WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 21, '99

R. H. Hunsucker, of the Hunsucker Carriage Company, was in town Wednesday.

W. L. House has moved into his new dwelling just completed.

25 or 30 bales of 7 cent cotton rolled in yesterday. B. F. Manning & Co. paid as high as 7½ for some.

Several carpenters at work down here are boarding with the Misses Wesson, which gives them a very full house.

Professional carriage workmen should apply to the Hunsucker Carriage Company if in need of a position.

Eleven new pupils, several of whom are boarders, came in this week. Those who contemplate coming should enter at once if possible. J. L. JACKSON, Prin. of Winterville Academy.

Master Tyree Cheatham Wyatt seems very much impressed with the good qualities as well as the hospitable people of our town, as he has concluded to make his abode among us. He can be found at Hotel Wyatt where he will gladly welcome all who may call to see him.

G. W. Parker has put up a piece of his wier fence in the open space near the depot, nicely painted up, with turned posts all completed. This shows people how it would look around their yard. See if he don't get an order from some one who sees this as they are passing on the train.

ALL'S WELL THAT ENDS WELL.

When a man goes to buy a wagon or cart he should consider the truthfulness of this saying. Most any wagon looks as well as ours at first, but soon the tires become loose and the wheels shakky. This is not the case with ours, but the whole thing remains solid to the end. Whether you know this to be true or not, let us have your order and be convinced.

A. G. COX MFG. CO.

Chances For Somebody.

There could be piles of money made out of small enterprises right here in Greenville if somebody would show the grit to establish them. Here are some of the openings here, neither of which would require an extra large outlay of money, which would prove paying investments: An ice factory, a laundry, a lumber plant, a cigar factory, a broom factory, a spoke and handle factory, a furniture factory. And we might go on and name more. This town is full of opportunities and possibilities.

Lets Have a Laundry.

Why would not a laundry in Greenville be a paying investment? Every week about $25 worth of work is sent off to other towns, to say nothing of what is done by the washerwomen.

Ice Factory Would Pay.

Even at paying a cent a pound for it, a great quantity of ice was used in Greenville the past summer. If the price had been as low as in towns where there are ice factories the consumption would be much larger. There would be enough consumed in Greenville and vicinity to make a factory here pay well.

This is True.

Did you ever think that you don't help your town at all when you send off for anything you can get at home? When a man in any business sends his money out of town he is diverting that much from the channels of his business and it never comes back to him.

We desire a live correspondent at every Postoffice in the county, who will send in brief items of news as it occurs in each neighborhood. Write plainly and only on one side of the paper.

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 21, 1899.

It will require the exercise of all of Speaker Henderson's well known talent for music to preserve harmony in the next Congress.

The papers are telling that John Wanamaker has just closed a $100,000 advertising contract with the Philadelphia Record. It goes without saying that John knows a good thing.

The Pennsylvania League of Republican Clubs has declared against the civil service reform law, though the way the law is administered under this administration it hardly amounts to enough to be worth denouncing.

Every victory of the Filipinos over the Spanish was joyfully hailed by us as a victory of patriots fighting for liberty. The Filipino claim to the right of self government is just as strong and valid now as when we recognized it then.

Every American interest would have been satisfied by the gaining of a naval station in the Philippines and the opening of Manila to our trade. It was President McKinley that insisted on continuing the war with Spain unless she sold us her vanished title to the whole of the Island.

Deplorable as may be the crushing of the Transvaal Republic by the British Empire, how much more shameful and unpardonable is our establishment of a military despotism in the Philippines by this Republic, which until now stood before the world for liberty, self government and the rights of man.

The discussion that is becoming so prominent as to who shall be the next Senator from North Carolina as the successor of Marion Butler, is entirely out of place. This is a question that should not have been mentioned at all until after the constitutional amendment is carried next August, and if it had been deferred until after the general election in November of next year, so much the better. The question ought to be dropped and not carried any further at present.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.
WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 20, '99.

