WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 4, '99

Mrs. Smith is in town visiting her children and friends.

Mrs. G. E. Jackson and mother stopping in town this week to attend the meeting.

Winterville Cigar Co., shipped out more goods last month than ever before in that length of time.

A. G. Cox is paying 15 cents per bushel for cotton seed now, and expects to keep on paying highest market price.

For anything in the millinery line see Mary F. Hardy & Co. The chances are that you will get suited without going any further.

B. F. Manning & Co. keep posted as to the changes in the cotton market, and are in position to pay you the best possible price at all times.

School opened Monday with bright prospects. There are quite a number of boarding students, and they are expected to keep coming in. Board here being so cheap is very much in favor of our school.

If you are interested in getting a town lot or a nice little farm close by, see or write A. G. Cox. He offers to sell either large or small lots. Sites will be given for any worthy enterprising business.

CONDITION AND NECESSITY.—Of course your necessities depend on your condition. If your condition is such that you need any goods in our line, or any general shop or blacksmith work done, you know where we are, and we stand ready to serve you at all times. Our specialty at this time is wagons and carts.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Our preacher Mr. Booth could not be with us last night as he had to go back to Greenville, but has given us two of as plain sermons as our people ever listened to. We expect him the remainder of this week, and hope that much good may be accomplished by this meeting.

January cotton in New York today opened at 7.03, closed at 7.12.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

Proceedings of October Meeting

At the October meeting of the Board of County Commissioners 196 orders were drawn on the Treasurer amounting to about $1,700. The large criminal court of the two weeks previous made the monthly payments larger than usual.

The valuation of land of J. H. Cobb in Beaver Dam township was reduced to $6,500.

Valuation of land of F. C. Saunders in Chicod township was reduced to $4,000.

The names of John Evans and Mary Beddard were stricken from pauper list.

A. S. J. and Ben Bynum were released from payment of taxes on personal property erroneously charged against them in Farmville township.

Richard P. Moore was exempted from poll tax for 1899.

J. W. Smith was refunded poll tax in Beaver Dam township, the same being erroneously charged.

The following order from Judge W. A. Hoke was presented to the Board:

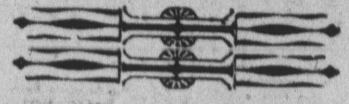

"Whereas it has been made to appear to me that there are now confined in the common jail of Pitt county a large number of prisoners, not less than twenty-five, two of whom are under sentence of death, and whereas it has been further made to appear that under the present methods, management and condition of said jail the same is insecure and the detention of said prisoners is rendered uncertain and unsafe, you are forthwith commanded to provide a careful and responsible guard, not less than two in number, who shall keep continuous watch day and night upon said jail and prisoners confined therein for not less than fifty days."

The Clerk of the Board was instructed to notify the Sheriff of the above order and have it complied with.

The Beaufort County Lumber Company listed certain property in Chicod township in accordance with a previous order of the Board, and they were charged on the tax list of 1899 with the sum of $10,000 for the years 1894 to 1898 inclusive, the tax to be computed according to the levy of those years.

Several delinquents were allowed to list taxes for 1899.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER, 4, 1899

Col. Carr For Senator.

In an interview in the Richmond Times of Saturday Col. Julian S. Carr announces that he will be a candidate for election as United States Senator to succeed Marion Butler, whose term expires March 1901.

Col. Carr said in the interview with the Times:

"I am a candidate for the Senate to succeed Butler, and am in the race to win," said Col. Julian S. Carr, of North Carolina, at the Jefferson last night. "I have some men against me," he continued; "there's F. M. Simmons, Chairman of our State Democratic Committee, and a thorough-going, astute politician; ex-Governor Jarvis, twice Governor of North Carolina, and a former Senator, and Mayor A. M. Waddell of Wilmington, who has also served in Congress; and who a part in the late troubles gave him a good place in the hearts of the white people."

"If I win, I shall feel that I have been greatly complimented, for all of the other aspirants are high-toned Christian gentlemen, who stand well with the people. "On campaign will not be characterized by a display of acrimonious feeling—certainly so far as I am concerned. My opponents are my personal friends."

Col. Carr is confident that he could win in a contest before the people, but he was not so sure that the opportunity would present itself for such an expression of the popular will.—Raleigh Post.

