of even the smallest orders is one of our methods of doing business that makes J. S. Tunstall's grocery a favorite source of supplies in pure food products of all kinds. Another one is the high quality of our choice groceries, which we guarantee to be of the very best, at the lowest prices to be found in Greenville.

J. S. TUNSTALL.

To my Friends and Patrons:

I have now associated with me R. A. Tyson, Jr. Send your Laundry to Mr. A. Tyson's store. Thanking you for your patronage, and hoping a continuance of the same I am yours to serve,

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Oct. 25, '99

Remember—The highest market price paid here for cotton seed all the time.

The Cigar Co. is shipping a nice lot of cheroots to Conetoe this morning.

Mrs. Ed Garris and two of Mr. Jesse Cannon's little daughters were visiting here Sunday.

Miss Lucy Johnson, of Greenville and Miss Roach, of Coxville, spent most of the day with Miss Mary Hardy here yesterday.

Notice our adds, also notice our stock of goods and our prices when you come to Winterville.

B. F. MANNING & Co.

The brick kiln is now cool, and you can get your orders either large or small filled at any time.

Farm lands and town lots a rushing. How's that? Because a man can get his pick cheap. See A. G. Cox.

Miss Pearl Campbell with Mr. Seba King, of Greenville, spent Sunday evening with her sister Lillian, a boarding student here.

G. W. Parker has sent two loads of fencing to Grimesland today. Has sold a small order of his nicest wire picket fence to be put at Ayden next week.

HERE'S WHERE WE EXCEL.

While some excel in cheapness and in other ways, we claim to excel in the quality of our work. Our wagons, carts, coffins, saddles, back bands, &c., are the best made, also any odd jobs we do are first class.
A. G. COX MFG. CO.

A Fine Feast.

Rev. B. H. Hearne, who is a successful fisher of fishes as well as fisher of men, has been having good luck after the finny tribe this week. Tuesday evening he remembered THE REFLECTOR household with a string of very large chinquepin perch, some of them alive and kicking. We had a feast indeed.

Reflections of a Bachelor.

Most men's wives are nearly as big a help to them as porous plasters.

Before he gets married a man swears to love always; afterward he generally loves to swear.

Old bachelors sometimes kiss babies, but generally they would a lot rather take castor oil.

The average woman would manage to wear a fresh scalp tied onto her belt if it were only in style.

Skirts are a terrible trouble to a woman in life. When she isn't holding them up she's holding them down.—New York Press.

To School Committeemen

The committee of every School District in the county is required to take a census of the children. A large number of blanks have been distributed. If you have failed to get one apply to me for one. You must take this census and return it to me at least by the first Monday in December or you will be subject to removal from office for nonperformance of duty. This is important. We must have an accurate census of the children of the county. Give a copy to your township trustees and send a copy to me. Don't neglect this another day. The township Trustee will please see that this census is taken in every School District.

WEDNESDAY, OCTOBER, 25, 1899

Even the great big papers get wrong sometime. The Philadelphia Record went to announce the appearance of 1900 calendars and put it 1899.

A Pound-and-a-Half Baby.

A girl was born to Mr. and Mrs. Adam Neidlein, of Franklin avenue Guttenburg, N. J., on Friday night, that, although perfectly formed, weighed only a pound and a half. So small is the baby that it can easily rest on the palm of its father's hand. It has great lung power and the doctor says he sees no reason why it should not take a growing fit one of these days and develop into normal size.—New York Sun, 22d.

A Queer Family

About every day a queer procession is seen coming up Gillespie street. The central figure is a little sand-hill steer, not much larger than a goat, hitched to a dilapidated miniature cart, on which is piled a few sticks of blackjack. Following in the wake of the little bullyearling, which crawls along unguided with his load, is a tall, raven-haired, shallow-complected white man, his wife and five children, all as yellow as pumpkins and as solemn as owls. Thus they come to town almost every day, dispose of the wood for 15 or 20 cents and take their departure as they had come.

The man's name is Butler, and he lives in the sand hills somewhere between here and Hope Mills. His only visible means of support is what the little steer, assisted by the whole family, brings to town once a day.—Fayetteville Observer.

The Atlanta Constitution argues, with great force, that a saving of $100,000,000 per year might be made in freights, commission, warehouse charges and other minor expenses if instead of sending raw cotton 3000 miles away to England or 1000 miles away to New England to be made into cloths it should be manufactured in Southern mills located as near as possible to the cotton fields. The money saved could be suitably divided between the planters, the operatives and the mill owners, making them all more prosperous. The Constitution is altogether sound in its contention. In having the cheap raw material the South has a solid basis of advantage which puts her in the forefront of competition. The cotton is grown.

The Perfect Figure.

A woman of perfect figure should weigh 138 pounds and be 5 feet 5 inches tall. She should measure 5 feet 5 inches from the tip of the fingers when the arms are extended. The length of the hand ought to be just one-tenth of this, and one-seventh should be the length of the foot. From the elbow to the middle finger should measure the same as from the elbow to the middle of the chest. From the top of the head to the chin should be just the length of the foot. Round the waist should measure 24 inches and round the bust, under the arms, should measure exactly ten inches more. The bust measured over the arms should be 43 inches, the upper part of the arm 13 inches and the wrist 6 inches. The calf of the leg should measure 14 1-2 inches, the thigh 25 inches and the ankle 8 inches.—St. Louis Republic.

