Mayor's Court.

Another Monday has come that brought Mayor Moye no cases to try in his court. During last week there were only three small cases to be disposed of.

Frank Stocks, for being drunk and disorderly, was fined a penny and costs, amounting to $2.46.

Joe Reed and Ada Davis were up for being disorderly and using profane language. Reed was found guilty and fined a penny and costs, amounting to $3.76. The woman was not guilty.

B. F. Anderson, for being disorderly, was fined a penny and costs, amounting to $1.96.

What Are We Coming To?

A few days ago a Pitt county man was driving to a neighboring county town, and in the last ten miles met twenty four drunken men. They did not live in that town, perhaps few them lived in that town, perhaps few of them lived in that county; but that beautiful town furnished the drink that sent those men home to grieve and degrade women and children.

How much of that dreadful work is Greenville doing?

A. D. BETS.

Next Comes to Greenville.

Rev. J. N. Booth returned Sunday evening from the Baptist Union at Bethel. He says he has not attended a better. The church there, which was recently rebuilt, was dedicated Sunday morning. The next Union will be held in Greenville, fifth Sunday in December.

All Invited.

Mrs. Louise Kelly, of Emporia, Kansas, National Organizer of the Christian Womens Board of Missions, will lecture in the Methodist church in Greenville, Tuesday night at 7:45 o'clock. She is a most interesting speaker and all who hear her will be delighted.

Confederate Tea.

The Singletary Chapter Daughters of Confederacy will have a tea on Thursday night at Hyman's photograph gallery in the Phoenix building. The tea is for the benefit of Mrs. Stonewall Jackson and should be liberally patronized.

STATE NEWS.

Happenings in North Carolina.

A Lumberton negro attempted a criminal assault on a young lady. He was captured, and within 28 hours after the commission of the crime he had been tried, convicted and sentenced to 15 years hard labor in the penitentiary. Judge Dorsey Battle was holding court in Lumberton at the time and gave the case an immediate hearing.

A new association of Missionary Baptist churches was organized Friday at LaGrange. It is composed of the western portion of the old Atlantic Association. The new association will be known as the Neuse Association. Dr. R. H. Lewis, of Kinston, was elected moderator, and Prof. Debnam, of LaGrange, clerk. There are twenty-two churches in the association.

Sparks show has been giving exhibitions in several towns in the eastern section of the State and paying only a $10 tax. The State Treasurer has decided that they should pay a tax of $100, half to the State and half to the county, for each day.

MONDAY, OCTOBER 30, 1899.

Correspondents, Take Patterns.

There is a man the printer loves, and he is wondrous wise; when he writes the printer man he dotheth all his i's. And when he's dotted all of them with carefulness and ease, he punctuates each paragraph and crosses all his t's. Upon one side alone he writes, and never rolls his leaves; and from the man of ink a smile the mark "insert" receives. And when a question he doth ask taught wisely he has been—he doth the goodly pennystamp, for postage back, put in. He gives the place from which he writes—his address the printer needs—and plainly writes his honored name, so that he that runneth reads. He writes, revises, reads, corrects, and rewrites again, and keeps one copy safe and sends one to the printer man. And thus by taking little pains, at trifling care and cost, assures him that his manuscript will not be burned or lost. And so he speaks through all the land, and thousands hear his word, and in the coming day shall know how well the people heed.

So let all those who long to write, take pattern by this man; with jet black ink and paper white, do just the best they can; and then the printer man shall know, and bless them as his friends, all through life's journey as they go, until that journey ends.—Exchange.

The Ceremony of the Hat

"The ceremony of the hat is somewhat more punctilious than formerly," writes Mrs. Burton Kingsland of "Good Form for All Occasions." in the November Ladies Home Journal. A man awaits the lady's recognition before he raises his hat to her. He also raises his hat when presented to a woman, when meeting and taking leave of her, when about to address her, or when she first speaks to him—for whatever reason, if he passes her on a stairway or in front of her in a public conveyance, theatre or elsewhere—indeed, whenever the least apology would be in order; when he offers his services in any way, even tacitly, or shows her some trifling courtesy; and he should always raise his hat when acknowledging her thanks. A man should pay the same mannerly tribute to her sex when a woman enters an elevator, and remain uncovered during her stay therein. He should also raise his hat upon recognizing an acquaintance who has a lady with him. If the friends with whom he may be bows to a lady, he should show the same courtesy, although she may be unknown to him. Should a lady be with him and recognize a friend, he should lift his hat."

The Earnings of Playwrights

Dramatists of established reputation write plays only upon order. Their ordinary prepayments are five hundred dollars upon the delivery of a scenario, and five hundred dollars more upon the completion of a play. "If the finished work does not realize expectations, writes Franklin Fyles, of "The Theatre and Its People," in the November Ladies' Home Journal, "or if the manager for any other reason does not desire to put it on the stage, the money paid is forfeited after a certain lapse of time, and the ownership reverts to the author. But if the manager decides to produce the piece the author receives a percentage of the gross receipts, usually five per cent. payable weekly, after the amount previously advanced has been deducted. Ordinarily it increases with the amount of money taken in. More than one native drama has earned one hundred thousand dollars for its author. A dozen have yielded fifty thousand dollars each; three times as many, twenty-five thousand dollars, and a goodly number, ten thousand dollars."

