JAMES DINWIDDIE, M. A.

MRS. EDDY'S IGNOMINIOUS FAILURE.

Christian Science has suffered a Waterloo in Philadelphia. Joseph P. Morgan, a consumptive and a devotee of this craze, died there on the 2d of the month, after suffering agonies and yet receiving no aid from physicians.

Five years ago Morgan was married, but long before this he was a "Christian Scientist." He easily made a convert of his bride. Recently, his dread disease was seen to be swiftly sapping his life, but the fact only lead to an increase of the "prayers" on the part of his wife, and the healer, one Mrs. Darlington, who was with him constantly during his last days.

Morgan died in great agony. In his dying moments he realized that his so-called religion could not help him and pleaded to have a physician. Then it was that his wife, to whom he had taught his own fanaticism, interposed, and, ignoring his pleadings for a doctor, gave him instead a copy of The Christian Science Sentinel and told him to read it, that it might make his faith complete. It was on the cover-lid of his bed when he died.

Morgan's family was one of wealth, influence and social standing, and this fact added to the sensation that his death, under the circumstances, created in Philadelphia.

But one of the principal reasons the affair has attracted so much attention is that Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the arch-fakiness of this fanatical fad, tried her hand on the sick man and ignominiously failed to benefit him. Let the Philadelphia Times of the 4th tell the story:

It was proposed that Mrs. Mary Baker G. Eddy, the fountain-head of Christian Science, who lives in Boston, should be called to Philadelphia to see whether her prayers would have any better effect in the case. Morgan was a wealthy man, so there was no consideration of the expense attached to such a proposition, any more than there would have been in any other family to the calling of some eminent specialist in tubercular diseases.

Mrs. Eddy—she called herself the Rev. Mrs. Eddy—came from Boston and was received at the Morgan house. Mrs. Darlington was also there. Mrs. Eddy went to the sick man's room, and excluding all others, prayed with him. When she had finished Mrs. Darlington went in and prayed. Each beseeched the sufferer to have greater faith and be cured. After each had prayed with him both went in together and there was joint prayer. Mrs. Eddy remained for several days and there was constant praying at the bedside of the man on whom the hand of death had already been laid.

It is not now known whether he felt any immediate improvement. At all events, he showed none, and the ravages of the disease continued. Mrs. Eddy returned to Boston, and Mrs. Darlington remained to continue her ministrations.

No doubt Mrs. Eddy made a good thing out of this professional visit, for whatever else "Christian Science" may fail in, it never fails to charge good fees; and ignominious as her failure was in this Morgan case, it will do "Christian Science" little damage. It will be charged up to Morgan's "lack of faith," although the poor fellow held out longer than most men would. Mrs. Eddy and her religion (?) will live and thrive and make converts. There will always be fakirs as long as there are fools.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 11, 1899.

The Nebraska election beyond doubt establishes the fact that Mr. Bryan is the most available candidate for next year.

Teddy Roosevelt's home town returned a Democratic majority. Evidently Teddy's townsmen do not accept him at his own valuation.

Now that the election is over, there is nothing to prevent the Civil Service Commission taking notice of the violations of the law out in Ohio.

Virginia and Mississippi show up at the top of the Democratic column as usual. These reliable States being much satisfaction to Democrats everywhere.

If, as reported, Jim Jeffries has taken to the stage, he will experience no difficulty in making up as Cyrano de Bergerac. Sharkey has given him the nose for this part.

Of course Pennsylvania gave the Republican ticket a large majority. But some light is shed on methods there by the lodging in jail of several alleged repeaters.

Some idea of the harmony prevailing in Republican ranks in Maryland may be found in Senator Wellington's remark that: "Loudes' defeat is a just chastisement."

Now that election is over, President McKinley may continue his great missionary enterprise of carrying civilization at the sword's point to the benighted Filipinos.

Kentucky Democrats should bury their personal differences and pull together next time. Two Republican Governors in succession is not a good showing for the Bluegrass State.

One of the causes contributing to the result of the Democratic victory in Maryland was the persecution of Admiral Schley by the Navy Department. Being Schley's native state, it was but natural that his friends should take special notice of the scandal. The President was warned on this point several months ago, and those who gave him the warning were prominent republican friends of Schley who were in a position to know whereof they spoke.

The Maryland Democrats are not wasting much time worrying about events at Ladysmith, now that they have learned of the good fortune that has fallen to John Walter Smith.

There can be no doubt of the effect of the Maryland victory on the fortunes of Arthur Pue Gorman. The triumph there means his rehabilitation in politics and his ultimate restoration to his former influence.

Nebraska remains true to Mr. Bryan. Turn the fact whichever way they may, the enemies of this brilliant young statesman cannot controvert the truth of the leader's arguments or disengage him from the affections of his party.

Richard Croker scored a signal triumph in New York city, and in the four counties, comprising the consolidated city. Had the friends of Senator Hill made so good a showing up-the-State New York would not be in the hands of Boss Platt.

Maryland Democrats did well. They have redeemed their state from the hands of unscrupulous Republican leaders into whose power the commonwealth was delivered by an odious conspiracy, in which prominent National Democrats were involved.

WASHINGTON LETTER.

From Our Regular Correspondent.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Nov. 10, '99.