Prominent Republican Says the U. S. Courts are Being Manipulated.

The caption of this article may be just a bit misleading, but sifted down it is not far from right. A prominent and well known Republican lawyer, in the city last week, says it is an outrage the way the Federal Courts, especially at Statesville and Asheville, are now being run; that United States Senator Pritchard simply runs the whole shooting match; that is to say, he and his henchmen are worked into every case and that an outsider stands no show of getting anything.

He says that when a man is arrested a marshal takes him in hand, keeps him from seeing any one if he can, and finally the defendant asks him whom he ought to employ, when he promptly tells him Senator Pritchard, no other name ever being mentioned. Nine times out of ten the defendant is ignorant, knows very few attorneys if any, and the great U. S. Senator gets the job.

But the gentleman went even further, that should a man in the toils express a preference for another lawyer he is told that Senator Pritchard is a great "friend" of the Court and can get him off when no other power on earth can do it, and not infrequently he is told why he is such a great "friend" of the Court. This settles it of course.

Truly the office of U. S. Senator is great and mighty. Think of prostituting it to such base purposes?—Greensboro Telegram.

Competition and Advertising.

Competition may not be exactly the life of trade, but it is a powerful factor in the extension thereof, and it certainly demonstrates the principle of the survival of the fittest. It does not permit the tradesman to rely upon luck or chance, nor to become indifferent to his business. He must be alert, inventive and aggressive in order to successfully withstand the trade rivalry around him. If in addition he make use of the advertising columns of a thoroughly live and influential newspaper in order to tell the public about his establishment he finds himself quite able to cope with his most tireless competitors.—Philadelphia Record.

Smallpox has appeared at Roxboro causing much excitement there.

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 3 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections. One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot no 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J S Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J S Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west, known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J R Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches, schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers pay one third an arrangement for deferred payments.

THOS. J. JARVIS and HARRY SKINNER, Commissioners.

WINE OF CARDUI
McELREE'S Wine of Cardui
 has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible
FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES,
 irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.
 For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.
 Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

Gov. Vance's First Composition

A lady of this city, one of the teachers in the graded school, has received from a first cousin of the late Senator Vance a copy of his first school composition. It has come into the possession of the Observer, which has every assurance of the genuineness of the document, and is given herewith as an evidence of its writer's then budding genius:

TOADS.

You told me to tell what I knowed about Toads. Well Toads is like frogs, but more dignity, and when you come think of it frogs is wetter. The warts which toades is noted far cant be cured for they is cronick but if I couldent get well I'd stay in the house. My Grand father knew a toad that some lady had trained till it was like folks, wen its master whissled it would come for flies. They cetches 'em with their tong which is some like a long red worm but more like littenin only littenin hasint got no gum onto it. The fli will be standing a rubbin its hind legs together and a thinking what a fine fat fli it is and the toad a siten some distance away like it was asleep. While you see this fli as plane as you ever see anything all at once it aint there—then the toad looks up at you solum out of his eyes like he said. What become of that fli? but you know he et it. Thats what I know about toads.—Charlotte Observer.

Wallace Circus Arrested.

The entire Wallace circus, which showed here September 29th, was arrested at Greenwood, S. C., the night of the 18th, when about to load for Augusta.

A despatch from Columbia says: A farmer named S. H. Horne tried, it seems, to buck a game in a side show. After losing over $600, he decided, as luck or the gamblers were against him, to appeal to the law. He employed a lawyer and swore out warrants for several of the men by name "and others."

All the drivers were arrested as they reached the train with their teams. After waiting an hour or two, the managers paid Horne $625. He withdrew the charges and the circus men were released.

When a fellow tumbles off his wheel he naturally feels that the world is against him.

The October number of the Youths' Companion is equal to a magazine it size. But that excellent paper often gives its reader a surprise.

The freight train was several hours late coming in Tuesday afternoon, but it brought four car loads of tobacco to be sold on the Greenville market.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

East Durham had a big fire Monday morning.

A navigation company has been organized at Goldsboro for the purpose of establishing a steamboat line between that city and New Bern.

The late A. F. Page, of Raleigh, was worth more than a quarter of a million of dollars. By his will his children receive $200,000, his wife $50,000, his grandchildren $5,000 and the Methodist Orphanage the Academy of Music at Raleigh or $5,000.

The A. & N. C. railroad is considering the feasibility of building a branch road from LaGrange to Snow Hill.

While removing timbers in a new cotton mill near Madison, two men were killed by a piece of timber falling on them.

The stables of W. C. Stronach, in Raleigh, were burned before day Tuesday morning. Several horses perished in the fire.

The Statesville Landmark says the average cost of maintaining the the Iredell county home for the aged and infirm for the year 1898 was only $2.46 per month for each inmate. The average cost for the past six years is only $2.54 per month for each inmate.

Died.

Mr. W. M. Kinsaul died about 5 o'clock this morning at his home on Greene street. The funeral took place this afternoon in Cherry Hill Cemetery.

Good Catch.

Two sons of Mr. G. L. Moore were out hunting a few nights ago, and in due course of time their dog treed. The young men went for the tree and got two 'possums out of the top and a rabbit out of the hollow.