The United Confederate Veterans of New Orleans are planning to purchase Beauvoir, Jefferson Davis' Mississippi home, for an industrial farm for ex-Confederate soldiers who are still able to do light work. The organization has received an intimation that Mrs. Davis desires to sell the property, that she may invest in real estate in New Orleans and make that city her home.

Points For Boys.

The following suggestions, made by Darius O. Mills, the millionaire, are worthy of reproduction. Mr. Mills is now worth $25,000,000, which he has acquired by observing these rules:

First—Work develops all the good there is in a man; idleness all the evil; therefore work if you would be good—and successful.

Second—Sleep eight hours, work twelve, and pick your recreation with an eye to good results.

Third—Save one dollar out of every five you earn. It is not alone the mere saving of money that counts, it is the intellectual and moral discipline the saving habit enforces.

Fourth—Be humble, not servile or undignified, but respectful in the presence of superior knowledge, position or experience.

Fifth—Most projects fail owing to poor business management, and that means a poor man at the helm.

Sixth—Success is measured by the good one does, not by the number of his millions or the extent of his power.

Teller—"My wife is a remarkable woman. Ask—"In what way?" Teller—"I went shopping with her yesterday and she seemed to know exactly what she wanted."

STORM FACERS.

Some Don't Stop for Weather.

Lovet Hines, of Kinston, spent today here.

S. R. Ross returned from Kinston this morning.

W. H. Cox, of Kinston, was here today.

Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Flanagan returned Saturday evening from their bridal trip north.

W. W. Moore, of Asheville, who has been spending a week with friends here, left this morning for his home.

Miss Smith arrived today to make her abode with her happy father, W. R. Smith, in South Greenville.

Mrs. M. L. Pierce, of Raleigh, who has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. E. M. Cheek, returned home today.

A Smile in Each.

A pencil may be driven, and be lead, too.

A hot time is often the result of cold cash.

It's a poor lawyer that can't get a fall suit.

The fireman on an ocean steamer is a sort of coal tar.

Eve was the first woman to inaugurate fall styles.

Now doth the little busy bee invade the Presidential bonnet.

The average politician never gets out of breath running for office.

Mrs. Muggins—"I see by the papers that carpets are going up."

Mrs. Buggins—"I'm just putting mine down."

The young father who tramps the floor at night with a squalling infant is usually a successful tacks collector.

"In union there is strength," remarked the Jersey farmer as he poured a little applejack into his glass of corn juice.

When a woman with a new bonnet refuses to go to church the minister might as well admit that she is beyond saving.

Fire in Kinston.

Sunday night about 11 o'clock the machine shops of Mr. Ed. Hodges, at Kinston, were destroyed by fire. The loss is estimated at from $1,500 to $2,000, upon which there was no insurance. An adjoining wood working shop was also destroyed. There was a small amount of insurance on the latter.

Marriage Licenses.

During the past week Register of Deeds Moore issued six marriage licenses, all to white couples. They were as follows:

John Keel and Malissa Burras.

Joas Norris and Hetty Briley.

George Meeks and Lizzie Riddick.

Will Brown and Mollie Meeks.

Offa Dail and Piercy Jones.

J. B. Skittlethorp and Eva M. Evans.

THE AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS

THE "NECESSARY" MAGAZINE

The best-informed men and women in the world use the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS to keep well informed, and call it the "necessary" and "indispensable" magazine. In the busy rush of to-day ambitious men and women must know about the important questions of the month, and not only this, they want to know about them at the right time. When the whole country is puzzled over the gigantic combination of trusts, a well-informed article is printed in the AMERICAN MONTHLY, giving the facts, and its editor discusses the theory; when the Dreyfus affair is in everyone's mouth, the best story of Dreyfus and the great case comes out in this magazine.

Every month, in "The Progress of the World," Dr. Albert Shaw gives a comprehensive picture of the world's history during the previous thirty days. In the departments, the valuable articles and books that have been published during the past month are reviewed and quoted from, so that the readers of the AMERICAN MONTHLY can get the gist of them. In every issue nearly a hundred pictures are printed, including the portraits of the men and women who are making the history of the month.

To be thoroughly well informed helps any man or woman in his or her work. A subscription to the AMERICAN MONTHLY REVIEW OF REVIEWS represents an investment for the best kind of profit, as well as entertainment. One subscriber has just written: "Count me a life subscriber, and when you send me a number beyond the limit of my subscription and secure no renewal from me, consider it a notice of my death."

Christianity In Business.

"There is not the least question that as the commercial world is organized and run to-day it is run at a fearful loss along the side of money," writes Rev. Charles M. Sheldon, author of "In His Steps," in the November Ladies' Home Journal. "Even the rules of success that business men lay down do not insure success. Perhaps no age has equaled this for disturbance and unrest and warring interests in the business world. If the principles of Christianity were applied to the whole business world it would cause a shock that for the time being would result in what might indeed prove to be the greatest financial panic of the ages. But out of that result would emerge a new order of buying and selling that would result ultimately in more financial success on the part of more people than the world has ever witnessed. Ultimately love will pay in dollars and cents better than selfishness. On selfish principles the business world to-day does not succeed even in the matter of making money—that is, not for any length of time nor for the masses of the people. Love in business would lose less money, and actually distribute the real earnings of toil among a far greater number of human beings, than is possible now under the present system."