"A Bryan triumph" is what nearly every democrat and many republicans see in the results of the State elections, and it is not likely that there will be any more serious talk of anybody else for the head of the democratic ticket, next year. Col. Bryan's magnificent success in his own State, where he largely increased the fusion majority in the face of many obstacles, including the influence of the Federal administration and the lavish expenditure of money by the republicans, aroused admiration even among his opponents.

Boss Hanna's success in Ohio, probably the most costly campaign ever carried on in a single State, is accepted as having knocked the bottom out of all the schemes to spring an anti-McKinley candidate on the republicans, and, unless something of a scandalous nature should be fastened upon his administration between now and the meeting of the republican national convention, Mr. McKinley will not be opposed for renomination; but a strong element in the republican party, including many of its most prominent men in Congress, have already begun to demand of Mr. McKinley that he depose King Hanna before the Presidential campaign opens. That will not be an easy job, as Hanna has as much justification in claiming his dearly paid for victory in Ohio as a personal vindication as Mr. McKinley has in claiming it as an endorsement of imperialism by the country.

Admiral Dewey carried his specialty of doing things before others think he is ready to do them into the arrangements for his marriage. Two days ago he procured his marriage license, and he'll probably be married before the public knows anything more about it.

A Smile in Each.
When a young man sows wild oats it's natural that bad habits should grow on him.
Lots of people who say they don't believe in signs will shy at one which reads "Paint."

J. L. STARKEY & BRO

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 8 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections.

One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot no 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J S Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J S Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west, known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J R Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches, schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers pay one third a down payment and the balance in three equal payments.

THOS. J. JARVIS and HARRY SKINNER, Commissioners.

Mrs. Pennie Williams, of Roanoke Rapids, arrived Friday evening to visit Mrs. Furney Powell.

Mrs. N. W. Askew, of Ayden, after spending a few days with Mrs. Alfred Forbes, returned home Friday evening.

Pythian Banquet.

After the meeting Friday night, Tar River Lodge K. of P. partook of a very enjoyable banquet at Hotel Macon. The members took their wives and sweethearts along to help enjoy the feast. The bill of fare consisted of oysters raw and fried, quail on toast, crackers, cheese straws, celery, olives, mixed pickles, coffee and fruits. It was quite a pleasant occasion.

False Alarm.

The engineer of one of the tobacco stemmeries caused the town to be thrown into general excitement, Friday night, by blowing the whistle unnecessarily long. People down town thought it was fire, the fire alarm began ringing, the department turned out and there was general pandemonium until the false alarm was discovered.

ORIGINAL OBSERVATIONS.

Made by the Orange Va. Observer.

Hanna is the head of the Republican party—McKinley is merely its verminiform appendix.

The best way to find your girl out is to call at her house during the hour of the circus parade.

That South African belle, Lady Smith, seems to have too many Boers to suit her British admirers.

The census to be taken next year will show this county to have a population of 75,000,000—mostly fools.

Strange that the papers haven't told us about Edgar Allan Poe being on his last "bust" at the University.

The world doesn't owe anybody a living—you either have to scratch or steal—inheriting a fortune or going to preaching.

"Between two evils choose the least," says the old adage. Some people are so kindly disposed that they choose both.

There are seven books in print on the subject of "How to manage a husband," and every one was written by an old maid.

Received the Paper and Had to Pay.

A case of interest to newspaper publishers occurred recently at Westbrook, N. Y., wherein a firm of newspaper publishers brought suit, and obtained judgment for $9 and costs, on account of subscription charge. The publishers admitted that the defendant never ordered the paper. The facts were not disputed that when they bought in the list of another paper in the town, this man's name was on that list, but without his orders. The new management wrote all whose names were on the list they had bought, offering to stop the papers of all who did not expect to pay. The defendant did not answer this notice, but kept on taking the papers and then refused to pay on the ground that he never subscribed. The plaintiffs argued that the general rule of law, that a man must pay for what he receives and uses, applies to newspapers as well as other things, and the court sustained that view.—Newspaperdom.

WINTERVILLE DEPARTMENT.

NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Nov. 11, '99

We need a good livery stable here now.

Claude Chapman, of Calico, was here on business yesterday.

R. L. Jones, of Aurora, who lived here a short while ago came in last night.

G. W. Parker is back from the hanging at his old post again. Wire fence is rushing.

A. G. Cox is offering good inducements for any business man to locate here except a liquor dealer. See F. O. Cox if you want a nice building lot cheap with a two roomed house in good position to build to.

The debate in the Wiley Literary Society last night on the query "Resolved that it requires more ability to spend money well than to make it," was very warm. The affirmative won.

HANGING IS STRETCHING.

And they say "lying's catching," but we are not lying when we say that our goods are the best and cheapest on the market. Our patrons know this, and we invite trial orders from those who doubt it.

A. G. Cox Mfg. Co.

One of the debaters last night addressed the audience as gentleman and ladies. He said his reason for putting ladies last was that he preferred the best last. We are going to give you the best last all the time, as our makers have more experience and are better judges of material.

WINTERVILLE CIGAR CO.

Bud Joe caught several unawares the other day when he told them in all seriousness that they could not hear from Washington any more. They of course thought he meant that something was the matter with the 'phone line to that town. When they anxiously asked "why?" Bud Joe said "He's dead" and left them to grin it out.