It seems that there is a gang of men in this county attempting to pass counterfeit money, and it leaves our business people to be on the watch. This morning, about 3 o'clock, four men aroused Mr. A. Marks, who has recently opened a bar in the part of town known as Tuckahoe, and after trading 40 cents with him, made the request that he would exchange a $10 bill for silver, and put ten silver dollars on the counter. Mr. Marks was about to give them the bill, when he picked up the silver and discovered that all but two dollars, which had been put on top of the two piles of five dollars each, were counterfeit. He refused to take the money, and after some rough talk from the men, they took their departure.—Kinston Free Press.

Some people are spoken of as having "one foot in the grave," but there is a Michigander who has a whole leg in the grave, and he goes to that grave once a week in the summer time to put flowers on it. That leg was attached to him, too.

There will be more than 160 Democratic members of the Fifty-sixth Congress, an increase of forty over the Democratic membership of the preceding Congress, and already there is some contest over the Democratic leadership. It is wholly limited, however, to southern members, among whom are John H. Bankhead of Alabama, and J. D. Richardson of Tennessee. Mr. Richardson has been in Washington off and on all the summer, and has made a number of trips to New York and two to New England. He is a veteran of eight Congresses and is an excellent parliamentarian. Congressman Richardson, who is a resident of Murfreesboro, is a native Tennessean, and served in the Confederate army during the war, his legislative service having begun in the Nashville Legislature of 1871. He is one of the most distinguished Freemasons in the United States, having been Grand Master of the Masons of Tennessee twenty-five years ago, and Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of the Royal Arch Masons of that State ten years later. He has received the thirty-third degree.—New York Sun.

The largest Spanish mackerel seen in this market came in on the W. & N. Railroad yesterday afternoon. It weighed 32 pounds and was purchased by Major Dixon. It was shipped from Jacksonville, Onslow county.—Wilmington Star.

Philip's Big Guns.
 General Philip had not yet elected a general election with his immortal message, "We have met the enemy, and they are ours." While the battle was in progress the sound of the guns was heard at Cleveland, about 60 miles away in a direct line over the water. The few settlers there were examining the battle and listened with intense interest. Suddenly the sounds ceased. They waited for a reply, but they knew the battle was over, but they didn't know what was the point of the old talk, who had been lying flat on his ear to the ground, soon started that point. Springing up he clapped his hands and shouted: "Thank God! They are whipped! They are whipped!"

"How do you know?" the others inquired.
 "Heard the big guns last!"
 Perry's guns were the heaviest.—Buckeye.

The Fifth Female Age.
 Until a few days ago I had always supposed that there were but four ages in a woman's life—the young, the still young, the well preserved and the elderly—but a man I know has added to my knowledge a fifth age. It comes in somewhere between the still young and the well preserved, I imagine. I said to him maliciously: "How old is Mrs. Blank? Is she a young woman?"
 "Not exactly," he made answer.
 "She's—well, she's at the age when a woman always tells you, when she introduces her eldest son to you, that she was married ridiculously young."
 —Washington Post.

His View of It.
 A little boy had been sent to the dairy to get some eggs, and on his way back he dropped the basket containing them.
 "How many did you break?" asked his mother.
 "Oh, I didn't break any," he replied, "but the shells came off some of them."

There are some 60,000 costermongers who carry on business in the streets of London. Their capital is supposed to be £50,000, while they are said to do a trade during the year of £3,000,000.

The Worst Part of It.
 De Jones—I hear your firm discharged you.
 Smythe—Yes. But I wouldn't mind that so much if they hadn't added insult to injury.
 De Jones—How so?
 Smythe—They advertised for a boy to fill my place.—Chicago News.

Route as Pronounced.
 There are numerous excuses for the pronunciation of the word route, and a man may hardly go amiss to choose his own style. Down south they say always rowt. In the north, among the educated classes, we hear root. Here also we hear lower down, especially among the hyphenated Americans, rut. The Irish, even big folk, say rut. The original Webster gives the pronunciation as rowt, with an admission of root. We have adopted root because of a French leaning. The word rut, meaning a deep track in a roadway, cut by the rim of a wheel, is simply a contraction of route and root. The Century dictionary says root or rowt, preference for root. We also say routine for routine; why not, therefore, root for route? Rowtime would sound funny.—New York Press.

He Didn't Like Pledges.
 Judge Martin Grover of Troy, N. Y., was at one time approached by a young citizen who wished to be nominated to the state assembly. The shrewd old judge had certain doubts about him, which he expressed somewhat freely, and yet he was willing to afford him a trial. He therefore addressed the aspirant in this way:
 "Young man, if you will give me your word that you won't steal when you get to Albany, I'll see what can be done about sendin you there."
 "Judge Grover," replied the young man, drawing himself up with great dignity, "I go to Albany unpledged or I don't go at all."

