NEWSY HAPPENINGS AND BUSINESS NOTES.

WINTERVILLE, Nov. 15, '99

It was 10:30 o'clock last night when the freight train arrived here.

Price of fence wire is advancing, so price of wire fence must advance. G. W. Parker will tell you all about it.

Mr. Lewis Kittrell is having the brick work done to his house, and in a few days it will be completed.

Sim Chapman with a Mr. Walker, just returned from the conference, stopped over a few hours Monday on their way home.

B. F. Manning is not mad every time he looks bad. As for his clerks, they are all Bud Joe represented them to be, and you will find it so.

Peter Hines walks all the way over here to school from his home just this side of Ayden. Although he comes by rail the distance is over 3 miles.

Night before last J. L. Jackson acted as watchman for the town. If the meteoric shower came, he was to ring the bell and wake us up. Didn't hear the bell, so guess everything is all right.

I. A. Sugg Jr. our young salesman, has just returned from another successful trip. Think the line of customers that he is working up will stay with us awhile, as he is going to use every endeavor to please them, and supply them regularly.

WINTERVILLE CIG. CO.

A. G. Cox is making preparation to sow wheat. This reminds us that it would be well for farmers in general to pay more attention to this very important part of farming. You need not judge by last year's wheat crop as that was almost a total failure. Should you need any for seed A. G. Cox has a limited quantity of fine wheat which he will sell at $1.00 per bushel. A. G. Cox Mfg. Co. is paying the best attention to their flour mill, and will be ready to convert it into flour for you.

Meet Thursday.

A mistake was made in giving the time of the meeting of the Daughters of the Confederacy for publication in Tuesday's REFLECTOR. Instead of this afternoon the meeting will be held Thursday afternoon, at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Miss Lillian Cherry. All members requested to be present and any others who wish to become members of the chapter.

Bowen--Tucker.

Mr. W. A. Bowen, accompanied by Mr. B. J. Pulley, left Tuesday evening for Plymouth, where at 7 o'clock this morning Mr. Bowen and Miss Lula Tucker were married. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Bowen left for the north on a bridal tour before coming to make their home in Greenville.

Curious Potatoes.

Master Heber Barber, son of Mrs. M. J. Barber, near town, brought THE REFLECTOR some very curious sweet potatoes. One of them was coiled up like a sleeping snake, and the other was three joined together by strings. Two potatoes hung from a third one like clock weights by strings about a foot long.

