Keep a Record.

The farmers of this and every other county should keep an accurate account of all farm products raised this year—the acreage, yield, etc. This for the information of the Census Bureau, which will expect it next June, when the census enumerators will be around and all questions relating to the products of the soil will be asked, and North Carolina should make the best showing possible.

One never knows what heaven is really like until a difficulty is successfully overcome.

LIBERTY LEADS.

Makes Best Sale of the Season

Some days ago the Liberty Warehouse had the largest break of tobacco ever made on a single warehouse floor here, and Wednesday it made the best sale on prices that has been made this season. Look at these figures:

L. S. Jones sold at 14½, 25, 37, 20½, 7½, 40, 47, 15½, 30, 29, 50, 10, 7½, 10½, 20, 44, 35, 43, 38, making an average of $22.75.

H. R. Jones sold at 28, 37, 29, 8½, 39, 18½, 36, 47, 14½, 32, 54, 50, 19½, making an average of $23.75.

Miss Mary Jones also received high prices, making an average of $19.25.

The Liberty will make you just as good an average if you take them a good load of tobacco.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

Durham has been quarantined against Roxboro on account of smallpox in the latter place.

The Bingham school buildings at Asheville, suffered a $3,000 damage by fire Tuesday morning. The boys of the school put the fire out.

Three hundred boxes of blue fish and spots were shipped from Morehead City Tuesday.

Judge Purnell is quoted as saying there is an astonishing increase in the matter of illicit distilling. There is no increase in the Western district. In the Eastern district there are now 400 cases against moonshiners on the docket.

The Citizen says that on Thursday night a flock of partridges flew against a school building in Asheville, with the result that four window panes were broken and a half dozen of the birds were killed by the collision.

THURSDAY, OCTOBER, 26, 1899.

The Little Country paper.

It's just a little paper—it isn't up-to-date;
It hasn't any supplement or colored fashion plate.
It comes out every Friday, unless the forms are pried;
The outside is home-printed, with boiler-plate inside.
It hasn't any cable direct from old Bombay,
But it says that "Colonel Braggins is in our midst today."
It doesn't seem to worry about affairs of State,
But it tells that "Joseph Hawkins has painted his front gate."
It never mentions Kruger or Joseph Chamberlain,
But says that "Thomson's grocery has a new window pane,"
And that "the Mission Workers will give a festival,"
And "there'll be a temperance lecture in William Hooper's Hall."
It tells about the measles that Jimmy Harkins had,
And says that Israel Johnson "has become a happy dad."
It says that "cider-making is shortly to commence,"
And cites the fact that Ira Todd is building a new fence.
It mentions Dewey's coming in one brief paragraph,
And says that "Charlie Trimble has sold a yearling calf."
And everything that happens within that little town,
The man who runs the paper has plainly jotted down.
Some people make fun of it, but, honesty, I like
To learn that "work is booming upon the Jimtown pike."
It's just a little paper—it hasn't much to say—
But as long as it is printed I hope it comes my way.
—Hobart, in Baltimore American.

General Lee and His Fruitful Hen

It was General Lee's custom to leave his tent door open in the morning for a sprightly hen that had gone into the egg business promptly and thus had saved her head. When she stepped in, General Lee would put aside his work and walk post deferentially upon the outside until her cackle announced the mysteries of egg-laying at an end. She roosted and rode in his wagon, was an eye-witness of the battles of Chancellorsville and Gettysburg, and was finally sacrificed upon the altar of hospitality at Orange Court House, in 1864. —November Ladies' Home Journal.

The man who is prompt in meeting his obligations, be he rich or poor, can always be counted on to get all the favors that are going; and the reverse is to be said of the man who fails to honor this system. Some people think it smart to withhold what belongs to their creditors, many of them being amply able to pay at any time.—Suffolk Herald.

The frog shipping industry of Minnesota is hopping right along in spite of the croakers. Over $100,000 worth of frogs quarters were shipped from Minneapolis and St. Paul last year, which required the slaughter of over five million froggies. Epicures up there say the Southern b. f. is larger but not so dainty as the home bred hopper. Wilmington Star.