Wood Tar.
 It is curious to note that wood tar is prepared just as it was in the fourth century. B. C. A bark is chosen and a hole dug into which the wood is placed, covered with turf. A fire is lighted underneath, and the tar slowly drips into the barrels placed to receive it.

A Chinese Custom.
 On the accession of the new emperor of China, he goes in solemn state to the "Temple of Heaven," in Peking, and formally announces to his imperial predecessors the new titles and dignities which he has assumed.

Wholly Consideration.
 "I've decided not to get that new dress we talked of," announced the little wife, whose husband has a big bank account and makes large deposits every week.
 "But I want it, dearie, just as much as you do. Go ahead and order it."
 "No, I appreciate your kindness, but I'm not the one to be extravagant when economy is demanded. I saw your bankbook this morning, and we are drawing out money a dozen times where you deposit once. I'll wait till next year."—Detroit Free Press.

 irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.
 For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
 Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

Miss Jernsha Whedbee, of Hertford, arrived Tuesday evening to be one of the bride's maids at the Whedbee-Lipscomb marriage.

W. Stamps Howard and W. G. Clark, of Tarboro, came down Tuesday evening to attend the Whedbee-Lipscomb marriage.

WAKE FOREST LETTER.

October 3rd, 1899.

The total registration up to date is two hundred and forty eight being twenty-one more than were enrolled this date last year. Seventy-two counties and six States are represented.

The good preparation of the new students indicates the progressive work at the academies. The faculty strongly favors good preparation.

There is general rejoicing at the excellent opening of our sister college at Raleigh. Several young ladies from this place have entered that college. The proximity of Wake Forest enables a young man to go out to see his sister.

The Students Christian Association is very active now. It meets every Monday evening and every student is urged to join.

The College pastor, J. W. Lynch, preaches a sweet, simple Gospel. He is not a theologian, nor a philosopher, but a gospel preacher.

The professors are visiting many of the associations. They divide them up so that no single professor is often absent.

President Taylor delivers an address at the installation of Dr. E. Y. Mullin as President of the Southern Theological Seminary.

The law class sent up seventeen men to the Supreme Court, fifteen of whom received license. This is the largest law class in the history of the new school.

The debate between Trinity and this college is to be conducted at Raleigh on Thanksgiving. The query is "Should Senators be elected by the popular vote?" Wake Forest has the negative. Arrangements are being made for the preliminary debate.

Tennis is now very popular and a number of new courts are being constructed in the campus.

The first meeting of the Wake Forest Historical Society was held last week. Mr. Walter White, of Edenton, read a paper on the famous Edenton tea party, Mr. Harry Trantham on the Buford Massacre, Mr. Joe Adams on Wm. L. Yancey, and Mr. Nye reviewed the work of the Hague Conference. Quite a number of coins and old newspapers were presented to the Historical Society by Mr. T. A. Grady, of Kinston.

HIGGS & TAFT.

THE FURNITURE MEN.

Wins a Stove

Sometime ago Higgs & Taft offered a Junior Buck Range to the little girl who would bring them the largest list of words made out of the letters contained in "Buck's stoves and ranges." Miss Lillian Burch, little daughter of Foreman W. F. Burch, of THE REFLECTOR, took in the largest list and was awarded the prize. She had 8,605 words. The next closest contestant was Miss Myrtle Warren, who had 6,245.

Cut With a Mowing Blade.

This morning Mr. R. L. Humber was grinding a mower blade on an emory wheel. In some way the blade got hung on the wheel, jerking it out of his hand. In the revolutions of the wheel the blade struck Mr. Humber twice on the left arm, cutting him right severely. It narrowly missed the main artery of his arm.

The longest sentence on record has just been pronounced at Little Rock, Arkansas. A negro was sentenced to one hundred and fifteen years in the penitentiary for assaulting seven white women.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

A stock company has been formed at Williamston to build a tobacco warehouse there.

Trinity church, of Durham, was cleared of a six thousand dollar debt on Sunday. Gen. J. S. Carr paid more than half of it.

Under the new management of the A. & N. C. railroad, P. S. B. Harper, formerly of Snow Hill, has been appointed agent at Kinston.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

No woman ever tells the truth about what her clothes cost.

The women have got up a new story now that girls' feet are bigger at seventeen, and after that get smaller.

When a girl begins to talk much about her soul it makes you think that her stomach is out of order.

There are only two kinds of men in the world—one is afraid of every woman and the other is afraid of no woman.

A girl is never really satisfied with a new hat unless it looks either like an angel's wing or else like a cabbage.—New York Press.
