JAMES DINWIDDIE, M. A.

Little--Thomas

On Wednesday evening at half past 6 o'clock Miss Mary Thomas will be married to James Lafayette Little, of Greenville, N. C. Following the marriage a wedding reception to a limited number of guests will be given by Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Richardson, and the bride and groom will leave at once for their home in North Carolina, where Mr. Little is Cashier of the Bank of Greenville and a prominent factor in the material growth of the place.

Miss Thomas is a daughter of the late James Washington Thomas, who served the State with great distinction. She is gifted with beauty and intellectually, is cultured and bright.

The wedding arrangements are very effective. Miss Jessie Thomas, the bride's sister, will be maid of honor, and Misses Ada Morrow, Martha Woolwine, Fannie May Howell and Susie Hunter the bridesmaids. Mrs. Granbery Jackson will be the matron of honor. The best man is William O. Little, of Newport News, Va., and the groomsmen are Messrs. Watson, of Greenville, J. T. Norris, of Cartersville, Ga., John Owen, of Clarksville, and Lytton Hickman. The ushers are Messrs. Joe B. Morgan, Jordan Stokes, W. K. Phillips and Charles Harman. The flower girls are little Misses Ann Richardson and Virginia Morgan.—Nashville, Tenn. American.

Harding--Harding

On Wednesday at noon in St. John's Episcopal church, Johnsons Mills, by Rev. Nathaniel Harding, of Washington, Mr. F. C. Harding and Miss Annie B. Harding were married.

The church was beautifully decorated with flowers and evergreens.

The attendants were Miss Martha Harding and Miss Carrie Hughes, of Chocowinity, Flowers Seawell, of Jonesboro, and Miss Bessie Harding, of Greenville, H. P. Harding, of New Berne, and Miss Mary Lee Seawell, of Jonesboro, Jarvis Harding, of Greenville and Miss Bessie Harding, of Washington; Miss Sarah Harding sister of the bride was Maid of Honor, and Wm. F. Harding brother of the groom was best man. The ushers were J. M. Reuss, of Greenville and Walter Mewborn, of Johnsons Mills.

Immediately after the marriage the bridal party and a few relatives and friends of the bride and groom were entertained at dinner at the home of the bride's brother, Walter Harding, and in the evening came to Greenville.

Thursday morning Mr. and Mrs. Harding left for Washington, D. C. and other northern Cities. Mr. Harding is a rising young lawyer of Greenville. The bride is the accomplished daughter of the late Frederick Harding. They have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long, happy and prosperous life.

More Are Needed.

When building a house in Greenville is contemplated now it is rented before material is placed on the ground, and as the work progresses there are a dozen other applications for it. This gives an idea of how much houses are needed in Greenville.

A Convenience.