Some Little-known Facts.

Only eighteen per cent. of all the families in America employ domestic help, leaving eighty-two per cent. without even one servant.

If all the dressmakers known to exist in America worked twenty-four hours of each day for a whole year, without stopping for sleep or meals, they would still be able to make only one dress apiece for less than seven-eighths of the women of America.

Not six per cent. of all the women in America spend as much money as fifty dollars per year on their cloths.

Out of twelve million American families the income of four million of these families is less than $100 each per year, and the incomes of nearly eighty per cent. of the entire number are less than $1000 each per year.

There are scores of places in this country where only one mail comes every fourteen days.

Ask the average person where the central point of area is in the United States and he will fix it somewhere in Illinois. Tell him it is nearer San Francisco and he will be incredulous until he remembers that Alaska is within the boundaries of Uncle Sam.—EDWARD BOK in the November Ladies Home Journal.

The Raleigh Post declares that there are millions of feet of merchantable white pine timber in the forests of Western North Carolina. Because of the difficulty of getting the product to market the lumbering industry in that region has remained undeveloped. But increasing scarcity will bring the timber into market, and if the people of North Carolina be wise in their day and generation they will profit by the experience of the people in the Northern States and make timely regulations for the prevention of wanton ravage of their forests. The wooded lands may be recklessly laid waste, as have been the forests in Pennsylvania, or they may be made sources of permanent productivity. The forests add to the fertility of cultivated areas, hold in check destructive floods, prevent aridity and promote health.—Philadelphia Record.

To School Committeemen

The committee of every School District in the county is required to take a census of the children. A large number of blanks have been distributed. If you have failed to get one apply to me for one. You must take this census and return it to me at least by the first Monday in December or you will be subject to removal from office for nonperformance of duty. This is important. We must have an accurate census of the children of the county. Give a copy to your township trustees and send a copy to me. Don't neglect this another day. The township Trustee will please see that this census is taken in every School District. Oct. 24th, 1899.

Treasurer Worth's Ruling.

In reply to a letter from the sheriff of New Hanover, Treasurer Worth writes the following, explanatory of the revenue act, which is of importance to merchants generally:

Raleigh, N. C., Oct. 20, 1899.
Walter G. MacRae, Sheriff, Wilmington, N. C.

DEAR SIR:

Yours of the 18th is to hand, and noted. You ask "If B is engaged in the grocery business as a dealer, also in tobacco, cigars, etc., does he pay tax on tobacco, cigars, etc., under section 21, and also on his capital under section 23?" In reply, I will say that he should pay all the taxes levied under section 21 on tobacco, cigars, etc., and also should pay under section 23 the tax on his capital employed less the amount of capital used in conducting the business taxed under section 21. The portion of capital employed, under section 21, is not liable to tax under section 23. Your ruling has been strictly in accordance with the ruling of this office and is approved by the same.

Yours very truly,
W. H. WORTH,
State Treasurer.

The Sunday train ought not to be run, perhaps, but it is like the Sunday newspaper. As long as the public desire them and they are profitable to their owners they will quite probably continue. It would be better, no doubt, if everybody would rest on Sunday, but we may hardly hope to see it at all.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

$80,000 for Stopping a Runaway Team.

Cleveland, Oct. 24.—City Councilman J. L. Reilly has fallen heir to $80,000. Four years ago, while in San Antonio, Tex., Mr. Reilly stopped a runaway team, probably saving the life of the driver, a wealthy farmer of Palmer Texas, named John Wallace. His arm was so badly injured in the struggle that for a time amputation was thought to be necessary, but eventually it healed. On Saturday Mr. Reilly received notice from San Antonio that Mr. Wallace had died and left him a legacy of $80,000.

Monroe Hedges, aged 105, died at Indianapolis a few days ago leaving six orphans, five boys and one girl. This is the old gentleman who a short while ago larrupped his 71 year old boy, who came home with too much tangle-foot in him, and quarrelled with his wife.
