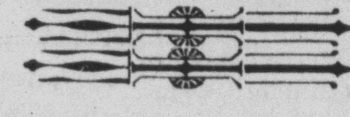

The greatest paper ever issued in North Carolina is the "Twentieth Century Edition" of the Raleigh News and Observer. It numbers 228 large pages, and is not only the largest ever issued in this State but the Nation itself has never surpassed it. Sketches of most of the prominent towns of the State are given in this paper, the descriptive matter being made more effective by splendid illustrations. It is a creditable publication and will prove of great benefit to the entire State.

Going Ahead.

The adage that "only live fish can swim up stream" is a modern one with an especial application to merchants of this age of push and progress. Only the go-ahead and aspiring tradesman may expect to move steadily upward toward success, making headway against the competition and numberless impediments that beset his course. If he be a sagacious man he will have discovered at the very start of his mercantile career that advertising in a live and popular newspaper is the very best help he can get in order to secure extensive and profitable patronage.—Philadelphia Record.

TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 5, 1899.

Several cases of yellow fever have developed at Key West and one case is reported in New Orleans.

The Wilson News boasts greatly over its original matter. But it clips from the Raleigh News and Observer a special telegram, head and all, dated Sept. 2, moved up the date to Sept. 4 to correspond with the date of the News, and palms it off on its readers.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 4, '99

The republican claim of a walk-over in Ohio, this fall, has been a hollow pretense from the first, and it has grown hollower every day since the democrats nominated Hon. John R. McLean for Governor. It will not be denied that Mr. McKinley knows Ohio politics thoroughly. It is significant, therefore, that the first thing he did, after his return to Washington, was to hold a Conference with several Ohio republicans, and that one of the results of that conference was a cablegram to Boss Hanna, telling him to hurry home from Europe, in order to take charge of the campaign of his ticket. Mr. McKinley regards Mr. McLean as a strong and dangerous candidate and he knows that if Ohio goes democratic this year, it will give such a boom to the already rapidly brightening democratic prospects, that the election of a democratic President will become well-nigh a certainty. He is determined to prevent this if he can possibly do so, and in addition to Hanna's methods, which will be worked to the limit, the whole power of the administration will be used to help Hanna's ticket.

Although Mr. McKinley only remained in Washington, from Saturday afternoon until today, when he went to Philadelphia to attend the G. A. R. encampment, where he hopes to put in some good political licks and incidentally to prevent a fight being made upon the present management of the Pension Bureau by the old soldiers, he found time to see some of the capitalists who, for purely selfish reasons, are trying to get the government to mix itself up in the revolution in Santo Domingo, by declaring a protectorate over the most turbulent and belligerent mob of "niggers" ever known to exist in any portion of the world. With all his anxiety to please these capitalists, it is not believed that Mr. McKinley will dare to do what they wish him to do. He has troubles enough now, without hunting for new ones.

The Sampson clique in the Navy Department, which has been able to keep Sampson in command of the North Atlantic Squadron, when other officers were entitled to that honor, will have him ordered to shore duty, after the Dewey reception, in New York, and it will also endeavor to prevent the arrival of Admiral Howison, who is Sampson's senior officer, in New York, whither he is bound from the South Atlantic, on the cruiser Chicago, in time to participate in the Dewey ceremonies. Not satisfied with having done so much for Sampson, the clique is still working to prevent Schley getting an important command, although he is clearly entitled to the sea duty he asked for many months ago. There are three men eligible to succeed Sampson as Commander of the North Atlantic Squadron—Schley, Remy, and Farquhar—but seems likely, Schley's name may be considered out of it.

Gen. Fitz Lee gave the War Department a little more than it expected when it asked him and the other Department Commanders in Cuba, to make reports on condition of affairs under their jurisdiction, by adding the following recommendations to his report: "That a census of the island be taken as soon as possible; that the question of suffrage be carefully considered and a decision reached regulating the same; that a modern system of jurisprudence be introduced, so that elective officers can be voted for; that a general election be ordered for a President of a Chief Magistrate, a Vice President and a Congress of legislature, to consist of two branches, and all other officers of a republic, as well as municipal elections; all of which can be determined, regulated, and prescribed by a convention composed of delegates in proper proportion from the different provinces, which shall meet as soon after the census is taken, as possible. In this way the pledged faith of the United States Government to Cuba can be kept." Orders were given in the War Department to suppress this report, but somehow it got out.