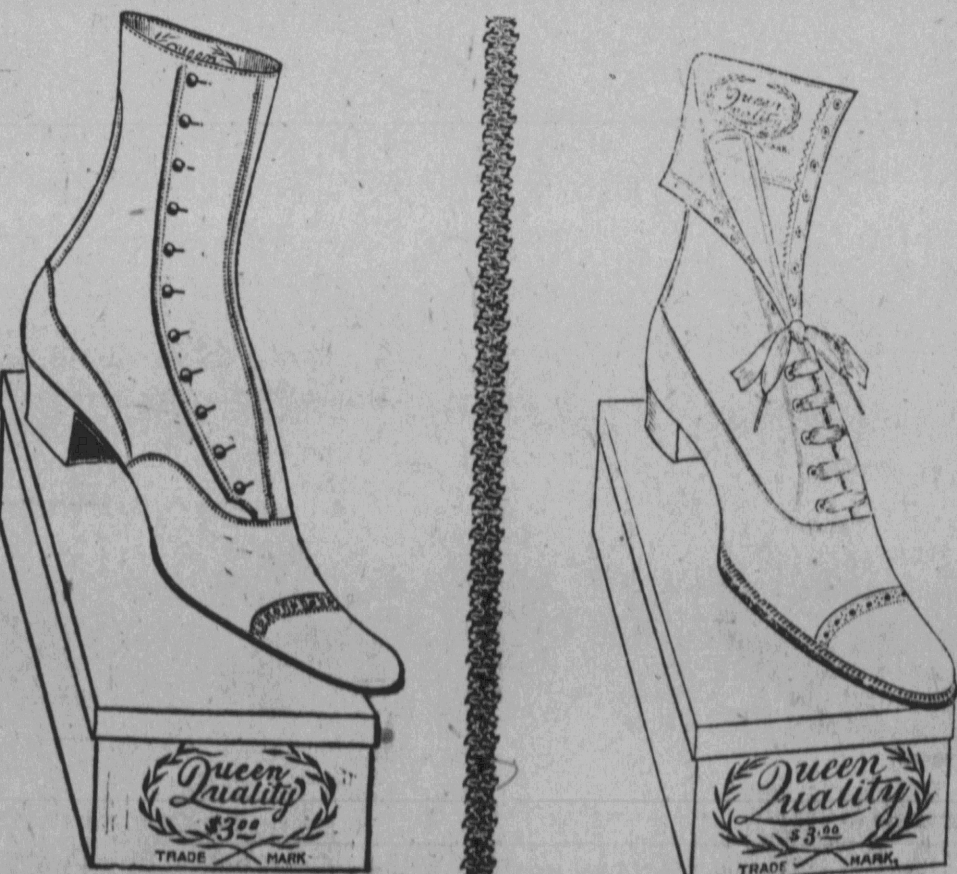

Blanks for deeds, land mortgages, chattel mortgages, crop liens, and the new form mortgage adopted by the last Legislature are for sale at THE REFLECTOR office.

Mr J. L. Harris has moved his paper, the Messenger, from Springhope to Rocky Mount and is now publishing it daily. We have received the first copy of the daily edition and it makes a most creditable beginning. Here's wishing it may meet with great success.

Great captures by the Americans in the Philippines are again being reported from Manila. And they say that Aguinaldo is surrounded. Maybe he is, but the next report may tell of his bobbing up somewhere else giving the Americans as much trouble as ever.

Lymna Cotton Writes Interesting Letters Home

Through the kindness of Mr. R. R. Cotten THE REFLECTOR again has the pleasure of giving its readers some interesting extracts from letters written by his son, Mr. Lymna A. Cotten, who is a member of the U.S. Navy and is now at Manila.

U. S. S. GLACIER, } Aug 7, '99.
HONG KONG, CHINA, }

MY DEAR MOTHER:

You will not be surprised to get a letter from me here as I wrote you I expected to come to China. I am not sorry to be away from Manila for a few weeks, as it is just at the height of the rainy season there. We left Manila last Friday and after rather a rough trip arrived here this afternoon. We will probably remain here for two or three weeks. I have not been ashore yet but expect to see the city thoroughly before we leave. Hong Kong is one of the nicest places in the East. If I can get off for a few days I will try to go to Canton and see that place also.

I continue to be perfectly well, but I am so tanned by the exposure to the sun that I am positively brown, but I do not mind that. I think my prospects are good for an early return to the States, and I begin to look forward to it. Unless Congress makes some changes I will probably be in San Francisco by April, on my way back to Annapolis. But there is plenty of time to discuss this. Write to me often and send me some home papers.

HONG KONG CHINA, Aug 19, '99.

MY DEAR SISTER:

I enjoyed your letter so much. You can have no idea of the value of a letter to anyone so far from home as I am now, and your letters are so jolly and so much like you.

Our stay in Hong Kong has been very pleasant, but I could not get off to go to Canton as I hoped. This is a very pretty place, built at the foot of a mountain, and the view from the top is grand. On a clear day one can see forty miles, to the eastward the China Sea, dotted with islands and alive with Chinese junks; to the westward China in all its solitude. It is very impressive. I have learned to respect the Chinese very much more since I have seen them at home. They are a patient, hard-working people, and deserve great credit for what they have accomplished. I never tire looking at the tiny feet of the women of the higher class. You sometimes see a full grown woman with feet not over three inches long.

Another thing of great interest is the class that lives in small boats, or sampans, as they are called. A family of seven or eight will live in a sampan but little larger than a Tar river canoe. The woman carries her baby strapped to her back with only its head out, and as she works or rows, the baby's head rolls from side to side and looks as though it would break its neck, but it does not for it seems to sleep quite soundly.

The silk and embroidery here is beautiful but as I may have to be on several more ships before I get back, and space on board ship is so limited I fear I would ruin it before I could get it home. We expect to return to Manila in a few days and I will then probably be transferred to some other ship. However, address me as usual until you hear to the contrary.

* * * * *
U. S. S. GLACIER, }
HONG KONG CHINA, }

MY DEAR ELBA;

I know you have read all my letters home but I write this to show you that I think of you as well as the other people at dear old Cottdale. Sometimes in the afternoon I wonder what you all are doing, and then I remember that it is two or three o'clock at night with you all for I am on the other side of the world and when it is day with you it is night with me. I know it would interest you to see the Chinese as I see them every day. All the men and boys, even the little ones, have a long queue hanging down their backs, while the women and girls do up their hair in a knot at the back of their heads and then stick a big hairpin in it. Some of the girls are quite pretty but not like American girls. The little children are afraid of Americans, and one hard look at them will send them away as fast as they can run. The women and men wear clothes alike, only made of different kinds of cloth. They wear only a loose pair of trousers coming down nearly to their ankles and a shirt hanging loose outside their trousers. All of the women wear large ear rings. The grown women have feet not near as large as yours. You see, when they are children they tie their feet up so they cannot grow.