Mr. McKinley found, when he returned from his stumping trip of 5,000 miles, more indignation among government employes than has existed since the Garfield campaign, when Jay Hubbell and Dorsey, of Star route notoriety held up the Federal employes and forced campaign contributions under threat of dismissal. The reason is the circular letter sent out by Boss Hanna's Ohio committee, asking Federal officials to chip in to keep McLean from carrying Ohio. The Civil Service Commissioners, who draw their salaries at the pleasure of the man whose renomination for President depends largely upon Ohio going republican, had not a word to say about the circular letters received by employes of every department in Washington, but they made a bluff at doing something by going to the Post Office Department and requesting that the order of the department, issued about a year ago, prohibiting political assessment of postal employes, be conspicuously posted in all Ohio postoffices, as they had been greatly shocked to learn that the employes of the Toledo post office had been asked to contribute to the republican campaign fund. An order was at once issued complying with the request, and all hands winked at each other and thought, "how devilish sly we are." Nobody expects Mr. McKinley to do anything to stop the squeezing of government employes. He has just come from Ohio and he knows how desperate the case is, and how much he has at stake. He knows that there is an organized movement among prominent republicans to prevent his renomination, and that if his party fails to carry Ohio it will stand an excellent show of succeeding.

How desperate the republican situation in Ohio is may be judged by the talk of republicans. For instance, Perry Heath, who owes his present official position to Hanna, and who has just returned from Ohio, has been discounting republican defeat in the State by saying that the republicans are so busy handling their prosperity that many of them may not have time to vote. He also says that Mr. McLean has the democrats of the State better organized than they have ever been before. Democratic advices from the State are without exception favorable to the success of McLean.

The State Trucker's association was formed at Raleigh Wednesday, with J. Bryan Grimes president and T. B. Parker, of the Farmers' Alliance, secretary. Remarks were made by Mess. Grimes, J. B. Coffield, McCallum of Robeson, Rev. N. M. Journey, J. S. Cunningham, T. B. Parker, Westbrook, of Mt. Olive, Commissioner of Agriculture Patterson and Geo. T. Weston. It was decided that there ought to be a uniform system of organization and that the printed plan for this should be sent out, so local organizations can be effected. Chairman Grimes said it was his idea to have a State organization, with the Eastern Carolina Truckers association as the parent one, and also to have the local organizations. George T. Weston, J. B. Coffield and Mr. Westbrook, of Mt. Olive, were appointed to draft the plan.

The Republicans had quite a powwow at Statesville Wednesday. Their State executive committee met there and issued an address to the people in opposition to the proposed constitutional amendment and at night anti-amendment speeches were made by Senator Pritchard, Representative Linney and J. M. Moody.—Charlotte Observer.

Some editors have miserable luck. One in Kansas said that silver buckles were becoming fashionable on those little elastic bands the ladies hide and never talk about, and this particular editor said he hoped to see more of them. His wife sued him for a divorce, and the only woman in that town who had silver buckles attached to pieces of elastic cowhided the poor editor until he was as raw as a frozen potato. So much for a man meddling with things he is supposed to know nothing about.—Exchange.

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 3 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections.

One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot no 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J. S. Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J. S. Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west, known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J. R. Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches, schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers pay one third cash can arrange for deferred payments.

A CORRECTION THAT DON'T CORRECT.

KINSTON, N. C., Oct. 21th, '99.

EDITOR DAILY REFLECTOR:

Please allow me a small space in your valuable paper to correct a wrong impression that appears in your issue of the 20th inst. about hotel accommodations, under the headline "Where Greenville Loses" The traveling man that said he knew of a number of traveling men who go to Kinston to spend their nights and return to Greenville in the morning, for the reason that there is no hotel accomodation, makes a statement that is an injury to Greenville and the hotel keepers. The man that made the statement certainly must be a stranger in this section, for a man cannot pass Greenville without hearing the melodious voices of the hotel porters around the depot. I have visited Greenville regularly for eight years, and always found two hotels, to accommodate the traveling public, their proprietors polite and very accommodating, and always give you the best room in the house, with fire in the winter and plenty of ice water in the summer. The fare is as good as at any hotel in Eastern North Carolina. You always get the best the market and season affords.

J. GROESCHEL,
 A Drummer.

[We are much obliged to Mr. Groeschel for coming to the defense of Greenville, but he makes a correction that does not correct. Everyone who knows anything about Greenville knows that we do not have hotel accommodations that are at all commensurate with the needs of the town. True we have hotels, and the proprietors do the very best they can, under the circumstance and with their surroundings, for their guests. What the traveling man referred to said, and what THE REFLECTOR has from time to time said, was not intended as a reflection on the hotel keepers we have, but to show the need of a modern, well-equipped hostelry. The buildings we have here in which hotels are kept are hardly worthy the name of hotel, and the proprietors themselves would be as glad as any one else to see a good modern hotel building here, such a one as would meet the needs of the town. We know that traveling people have failed to stop here because they found better hotels elsewhere, and the town suffers a loss to that extent.—ED. REFLECTOR.]