In view of his close personal relations with Mr. McKinley, the statement in a report made to the War Department, by Gen. Leonard Wood, that the Military Control of Cuba will have to continue for a long time, is regarded as significant. That sort of opinion from our officers will be made to justify an indefinite military occupation of this land, notwithstanding present talk of municipal elections over there, in the Spring, if the people of this country do not compel different action on the part of the administration.

NOTES FROM THE CAPITAL.

It is now announced that President McKinley will take time to go to New York to attend the reception to Admiral Dewey, and incidentally gain a little reflected popularity for use in the campaign.

As is well known, Senator Morgan, of Alabama several months ago, came out in a speech demanding the nomination of someone other than Mr. Bryan. Today, Morgan now says that Bryan is the only logical nominee of the Democratic party in 1900.

Every one returning from the Philippines, who is free to talk, comments on the conditions there, which place in General Otis's hands the government of military and civil affairs. General Otis is apparently not competent to conduct both positions. He has never seen the firing lines, and yet assumes to order such men as Generals Lawton and McArthur to retreat or advance, when he must be absolutely ignorant of the condition surrounding them. The only ones who are defending General Otis in Manila are those who, for financial reasons, are profiting by his retention.

Governor Candler of Georgia has strengthened himself with all right-minded people, by his courageous action in suppressing lynching. In a recent letter the Governor expresses himself forcibly on the intermeddling on the part of Northern sympathizers of the negro with the conduct of affairs in the South. "If let alone, the South and the negro will solve the race problem. The case of Miss Jewett of Boston is an instance of offensive intermeddling on the part of a misguided woman in a matter that should have been let alone."

From this time on the state election in Ohio this fall becomes of national interest. Editor John R. McLean of the Cincinnati Enquirer received the democratic nomination for governor on the first ballot, and will spare no effort to turn down McKinley and Hanna in their home state. The platform is explicit for silver, demands Bryan's renomination, and favors the independence of Cuba and the Philippines. Mr. McLean is a wealthy man, and a splendid organizer, and has a good fighting chance of carrying the state.

His Mistake.

A parrot, in a remote English country district, escaped from its cage and settled on the roof of a laborer's cottage. When it had been there a little time, the laborer caught sight of it. He had never seen such a thing before, and after much gazing in admiration at the bird with its curious beak and beautiful plumage he fetched a ladder and climbed up it with a view of securing so great a prize. When his head reached the level of the top of the roof, the parrot flopped a wing at him and said, "What dy'e want?"

Very much taken back, the laborer politely touched his cap and replied, "I beg your pardon sir; I thought you were a bird!"

Why Not?

"John Smith" writes to the Raleigh News and Observer, and after citing the fact that girls have been admitted to all the privileges of the University and the Agricultural and Mechanical College at Raleigh, demands to know if by the same token men shall not be admitted to all the departments of the State Normal and Industrial College, with all the rights and privileges pertaining thereto. Mr. Smith's point appears well taken. The Landmark's sympathy is with the girls but if the poor, down-trodden sisters are to be admitted to the male colleges on all fours with their brothers we are unable at the present to see why the brothers should not be admitted to all the privileges of the female institutions.—Statesville Landmark.

Infant Mortality.

The infant mortality is bothering the public mind, and all kinds of explanations have been given for it. Various unlikely causes are said to give spinal meningitis, and water and milk to give typhoid-fever. Then, again, the drugs used to quiet little ones are blamed for the permanent quieting of them. Doubtless this last has caused many deaths. In the hands of ignorant or careless persons, remedies for stopping the crying of babies are dangerous in the extreme, many of them being little else than preparations of laudanum or other powerful drugs. Grown people have themselves to blame in a greater or less degree if their health is poor; but babies are primarily the result of their parents' lives, and secondarily of their parents' care; and too often neither give them a chance at life or the pursuit of happiness.—New York Commercial Advertiser.