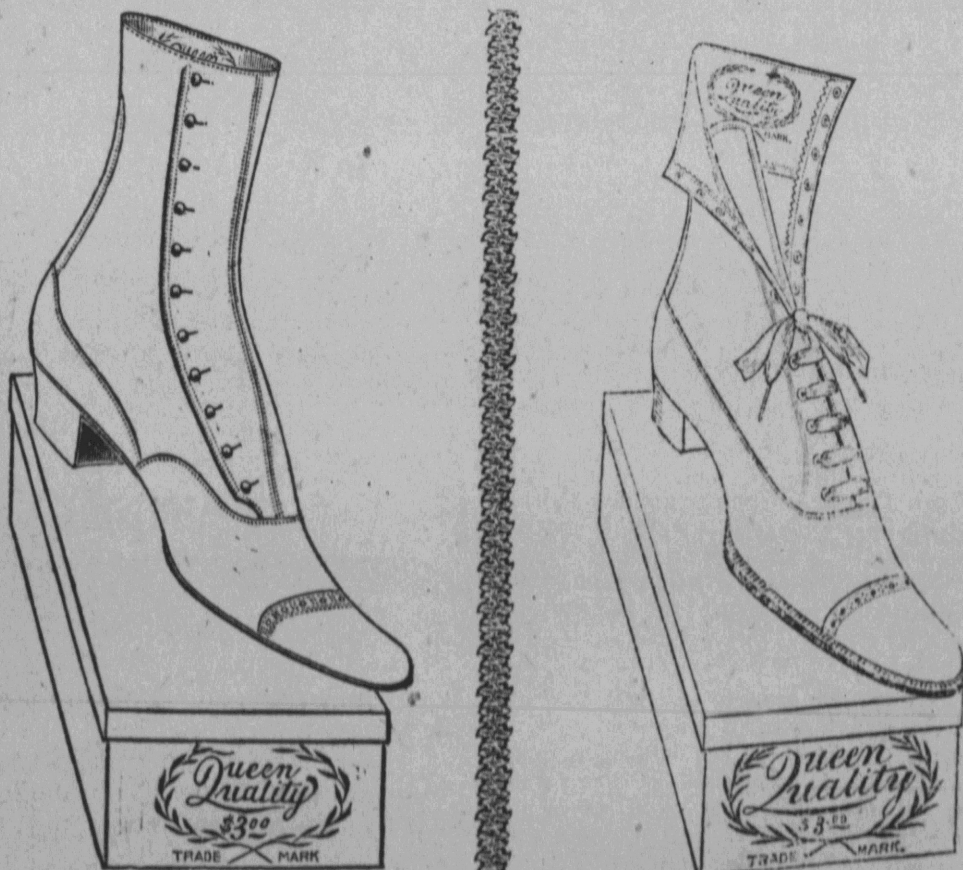

The Coast Line has added a passenger coach to its daily freight to Plymouth. Persons can now go to any point on the A. & R. from here and return the same day, the train passing here about 7:30 and returning about 5 o'clock in the afternoon.—Tarboro Southerner.

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER, 17, 1899.

Secretary Root intends to enlarge the divisions of affairs of outlying possessions, and he is said to be casting about for an executive chief well informed on the tariff and colonial matters. R. P. Porter is said to have declined the offer of this position.

He Saved The Train.

An old negro, George Henry, who lives about a mile below Hot Springs, at the Lime Kiln, showed unusual presence of mind the other evening. Sitting in the doorway of his home he heard the sound of falling rocks and upon going out found a rock on the track weighing several tons. It had slipped on the side of the mountain. The evening west bound passenger train was due, so Uncle George sent his son running up towards the depot to stop it while he himself ran about a mile in the opposite direction to flag any train which might be coming up from Point Rock. The slide occurred at a very dangerous part of the road and it would have been difficult for an engineer to see the obstacle in time to stop his train.—Asheville Citizen.

The Mill Helps the Farmers.

The Post seeks to show the farm as prosperous as the mill. We cannot undertake to say whether it is or not. But whether it is or not, the farmer can have no grudge against the mill man. He is largely debtor to the mill. They furnish a competitive market for his cotton, and North Carolina farmers have this year upward of a cent per pound more for their staple than they would have received had they been dependent upon New York and export markets alone. This in addition to local market for produce. Wise farmers rejoice in the mill prosperity, which is bringing so many new mills to their doors to buy their products.—Rockingham Anglo-Saxon.

Going to the Show

A frog, a duck, a lamb and a skunk presented themselves at the door of the animal theatre and sought admission. The frog was let in because it had a green back, the duck because it had a bill and the lamb because it had four quarters. Now, some one in the crowd must, and naturally will, ask, "What became of the skunk?" and the smarty's answer will be, "Oh! it failed to get in because it had a scent, and a very bad one."—Ex.

ROUNDLAP BALES TESTED.

A Georgia Farmer got $1.25 per Bale more for Roundlap than for Square Cotton.

Mr. James H. Camp, one of the most successful farmers of Floyd County, Georgia, asked recently by a reporter of the Rome Georgian what he thought of the American Cotton Company's Roundlap bale, said: "The other day I put it to the severest possible test. I took cotton to Arnold's [square bale] gin in North Rome and the same day I carried some of the same lot of cotton to Hancock's Roundlap gin in Rome. I sold both lots of cotton in Rome the same day and after every item of expense was charged against each, I cleared one dollar and twenty-five cents a bale more on the Roundlap cotton."

Some seem to think that it will be hard work to carry the constitutional amendment next year. Perhaps it will, but there ought to be nothing alarming in that. Few things worth the doing are done easily. The best and brightest rewards come from the hardest and most persistent toil. The most complete victories follow the hardest fought battles. So let no one feel discouraged because it will be hard to carry the amendment. It will be hard, but it will be carried; and it will be the strongest and best stimulus to general education that North Carolina has ever known.—Scotland Neck Commonwealth.

The Best Christmas Gift of All.

In choosing a Christmas gift for a friend what can afford more present or lasting pleasure than a subscription to The Youth's Companion? The delight with which it is welcomed on Christmas morning is renewed every week in the year. The charm of it is disclosed little by little as the months run their course. There is no household in which it will not prove an inspiration.

Those who wish to present a year's subscription to a friend may also have the beautiful new Companion Calendar for 1900 sent with it. This Calendar is a reproduction in twelve color printings of three exquisite designs by a celebrated American artist, a member of the American Water-Color Society. In addition to this all the issues of The Companion for the remaining weeks of 1899 are sent free from the time subscription is received for the new volume.

Illustrated Announcement Number containing a full prospectus of the volume for 1900 sent free to any address.

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION,
203 Columbus Ave., Boston, Mass.

A London paper says that a school master was recently giving a class of lads between nine and twelve years old a parsing lesson and having meditated for a moment to think of a suitable sentence, wrote on the blackboard the words: "The brave Boers shelled the British camp." To his amazement the class first broke out with hisses, and then with one accord sang, "God Save the Queen." When the amazed pedagogue had sufficiently recovered from his surprise to secure order he told the head boy to proceed with the parsing. "Please, sir, I can't parse that, because the Boers haven't any business on our ground," replied the patriotic urchin, and to suit the tastes of his pupils the teacher was compelled to give them another sentence to construe.