We expect to leave here tomorrow but will not go direct to Manila. We will go over to Apari, in the northern portion of the island of Luzon and then will cruise down the western side, touching at the Lingazen Gulf and Subig Bay, and then to Manila. We will be on the lookout for filibusters, and if we meet any will make them sorry to see us.

MANILA, } Sept 4, '99.
PHILIPPINE ISLANDS, }

MY DEAR FATHER:

We left Hong Kong just after my last letter and went directly to Apari and on down the western coast of Luzon, touching at Lingazen Gulf, Subig Bay and Marayales. We were on the lookout for filibusters and Philippine ships, and while we did not capture any ourselves, we saw one of our gunboats capture a small vessel a few miles from us.

I have never told you much

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 3 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections.

One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot No 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J S Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J S Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west, known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J R Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches, schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers pay one third a arrangement for deferred payments.

From Far Across The Sea.

about the Philippines, but there is much which would interest you. There are about ten million people, a number of whom are educated, but a big majority are ignorant and superstitious. The educated ones are of course the leaders and they urge on the masses, who have but limited ideas of the meaning of liberty and independence. They fight like fanatics and do not fear death, because they believe that any one killed in battle goes at once to the seventh heaven. Neither do the leaders object to having their men killed provided they can kill a few Americans in return.

The island of Luzon is simply a succession of hill and swamp, and you readily see the value of this to the the insurgents, carrying on the kind of warfare they do. There are twelve hundred islands in all but the seat of the trouble is in Luzon. When we have this island the trouble will be over. The islands are exceedingly rich in natural products, minerals and forests, and when the war ceases developments will be very rapid.

When we reached here I was very glad to get a lot of mail, with seven letters from home. I have not enjoyed anything so much in a long time. Letters are doubly prized out here, and you all must write often. I expect I will soon be transferred to another ship. With love for all.

Your devoted son,
LYMAN COTTON.

Public School.

The Committee for the Greenville public school held a meeting Tuesday night to select teachers for the coming term. Miss Bessie Harding was selected principal and Miss Appie Smith assistant. They are both excellent young ladies and competent teachers, and the school will be well conducted under their charge. The school will open on Monday, 27th inst., and continue through the regular spring session.

Charleston Wrecked.

Manila, Nov. 14.—The U. S. cruiser Charleston, which had been patrolling along the northern coast of Luzon was wrecked off the north west coast Tuesday, Nov. 7. All on board were saved. The entire crew number 386. When the news reached here it caused great excitement, and a boat was sent to investigate the disaster, and bring back the officers and crew.

The Charleston ran aground on a hidden reef near Vigan. The crew worked the vessel's machinery two days and nights trying to get her off the rocks, but a severe typhoon was arising and the crew was compelled to take the life boats and seek refuge on a small island five miles away.

GRIFTON ITEMS.

GRIFTON, N. C. Nov. 15, 1899.

Dr. H. Johnson came down on the cars from Kinston Saturday morning and returned at night.

Bryan Gardner and family spent a few days in New Bern last week.

F. M. Kilpatrick was on the streets Monday.

Good many Griftonians were seen at Mays Chapel Sunday.

The stock holders of the Grifton Tobacco Mfg. Co. met Monday.

Messrs. Means and Abbott are here again on a hunting tour. They are from Boston Mass.

Business Will Be Suspended

It is now two weeks to Thanksgiving Day. We take it for granted that Greenville will follow her long established custom and all places of business be closed on that day. When the custom first began here THE REFLECTOR would send a reporter among the business men and publish the names of all who agreed to close. But the closing of late years has been so general that it is only necessary to say now that everybody will close up and observe Thanksgiving Day. We mention it far enough ahead for our readers over the county to know there will be no business done in Greenville that day.

WINE OF CARDUI

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible

FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES,

irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."

HIGGS & TAFT.
 THE FURNITURE MEN

Our Greensboro correspondent states that the Southeastern Tariff Association has cut its rates throughout North Carolina 25 to 33 1-3 per cent. on dwelling houses, school houses, court houses and churches, and infers that the Greensboro companies are responsible for it. This will effect a great saving, for which the people owe gratitude to the home companies. They should any way, foster the home companies with their patronage, as they keep the money in North Carolina. —Charlotte Observer.

Corbett Challenges Jeffries
 New York, Nov. 13.—James J. Corbett has challenged James J. Jeffries, to fight for the heavy-weight championship of the world. Corbett deposited $5,000, to be covered by Jeffries in any way he sees fit. It may be taken as a wager or a forfeit. Corbett, in his letter, states that he desires an immediate match.