It certainly seems strange for Republicans to be threatening to disfranchise illiterate white men, because the Democrats will disfranchise illiterate negroes. Democrats think that an illiterate white man is better than an illiterate negro, but the Republicans and their allies seem to think differently!—Pittsboro Record.

SALE OF VALUABLE TOWN LOTS.

By virtue of the decree, made at September term 1899 of Pitt Superior Court, in the cause of J. T. Bruce against Harry Skinner executor and surviving partner and others.

The undersigned named therein, will expose to public sale before the Court House door in Greenville to the highest bidder for cash, on Monday the 20th of Nov. 1899, the following described property, that is to say the several lots and pieces of land belonging to the late firm of Latham & Skinner embraced in that plat known in the plan of the town of Greenville as West Greenville or Skinnerville.

One lot numbered 3 and fronting on Fourth and Elizabeth streets. This plat of land is divisible into 4 separate lots, it will be offered as a whole and quarter sections.

One lot or parcel of land lying between lots Nos 3 and 4 and the W & W railroad on the east and Fourth street on the north and Fifth street on the south including lot no 5 in said plat.

One lot fronting on Elizabeth and Ward streets and numbered 4 in the plan of that part of said town.

One lot fronting on 4th and Jarvis streets adjoining the lot of J S Congleton and known as lot No. 18 in the plan of that part of the town.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 17.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 21.

One lot fronting on Latham and Fourth streets immediately opposite J S Congleton's residence and known as lot No 20.

One lot fronting on Third street adjoining the land of Davis & Cobb and known as lot No 35.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Third streets and known as lot No 34.

One lot fronting on Jarvis and Fourth streets and known as lot No 33.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Cobb & Davis on west and known as lot No 32.

One lot fronting on Fourth street and adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west. known as lot No 31.

One lot fronting on Ward street adjoining the lands of Davis & Cobb on the west and known as lot No 28.

One lot fronting on Fourth and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 30.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and known as lot No 29.

One lot fronting on Ward and Jarvis streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 25.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and the old Tarboro road and known as lot No 24.

One parcel or lot of land fronting Third street on the North and lying between lot No 1 and the Branch.

One piece or parcel of land commencing on the south side of Third street opposite Jarvis street and running the same course and width of Jarvis street to Tar River adjoining J R Davenport on the east and Elliott Bros on the west, containing one and half acres.

One lot fronting on Third and Latham streets and known as lot No 23.

The above described lots constitutes the most desirable and practically the only residence lots on the market within the corporate limits of Greenville. There are no other building lots within the same distance from the Court House, churches schools and main business street to be purchased.

We call attention to home seekers and investors to this sale. An opportunity for both. A plat of the lots showing their exact location and surroundings can be found at the office of Skinner & Whedbee and Jarvis & Blow. The terms of sale are cash but purchasers pay one third a arrange for deferred payments.

FRANCHISE ASKED FOR.

The Aldermen Believe in Municipal Ownership.

A special meeting of the Board of Aldermen was called Thursday night to hear a proposition from what purported to be the Greenville Electric Co. Mr. J. C. Andrews was present to represent the company and said he had come to ask for the privilege of putting up poles and stringing wires for an electric light plant. He said if the town wanted to use the lights they would rent 25 arc lamps at $60 each per year ($1,500 for lighting the town.)

When the question was asked, Mr. Andrews said his company was not chartered, but that it came only as a business enterprise. He did not disclose who compose the company.

Upon a motion being made the Board of Aldermen voted unanimously not to grant the privilege asked for.

Speaking of the matter after the meeting one of the Aldermen told THE REFLECTOR that the Board was decidedly of the opinion that when Greenville has electric lights the town should own the plant. He said further that the Board did not propose to give away a franchise just for somebody to speculate upon, nor did they want to grant a privilege that would be in the way when the town saw proper to put in a plant of its own.

THE REFLECTOR believes that the Aldermen acted wisely and that their decision will be generally approved by the people of the town.

A Smile in Each.

McELREE'S Wine of Cardui

has demonstrated ten thousand times that it is almost infallible

FOR WOMAN'S PECULIAR WEAKNESSES,

irregularities and derangements. It has become the leading remedy for this class of troubles. It exerts a wonderfully healing, strengthening and soothing influence upon the menstrual organs. It cures "whites" and falling of the womb. It stops flooding and relieves suppressed and painful menstruation. For Change of Life it is the best medicine made. It is beneficial during pregnancy, and helps to bring children into homes barren for years. It invigorates, stimulates, strengthens the whole system. This great remedy is offered to all afflicted women. Why will any woman suffer another minute with certain relief within reach? Wine of Cardui only costs $1.00 per bottle at your drug store.

For advice, in cases requiring special directions, address, giving symptoms, the "Ladies' Advisory Department," The Chattanooga Medicine Co., Chattanooga, Tenn.

Rev. J. W. SMITH, Camden, S. C., says: "My wife used Wine of Cardui at home for falling of the womb and it entirely cured her."
